A Tax on Mixed Flour.

A Tax on Mixed Flour. A substitute was adopted for the Senate pro-vision for a tax on mixed flour, but the mate-rial points were retained. The substitute re-quires that persons engaged in making, packing or repacking mixed flour shall pay a special tax at the rate of $12 per annum, and the license granted is to be posted in accordance with the provisions of sec-tion 3:42 and 3:29 of the revised statutes, the fines and penalties to be the same as imposed in those sections. They are re-quired to mark each package as mixed flour, and it is to be put up only in original packages. In addition to the annual license a tax of 4 Proprietary Articles. Medicinal proprietary articles and preparations-Upon every packet, box, bottle, pot or phial, or other inclosure, containing any pills, powders, tinctures, troches, syrups, cordials, bitters, anodynes, tonics, plasters, liniments, salves, ointments, pastes, drops, waters (except natural spring waters and carbonated tural spring waters) essences, spirits, oils and all medicinal preparations or compositions In addition to the annual license a tax of 4 cents per barrel is levied upon all mixed flour manufactured, sold or removed for sale. The same rate is proportionately levied on half bar-rels and smaller packages. There shall be levied, collected and paid upon whatsoever, made and sold, or removed for sale by any person wherein the person making or preparing the same has or claims to have any rivate formula or any exclusive right, where

> Decision in a Nebraska Case. An important pension decision has been handed down by the secretary of the interior in the case of Joshua C. Hart of Nuckolls county, Nebraska, on appeal by Representative Suth. erland. The case involved the admissability of evidence not in accordance with the evidence of the medical officers of the pension bureau. The claimant had many witnesses to testtify to his physical disability to a greater extent than was manifested by the report of the medical examining board, but the case was rejected. It was then appealed by Mr. Sutherland. The case has been ordered to
