ATTHE MECCA OF PATRIOTISM

e | that it was hoped the fraud would es-

Canton, O., Oct. 17, 1896.-Cauton, the home of William McKinley, has seen many marvelous events in this campaign, but none which equaled that of today. More men and women, more special trains, more delegations, more assurances of loyalty to national honor, more addresses and more responses by Maj. McKinley than on any previous day, were the record of this seventeenth day of October, 1896. From morning until night the number of special trains, the shouts and cheers of delegations, the music of bands, the glitter of uniforms and the addresses of spokesmen and re-sponses of Maj. McKinley were heard. Nearly 500 cars brought perhaps 30,000 people from nearly half the states of the union. Mr. McKinley, who left his home carly McKinley than on any previous day,

Mr. McKinley, who left his home carly for a short walk in the crisp October air, found an anxious throng at his resi-dence on his return, and from that moment until long after darkness he was the center of attraction, the recipient of honors innumerable and the dispenser of patriotic sentiments which were received with marks of the highest approval by the thousands who heard them.

MARYLAND'S FIVE BATTALIONS.

They Plodge that State to the Party of Honest Money and Protection.

The Maryland delegation, consisting of five battalions, a total of 3000 men, were the first to get attention. To them Maj. McKinley said:

"Nothing has given me, in all this campaign, so much pleasure and satis-

	"We have just pride in our glorious n	cord in favor of free speech, free soil,
fr	ve press, free men and free conscience,
6	at I believe that the great majority of our
e	autrymen are neither in favor of free
tr	ade, free silver or free lawlessness, nor 0	cheating people in the sacred name of
ĵ,	adom."-MAJ. MOKINLEY TO COM-
м	ERCIAL TRAVELERS, OCT. 17th, 1896.

