Uncle Sam Short of Powder. WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.-Uncle Sam is short of powder for his high power guns. After his warships shall have fired away what powder they have on board, which they would do in the course of a 10 hours' battle, there would be left in the entire country barely enough to supply them for a 30 minutes' combat. And it would take the powder mills a year to produce enough poorder to supply the ships for another 10 hours' battle. Such is the substance of a report made to Secretary Long by the board of ordnance and fortifications. which has recommended the immediate building of a government powder fac-
