The Columbus Fournal.

VOLUME XXVIII.--NUMBER 45.

COLUMBUS, NEBRASKA, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1898.

WHOLE NUMBER 1,449.

THE OLD RELIABLE.

(Oldest Bank in the State.)

Pays Interest on Time Deposits

Makes Loans on Real Estate,

ISSUES SIGHT DRAFTS ON Omaha, Chicago, New York and all Foreign Countries.

SELLS STEAMSHIP TICKETS.

BUYS GOOD NOTES

And belps its customers when they need belg

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS: LEANDER GERRARD, Pres'L. R. H. HENRY, Vice Pres's. M. BRUGGER, Cashier. WM. BUCRER. JOHN STAUFFER,

COLUMBUS. NEB., HAS AN Authorized Capital of - $500,000

Theater curtains constructed on the same plan would also prove invaluable CURRENT NOTES OF DISCOV- for the preservation of life in case of fire.

ERY AND INVENTION. Effects of a Bee's Sting-The Amount

London's Electric System, The American system of using locoor Liquid Disposed by Man During motives with the third rall is the only His Natural Life-Various Notes Science and Industry.

Spatem which can be employed on the Central Underground railway in Bon-den. This road, which is now ap-Efects of a 20to Sting. proaching completion, is eighty feet be-N English physi- low the street level. It runs under clan relates an in- Oxford street and Holburn, from the stance of & lady bank of England to Shepherd's Bush, s who was stung by distance of about six and one-half bee, At the first miles. All the electric plant will be moment she seem- American. The power will be transed to pay very litmitted by an alternating current systle attention to it, tem, to be changed to a direct current but very soon her system at proper points. The motors face became flushed are to be small copies of the large elecand spots appeared | tric locomotives now used in the Bal-

all over her bedy. timore and Ohio railway tunnel. Suddenly she developed a most severe attack of asthma, finding great diffi-Ict Plows for the Mava.

culty in breathing. Another instance Admiral Makarof of the Russian is that of a young lady who was stung navy has invented a species of ice plow on the back of the head by an ordinary capable of breaking through ice from honey bee. In less than five minutes twelve to even twenty inches thick. her face began to swell and very The experiments have proved so satismarked red and white spots appeared factory that the government has given all over the surface of the body. The orders for the immediate construction swelling extended over the entire perof two vessels of 10,000 horse nower son, accompanied by severe pain,burneach armed with these plows, by means ing and giddiness. The eyes were alof which it is expected to keep not only most closed and the countenance was the River Neva, but also the various so distorted as to be unrecognizable. Muscovite ports open to navigation Very free bathing in soda water, with throughout the winter. The majority a little soda taken internally, and hot applications to the feet and thorough of Russia's ports and naval arsenals massage finally afforded relief, but it are ice bound during more than four months of the year.

What a Man Drinks.

nervousness accompanied the trouble, The amount of liquid refreshment and the sense of suffocation was almost taken by a man of 70 years would intolerable. The young woman had equal 76,700 pints, and to hold this a been stung a number of times before pail twelve feet high and more than without any apparent unpleasant re-2.500 times as large as an ordinary pail sult. The physicians were of the opinwould be required. The weight of the ion that the bee had been feeding upon liquid would be over forty-two tons.

SCIENTIFIC POINTERS, rooms, etc., absolutely inaccessible. THEATRICAL GOSSIPI ting Potter's dramatic version of "Tril- BASE BALL GOSSIP. to sing the title role. INTERESTING NOTES ABOUT

> Stock Companies The Matcurit Catter girl, was Lucille Western: I would of Sothis Actressid-Some Interestin

STAGE AND ITS PEOPLE:

Stage Whispers.

changed icns of the drama in these days. When standard of taste to-day. The productions of to-day are staged in gorgeous style, with a degree of extravagance and a minuteness of detail which were unknown twenty years ago. The present system of acting is the system which suits the day. I never have been one of those people who affect to ever had, and the plays are the kind which the people want. The old stock ment. In this way an actor of moderate ability was enabled to play a part always cleverly and pleasingly, though not brilliantly. I have seen very many actors of real ability who. just for the want of that ease and experience which the stock system conferred, were never estimated at their proper worth.

