Voters to Kavanaugh, (10 years in the sheriff's office), and to Spoiee (12 years in the district clerk's office) "break away from the public crib."

Today and tomorrow at David City the state convention of the W. S. A. will be held. Mrs. Gen. Colby, a distinguished lady, is one of the speakers.

B. E. McIntyre returned Thursday from a trip as far south as Kentucky. He says that Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky are suffering greatly from drouth.

C. C. Carrig, the citizens' candidate for treasurer, authorizes THE JOURNAL to say that the interest on the public money must go into the public treasury.

Monday evening a number of boys and girls gave Miss Ida Eggar a surprise party in honor of her thirteenth birthday. They had a very enjoyable time.

The meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was well attended Sunday and Rev. Sawyers of Omaha gave a good talk which was well received. J. T. Clark will lead next Sunday at 3 p. m.

TEN YEARS, TWELVE YEARS, OUT.

The teachers of Platte county are sadly in need of some one to whom they can go for counsel and practical advice in school matters. Vote for Mrs. Brindley.

Bocher, Jaeggi & Co. insure buildings and personal property against fire, lightning and cyclones, in good and reliable companies at lowest current rates. 11

Bert Arnold was in town Friday. He has a position with the Security Mutual Life Insurance Co., a Nebraska enterprise with headquarters at Fremont.

Mr. Gardner of Cherry county was in the city Thursday looking for young cattle to take to that part of the state, which, he says, is well adapted to stock raising.

As an irrigation ditch would be to this part of the Platte valley something of what the overflow of the Nile is to Egypt, why not all turn in and lend a helping hand?

Talk about chairs! We never bought half so many as this year. We bought them before the rains. We give our customers the benefit. Herrick for headquarters for picture frames. 31

The program of the Platte county teachers' association at the meeting held in the High school room Saturday, was carried out as published except the first number. The evening session was not held.

Said a prominent citizen and an old line democrat on our streets the other day: "I have voted the straight democratic ticket all my life but I have had enough; henceforth I will vote with republicans."

Red Seal and Columbus are the leading brands of flour.

J. Garlow has been very sick for several days. On last Friday he had a tonsil removed that had caused him considerable trouble, since which he has been threatened with diphtheria, but was reported better yesterday.

Nov. 3, Methodist church, John E. Moore, pastor; class meeting 10 a. m., preaching 10:45, subject, Christ our model. Sunday school, 12 m.; Junior league 4 p. m.; Ep. league, 6:30; preaching, 7:30 subject, The one thing needful.

Mr. and Mrs. William Welch, living near Genoa, lost their youngest child, about a year old, the burial taking place yesterday. Friends from here went to the funeral. All will sympathize with the parents in their bereavement.

Orange juice complexion soap 10 cents a box of 3 cakes, at Stillman's drug store. See our window.

Robert McVicker, well known to many JOURNAL readers, died recently at North Bend. His will, admitted to probate last Wednesday, leaves all his property to his children. The will was made May 6, '98, before his last marriage.

The Humphrey Democrat expresses a very general belief among thinking men of that party when it says: "The salvation of the democratic party in Platte county depends on the party purging itself of Spoiee and Kavanaugh."

A vote for the citizens' ticket is a vote to clean out the court house. If you are in favor of a change in the management of the court house, place an X opposite the names of the candidates on the citizens' ticket. [Monroe Republican.]

In another place in today's JOURNAL we print a plain statement of the record in the Leigh case, which has been put into certain papers in such a light as to raise a prejudice against Judge Marshall, when the truth is just the contrary of what is represented.

Mar Rothlighter and his man Friday are circulating the report that Rothlighter will get every vote in Biarmark township. The vote of Biarmark is not carried around in any man's pocket. The voters of that township are intelligent American citizens and will certainly do their own voting. They appreciate the difference between brains and wind. Mrs. Brindley will get a good vote in Biarmark township notwithstanding Mar's wacky statement.

Citizens' Meetings.

Meetings will be held as follows this week in the interest of the citizens' ticket. The public is cordially invited to attend these meetings:

Tuesday evening, Creton.

Wednesday evening, Lindsay.

Thursday evening, Okay.

Friday evening, Sherman.

Saturday evening, Platte Center.

Monday evening, Nov. 4, at Humphrey. Good speakers will be in attendance.

Miss Lillie, daughter of John S. Robinson of Cedar Rapids, passed through the city Thursday bound for Jamaica. Upon her arrival at the West Indian she expects to be married to Charles M. Perrin, who is there engaged in missionary work.