faction as to feel that the wage-carners of this country are for the most part enlisted in the cause for which we stand. (Prolonged cheering.) I know something of the workingmen of the United States. I know something of the potters. (Great applause from the potters.) I know something of the wage-earners in the great cotton and woolen mills, and that all they want is an opportunity to work; and to secure this all they ask is protection against the products of other lands, made by underpaid labor. (Great applause.) "This, my fellow citizens, you can reg-ulate by your own ballots. Petitions, as one of your spokesmen has already said. "In dispensable to the pros crity and " "In his celebrated joint debate with "In his celebrated joint debate with "In his celebrated joint debate with Horace Greeley, in 1840, Mr. Tilden said: ican Congress count for nothing. The MCKINLEY TO MICHIGAN FARMERS, $ 'An unstable currency produces instabiltime when the citizen's voice counts ity of prices and is peculiarly injurious most is on that supreme day-the elec-ФОст. 17th, 1896. to the farmer. He ought not to be subtion day. What you want to do is to ject to the tremendous agency of an un-seen cause, which may disappoint his wisest calculations and overwhelm bim elect a Congress that represents your views; then you won't need to resort to petitions to regulate them, or to keep business, and above all, the absence of in constant ruin, but he ought to be sethem from injuring your industries. Let confidence. Shall these commercial men the voice of Maryland this year cured in the tranquillity of his fireside now embark in the vastly more disasfrom the curse of an unstable and consound as the voice of Maryland did last trous and destructive policy of free sil-ver, which is the party shibboleth, not flicting currency.' (Great applayse.) year (enthusiastic cheering and cries of "These were wise and hone" words We will') for honest money and protecof honor but of dishonor? tion. The tariff question is a question then; they are true and honest words "A great many people find peculiar pleasure in the word 'free.' It is a now, and commend themselves to the whoily of labor. We will manufacture with the world. grand, glorious word when properly ap-plied. I do not know what you may if the rest of the world will pay as good wages as we are paid in the United think about it, but I do not believe in de-"I submit to you, men of toil, all States; but as long as it does not, patristroying either the business, the propotism, genuine Americanism, and every around and about me, who is the better erty, or the credit of this country under industrial interest demands that we the cry of free silver. (Tremendous friend of labor, he who gives you work should make our tariff high enough to cheers and cries of 'Never, never.') We measure the difference between the low that brings contentment, or he who have just pride in our glorious record in cost of labor in foreign countries and breathes only words that create disconfavor of free speech, free soil, free press, the cost of labor in this. (Cheers.) tent f There cannot be, there ought never free men and free conscience, but I be-"Then, you are interested in honest lieve that the great majority of our counto be, any enmity between labor and You don't want any short dolmoney. trymen are neither in favor of free trade, lars. You have tried short hours in the free silver, or free lawlessness (great apcapital. The interest of the one is the last four years, and haven't liked them. plause), nor of cheating people in the (Laughter and applause and cries of 'You bet we don't.') When you give a interest of the other."-MAJ. MCKINLEY sacred name of freedom. TO OHIG WORKINGMEN OCT. 17th, 1896. "The question of honest money against full day's work to your employer you free and irredeemable paper money, both unlimited and both unsound, has been  want to be paid in full, unquestioned and unalterable dollars. (Great apso thoroughly argued that I do not wish plause.) This is the kind of money we careful consideration of every citizen in have now. And the kind we propose to continue if the American people sustain to occupy your time in discussing it. Suffice it to say that no valid or suffithe land, who, if he would be spared further distress, should allow this councient reason has yet been given, or can be given, for the United States adopting us this year." sel t guide him at the approaching national election. either. Some things are so plain, some "Another issue, my fellow citizens, in this campaign is the tariff. (Applause. things are so clear and distinct, some THE FARMERS ATTEST LOYALTY hings are so palpable and self-evident That is to say, whether we shall taise Assurances that They Are for Sound that, like day and night, every man must sufficient revenue to pay the current ex-Money and Sound Principles. sooner or later recognize them. If hupenses of the government instead of borman experience has proved anything, it One of the earliest parties was made rowing money for that purpose, and whether we shall do our work at home is that no nation was ever benefited by up of farmers from Monroe county, Mich., to whom Maj. McKinley saids poor money or injured by good money. or have it done abroad. (Great applause and cries of 'Good, good.') Shall we "I have never believed, as some peo-ple have been saying, that there was and that no man ever suffered from be ing bonest, and no man ever profited by place duties high enough on foreign goods to protect our labor against the ALS being dishonest. (Great cheers.) Good. ever any danger about the state of Michhonest dollars hurt nobody. If we have igan. There has never been a moment cheaper labor of the Old World, and when I had the slightest doubt about not as much good money as we ought to build up the magnificent industries of where the electoral vote of your glorihave, let us get more, and we will get the United States? ous state would go in the presidential contest of 1896. No state in the Union more whenever the country requires it. "I do not know, my fellow citizens, when it will be possible to bring back But we will not get it as long as we are the prices of 1892; that is only conjecturis more deeply interested in the genuine proposing to adopt the financial policy of American policy that will protect your China or Mexico. Give business confi-The only way I see toward accomdence a chauce to be restored. Start our property, your interests, your labor, your plishing that is to restore the great namills, factories, mines, quarries; restore mines, the products of your forests, from tional policy, which your own citizen, good prices, good home markets for our Henry Clay, so well maintained; a policy that would encourage and promote undue competition than the state of Michigan. (Applause.) And there is farmers, good wages for our workingno state that is more deeply interested in having a protective policy than the state of Michigan. (Applause.) men, and then, if the law of supply and American development, build up Ameri-can industries and employ American demand requires it, coin in honest dollars. All the good, 100-cent honest dollabor. (Applause.) lars will speedily come for the uses of There is one thing that the Repub-"It pleased me to hear the generous ican party is dedicated to, and that is to the people. words of your venerable lieutenant govabor first; then to law and order. These ernor. I was glad to hear those splendid sentences filled with patriotism, which must have thrilled every heart, from your are indispensable to the welfare of man-STUDENTS AND TEACHERS. German editor, and my comrade who puts the flag of his country and the in-Representatives of Colleges Pay Their Respects. terest of his country above that of any A large delegation of students and political organization. (Tremendous professors of the Ohio Wesleyan univercheering.) "This is the hour and the era for th sity, the Ohio Medical university and exhibition of the highest patriotism. We others were the next callers. Maj. Mc-Kinley said in response to their greethave put the past behind us. We know no North, no South, no East, no West, ing: but a perpetual Union of indestructible states. (Enthusiastic applause and cries of 'Hurrah for McKinley.') I welcome the men of the South as allies in this "If there was anything needed to dispel that false and dangerous doctrine which some people are now teaching, it is dispelled here today-a doctrine that would array class against class and one great conflict for national honor. Let us enter upon the free and unlimited coin-age of silver would be to commit this country to silver alone and deprive us of the free and unlimited coin-we have had on these grounds today men from more than a dozen statesgive notice to all the world that there are longer any sectional lines to divide us (great applause) and that we have but one flag-the glorious stars and stripes the gold we have. Instead of increasing | wage-earners, miners, millworkers, farm-(great cheering), the same our grandsires bore upon many a field. When we stand for that flag we stand by all that it One Day's Record at Canton. represents, by national integrity, financial honor, the supremacy of government by law, and the sacredness of the federal judiciary, which is our anchor of safety in every hour of trouble. (Great ap-plause and cries of 'McKinley is all right.')"

