-It is quite astonishing the prices calves are bringing this summer. They go off at a flash now at prices for which cows would have been a very slow sale a few years ago. It was a very difficult if not an impossible thing at that time to convince a great many cattle owners that things would ever again be very different from what they were then with the cattle business. But all branches of the live stock business have their ups and downs, and just at the present the cattle business is having one of its ups.