When the Platte county teachers met at the High school last Saturday it was noticed that the lady teachers outnumbered the men four to one. The education of our children is and should be mostly in the hands of women. Vote for Mrs. Brindley for county superintendent.

A. E. Anderson, cashier of the defunct State bank of Genoa, was placed under arrest last Wednesday on two complaints charging him with having accepted money on deposit after he knew the bank was insolvent. He was bound over to the district court under bonds of $2,000.

Grace Episcopal church, Sunday, Nov. 3, 11 morning prayer and holy communion (communicants reminded), sermon, "The Healing of the Nobleman's Son." 7:30, evening prayer. Choral service with solo by Mrs. Chambers and special music. Sermon, "The Fading Leaf." All invited.

Mr. Rothlighter has never taken a very prominent part in institute work. He has relied, almost entirely upon his assistants. The head of the schools of Platte county should be competent to direct and advise his assistants. Vote for Mrs. Brindley, and you will place the right person in the right place.

The ax has been lying at the foot of the tree for a long time, but now it has been sharpened, and the brawny arms of earnest workers are taking turns in applying it to the roots of the tree. Come down, Dan; come down, Gus; come down, Hans; the rest can fall down, after you, at their leisure.

This is the last issue of THE JOURNAL before election, unless we may be called upon to nail to the counter some campaign lies that it is surmised the enemy is thinking of promulgating on the eve of election. Make up your mind, now, and don't be deceived by these late-coming, manufactured-to-order yarns.

Frank Taylor returned Wednesday last from his sojourn in England, where he went some nine months ago, expecting to be absent a few weeks only. The business which called him over, detained him nearly four times as long as he calculated upon. Frank says that business in England is better than in this country.

Jonas Welch is credited with saying that the sprinkling of laws in the city is such a public benefit that no change should be made to lawn owners for the use of city water. This kind of a way of looking at things, applied to the affairs of this superior district, would very certainly not be to the public interest, but rather otherwise.

Fred Jewell is not only a practical farmer but he is, besides, a successful clerk of the district court. No one need have the least misgiving as to the ability of Mr. Jewell to fill the place for which he is running. He will make an excellent clerk of the court.

The following paragraph from the Lincoln Journal of the 24th will be gratifying news to the many friends of Mrs. McMahon of this city. The cases were tried in the district court, Lancaster county: "The jury in the cases of Mary McMahon against the Eagle Life Insurance association and the Red Men's Fraternal Accident association returned verdicts for the plaintiff for $8,361.08 in the first case and $5,001.90 in the second. In both cases Judge Hall instructed the jury to bring in a verdict for the plaintiff."

Rev. Dr. O. A. Elliott moves to Lincoln Thursday, having received a call from the Third Presbyterian church of that city. Mr. Elliott has been here the past four years, and is an able, conscientious minister. THE JOURNAL, with his many friends, expresses regret for his departure, and bespeaks for him the kindest consideration of those with whom he now casts his lot.

Ratterman, the candidate for county judge on the democratic bosses' ticket, is, we understand, misrepresenting himself in certain portions of the county, trying to curry favor by falsely representing himself as belonging to a certain nationality, and also working the religious racket. These things are not becoming in a man who aspires to be a judge—of any description whatever.

C. F. O. Messler, who lately moved to the city with his family, has entered into partnership with Dr. Voss. Mr. Messler is a brother of Rev. Messler of this city and has come to stay and "grow up with the country." He is a graduate of the Chicago Homeopathic college, and has, besides, taken a regular course in surgery. He has had fifteen years' experience as a practicing physician, and comes very highly recommended.

The young people of the High school have organized themselves into a history club for the purpose of taking up the study of history in a systematic way. The club was organized at the residence of Jene Wilson Friday evening. Gordon Cross was elected president and Florence Elliott secretary. Twenty persons were present at the first meeting and more are expected to join. Meetings will be held every Friday evening at the residence of one of the members. The next meeting will be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Cross.

In the excitement of the campaign do not lose sight of the fact that H. G. Cross is a candidate for justice of the peace on the citizens' ticket. Mr. Cross is in all respects an exemplary business man, honest, conscientious, sober and industrious. He has lived in the state of Nebraska for eighteen years, has always been identified with every movement for the benefit of the state. He has held the office of justice of the peace for a number of years at Inman, Holt county, Neb. He is a republican in politics, and the nomination, sought for by him, was tendered because of his personal worth. It is competency in office we are asking for, these days, so don't forget to give your hearty support to H. G. Cross as one of the justices of the peace.