The Matinee Girl in the Dramatic News throws some light on the meteoric career of "actresses" who don't stay on the stage. This is the way she tells it: "Not long ago I met a young " to music, and Calve has promised

"One of my childhood's dream: of intense acting," says Fanny Devenport, "as well as my idol as a school have gone without eating to see her act. She was to me then the embodiment of power and warmth."

HEN asked by It is announced that when Julia Ar-Chicago reporter thur returns to New York, April 25, he regretted th she will present a new version of passing of the old "Camille." She has decided to give, stock company during the same engagement; a new plan of theatricals. three-act Italian comedy, "Infidele," the veteran J. H by Roberto Bracco, which she has had Stoddart replied: translated into English. "No, I do not.

do not believe it "When men reach the age that Mr. would suit the Jefferson has and that I have, they do condi-

art," says Denman Thompson. "We you have to play half a dozen parts a have had our day at that, and as the week it is practically impossible to cathusiasm cools we begin to find the give them the finish and perfection | effort of playing decidedly more burthat are demanded by the higher densôme. Now, I don't suppose that Mr. Jefferson would wish to keep at it sake of art."

story of the Thirty Years' war. His music is said to be not of the school of mourn over the decadence of art. We his father, but of that of Humperdinck have just as good actors to-day as we the composer of "Hansel und Gretel.".

Julia Neilson is said to be contemcompany system undoubtedly gave a plating a starring tour in this country will be severely disciplined. They will man experience and ease of deport- next season in company with her hus-with what he says. Rule 5, of the National League, for each season from 1881 to 1891, Inclusive, the number of NEWS NOTES, COMMENT AND years that Radburn was a member of PERSONAL CHAT: Ebbetts of the Brooklyn Club will at All Times Bear the Olive Branell of Pedes-The Youngest Magnaté-Some Interviews

Owner of the Brooklyn Clab. RESIDENT EBbetts, of the Brook-

'box,' his left foot in advance of the lyn Club, is quoted right, and to the left of an imaginary as saying: "As far line from his right foot to the center as the policy of our of the home base," etc. When this club in major penalty was added it was done as a league matters is slap at Radburg, for the latter was on concerned, we will the decline then. antagonize nobody.

We want to be on Right out of the heart of the Maine the friendhest forest came Louis F. Sockalexis, the terms with the Penobscot. He was tall and straight New York club, and anybody identified as his native pines, and his eyes were with our concern who says a word as clear and bright as the stars in the against that club or its officials will be sharply called to task. Of course, we sky. He was clean-limbed, agils and wish to keep up the rivalry that has healthy, and was a superb specimen of always existed between the New Yorks | the race of athletes he sprang from. on the basis of $40 a week just for the and Brocklyns on the diamond, but I Thus we find him as he roamed o'er believe the two representative clubs of his native heath, where his childhood

Greater New York should stand togeth- days were spent in wending his never Siegfried Wagner is in Rome at work er for mutual protection and for the weary footsteps through the winding $25,000,000. on a comic opera, the book being on a good of the game. The players who pathways of his island home, hunting. compose the Brooklyn team will be fishing, and in other ways as are only compelled to live up to every letter of familiar to the native American. Littheir contracts. They will be forced to tle is known of his early life, except 'deliver the goods' for which they are that he. like the average run of small liberally paid. If any of them break boys, included base ball in his catathe rules and kick over the traces they logue of amusements. Just when he began to play the game is a mystery all be treated with consideration and fairness as long as they work in the interests of the club and the patrons high, and now he stretches his manof the game, but if they try any monhood into six feet of the atmosphere. key business, such as has gone on in He was born Oct. 24, 1873, at Oldtown. the past seasons, they will be rounded Penobscot county, Me., he entered civup with a sharp turn. In short, the ilization through the sateway of St. Brooklyn club will be shaken up in a Mary's College, and his progress was healthy manner, and the patrons who very rapid until now he is a well eduhave generously supported us in the cated Indian, From St. Mary's he past, in spite of poor ball playing, will receive something for their money."

would look askance at a series between the two teams, if that series had any sonal influence."

CANADA.

What Now Going Dominion.

