New York, May 17 .- The Tribune says: Major General Wesley Merritt may not go to the Philippine islands in command of the troops to be sent to the assistance of Rear Admiral Dewey and to take charge of the territory when in American possession, as mili tary governor. Ever since his return from Washington, whither he was summoned last week for conference before the announcement was made that he was to command the Manila expedition, General Merritt has been busily arranging for his departure. In an interview last night, General Merritt said: "I may not go to the Philippines at all. It is proposed t give me 15,000 men, only 1,000 of them regulars and the rest volunteers, and those from the northwest, who have had little opportunity for training and discipline. I have asked the departtroops, for I believe that they will be required. There will be no opportunity to train the volunteer forces before they start or after they get to Manila. I want enough disciplined troops so as possible." "Are you going to Washington to see about this matter?"

"No. but I am sending an officer. had a conversation with Dr. Bourns of Atlanta, who is familiar with the Philippines, and came on to see me, and he and Colonel Hughes will go to Washington together. The only way I could get more regular troops would be to take them from the army now in Florida for Cuban invasion. But I feel that I do not want to go on this expedition unless I have an entirely adequate force and at least five regiments of regular troops. The department has promised to send on more men, but history and experience show that in such expeditions all depends on the first force sent." "How can the Charleston start there are no men ready? General Otis may be willing to go on without five regiments of regular troops and take only 1,000 trained men with 14,000 undisciplined ones, but I am not. I do not propose to go without a force that is suitable to my rank. I shall stay right here if I do not go to the Philippines. I don't expect anything will be done in the matter until it is certain what I am to have for the purpose of the expedition."

by Secretary Long relative to the publication of news emanating from the navy department, had the effect of considerably curtailing the supply of information that heretofore has been rather freely given out. The secretary's order was directed to Captain Crowinshield. chief of the navigation bureau, and he in turn gave it out by making an order in his own name that no person connected with his bureau in any capacity should have any conversation whatever upon subjects in any way pertaining to the navy, with the representatives of the press. As an offset it was ordered that bulletins of such facts as have actually occurred and are proper for publication and are not connected with existing or projected movements shall be prepared and posted on the bulletin board. The sum total of the information published by the bulletin board yesterday under this rule was a notice of the intention to start the Philippine relief expedition and of the permission given to some foreign neutral vessels to pass the blockade at Havana.

Forced to Revise Plans. In explanation of the issue of order the naval authorities say that some of the leading American newspapers have been so far lacking in patriotism as to print plans of campaign and projected movements of naval ships with the result that the war board has been obliged to completely revise its plans, in the knowledge that the Spanish had promptly taken notice of the publications and were prepared to profit by them. Complaint was OUR FLEETS ARE TO BE COMBINED. made to Secretary Long that the newspapers were working injury to the government in such cases. It is not the purpose of the secretary to prevent the press having any information that is not calculated to cause a miscarriage of the plans of the department, but it remains to be seen whether the naval officers to whom the order has been directed will not by their ironclad interpretation of it bring about a modification in the interest of liberality. The opening of the blockade at Havana to certain vessels is a rather curconsiderable widening of the blockade itself, so that in the end the neutral vessels not loaded with contraband or supplies, the carrying of which into Hayana would interfere with the naval the United States.

Intimations have been received here that Captain General Blanco at Havana is very short of ammunition, in which case the powerful batteries at the entrance of Havana harbor of course would be deprived of a large part of their defensive strength. This state of affairs may lead to some desperate attempts at blockade running on the part of the Spaniards in the hopes of getting more ammunition into Havana. It is believed that the supplies so frequently referred to as being on the Spanish flying squadron were of this character, rather than food supplies, which makes it all the more important that Sampson and Schley should succeed in keeping Admiral Cervera from reaching Havana or Cienfuegos or any port in Cuba connected with Havana by rail.

Good Quality of Armor. The navy department is getting better and better quality of armor as the contracts expire. A 13-inch plate tested at Indian Head Saturday with a 10inch gun showed itself to be equal or superior to any piece of armor that has ever been made, with the highest velocity at 1,945 feet per second, the shot penetrating only 12 inches without cracking the plate. It was the very last piece to be delivered under the existing contract and is intended for the Kentucky.

The war department rushed ahead its preparations for the mobilization and thorough equipment of the volunteer army and the progress which is being made is most gratifying. The important development of the day was the definite selection of the corps commanders. The announcement, however, does not contain any surprises. Though Major General Merritt is acwill be the plan of the secretary of the credited to the department of the Pacific, such destination is made formally, but is known that he well go to the Philippines in command of the army there and will be accommanied by Major General Otis. Nothing ever seen here approached the funeral pageant. The body arrived here late Sunday night, was taken to the house of Ensign Bagley's widowed mother, where a detail of troops kept constant gnard. The love of all classes of people for the dead officer was shown in the stream of callers and the wealth of floral tributes. The latter came from near and far and it was significant that most of them were red, white and blue. On the casket were the dead officer's chapeau and sword. > Columbia Receives Orders. PHILADELPHIA, May 17.—The United States cruiser Columbia passed the Delaware capes at 2:30 yesterday afternoon and then came to anchor. Her arrival was unexpected and it is the general impression that she came in for orders from Washington. A boat came ashore with mail and official reports. Soon after orders were received for the Colambia through the signal service station, and after a stay of several hours the cruiser steamed away.

As the procession moved 11 guns were Movements of Corvers's Squadren fired by a battery and 11 were fired at the grave and then the two regiments fired three volleys. The body was buried quite near the grave of Ensign Bagley's grandfather, Governor Worth. of Venezuela. WASHINGTON, May 17.—Spain's fleet in the Caribbean sea is to be met by a squadron consisting of the armor clads of the United States in the Atlantic. In view of the fact that the Vizcay and Infanta Maria Teresa took on board a small supply of coal, it is evident, officials believe, that the Spanish fleet was short of coal, and that it was desirous of husbanding as much as pos-sible the supply aboard its colliers. For one reason the authorities are glad that the Spanish ships coaled at Curacoa. because it debars them from returning to Dutch ports within the next 90 days.

Authorities In Dark. As to the next point of appearance of the Spanish fleet the authorities are totally in the dark. No doubt is felt that an effort will be made to combine the force at Martinique and the Cape Verde fleet in order that Admiral Cervera may have under his command as formidable a squadron as possible. The report that a second squadron, under the command of Admiral Villami, consisting in part of the armored Asturias and Cataluna, is off Martinique is regarded as a Spanish ruse intended to draw the attention of this government from the Cape Verde fleet. and has failed of effect. In the first place, the authorities have information showing that all armored vessels of the Spanish navy now in commission, with the exception of those attached to the Cape Verde squadron, are in European waters, and in the second place, the latest information in their possession shows that the Catalua, Cisneros and Princess De Asturias are not yet ready for active service.
