

R. & M. TIME TABLE. Table with columns for 'GOING EAST' and 'GOING WEST' listing train numbers and destinations.

UNION PACIFIC TIME TABLE. Table with columns for 'GOING EAST' and 'GOING WEST' listing train numbers and destinations.

FOR ALBANY AND CEDAR RAPIDS. Table with columns for 'GOING EAST' and 'GOING WEST' listing train numbers and destinations.

SOCIETY NOTES. List of social events and notices.

LEBANON LODGE No. 50, A. F. & A. M. Regular meeting 21st Wednesday in each month at 7:30 p. m. at the hall, Eleventh street.

WILDY LODGE No. 41, I. O. F. M. Meetings every second and fourth Thursdays of the month, 7:30 p. m. at E. of P. Hall, Eleventh street.

COLUMBIAN CAMP No. 15, WOODMEN OF THE WORLD. Meetings every second and fourth Thursdays of the month, 7:30 p. m. at E. of P. Hall, Eleventh street.

PROBATIONED CHURCH OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS. Regular meeting on Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m. at the hall, Eleventh street.

GERMAN REFORMED CHURCH. Sunday at 10:30 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 12:30 p. m. Ladies Aid Society every first Thursday in the month at the church.

Many new things at Herrick's. Eggs all for 5 cents at Herrick's. All kinds of second-hand goods bought and sold by J. H. McDonald, Eleventh street.

South Omaha is now the greatest sheep market in the west. The capacity has been increased at the yards some 16,000.

Wanted, 10,000 bushels of corn at 12c per bushel in exchange for Page Woven Wire fencing. Inquire of C. B. Easton.

Rev. DeGaller went Sunday to the residence of Burkhardt Melger to officiate at the christening of a number of children.

Louis Schroeder has leased of Patrick Murray the old G. W. Stevens' farm west of the city, to take possession this week.

J. C. Fillman returned Friday from Chicago, accompanied by Miss Marie Townsend, milliner. Mrs. Fillman will return this week.

Baptist church, J. D. Pulin, pastor. Services March 14, 11 a. m., 7:30 p. m. Morning, "The Silence of Scripture." No service.

People who imagine that the weather has nothing to do with their ailments, are at a loss otherwise to account for their bad "colic."

W. A. Schroeder has leased his Eleventh street dwelling home to J. T. Cox, and will go to his farm north of the city in the spring.

At Lincoln, the school board have a trust officer, who visits the parents of those pupils absent from school or who are disorderly while in school.

That five-gallon oil can, which A. B. Cramer sells at his grocery store in a cracker-jack. A can free if you can run the lamp over. Come and see it.

Everybody who thinks about it or who knows concerning it, is of the opinion that corn sold in the form of fattened pork brings 20 to 25 cents a bushel.

New baby baggies at Herrick's. 3c. Mrs. H. E. Manselman of Columbus, visited the family of her father-in-law, L. B. Manselman, from Friday until Tuesday.—David City Republican.

O. T. Room purchased last week a piano. It is said to be a very fine instrument. Gus Schroeder and Gus B. Spiece also have purchased a piano.

Mrs. John Wiggins received word last week of the death of her sister Mrs. Jessie Ingham, at Little Falls, New York, five weeks after her husband's death.

D. H. Harrington of Dunoon, representing the Warren Live Stock company, has recently made two shipments of sheep to the South Omaha market, from Dunoon.

Mrs. Carrie Novel slipped and fell in the yard Monday evening of last week, breaking both bones of her limb between the knee and ankle and spraining the ankle badly.

Samuel Wiese came up from Kansas City Tuesday of last week and visited his father's family until Thursday, when he returned home. He was looking in excellent health.

Grace Episcopal church, second Sunday in Lent, March 14. Services 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The rector will preach. Wednesday afternoon, litany and address 4:30.

Frank Koch was found guilty of an assault upon a young lady in this city. The punishment is two to fourteen years in the penitentiary. Sentence has not yet been passed.

The militia company with their friends spent a very pleasant evening last Tuesday. They first had a drill by the company, followed by several short speeches and refreshments. Then the mandolin club furnished music for a dance.

