Canzaras's mission was not merely to destroy; he shattered error in order that the clogged fountain of truth might once more gush forth. Before eyes long dimmed with gazing on insincerity, he would hold up shining patterns of sin-cerity; souls groping for guidance, he would stay and comfort by precedents of strength; hearts pursuing false idols, he would chasten by examples of truth. Men talked—and nowhere more dogmat-ically than in the churches—as if God, after having imparted his behasts to a few Hebrews ages ago, had retired into some remote empyrean, and busied him-self no more with the affairs of men. acclamation the republican house caucus named Tom Reed for speaker. He is a great big-brained, big-hearted American boy-man and statesman and would make a splendid president of these United States. At Washington, it seems won-derful what unanimity there is now as derful what unanimity there is now as to the very effective means Reed took when he was speaker before to put a stop to filibustering and to enforce busi-ness methods during the proceedings of the house. Notwithstanding the denun-ciation then of the democrats, the rules then so vigorously denounced by them, have been in peaceful operation since, under two democratic congresses.

Facts to Remember.

The deficit in the United States treas ury for the first 20 days of October was $11,272,694.70. For the fiscal year, since July came in $21,157,352.91.

For the term of President Clevelan since March 4, 1893, $133,765,836.57. That is, our expense litures have exce ed our receipts by that much.

Now the man who wants to continu this memorable policy, in the future should vote the democratic ticket. --[Helmet, Miami, Ohio.

The twenty-two republican representatives from the south are determined to have a share in the distribution of the positions in the house, and that is correct. Recognition of rights is due to all members of an organization. Let just principles be applied to minorities. The truth is that government of the "pop-ular" variety should be conducted as a
