superintendents of private and public educational institutions, has been fully justified by the work they have done,

It used to be a practice of corrupt politicians to buy the votes of corrupt electors at so much a head, seeing that that where lady teachers, (eminent for they cast their ballots as desired, before good moral character and teaching abilthe cash was paid down. Since the ity, as in Mrs. Brindley's case), are adoption of the Australian ballot law in selected as county superintendents, they many states, this species of crime against our civil liberties, has become more difficult of operation, by reason of the fact that usually (if officers are true | was born at Freeport, Illinois, Dec. 7, to trust) the corrupt politician has no means of knowing exactly whether the and graduated in Davenport Business corruptible elector has cast his ballot college. according to compact. The way in which such transactions are now effected is for the corrupt office-seeker to promise so much provided he is elected, but we wish to whisper in the ear of the corrupt voter that the corrupt office seeker's promise is nothing worth to you

Vorens, transact this important business of election according to your idea of aublic and private interest and not for ah "in" because he is in, or an "out" keeping the finances straight and everybecause he wants in. The men that thing as it should be. The treasury will move the clouds and the rocks to keep be safe in his hands, and you will not find anybody holding strings over him office or to get office, don't deserve to or the money of the county under his have it. It is all well enough for a man, charge. when he is, by the preference of his fellow-citizens, chosen to represent them in the campaign, to do his best, in a manly, proper way to secure victory to himself and the ticket on which he is placed. This much he owes to his fellow-citizens who think as he does on public policy, but undue desire to hold office, for the sake of the emoluments or for mere personal gain should be rebuked by the voters at the polls. Do your own thinking and do your own voting, without dictation from anybody. If you must have bosses on some lines and think you can't possibly help yourself, don't let it be on election matters. The point we make is that while there is such an excellent citizens' ticket, there is no necessity for voting a ticket composed of mere partisans bonded together for the parceling of the public purse.

The importance of the office of county are devoting all their time and energies to the accumulation of property for their children seldom stop to think that the county court is the medium through which all their accumulations will be dge is too often overlooked. Men who which all their accumulations will be distributed to their heirs at law. Still less frequently do they stop to think of the numerous steps to be taken in the settlement of an estate in order to make such settlement lasting and binding and in order that the title to their property may pass unclouded to their widows and children. In view of the vast interests ren, In view of the vast interests be successful in achieving their indepassing under his administration and the care and accuracy required to settle an estate properly, it is indeed a question whether there is a more important office in the county than that of county is indeed. "They are fighting," said he, "not so much against the Spanish as to throw off the yoke of a government which they regard as oppressive and destructive to their interests."

J. N. Kilian, our candidate for county idge, is well known throughout the bunty. While he is a German by birth he is thoroughly American in his sym-pathics and habits. He is a lawyer by of the careful, painstaking sort, and by birth, but became an American citiwhile he appears in court less frequently than some others, the cases in which he procures settlements and compromises among his countrymen would make quite a docket in themselves. A thoroughly educated lawyer, of sober, careful and painstaking habits, we feel satisfied that if elected he will fill the important office of country index with the satisfied that if elected he will fill the important office of country index with the satisfied with his latter water than the satisfied that if elected he will fill the important office of country index with the satisfied with his latter water built upon a government lot, for which he paid them rental. CORRUPT SYSTEM OF TAXATION Illinois Bureau of Labor Statistics Makes

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., Sept. 24.—The most sensational report ever issued by a state bureau was made public by the bureau of labor statistics. It charges that the great majority of the wealthy taxpayers of Illinois and more especially of Chicago, are perjurers. That the assessors are guilty of malfeasance in office; that the present financial condition of Chicago is directly traceable to the corrupt system of taxation, and that the deplorable condition of work is due to the liberty-destroying methods of taxation which prevails in Illinois.

this matter, we might soon have a li-beary and it would be of great benefit to the public and would help the repu-tation and tone of our town as well. The opening of a public library is an auspicious event in the history of any auspicious event in the history of any city. A higher education is an excellent thing, but the better part of our education, we give ourselves. A library furnishes means and opportunities for this. Since reading is the key that reveals to us the whole world of thought and imagination, we should not full to establish in our midst an institution second, only, to the public school.