Miss Marie Townsend from the famous wholesale house of Edson Keith & Co. of Chicago, is engaged as head trimmer at J. C. Fillman's for the season. She will be pleased to make the acquaintance of all the ladies of this vicinity.

The Seward graduating exercises are to be held two evenings, the first to be occupied with the exercises, essays, etc., of the class, the second evening with the presentation of the diploma and an address by some well-known speaker.

A correspondent of Silver Creek, writing to the Clarion Leader says that Mr. C. H. Sheldon, of Columbus, has 30,000 bushels of corn stored at that place and critic for 15,000 bushels more are nearly completed and will be done this week.

Ferry & Matthews Syndicate show of Fallerton advertise for teamsters, men to work on canvas, property men, cook, bus heater and a night wagon boss. Some of our readers may have a desire to engage with the show in one of these lines of business.

James Pearson, whose bid was next highest above Louis Schroeder's, has been given the contract for the erection of Flatts county's post-office home for the county's work. The price is $600, with R. H. Henry, James Welch and Hugh Hughes as sureties.

David Thomas sold a car load of hops at the South Omaha market Thursday afternoon at A. O. U. W. hall there, within a minute of the top of the market for that day. Mr. Thomas says that at $3.15 a bushel, a man gets 25 cents a bushel for the corn he feeds to hops.

At the business men's meeting Sunday afternoon at A. O. U. W. hall there were present: Madison Maline and Miss Sarah Tigner; Jacob Maurer and Miss Barbara Goering; Wm. A. Boderson and Miss Maud L. King; George E. Palmatrix and Miss Martha Graves.

Miss Abbie Keating goes today, Wednesday, to Beatrice, where she has been appointed one of the teachers in the Home for the Feeble Minded. The appointment is from the state and a good position. Miss Keating is capable and well worthy of the situation and her friends wish her success in her work.

Al Samuelson, who has been representing the Standard Oil company here several years went with his family to Omaha Sunday, where he will be engaged with the same company. P. J. Miller of Grand Island succeeds him here, and with his family, moves into the house vacated by Mr. Samuelson.

Both Platte and Loup rivers are high with a good deal of ice in them. Some are anxious about high water this month. Should there be a heavy rain within a week or so we might possibly have the high water of the spring of '81 duplicated, but that year there was very much greater depth of snow than now.

With the promise of returning property the far west is contemplating the use of immense water power, and the transmission of electric force to a distance by wire. This, it seems to us, is destined to revolutionize industry in all the west. An application of the principle, even at Columbus, would work wonders for us.

Division Commander W. H. Davis of Wilber, Nebraska, has issued order No. 2 to the fraternity. He thinks the division will most likely be called upon to entertain the national encampment in 1898 at Omaha. In the long list of division officers of the Sons of Veterans we notice that the mastering officer is E. H. Jenkins, of this city.

A bill has passed the legislature, placing the southern boundary of Dodge county in the center of the Platte river, thus causing Saunders county to maintain half the expense of maintaining the two bridges connecting the two counties. Saunders county strenuously objected to the passage of the bill in the house, but the vote stood 41 for to 39 against.

Mrs. N. I. Alford, of Fremont, Neb., will be found at the Thurston Hotel for one week, beginning March 10, with art lessons, 300 designs for stamping, and the finest and most complete line of silks ever shown in the city. During her stay, she will also give lessons in embroidery and drawn work, between the hours of 2 and 4:30 p. m.

The Woman's club held their monthly meeting Saturday afternoon with Miss Minnie Becker, a very large attendance being present. The subject for the day was "Domestic Science" and several excellent papers were read. Miss Mae North of Omaha was present and gave two excellent recitations, the first one a selection from Whitcomb Riley.

J. M. Curtis' item to the Omaha Bee in regard to Judge Sullivan's decision on bill for trial docket and for postage is being rounded of the country press generally, without credit to either Curtis or the Bee, and it is thus that the wide-spread newspaper and its short correspondent contribute to the public good in the way of information, without just recognition.