M. K. TURNER & CO., and thoroughly well informed as to the COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS.

Large Delegations from Ohio and Other States Greet Maj. Mckinley.

Another large and interesting delegation was made up of commercial travel-ers, mostly from Ohio and adjoining states. They were addressed by Mr. McKinley as follows:

"You have discovered in the last four years that it is a good deal safer to consult markets than maxims. You have discovered that prices current and actual experience in trade and commerce are a better guide to business prosperity than anything you can find in the text books. Your coming together, Democrats and Republicans (a voice: 'No Democrats in this crowd')—well, once Democrats, but now preferring country to party. Com-ing together as you have is an act of sterling patriotism hitherto almost un-known in American politics, and pro-moted only by considerations of the pub-lic good. But these are characteristic traits of the business and commercial men of the country. experience in trade and commerce are a men of the country. "I do not attribute your call to any per-sonal concern for my success. You look beyond the candidate to the great princi-ples he represents, and upon that ground and in that spirit you are here today; and in the same spirit I address you now. No people in the country can be more interested in the result of the alonmore interested in the result of the elec-

SINGLE DAY AT THE HOME OF THE NATION'S CANDIDATE.

Democrats Vie with Republicans in Honors to William McKinley.

ers, professional men, commercial trav-elers, old folks and young folks, college-bred men and men of every profession and walk in life. This great day dem-onstrates that this is a hation not of class but of equal and honorable citizen-ship under one constitution and govern-ment. (Prolonged cheering.)

ment. (Prolonged cheering.) "I am glad to know that the students of the universities are enrolled in our ranks. Every newspaper of the coun-try, East and West, tells us that is the great colleges of the East, as which in the great colleges of the West, which is and pupils have enlisted under the m-ner of the Republican party in prover numbers than they have ever done is fore. (Great applause.) They stand this year for country and coascience. They stand for public honor and morals and supremacy of law. We will settle for all time this year that this is a government by law and a government that rests upon laws made by its own free and equal citizens." (Great ap-plause and cries of "Good, good.")

DEMOCRATS AND REPUBLICANS.

Citizens of Kentucky Join in Support of McKinley and Hones: Money.

A large delegation from Kentucky, composed of both Republicans and sound money Democrats, was one of the most demonstrative in honoring the Repub-lican candidate. To them Mr. McKinley said more interested in the result of the elec-tion two weeks from next Tuesday than the commercial men of the United States. (Applause.) What you want is business, and you have discovered that you cannot sell if there is nobody to buy. You have suffered greatly the last three years under the withering touch of par-tial free trade, and the instability of "There is one thing that the Republican party is dedicated to, and that is to labor first, then to law and order. These are indispensable to the wel/are of mankind and indispensable to the prost enits and the pro lying around that standard are men of all parties, all races, all sections, all creeds. The white man, the black man, the wage-carner and the employer, the pro-fessional man and the business man, all have united and stand upon a common platform, which platform is for our coun-try and its honor. (Great applause and cries of 'Good!') I have heard from your spokesman today that West Virginia's electoral vote this year will be for the Republican teket. (Cries of 'Right you are.') This assurance gratifies my heart. are.') This assurance gratifies my heart. (A V ice-Mine, too, followed by tre-mendous cheering.) It gratifies the heart of every lover of his country."

