Good Endorsement for Sup't Williams. The following, from the Rochester Ind.) Republican, is one of those appre ciative utterances entirely unsought for, and yet wholly deserving:

Professor William J. Williams has inst been nominated, by the republicans at Columbus, Nebraska, for the office of county superintendent of schools. In that state the incumbents of that office are selected by the voters of each county, instead of being selected by the township trustees, as is the custom in Indiana. The Professor was for several rears superintendent of the Rochester public schools and afterward served two years each as county superintendent of the schools in this county. From Rochester he moved to Franklin, Indiana, where he accepted a professorship in Franklin college, which he subsequently resigned to accept the superintend ency of the public schools of Franklin There are few educators who equal Prof. Williams in his adaptability for school work and he always discharged the duties of his position in an efficient and creditable manner. He is thoroughly educated and his wide experience makes him especially valuable to the commu nity, which he now aspires to serve. The Republican joins his many friends in Fulton county in the hope that he will be successful in the coming elec-

Another Outrage The following is from the Columbus Telegram, and shows quite a state of affairs. For our part we do not see why it is that the democracy cannot be al lowed to look after their own political household in their own way:

As per call a mass convention of the pops met at the court-house last Satur-day afternoon for the purpose of nominating a candidate for supervisor in this district. The attendance of pops was large, and Bob Lisco, the bridge expert, was promptly nominated. Democrate very properly absented themselves from this meeting. They had no business

Immediately after the adjournment of the pop convention, the democrats purpose of nominating a candidate for supervisor. What did the pops do? Did they withdraw to give the democrats a chance? Not a bit of it. A large number of them-devoid of all honor-remained in the court-room, took possession of the meeting, and against the protest of some true democrats, voted down all propositions for the nomination of a democrat for the place, and finally insisted on and carried the nomination of Lisco, the pop bridge sharp. Most of the democrats retired from the hall in great indignation, and

The pops put dirt all over the demo crats at the primaries previous to the late democratic convention, but last Columbus Telegram. Saturday they rubbed it in a little too hard. Will democrate stand this last insult? We know some who will not.

-Mrs. Frank J. Divis of Shell creek precinct, Colfax county, whose account of poisoning herself and children was given in last week's JOURNAL, it seems, was of a moody turn of mind, and she and her husband had some differences in regard to the children. Parents of the husband, according to the Quill, were a disturbing feature between husband and Leavy, our candidate for county school wife. The husband scolded about them superintendent, is, without question the not caring for things properly when he was away and his wife cried most of the night and no doubt decided during that time to end her troubles by removing herself and children. The five bodies were buried in

The Telegram, which, time out of mind, has been the democratic organ for Platte county, is just now leaving its moorings again, and is supporting several republicans on the ticket this fall, as it did Hon. Ross Hammond last fall for congressman. It now favors E. Pohl for clerk; J. N. Kilian for county judge; P. H. Bender for sheriff.

Mr. Parks says he was indignant, disgusted at the high-handed and dishonorable methods resorted to by certain alleged democrats to carry out their plans at the recent democratic convention-how the populists were allowed to run the democratic primaries all over the county and defeat democratic candidates for delegates to said convention. They carried their point, and, though the means were outrageously unfair and dishonorable, we smothered our displeasure and concluded to take no part in a campaign where we could not consistently support the ticket with enthu-

But the outrage of last Saturday at the supervisor convention, which is treated of in another column, has changed our mind. It was the straw that broke the patient camel's back, and we propose to take a hand in the fray from now on till the finish and punish by defeat, if we can, the main engineers of democratic disgrace.

Sup't Williams.

The republican candidate for county superintendent of public instruction is like an old-fashioned neighbor of ourshe "gets a gait and keeps it." He has acquired a splendid reputation as a scholar, a principal, a superintendent of schools, and an educational force in general, wherever he may be placed. The following is from the Rochester Indiana) Sentinel, a newspaper that does not think along the same lines politically as Mr. Williams does, but is able to do him justice: "Prof. Wm. J. Williams, formerly superintendent of the Rochester High school and later county superintendent schools of this county, has been nominated for county superintendent by his county, at Columbus, Nebraska. The election of superintendent there is made by popular vote and as the Prof. is not much of a campaigner he may not win, but he is a conscientious gentleman, a most efficient educational worker ing to any community.' THE JOURNAL calls attention to the last four lines, and desires to emphasize them to the voters of Platte county, who now have an opportunity to get a super intendent, who will fill to satisfaction every duty belonging to the office.

No man, without some legal training, can make a satisfactory custodian of the business of the widows and orphans of the county." A pretty good send-off for the demo cratic Telegram that was about to take no part in the campaign.

The Telegram, notwithstanding the fact that it is not a republican paper, but is democratic, gives its adherence to E. Pohl for county clerk, and says: "Now as to the present county clerk,

Mr. Pohl, No one can deny but what he has been as efficient and faithful an officer as ever attended to the business of Platte county. He has been prompt and courteons to all, and the office at the present time is in such splendid order that there could be no improvement. For these reasons, we believe, in a spirit of fairness obscuring the political view entirely, Mr. Pohl is entitled to a second term, and we further believe the voters will look at it in the same way, and give it to him."

We visited the northern portion of the county the early part of this week and found that the candidacy of P. H. Bender for sheriff had taken like wildfire. All classes of citizens, regardless of party, are enthusiastically for him. As a matter of fact, Mr. Bender, besides being a most popular gentleman, is peculiarly fitted for the position of sheriff on account of the leather he is made of. Possessed of dauntless courage-a very necessary essential for such office-he has at the same time a large fund of common sense that will enable him to act calmly and coolly under the most trying circumstances.