It may be of interest to our readers to know that Ester will come late this year. As Wednesday was March 3 and Easter Sunday April 13, almost as late as it can possibly come. Easter may come as early as March 22 and as late as April 25. It depends, as every one knows, upon the phase of the moon, but just the rule of computation is not always known. Ester Sunday is all ways the Sunday that follows the full moon immediately following the spring Equinox, March 22. If the moon falls on Sunday, Ester Sunday is the next following. It is held by many that a late Easter always means a late spring.

As was reported in the Telegraph, some time ago Editor General will remove his Looking Glass to Columbus and to one of us soon. We extend a hearty welcome. If there is any one thing Columbus needs more than another at the present time it is another good newspaper. The Looking Glass will fill all the bill and a long-waited Omaha, brother, come.—Telegraph.

At a concert given recently by the Altar Ego, a musical society of Brooklyn, N. Y., Miss Florence Gleason appeared as solo pianist and was most heartily received. Miss Gleason is studying with Alexander Lambert, one of the finest teachers in this country, and director of the New York College of Music. This Journal looks to see Miss Gleason rank among the best in America, in the years to come.

Walt Sanford arrived in theory last week and will be employed by Charley Moss during the coming race season. Walt has been with some of the fastest horses in the country, including "The Corporal" 2:12 1/2, in the capacity of "twipie," and thoroughly understands his business. Mr. Moss informs us that "The Corporal" is wintering in excellent shape and no doubt will lower his record this year.

Mail Pohl and Emil Ehoen, two young lads of this place, started out last week on their own account, ostensibly to reach the fighting grounds at Carson, Nev. It may be said in extenuation of these periodical endeavors to see the world on the outside, that nearly all young men at some time in their career have had the fever of travel, and never effectually cured until they had traveled at least once.

D. H. Cramer has started to erect 400 feet of cribbing for corn; the sheds are to be placed near the Lindell hotel. There is going to be a wonderful amount of corn stored for future use, and this is well, for at prevailing prices not a pound should be shipped out of the state, or off the farms except to pay old debts, interest on them, or for the necessities of life. A close observer of Nebraska markets has noted that in any run of five or six years at random corn would bring only about $4 worth of corn and this is just about the price of 130 pounds of pork.—Wayne Republican.

Baker & Wells sent a team and driver out last Thursday with a man who is doubtless working in the interest of some railroad. He was very "mum" but had maps of the eastern part of the state, a compass, etc. They went from here to Fullerton, Colfax county, from there to Clarkson, and then to Howells and Wisner, at which place the stranger hired another lively team and went north, and Baker & Wells' driver came home. The query is: Are the E. & M. seeking an outlet north from Columbus to Sioux City? This would certainly be a good stretch of country to cover.

The last Bellwood Gazette gives a lengthy account of the manner in which a decree of divorce was recently granted by Judge Bates, downright lies swearing on the part of the applicant being charged by the Gazette. It leads THE JOURNAL to remark that too much caution cannot be exercised by judges in such cases. The relation of man and wife to each other, to their offspring, and to the community of which they are a vital part, is too important to be trifled with by any one concerned, and most certainly a decree of divorce should not be founded upon falsehood and perjury.

The case of Mrs. George Barum came up last Saturday week, George having secured a witness in the person of one of Mrs. Barum's former housekeepers, named George W. Smith of West Jersey, Illinois. It seems that there is yet another named Hearn, living in Missouri. Mr. Smith says that the woman now asking for divorce from Barum, and for alimony, was married to him (Smith) and is not divorced. A copy of the Galesburg Mail of March 3, gives quite a sketch of the life of this woman. Alimony had been allowed by the court, but after hearing the testimony of Mr. Smith, the alimony was suspended.

Joseph Bucher of Escondido, California, arrived in the city Tuesday of last week and will probably be here two or three weeks. He likes California pretty well. He bought 33 acres of land two miles from the city, and has lemons, two years from the planting; apricots, two years; also peaches, very fine ones. Oranges are bringing $2.25 a hundred, when growers do well, getting one cent a pound. Parties prospecting for oil at Escondido, down 170 feet, have good encouragement. Leo Asher, formerly a barber here, lives at Escondido. J. P. Scott of San Bernardino sends his regards to his old Ohio friends. Mr. Bucher says that Mrs. Bucher's health has improved since they have been in California.