The cohorts of the ring bosses are trying to create prejudice in the minds of voters not posted in such matters that because the word "citizens" as a name for the combined ticket will not appear on the printed ballot that therefore it is a "fake." Let none be deceived. Get a sample ballot before the day of election, (every voter is entitled to that), make a study of it; if in any respect you don't understand it, ask one of your good neighbors to explain the little intricacies of the Australian ballot law, and tell you just how to do your voting—we mean the mechanism of it. Put your X opposite the name you wish to vote for, and no other; don't make an X opposite two names, but where you are entitled to vote for two, (as for district judges), put your X opposite each of the two names.

Don't be unmindful of the fact that your local ticket is of the first importance. To effect anything in the line of improvement in running all the affairs of Platte county, it is necessary to supplant "boss" with "servants" of the people. Those Jefferson, the great apostle of democracy, who preached "equal and exact justice to all men," and whose ringing sentiments in the declaration of independence are and will be for all time the watch-word of liberty-loving people, said that "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," and so it is here, in Platte county, just as it was in revolutionary times. Republicans, populists and many democrats have joined hands in Platte county to secure at this election a "government (or management) of the people, by the people, for the people." Vote the combined ticket first and last.

MARRIED.

MERZEL—MARTZ—October 23, at the residence of the bride's mother, William Meedel and Miss Mary Martz. A large crowd of friends were in attendance at the festivities.

Fine job work done at THE JOURNAL office.

One evening last week Mrs. Rev. Elliott was happily surprised by thirty of her mission band, who came to the parsonage full of gloe, bearing with them plenty of refreshments. Besides the affectionate words were spoken both by them and Mrs. E. in reference to the pleasant and gracious work in which they had been so pleasantly associated.

A number of members of Union Camp No. 10, V. V., went over to Bellwood Saturday night to attend meeting of Camp No. 10. They met a right royal reception by the Bellwood camp, and all who went enjoyed themselves in such a manner that they will look forward with pleasure to the time when they can again go to inspection of Camp No. 10. Col. F. E. Way of Wahoo, the inspecting officer, was much pleased with the work the boys did. He returned to Columbus with the boys from our camp, and thence home. Col. Way and E. H. Jenkins took the degree of Honor and now consider themselves as good Sons as any in the division. Sargent Galley and Brother Bonton of Camp No. 10 were advanced one degree and the good work moves on.

As to irrigating ditches, George Lawrence says that the Newton ditch in Loup county, fifteen miles in length, was constructed entirely by fourteen farmers, beginning their work Dec. 4, 1894, and on June 4, 1895, the water was turned on. Everything was done without help, and they were new settlers who had lost the crops two seasons by reason of dry weather, and were not nearly so able to do for themselves as the farmers of this section are. He has left with us an estimate of the cost of a canal here, thirty miles in length, on just such a basis of operation as the Newton ditch, and there absolutely seems to be no good reason why the land owners here can not construct, own and operate their own ditch or main, just the same as they would the laterals.

This (Wednesday) afternoon and evening, the second convention of the Columbus Sunday School Union will be held at the Congregational church, beginning at 2:30. The program has been very generally circulated throughout the city. The sessions promise to be very interesting to those engaged in Sunday school work. The out-of-town folks on the program are Mr. Talbitzer on "The Relation of the Sunday School to the Church;" Rev. Churchill on "The Duties and Responsibilities of Parents towards the Sunday School;" Rev. Shuman on "How to teach Children in the Sunday School;" Elder Hudson will speak of "Benedictines of Sunday School Work in Columbus;" Rev. Moore, "The Religious Training of Children in the Jewish and Early Christian Churches;" Mrs. Armstrong, "How to Train Children in the Home;" Rev. Rogers will give the chalk talk; the soloists are Mrs. Warren, Miss Zyrnecker, Miss Ricksy and Miss Mary Turner.

Dr. Fiola, Switzerland's ambassador to the United States spent a pleasant twenty-four hours here last week, arriving at 6 o'clock on Wednesday and departing at 8 o'clock Thursday evening. He was the guest, while here, of Leopold Jaeggi. The ambassador is making a trip in the interest of the immigration bureau of Bern, and has been very kindly received wherever he has been. In Chicago there were 15,000 people in attendance at the reception given him. Here, a reception was held, Rev. De Geller making a reception speech and the ambassador responding. He spoke briefly alluding to Switzerland as a small country on the map of the world, but a considerable one in the history of civil liberty, a powerful nation in its moral worth, and the oldest republic on earth. The ambassador went from here to Denver; he expected to visit New Mexico, California, Oregon, the north-west, then St. Paul, Chicago and back again to Washington. He is said to be a very kindly gentleman, thoroughly versed in public affairs.
