THE Abbot voting machine was in use in Michigan during the late election. Its use was legalized by the last legislature. It is described as simple in operation, and as the different parties are designat-An ed by color as well as in type, the most ignorant voters find little trouble in using it. Each vote is registered as cast, and the total is known as soon as the polle close.

On the night of November 5, the defeated candidate for president sent the following telegram from his home at Lincoln:

"Hon. William McKinley, jr., Canton, O.:-Senator Jones has just informed me that the returns indicate your elec-tion, and I hasten to extend my con-gratulations. We have submitted the issues to the American people and their will is law.

This vesting of judicial power in the county recorder is the point where the law and the constitution clashed.

No Truth In the Story.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 .- The state de partment officials say that the story pub-lished today to the effect that Ramon Williams, ex-United States consul general to Cuba, was sent to Spain as a secret agent of the government to endeavor to secure the consent of the Spanish government to a project to sell the island of Cuba to the insurgents, the United States to guarantee the bonds to be issued in payment therefor, is a pure invention. Mr. Williams has no connection with the state department.

Crowell Sunday afternoon, by word to the effect that there was a man hanging by his neek, dead, in a grove near there, Joe Coddler, who was hunting in that vicinity found the body and reported the matter immediately. The gentlemen from Fremont cut the body down. An inquest was held and the jury decided that an unknown man hed taken his own. If by hanging. There were no papers on his person by which his identity could be learned and it is supposed that the deceased was a man out of a position who had become despondent, after roam-ing about the country and decided to end his career. The body was buried at Crowell. Two Churches Dedicated.