Louisa Bleser, a young girl about 15 years of age, is the unfortunate subject of a great deal of commotion at Belgrade, says the Fullerton Post. The story told the Post is about as follows: Miss Bleser has been employed in the family of Mr. Frank Hodge for about two years. Her parents reside in Boone county but concluded to move to Chicago. They sent a son to Hodge's to so inform the young lady and to bring her home. She refused to go, stating that she did not care to move among strangers, and as she was compelled to earn her own living she proposed to associate with the man who was to receive her. From all accounts a merry time followed, but as heard but one side of the controversy, we do not care to prejudice either side by any statement. The entire affair is now in court, and we understand a writ of habeas corpus has been issued by Judge Sullivan requiring Frank Hodge to produce the girl before him at Columbus, tomorrow, Saturday. It is also stated that the young lady has identified herself with the Free Methodist church, while her parents are Catholics.

Judge Kilian was in Lincoln Monday. Jack Westing and wife visited over Sunday at Beatrice.

Miss Wiggins went to St. Joe Thursday on a business trip.

Miss Ida Oehler of Geneva visited over Sunday in the city with friends.

Miss Lettie Holmstrom of Beatrice has been visiting friends in the city.

Miss G. W. Westcott went up to Silver Creek Saturday, to visit her son Edward.

Mrs. Will Murphy and children of Lincoln are visiting among relatives here.

John Donovan and Capt. Vickers of Madison passed through the city en route to Lincoln.

Mrs. Hale of Sioux City is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Condon, and will remain two weeks.

M. J. Madden of St. Louis arrived in the city Friday for several days' visit with his sister, Mrs. A. J. Smith.

Miss Mae North and Miss Hill of Omaha were guests at Dr. Evans', returning Sunday. J. E. North was also in the city Sunday.

Local War. Friday evening near the R. & M. water tank there was quite a war among the wandering gnomes. It seems that there were some fifteen of them in a hot crowd and that they fell into a very spirited, if not a very intellectual discussion over the merits of the different phases of the District case in court last week, and not being able to agree as to who was in the right and who was in the wrong of that matter, they fell to blows, acting in this respect as foolishly as nations before these have done in an endeavor to settle a matter of dispute, which merely served as a basis for quarrelling.

Hot blood, when it has boiled to a certain degree of heat, seems not to lose any of its heat unless it happens to come into contact with something cooling, either in the way of cold water, ice or blood-letting, and in this case it seemed a case of the latter.

The fitness occupants of the box car got into trouble, and it seemed necessary that there should be blood-letting, and at it they went. One man was laid out with a coupling-pin, so that he appeared as if he had passed partly through a sausage machine and had been pulled back again. One of his ears was out in the back of his head, and he was on the side of the face, and when he declared from the depths of his misery "Oh! will my poor mother say to this?" it is supposed that the fellow who struck him was so sorry that he rustled in the neighborhood for hot water enough to wash his wounds.

"What fools these mortals be!" The battle raised quite an excitement in that part of the city, and several men displayed the heroic metal of which they are made by the way in which they took to quell it.

MARRIED. PALMATER-GRAVES—March 8, by H. J. Hickson, justice of the peace, at his office in this city, George H. Palmatrix and Miss Martha Graves, both of Osceola, this county.

DEED. FROST—Wednesday, March 3d, at 10 o'clock, after one month's sickness, of a gripple, Mrs. Sarah Benson Fugard, wife of Frank Fugard, aged 31 years.

Deceased leaves her sorrow-stricken husband and little boy, two years old, to mourn their loss. The funeral took place from the Methodist church, Rev. Mickle, in charge, assisted by Revs. Otie and McGregor. A large concourse followed the remains to the grave.

WITNESSES—At her home in Central City, Nebraska, March 8, at 2 p. m., after a short but severe attack of a gripple, Elizabeth, the wife of the late Louis W. Wetterer.

The remains were brought to Columbus Saturday on the 2:15 train, were received at the depot by the Modern Woodmen of America, who conveyed them to the residence of the deceased's son, Mrs. Elizabeth Erb, where they were kept till Sunday at 11, when they were placed in the Shell creek cemetery and placed beside those of her husband.