A Cincinnati Klondike party passed the organization, except in 1890, when through Winnipeg. Manitoba, a few he was with the Players' League, Says days since, on their way to the gold that the pitcher's distance shall be fields. Two or three ladies accompafifty feet from the center of the home nied them, and as they passed through base. In 1887 the first penalty was the streets of that Western Canadian placed on the pitcher when section 2. city, they were the objects of considerof rule 5, says: "The pitcher shall able attention, in their costumes of take his position facing the batsman, leather leggings and buckskin suits, with both feet squarely on the ground, the same as were worn by the gentlethe right foot on the rear line of the men of the party.

A new route to the Klondike is said to have been discovered by way of Prince Albert, in the western territories of Canada. It will be a competitor to the Edmonton route,

The demand for good train dogs is keeping up at Battleford, in Western Canada. Between the police, the acrthwest government and Mr. P. K. Lindsay of Victoria, B. C., every available dog of the requisite quality has found ready sale, and everywhere you can see some of the poor brutes get-ting the worst of it in the efforts of the owners to train them with the expectation of sale.

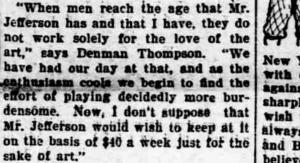

Custom returns for the past siz months, ending December 31, show an increase in the total trade of over

The City of Toronto asks from the street railway company 10 per cent of the gross revenue of the company for the past year. As the revenue was over $1,000,000, the city will receive a very fair rental. The Fairplay Creamery, of File

Mound, has wound up its season's opeven to himself, for he says he was erations by the shipment of 9,000 then not much more than three feet pounds of butter in December.

J. A. Kinsella, superintendent of government creameries, has sold to a Winnipeg and Vancouver produce company 100,000 pounds of northwest butter, the price being in the neighborhood of $20,000. The butter will be distributed between the coast cities and the Kootenay. This firm made several large shipments to the Klondike last season. F. A. D. Bourke of Battleford, recently sold a butcher there a fat cow that dressed 1,005 pounds. She beat the previous record of that district by 100 The Klondike fever will give a special impetus to horse breeding on the foothill ranches. Their present stock for sale will be all taken up at good figures for transport by the Edmonton route. Alex. Wood, Souris, lately sold a five months' old calf which weighed, when dressed, 400 pounds. This shows what can be done in the way of fattening cattle when it is given proper attention.

Paid in Capital, - -

OFFICERS:

C. H. SHELDON, Pres't. II, P. H. OEHLRICH, Vice Pres. DANIEL SCHRAM, Cashier. FRANK ROKER, Asst. Cash'r. DIRECT RS: H. P. H. OEHLMCR, W. A. MCALLISTER, C. A. SHELDON, IONAS WELCH. CARL RIENKE, C. GRAY. FRANK ROHRER.

FTOCKH LDERS: SARELDA DLLIS, I HENRY WORLDWAN HENRY LOSEKE, LARK GRAY, GEO. W. GALLEY, J. P. BECKER ESTATE, H. M. WINSLOW. DANIEL SCHRAM. F. H. OEHLRICH, REBECCA BECKER,

Bank of Deposit; interest allowed on time deposits; buy and cell exchange on United States and Europe, and buy and cell avail-able securities. We shall be pleased to re-ceive your business. We solicit your pat-

A weekly newspaper de-voted the best interests of

COLUMBUS THE CONNTY OF PLATTE.

The State of Nebraska

THE UNITED STATES

AND THE REST OF MANKIND

The unit of measure with

$1.50 A YEAR.

IF PAID IN ADVANCE.

But our limit of usefulness is not prescribed by dollars and cents. Eample copies sent free to any address.