OHIO WORKINGMEN.

Laboring Men from All Parts of the State Are Greeted.

SHOUTING THOUSANDS THRONG THE STREETS OF CANTON.

Syn " Chicago en route. All classes of m gin to realize how great is our country. Can it be possible that such a magnifi-Can it be possible that such a magnifi-cent commonwealth will ever lend her influence to free silver, free trade, dis-honor and partial or entire repudiation? ('No, no, never.') No, I say, forever no. What the people of this country want, whether they dwell in Michigan or Ten-nessee or Ohio, is a policy that will pro-tect and defend every American inter-est against the outside world, from any quarter. What we want is a tariff put quarter. What we want is a tariff put upon foreign goods high enough to not only give us revenue enough to run the government, but to afford adequate pro-tection to every American industry and occupation. This is the policy of the Republican party.

"What we want is to restore a policy that will enable us to pay as we go, both government and people. We have not been doing that for four years past. No delegation was more cordially wel-comed than that made up of railroad men, dock men, farmers and miners from Ohio, to whom Mai, McKinley said procity and the maintenance everywhere of public order, tranquillity and the supremacy of law."

Bryan (to depot agent)-Where are all the folks?

Depot Agent-All gone to Canton. -Louisville Times.

ate fol·

tinites and tres a date so bid san that the

Hi

CO

D

Dr

AL

"There is one thing that can be said about the Republican party—it does not teach the doctrines of hate and prejudice, but teaches the gospel of peace, good will, and fraternity between the employer and employe

"The man who would array the poor of the West :

lcKn eches he ve HE E cong interests adito reads upt. 1 thorps an. F idges would at-Le rest D cond ird 1

fth D r Col

r Flos

Cour

Bape

LIES

JOOL

II-S art fa

LAKE te foi

hat I ter fr

N & PC

cago a ba rent Vith

n we nt. ges. s Indi m a la

orter, cou ge the

THE B NEST 1 BY BO

ADER d for, $23,5 ht hav loymen ake on world.

na pay t may beed t he el ds to for e ERE I ing to tment lo re this in be int of them z Revis shes article rn Qu h poin y of 1

orn Og e," is stive; able sy /bat sh press

E Bryat in talk eward | ree co y and y who that fo y share r for, t r thei ta. Pr ecipro

v the fri

the co

for re-It log ay appr suit. T nois are Col. W. nor Alt d-school ag leads will be gold by democr out the kind and indispensable to the prosperity and the permanency of the republic. I am glad to know from your spokesman that you believe not only in a protective tariff, but that you believe in honest money. (Great cheering.) When you do your work, whether it be on your farm or in the factory, or in the mine, you want to receive in payment dollars that are good every month and everywhere in every part of the civilized world. That's the kind of money we have now, and we have more of it than we ever had in our history before. To enter upon the free and unlimited coin-a and Bryanism. Chairman Wil- dency of the populist press and sneak. re-election upon his excellent adminis. "cheap" foreign goods that

Michigan Sends 2,000
West Virginia sends 2,500	Caturday
Maryland sends	Jaturuay,
Kentucky sends 4,000	October 17th,
Ohio sends	1896
Other States send 20,000	-

CROWDS FROM WEST VIRGINIA.