Rev. Miller conducted the services. She leaves a father, one brother and four children, (the youngest two years old and the oldest nine years,) and a number of other near relatives to mourn her sad departure.

"Fare the well! Borne by some, which long, long shall endure, We'll pray that our hearts may be ever as pure And our lives ever lovely as thine." R.

The United States as a nation is now so large and populous and so well recognized as one of the great powers that we are prone to think of the beginnings of such a great people as necessarily lying away back in the dim and misty past. But when we learn that right here in Nebraska there are living two men, and perhaps others, whose own fathers were soldiers of the American revolution, then the mist which veiled the past breaks away and as we gaze upon those distinguished sons we can almost hear the file and drum of the continentals and smell the smoke of battle. Rev. Samuel Goodale, D. D., born December 30, 1814, at Egremont, Mass., and now a resident of Columbus, Neb., is one of those distinguished sons.

His father, Chester Goodale, enlisted four times and served as a musician and a private in the Connecticut troops. William Curry Huddleston, born at Winchester, O., March 3, 1804, and now living at 503 South Thirteenth street, Lincoln, Neb., is also similarly distinguished. His father, William Huddleston, served as a private soldier in the Pennsylvania troops. William Goodale is a clergyman of the Protestant Episcopal church and though nearly 83 years of age, still preaches occasionally. Mr. Huddleston is hale and hearty. He was a captain in the Twelfth Ohio cavalry in the war of the rebellion.—Omaha World-Herald.

A Card. My heart's throbbs are due to kind friends and neighbors for their attention at various times during the last illness of my sister, Mrs. S. H. Winterbottom; and also for kind offers of sympathy, which, on account of sickness, I was not able to attend.

E. L. ADAMS, Secretary.

Republican City Convention. The republican chapter of the city of Columbus, Neb., are requested to send delegates from their several wards to meet in convention at the council room in the city of Columbus.

SATURDAY, MARCH 20, 1897, at 8 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of putting in nomination a candidate for mayor, city treasurer, city clerk, city engineer, two members of the board of education and one commissioner from each ward, and to transact any business that may properly come before the convention.

The several wards are entitled to representation as follows, the apportionment being based upon the vote cast at the Hon. John Wiggins for mayor, at the 1893 city election, being one delegate at large for each ward and one delegate for each less vote and major fraction thereof, as follows: First ward 12; Second ward 9; Third ward 12.—total 34.

It is recommended that the primaries be held in the several wards on FRIDAY, MARCH 19, 1897, at 7:30 o'clock, at the following places: First ward at county court room; Second ward at engine house; Third ward at Frank Miller's carpenter shop and that a candidate for councilman be placed in nomination at these primaries. By order of the republican city committee: H. C. CHASE, Sec'y. J. E. HOFFMAN, Chas'n.

Mrs. S. Goodale. This lady, very well known to our Columbus readers, has been delivering a lecture before the people of the high school at Rapid City, South Dakota, and it is thus spoken of in the Journal of that city. It not only evidences the lady's ability in that line, but is suggestive to our country school, even beyond the lines of Dakota.

"Every seat in the high school room was taken yesterday upon the occasion of the first lecture in the course to be given before the people by Rapid City, S. D. Goodale, who last year made foreign tour, and the lady took her journey for her subject. Mrs. Goodale read her lecture, but as she well prepared that she was not distracted from her interest. Her style is easy and at times quite eloquent, while now and then she quoted a line or two of poetry where it seemed the most appropriate.

Mrs. Goodale took her listeners with her from the time of starting at Columbus, Nebraska, until all the places had been visited and she arrived with her friends in New York harbor on her return. The descriptive trip was necessarily a hurried one and she could only touch upon the different points visited in the most cursory manner, but she brought out the interesting features in a way that showed excellent judgment and knowledge of what would interest and please. Flights in Germany, Italy, Switzerland and England were described, with now and then an anecdote to break the monotony, and when she finally reached New York harbor and closed by paying homage to America, the school boys and girls in enthusiastic applause, and a vote of thanks was unanimously tendered her.

