This week it is "Dan." Next week 'twill be "Dave."

The "mongrels" are leading the thoroughbreds in this race—sure.

We want good roads around this city—vote for Wiggins and Lisco.

Twenty-two inches of snow on the level in one day last week in New York was an unusual record.

Mrs. Brindley is making a clean campaign for the office of county superintendent and is gaining in popularity every day.

Says Gus to Dan: "What are the wild waves saying?"—(Argus).

Moral insanity perhaps.—(Monroe Looking Glass).

All Nat. Small's old friends will be glad to know that he resumes his former place as editor and proprietor of the Fremont Herald.

Ex-Senator VanWyck was stricken Monday afternoon of last week with apoplexy. Wednesday, he was reported as improving. He died on Thursday.

Diphtheria and typhoid fever are epidemic at Chicago and the board of health has ordered that the water used for drinking and culinary purposes be boiled.

The present superintendent has terrorized the teachers in Platte county long enough. We note a change from self-esteem to ability. Vote for Mrs. Brindley.

SOME day, perhaps, it will be known how and why so many prisoners have escaped from Platte county's jail. The people are asking a good many hard questions concerning this matter.

SENATOR CULLOM hits the sentiment of the country pretty fairly when he says: "I don't believe in jingoism or in democracy in any form."—But the Monroe doctrine is a sound doctrine.

The Telegram's article in last week's paper about Mrs. Brindley is simply campaign trash; however it seems to show that Bothleitner and Col. Parks are thinking she will be elected, which is true. Why not talk a little of real merit, Bro. Parks?

The "rag-tags and bob-tails" as the Telegram calls the supporting voters of the citizens' ticket, are feeling jubilant over the situation. The democratic silver-heels might as well be added to the "rag-tags and bob-tails." You haven't yet got the key to the combination, and even this last hint will not be enough to give it to you.

The Telegram editor has certainly not learned the key to the combination. He is strenuously telling the democracy of Platte county to support Hollenbeck and Sullivan, and certainly the republicans of Platte county are under no obligations to vote for either of them, especially as against such men as Marshall and Patterson.

THE TRUMP OF DOOM.

November 5, will settle the question in Platte county. The volume of votes is such that the three chief candidates of the "bosses" ticket are utterly astounded. The others are so far behind in the race that they are not even in sight.

DAVID A. HALE. The importance of the office of county judge is too often overlooked. Men who are devoting all their time and energies to the acquisition of property for their children seldom stop to think that the county court is the medium through which all their accumulations will be distributed to their heirs at law. Still less frequently do they stop to think of the numerous steps to be taken in the settlement of an estate in order to make such settlement lasting and binding and in order that the title to their property may pass unclouded to their widows and children. In view of the vast interests at stake, the care and accuracy required to settle an estate properly, it is indeed a question whether there is a more important office in the county than that of county judge.

A NIGHT SCENE. "WEICHERD AND BARNHARTZ WANTED TO FEEL THE PULSE OF THE COUNTY." SATAN BOODLES THE COURTHOUSE.

The "Bosses" are awakened up the night before election. The stars are falling in every direction. Satan is to pay generally and no pitch hot. The "visions" are too horrid for anything beyond a passing glance.

Keep It Before the People. The democratic party should champion none but friends of the people and honest men for office. Hans Elliott is an record as voting against extending the farmers' time of payment on their taxes, which means that if they pay their taxes now they must sell out at 10 and 12 cents. Can you afford to vote for such a farmer's friend?—[Humphrey Democrat.]

They will now assert their independence.

Marshall and Patterson. The Sixth judicial district is composed of the counties of Dodge, Colfax, Platte, Merrick and Nance. In their nominations of candidates for this district the republicans displayed excellent judgment in naming Judge Marshall at one end of the district and John Patterson, of Merrick county, from the other. It will make it very convenient for the holding of the terms of court. The gentlemen who were named by the coalition at Columbus are as able and strong men as could possibly have been named. The record of Judge Wm. Marshall, of Fremont, is familiar to all readers of the Sun. His splendid record as prosecuting attorney for this district brought him forward as the best available candidate for district judge when the law relating to state prosecution was changed. Although running in a democratic district he was easily elected on the strength of his work. No one who has the high estimation diminished in which he has been held. In fact it has been increased. The fairness of his rulings and the soundness of his decisions have placed him alongside the ablest judges of the state and the feeling that no more suitable candidate could be found this year was exemplified in the unanimous nomination which was accorded the Judge at Columbus.

Mr. C. A. Brindley. Mrs. Brindley is making a popular candidate. She is not neglecting her business of teaching school to electioneer, but is keeping right along with her regular work. It is not necessary for her to tell any stories either—her life in Platte county since her early youth tells what no mere campaign talk for effect can do in the way of convincing fair-minded people of her ability to conduct the affairs of the office of superintendent of schools of Platte county.