Colored Voters Are Represented in the Dhio, to whom Maj. McKinley said: "There is a studied effort made in some quarters of this country to teach that the employer of labor is attempting to enslave the workingman. I submit to you men of toil all around and about me, who is the better friend of labor, he who gives you work that brings contentment, or he who breathes only words that create discontent? There cannot be, there ought never to be, any enmity between labor and capital. The interest of the one is the interest of the other. "You know that the greatest friend of slavery is idleness. They talk about making the workingmen slaves. There is no danger of a workingman ever becoming a slave if he receives American wages, the wages that he had for thirty years, from 1860 to 1890, under the glorious policy of a protective tariff. The best friend to labor, the best policy in the interest of labor, is that policy which gives workingmen an opportunity to work at good wages. Which policy do you think subserves that interest best? Our policy of protection or their policy of free trade? (Tromendous shouts, Ours!' and 'McKinley's policy!') 'Ours!

"This great audience fairly represents the diversified industries of the United States. On the one side of me are men who manufacture: on the other side are men who handle iron ore. and in front are men who dig our coal. One is dependent on the other, and here in this audience, too, are representatives of the railroads of the country, which transport not only raw material, but the finished product, from one end of this country to the other. The one is never prosper-ous unless the other is prosperous. You "Protection, honest money, public morals, recivrocity, the national honor. the public credit-all are emblazoned on the banner of Kepublicaniam this year, and rallying around that standard are men of all parties, all races. all sections. all creeds; the white man, the black man, the wage-earner, the employer, the pro-fessional man and the business man."-MAJ. MCKINLEY TO COLORED VOTERS, Ост. 17th. 1896.

know that from experience. There is not a handler of ore at the Ashtabula harbor who does not know that when the great ore and steel'industries of this ountry are stopped he has nothing to do. There is not a coal miner from Perry county who does not know that when the fires are extinguished in our furnaces there is no demand for him. Now, the Republican party is universal. It ap-plies to every industry from the man who digs the coal, which they call the raw material—if they just tried digging it for a time, however, they would find it was not so very raw-from the man who mines the ore in Michigan and Minnesota to the man who handles it at our great ports, and to the final finished product, the Republican policy protects and defends them all. And what do we defend them against We defend them against the products of a cheaper labor in the old world. We defend our labor because in the United States every laboring man is an equal citizen with every other man in the country. I am glad to see you; glad to meet you: glad to have your assurances of an imprecedented victory in Ohio this year. Ohio has never been behind. She led in the great Civil war, and she has led in the march of progress, and her states-manship has been impressed upon the most glorious pages of American his-

MICHIGAN PAYS HER HONORS.

A Large Delegation of Business Men, Farmers and Railway Employes.

Ten coachloads of people from Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo and Western Michi- WORKINGMEN FROM FACTORIES.

WORDS TO RAILROAD MEN.

Employment and Good Money Are Desired by All.

There were railroad men on all sides of Maj. McKinley when he began his fourteenth address. One party represented the Michigan Central. Another came from Columbus, O., and represented the Pennsylvania lines entering that city. Still another party represented the Eric employes of Cleveland. To all these Maj. McKinley said:

There is not a workingman in this audience who would not rather work for a good road than a poor road; and there is not an employe in this great audience that would not rather be paid in good

"What you want first and above all else is employment. What you want is to get on the pay roll of a good railroad company, for you have to get on the pay roll before you can get anything out the pay car, to which my friend has al-(Great cheering.) But in order to get on the pay roll the railroads must have business. You know when business is poor with the railroads some of you are stricken from the pay roll. (Cries of 'That's right.') You have experienced that in the last three years and a half. What you are interested in, therefore, is the general prosperity of the country. We want every factory in the land to be at work. We want every mine in the country to be busy. (A voice: 'Not the silver mines.') My friend says no silver mines. We are willing that our silver mines shall be busy; I hope every one of them, too, will be busy; but if they were all put to work and every mint was at work they would not furnish employment for onethird of the idle men in this country who earn their living by toil.

"You have to get your employment in the great, active, busy industries of the country. This is where you get your work and wages, and when these great, busy industries are at work your railroads have plenty of traffic. (Great applause.) When your railroads have plenty of traffic you have constant and steady employment at good wages. Is not that so? (Cries of 'Yes, yes.')