Superintendent Larrabee expressed his gratification at the success of the afternoon and announced that he expected to have another lecture in two weeks."

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

HENRY RAGATZ & CO., Staple and Fancy Groceries,

Eleventh Street, - COLUMBUS, NEBR.

Good - Goods - at - Fair - Prices.

EVERYTHING KEPT that is expected to be found in a first-class, up-to-date grocery store.

Our record begins with August 19, 1874, and ends with October 30, 1874.

Becker's elevator is in working order, doing finely.

I. Gluck advertises his brand new stove and goods.

S. B. Winterbottom & Son start a branch store at Oklahe.

Col. Fred Grant and Miss Ida Honore were married October 20.

The Thalia society held a picnic August 30, at Stanger's grove.

Judge Nelson has the contract for putting up the new court house at Albion.

Mrs. David Anderson visits her old home in Ohio after an absence of fifteen years.

S. S. Rieky, a prominent citizen of Columbus, Ohio, visits his brother John Rieky.

George W. Stevens engages as teacher in district No. 3, known as Pat. Murray's district.

Dieid, Sept. 5, Jonas Henry, youngest son of Jonas and Margaret Welch, aged 13 months.

Kearney has trouble with cowboys in charge of the herds of cattle driven in from Texas.

Markets, September 30, 1874.—wheat 60, corn 60, oats 50, butter 22, eggs 15, potatoes 1.25.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

Charles Perwall, "a small lad," had his arm broken by the accidental falling of a window sash.

ALFALFA! FRESH Alfalfa Seed Raised in Colorado. FOR SALE AT GEHLRICH BROS.

—Equipre of Herrick. —Eternity is time out of sight. —Go to Strauss for the best photos. —Go to Herrick's for picture frames. —Col. J. R. Meagher went east Monday. —Some cheap folding beds at Herrick's. —Fine job work done at THE JOURNAL office. —Some beautiful new rockers at Herrick's. —Dr. Naumann, dentist, Thirteenth street. —W. Whittle of Leigh was in the city Wednesday. —C. C. Hardy for all kinds of repairing and job work. —Dr. T. R. Clark, Olive street. In office at nights. —Albert Stenger buys ear corn, cows and stock cattle. —All kinds of goods for sale at the second-hand store. —If you want a photo that will do you justice go to Strauss. 24f. —The infant child of G. W. Phillips is very sick with catarrhal fever. —Mrs. Martyn, Evans & Gear, office three doors north of Friedhof's store. —The Fair property is still for sale. Inquire of the secretary, Gna. G. Becker. —Fancy New York apples per barrel or bushel at Herman Oehlrich & Bro's. —Dr. L. C. Voss and C. F. O. Miesler, Homeopathic physicians, Columbus, Neb. —Burt McFarland, who has been sick several weeks, was reported better Monday. —Willis McBride of Madison came down Friday night to attend to a case in court. —Charles L. Smith of Silver Creek has been granted a restoration and increase of pension. —Rev. Mielch was taken sick with the gripple Saturday and was unable to attend services. —F. P. Johnson went to South Omaha Wednesday night with a car load of fat cattle for the market. —Florence B. Elliott returned home Saturday, having closed a six months' term of school at Tarnor. —Bring your orders for job-work to this office. Satisfaction guaranteed, and work promptly done, as agreed upon. —Elder J. F. Minton from Iowa and J. M. Stubbart of Oetavia are holding services in the Latter Day Saints chapel. —Good qualities are the substantial riches of the mind, but it is good breeding that sets them off to advantage. —Locks. —An ardent republican, who went east from here on inauguration day, tells us that Columbus had up more flags than all the towns from here to Omaha.

marked center by the republicans. The Nebraska state republican convention favored an amendment to the constitution of the United States, providing for the election of president, vice president, United States senators and all other federal officers by a direct vote of the people. W. K. Turner advertises a job of work cattle for sale cheap for cash. (The only jobs of cattle we ever owned and we hadn't thought of them in a long while. Ozen were in very common use then for breaking land—much cheaper than horses.) Wm. Boyd has the contract for the Jackson Platte river bridge; he has a force of twenty men at work, and Ed. Dwyer