UNDERTAKER! Coffins : and : Metallic : Cases this state-canals which receive their Repairing of all kinds of Uphol supplies of water from the spring stery Goods. freshets and from the overflow of riv-

0 0

The Match of the Future, We are promised a revolution in matches. There is a prospect of the wooden match industry being apparclably affected by a new invention for manufacturing matches from paper, as the best wood for this purpose is constantly growing scarcer and more costly. The new matches are consid-was some hours before the patient recovered from what was truly an alarming condition. Violent attacks of some extremely poisonous plant, which became concentrated in the venom of the sting. Be that as it may, the condition was such as to excite grave apprehension, the more so as it was several days before recovery was complete

90,000

erably cheaper than the wooden product, and weigh much less, which counts the matches consist of rolled paper immersed in a solution of wax, stearine, in one operation, being turned by ma- have dropped from the days of Nero chinery into long, thin tubes; pieces of up to the present time and would not the ordinary length of wood of wax now be exhausted. matches being cut off automatically 'y the machine, after which they are dipped in the ordinary way.

Electric Ecl in London. Once more an electric eel is in resi-with the five needle instruments; in don zoo and once more visitors, anxious to test its powers, can be thoroughly shocked at sixpence. Pretty well half of the body of this extraordinary be- lin, where the Wheatstone instrument ing is occupied by organs which are is employed, reaches 463 words; and not only electric batteries, but accum- thus what was regarded as miraculous ulators as well, and the shock is suffisixty years ago has multiplied a hunciently powerful to numb one's arm for dred-fold in half a century. minute or two, and to kill a good sized fish on the spot. The two ends of the fish seem to be in opposite electrical conditions, so that those who wish to make experiment of its properties should grasp both head and tail simultaneously in order to obtain the this dates from the time the creature full benefit of the discharge.

Artesian Wells in Dakota. The results of irrigation the past season in South Dakota have been very ciety of London. It weighs about a quarter of a ton and is an exceedingly lively animal. Aluminium for Grain Buckets. Aluminium is being tried for grain buckets by the India Wharf Brewing company of Brooklyn. The buckets are attached to an endless chain and it is thought by making them of aluminium that the decrease in weight would result in a saving of power and experience has proved the correctness #### of the conclusion.

Substitutes for India-Rubber Combinations of linseed oil, peanut, rape or mustard oil with sulphur form rubber like substances which are said to be largely used in the manufacture of india rubber compounds. Pure, un vulcanized india rubber will float.nearly submerged in water, while the oil substitutes, being slightly heavier in proportion to their bulk, sink.

A Bicycle of Glass. gratifying and demonstrate that the semi-arid portions of the state by this of this material, which is exceedingly means can be made as productive as hard. It is claimed that the machine

The Price of Kisse

(This Gigantic Pail Will Just Contain a Life's Supply of Liquid Refreshment.)

for much in exportation. The sticks of If it had been used in the torture of a met her she was simply confused by criminal by allowing one drop to fall the first faint flush of success. She on his outstretched hand every min- knew she had a great future before and similar substances. They are made ute day and night the supply would her, and she felt the fire of genius burning: the entire world was hers to conquer-that is how she felt for one > beautiful, brief night. Now this fair maiden from the West is thinking of returning to the bosom of her family, Speed of Telegraphy. When the first electric telegraph was | with $300 worth of experience and the established, the speed of transmission memory of the night she walked was from four to five words a minute across the stage and talked to herself. She will give her dear, good papa dence in the insect house at the Lon- 1849 the average rate for newspaper a receipt for his $300, show him a promessages was seventen words a min- gram with her name on it, and tell ute; the present pace of the electric the neighbors of the great success she telegraph between London and Dub- made in New York, and that she has only gone home to rest-yes, may-

> A remarkable feature of "Secret Service" is the fact that William Gillette has succeeded in totally avoiding the use of those theatrical devices Longevity of Animals. It is said that the giant tortoise of known as "asides" and soliloquies. In the Seychelles Islands is the longest other words, there is no time during lived animal in the world. The known the performance when an actor "is age of one now living is 150 years, and made to speak to the audience thoughts which are supposed to be was full grown. How old it was at passing through his brain, and which the time of its capture no one is able he does not want others on the stage to conjecture. A fine specimen has to hear. been presented to the Zoological So-Alf Grant, comedian and mimic, was born in Liverpool, July, 1868. At an early age he was considered one of the best dancers in England. He came to this five years for H. C. Dobson, learning the banjo trade. He left Dobson to accept a position as call boy for the Duff Opera Co., and traveled with that company one season. J. H. Ryley, recognizing his ability as a mimic, advised him to do a specialty, and he traveled deville houses. He then joined the original "Dazzler" Co. with Lydia Thompson, playing comedy parts with success, and consequently joined Wm. Kenney.