"Now, how are you to get back that prosperity you once enjoyed? (Cries of 'By voting the Republican ticket.') Some people say that the way to get it back is to debase the money of the country. Does anybody believe that? (Cries of 'No, no.') Some people seem to think that the way to get back prosperity is to strike a deadly blow at the capital of the country. Is that the way to do it? (Cries of 'No, no.') Some people seem to think that the way to put men at work is to despoil the profits of the men who employ labor. Is that the way to get work? (Loud cries of 'No, no.') Capital and labor are interdependent. They are not enemies. They are friends, or should be friends. (Applause.)

"The man who would array the poor against the rich, labor against capital, class against class, section against section, is not a friend of the country, but an enemy of the very best interests of every citizen. I would rather teach that doctrine so prevalent this year, North and South, where none are for party but all are for government. This is the true policy of sturdy American citizenship." -MAJ. MCKINLEY TO FACTORY EM-PLOYES, OCT. 17th, 1896.

against the rich, labor against capital, class against class, or section against section, is not a friend of the country, but an enemy of the very best interest of every citizen in the country. I would rather teach that doctrine which is so prevalent this year. North and South, where none are fer party, but all for government. This is the true policy of sturdy American citizenship and civilization. I look into your earnest faces and celieve I know what is in your hearts. (Cries of 'McKinley, McKinley.') There is but one aim and purpose, and this is that you may have an opportunity to work for yourselves and your families. This opportunity is best enjoyed when we le our own work in the United States and not in some other country of the world. This opportunity cannot be world. reached, however, until we have a return of confidence, which can come only when the American people have settled for all time that they will have no de-preciated currency and declare that the rinciples of the Republican party shall be upheld. "When confidence comes, money come. If you had all the silver in the world in the United States it would not make more business. Business makes money, money does not make business. Every one of you had plenty of work at good wages until the free trade policy was inaugurated in 1892. We want to We have restore our protective policy. good money now, but we have little busi-ness confidence. No business man will manufacture if he does not believe that at the end of the year he will make a profit. The business man cannot plan for the trade if he does not know what kind of competition he is to have from abroad. The less he has of foreign competition the more work you have at home at better wages and prices.

Nothing gives me greater satisfaction or calls from me deeper gratitude than to have the wo: ingmen of this country enroll themselves on the side of good government, sound currency, and the supremacy of law."

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

We do not believe in wanton cruelty under any circumstances; Mr. Bryan should see to it at once that the ropes of his parachute are in good working order. The best way to deal with a panic is to vote it to death in advance.

The Boy Orator has become irritable. He scolds the people and calls names. He started out on his campaign in good temper and in good voice. He still has the voice.

If Bryan will look at his hand again he will find that there are four cards instead of five in his flush.

The crime of '73 must be lost, strayed or stolen. It has been conspicuous by its absence in Popocratic speeches for several weeks.

William McKinley never advocated the passage of a law which was designed to take money out of the pockets of American workingmen.

Bryan is misled into thinking "the country is going to the dogs" by the snarles of Altgeld and Tillman. The country will go after these dogs on November 3 for a brief period, but when the country returns there won't be any more dogs worth mentioning.

Here's a "straw" for Bryan: Out of twenty-nine voters "in trouble" at the Center street police court in New York city Sunday morning, twenty-seven declared they would-if at liberty-vote for Mr. Bryan. The other two were unde

"Patriotism, genuine Americanism and every industriai interest demand that we should make our tariff high enough to measure the difference between

All sections, all creeds, all nationalities, all colors, all classes, all interests, and all parties unite in honors to William McKinley. Colored Voters Are Represented in the Enormous Deputation. The Central, Eastern and Western counties of West Virginia were all rep-resented in the next audience addressed. These people filled to the platforms forty railway coaches, coming in a train of five sections. Maj. McKinley spoke as follows: West Steel and Iron Works. Maj. McKinley, after discussing the won-derful resources of Michigan, said: WORKINGMEN FROM FACTORIES. WORKINGMEN FROM FACTORIES. WORKINGMEN FROM FACTORIES. Belegations from Tin Plate Factories and Steel and Iron Works. An enormous delegation composed of workmen from the tin-plate and iron and other states was addressed by Maj. Mc.