WEDNESDAY, MAY 22, 1895.

It is reported that at Hastings the bores for an artesian well have struck a 60-foot vein of rock salt.

FARMERS boys in Buffalo county organize themselves into companies and kill gophers at a penny a head.

It is said that Secretary Gresham's illness is thought by some of his friends to be partly due to his excessive smoking.

The Seward Reporter expresses a mild fear that if the epidemic of suicides continues at Omaha there will be nobody left by September to run the State fair.

The heavy frost in New York Monday night of last week destroyed the grape crop, the loss being estimated at $1,500,000 in the belt.

The Chicago administration democrats are about to begin the publication of a democratic daily that will reach the gospel according to St. Grover.

When young Carlisle, accompanied by a number of clerks of the treasury department, leaving for Europe to deliver $30,000,000 in bonds to the English syndicate, the people of the United States will not fail to make note of the occurrence...

The republican party cannot indulge in a straddle on the silver question next year. It must not only declare in favor of bimetalism, but it must define the party's interpretation of the word "bimetalism."

There is no doubt about the bad effects of democratic free trade upon the industries of this country. The total imports of dry goods for the first third of the year 1895 show an increase of twenty-four and a quarter million dollars as compared with the same period of 1894.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND "monkeyed" with the tariff and the country had hard times; he fooled with the silver question and split the democratic party wide open; he dallied with the Delilah of the Hawaiian monarchy and she lost the throne; he jibbered away over civil service reform and it went to the dogs; he tried to demolish Minister Thurston and made him the most popular minister ever sent to this country; he sided with Johnny Bull in the Nicaragua muddle and this nation was disgraced as never before.

The United States is a country of varied productions and climate, and needs not to do business with other countries unless she finds it of advantage to herself. In other words, it is not business to exchange products, unless such exchange is desirable to both parties concerned.

CATHOLIC PROPERTY IN DANGER. Archbishop Kendrick Defendant in a Suit For Millions at St. Louis. St. Louis, May 20.—Prominent Catholic clergy and laymen are plaintiffs in a suit filed in the federal court...

INCOME TAX IS VOID

SUPREME COURT DECLARES IT TO BE UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Justice Harlan and White Were So Emphatic in Their Arrangement of the Majority as to Cause Comment—Appearance of Justice Jackson a Surprise.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The income tax law, which has received so large a share of the public attention since the beginning of the first regular session of the Fifty-third congress, is a thing of the past. After being twice heard in the United States supreme court it was finally decided Monday by the court to be invalid and unconstitutional.

PLAYED AND BURNED ALIVE. Horrible Fate of Three Negroes Who Outraged a White Woman. MADISON, Fla., May 21.—There is no longer any doubt that Sam Echols, Jim Crowley and John Brooks, the negroes who outraged and murdered Miss Jim Marshall Armstrong were flayed and burned.

Rebels Are Sweeping Cuba. SANTIAGO DE CUBA, May 19.—The insurrection grows with tremendous strides. General Martinez Campos has changed his mind about ending the trouble in three months.

For this purpose Gomez and Marti have gone to Puerto Principe, and already some news of encounters between government troops and bands of Cubans formed in anticipation of their return to the province.

CONCLUSIONS OF THE COURT. The conclusions of the court were as follows: 1. We adhere to the opinion already announced that taxes on real estate being indistinguishably direct taxes, taxes on real estate or real estate are really direct taxes.
