CONGRESS CONVENES.

McKINLEY SENDS IN HIS FIRST MESSAGE.

McKINLEY TO CONGRESS.—WASHINGTON, March 14.—President McKinley sent rather unexpectedly his message to Congress this afternoon as soon as both Houses had been organized. It was at once read as follows:

TO THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES: Regretting the necessity which has required me to call you together, I feel that your assembling in extraordinary session is indispensable because of the condition in which we find the revenues of the government.

It is estimated that the current expenditures are greater than the receipts, and that such a condition has existed for more than three years.

With unaltered means at our command we are presenting the remarkable spectacle of increasing our public debt by borrowing money to meet our expenditures.