The newest bicycle is made entirely of glass, even the ball bearings being any part of the northwest. There are can be used just as if it were made of two distinct methods of irrigation in steel.

lady who had come from the wilds of the West to become a member of a school of acting. She had brought $300 with her, which she paid in advance when she joined the school; then she bought a box of make-up, and felt like a full-fledged actress at once. DENMAN THOMPSON.

met her one evening after a perband, Fred Terry. Her success with formance in which she had been al-John Hare's company in America some lowed to appear. She had walked across the stage twice and had spoken two years ago was marked, and should she come again it is likely to be retwo lines loud enough for the leader of the orchestra to hear, and when I peated.

> Of living actors and playwrights, perhaps Mr. Beerbohm Tree, Mr. Cecil Raleigh, Mr. Arthur Roberts, Mr. Penley and Mr. Toole have uttered more spontaneous mixed metaphors than most men. Patriotic Mr. Beerbohm Tree is said to have observed upon a famous occasion that "the British lion will never draw in its horns or retire into its shell, whether roaming the deserts of India, exploring the mines of Australia or scaling the mountains of Canada." Macready once remarked, in the course of an after-dinner address, that he congratulated himself most upon having torn the mask off the traitor's face and revealed his cloven foot: whereupon Phelps rose to second him and warmly urged that it was "high time the odicus, hydra-headed faction. of which the gentleman referred to lishing house. In the spring of 1883 formed the tail, should be soundly rap- he became identified with the Brook-

ped over the knuckles." Was it not Mr. Cecil Raleigh who remarked at a meeting of the Playgoers' founders of the old Nassau Athletic club that he pursued the shadow until club, which flourished at Washington the bubble burst and left its ashes in | Park during the eighties. He is a conhis hand? He has also said that many sistent cyclist, and has for a number modern novels written with a purpose of years been a prominent member of might as well have been written with the Good Roads Association, at present a penknife for all the good they would occupying an executive office in that ever do to anybody.

Clyde Fitch has another play ready so widely known in Brooklyn. He is for production. It will be presented in a member of the Prospect club, the Philadelphia in February by Herbert | Carleton club, and captain of the Com-Kelcey and by Effie Shannon, and for monwealth Council team of the Royal one of the roles Mrs. Sarah Cowell Le! Arcanum League. The other organizations which claim Mr. Ebbetts as a Moyne has been engaged. member include the Park club, and Marie Burroughs has decided not to many secret societies. Since he took join Robert Hilliard's "A New Yorker" up his residence in Brooklyn Mr. Ebcompany, at Hoyt's. She may possibly betts has lived in the Twenty-second return to the stage in some other play. ward. He is a delegate to the Demohowever, before long.

The biggest "jump" made by a theatrical company this season was from Omaha to SanFrancisco, 1,864 miles. This trip was made in October by the "Under the Red Robe" company. Pinero is now 42 years old. He was a lawyer and an actor before he became a dramatist. It is said that he was ten months writing "The Princess and the Butterfly." Marie Corelli has dramatized her

"Barabbas," and Frank W. Sanger has nearly concluded arrangements whereby James O'Neil may present the play next season.

A Tramp and His Orphans. He shuffled down Chestnut street yesterday afternoon, a genuine specimen of the "Weary Willie" type. At bearing on the championship contest. Mr. Brush has been conspicuous in his work for the good of the game, and I LOUIS SOCKALEXIS. went to Holy Cross College at 'Nordo not believe he would be a party to any transactions that would have any tendency to cast public doubt on its with the latter's team, several seasons honesty. I believe that the national game should be above reproach, and that no two teams in the major league should be controlled by the same perteam.

