Now, farewell forever. I hope to find a lenient judge in the world to come. If I don't, I leave this life possessed of the assurance of your forgiveness." It was signed, "Your loving son, Claus Dettefsen." This shows that he expected to kill the girl and then take poison.

On Wednesday Coroner Lowery and County Attorney Brown went out to the Gleeing place and an inquest was held over the dead body of Deidrich, B. Don ovan, Henry Foust, W. L. Michaelse Rudolf Hobza, Andrew Gless, and James W. Smith were the jurors and they brought in a verdict declaring that the sceased came to his death from a pistol shot wound at the hands of Claus Dettefsen, feloniously fired.

On Wednesday the dead son buried, it being a sad affair for the fam ily and friends.

So far no trace is had of the murderer. A telegram from Norfolk and one from Columbus announced that he was secured, but Sheriff Kroeger went and investigated and found them to be the wrong no doubt the fellow will be captured.