Charles H. Ebbetts, one of the young The Philadelphia Ball club, limited, est base ball magnates in the National was, on Jan. 6, given a verdict of $39,-League, has been identified with the 089 by a jury at that city, in an action sporting, social and political life of to recover damages for the change of shades of her ancestors for her parlor Brooklyn for the past fifteen years. He grade at Broad and Huntington streets. | windows."-Truth. was born in New York on Oct. 29, 1858, The case was heard before Judge Auand had a public school education. His denreid, and this is the third time first business venture was as an archidamages have been awarded the club tect, but he found the confining work against the city of Philadelphia. A road uncongenial and scon entered a pubjury first gave" the club a verdict of over $25,000. This was appealed, and on the second trial a jury placed the lyn base ball club, and has been its damages at $29,000. The city again apsecretary ever since. He has always pealed and the decision was reversed been a lover of sports, being one of the by the Supreme Court, necessitating the trial which has just closed. The action for damages grew out of the building of the profession at ail times, but to find health in mud is rather a modern innovaof the "hump" on Broad street, the club claiming damages for the expense they were put to by having to erect a new friend Dana had found the same source of wall along Broad street, in having hat vitality in time he might be abiding with their carriage gate and entrance at organization. It is probably as a bowler that Mr. Ebbetts has become and other items.

> Pittsburg club said in a recent interview: "The spring exhibition games think that Manager Tebeau of the Cleveland team has the same idea 1a this respect that I have, so that there | hammer blows, which made the oppo will be few of cur old hands playing in the games. You see the sooner we find cut what our new men are likely to do the better it will be for them and for an editorial about Magno-Mud with his the games. You see the sooner we find the better it will be for them and for us. If they do not seem to be able to hold their own in the major league, mud-treatment. In November he went then the sooner they get a chance to join a minor league the better for them. And the sooner we find out that they are for the minor leagues for the time being the better it will be for us financially. I have great faith in the games that have been arranged, and I will be greatly disappointed if they do not result in lots of good for both clubs."

The only herd of buffalo in Western Canada today are those in the neighhorhood of Winnipeg, the property of Lord Strathcona and those in the neighborhood of Mount Royal. They are about to be removed to the cester, Mass., and it was while pluying National Park at Banff, in the Rocky Mountains. The removal of these huge ago, that Jesse Burkett, of the Cleve- animals a distance of over a thousand lands, who was then coaching the Holy miles by rail is an immense undertak-Cross team, recommended Sockalexis ing, and as these animals are not altoto Manager Tebeau, of the Cleveland gether tame, it will be attended with more or less danger.

> "Mrs. Strucket affects the antique in her house decorations-" "Yes, she told me the other day she was heartbroken because she couldn't get the

> > MEDILL AND MUD.

The Old War-Horse of Journalism Dis covers the Virtue of a New Medicinal Variety.

There are only a few of them left. Since Chas. A. Dana's death, "Joe" Medill, the old war.horse of the Chicago Tribune, is the chief surviving representative of the old school of virile, aggressive editorial giants.

To have mud thrown at them was part tion. That is what "Joe" Mcdill has been doing of late, and he feels that if his old us stil

Mr. Medill is an investigator and when Broad and Huntingdon streets closed, | the stories of the miraculous Magno-Mud at Indiana Mineral Springs began to spread over the country, the great editor became interested and eventually decided to try President W. H. Watkins of the this mysterious substance on his own rheuaccompanied by his private physician, Dr. Toros Sarkisian, a young Armenian sciwith the Clevelands have been mostly arranged to try our new players. I weeks and gained visibly in weight, strength and vitality. The chief evidence of his recuperation was a series of editorial sledgotremble.

The final result of the experiment was own hand. Next, he sent his son-in-law. R. S. McCormick, down for a little of the is completed he expects to be a regula visitor four times a year.

This mud-treatment in which Mr. Medill found so much virtue, is peculiar, yet log-ical. After all, every form of life springs from the earth, which is the great de er and assimilator of dead and effete mat-ter. All life is fed at the breast of Mother Earth. At the Indiana Mineral Springs is a beautiful little natural amphitheatre, the slopes being grown with magnificent oaks. At the foot of the converging hills, a big Lithia spring gushes forth at the rate of 3,00) barrels a day and floods the soil, which consists of a rich black parous loans Manager Ewing, of the Cincinnati team, said recently: "If Chicago has started a deal for Miller, our right fielder. I have heard nothing about it. I won't say what the Cincinnati club will do in case a trade is offered, be-

