

NEBRASKA NEWS.

Benjamin Adamson, night watchman of Crete, had last week of locking a resident from an injured thumb. He leaves a wife and four children well provided for, as he carried $2,000 in the M. W. A. lodge, besides an accident policy in an insurance company.

Hugo Polenski, who was employed by Klotz & Polenski in their brickyard at Hastings, had his right hand ground to a pulp by getting it caught in a brick machine. It was necessary to amputate the hand about four inches above the wrist.

Corporal S. S. Sidner of Company K, Third United States volunteer cavalry of Fremont, who is now home on furlough, has received notice from the secretary of war that a discharge will be granted him for disability. Sidner had a severe attack of typhoid fever at Chickamauga and was for some time in a convalescent hospital.

Drs. Wertenberg and Lewis of Humboldt while hunting succeeded in bagging a very large peccan, which measured seven and one-half feet from tip of tail to tip of ear, and weighed fourteen and one-half pounds. The peccan under its bill would hold a leafy branch. The bird was shipped to the state university to be mounted.

The old soldiers of Cherry, Rock, Brown and Keya Paha counties closed a three days' reunion with a rousing march. The marching band of the veterans was very numerous. Quite a number camped on the grounds during the session. The reunion will be held at Long Pine next year.

While several hundred people were returning to Homer from the race track adjoining the town where a racing machine had been held, the team of Charles Vasa, a farmer living below Homer, was being driven by a runaway. While turning the corner of the bluff going into Homer they crashed into the buggy occupied by D. A. Atch and wife, residents of Derby, totally demolishing the buggy and seriously injuring both the occupants.

A serious cutting scrape occurred some twelve miles northeast of Holdrege in the early part of the week. Joseph Johnson eleven times in the chest and front part of the body. One of the wounds penetrated the spine of the victim. Strachan, a twin brother, and Clyde Porter, also concerned in the matter. All three of the boys, who are under twenty, have been arrested and preliminary hearings set for the 19th pending developments.

George Russell is again at liberty. He sprung the lock of his cell in the jail in Papillion and escaped. Jailer Geo. Wood, who temporarily absented himself when the fellow of this place the second time he has escaped, having been recaptured on the fact of the escape. The screen door of the jail was smashed open and the prisoner received no assistance in this attempt at liberty. There were two other prisoners confined in the jail, but they made no effort to escape.

Dear Meyer, Herbert Crossman, Wellington Butler, Eric Erickson and James Killian, members of Company M, who have been encamped at Chickamauga park, returned last week to Grand Island. Butler, who is in very poor physical condition. They all tell of the suffering that had to be endured in the regiment and in the hospitals and seem to be unanimously of the opinion that a considerable portion of the suffering could have been avoided by the medical department.

The postoffice at Weeping Water was covered, the safe door blown off and about $15 in money taken. The door was blown through the partition and about fifteen feet from the safe. A dark lantern, some powder, fuses and a chest full of cartridges were the postmaster's private office. No stamps were taken, and there was about $150 worth of jewelry in the safe. The same jewelry which was not disturbed. The safe was drilled, the powder evidently having been introduced through the edge of the door.

Six men are in jail at Seward charged with robbing William Boshart's store in Milford of this place. They were captured west of Milford and had a preliminary hearing before Judge Lameson at that place and were bound over to the district court. Five to give bonds, they were brought to Seward and placed in jail. They traveled in a wagon and a set of harness tools were found in their wagon. It was also found there two of the men disposed of shoes taken from Boshart's store. It is claimed they are the same tools that did similar work at Ullyess some time ago.

Edward C. Hartman, a young farmer living near Chadron, through his attorney, Albert W. Critch, has brought suit against George Brost, a German farmer living near Chadron, for $5,000 damages, alleged due him for false imprisonment, which resulted in injury to his name and reputation and caused him great mental and bodily suffering while he was under the ban of the law. In April last Brost sold some real estate in Chadron, Nebraska, to George Brost, for $5,000. On the night of the transaction his house was broken into and he was assaulted, presumably by men intent upon robbing him. The assailants secured no money and left the house, but not until after they had severely beaten Brost. Brost had Hartman and two other arrested charged with the assault.

The Nebraska Live Stock company, with headquarters at Grand Island, filed articles of incorporation. The capital is $3,000 paid up, and the incorporators are John S. Inman, John Conway and John S. Inman.

Frank Butcher, aged 19, confined in the county jail at Columbus, charged with horse stealing, made a bold dash for liberty. When Deputy Sheriff Brady went into the jail Butcher made a dash out of the open door and showed Brady a clean cut of heels for that. He was seen at the edge of the village near the Loup river just as he was getting ready to make a swim for the other side.

The seventeenth annual reunion and picnic of the Pioneer and Old Settlers' association of Dakota county was held in Clinton park, adjoining Dakota City, and was attended by fully 10,000 people.

THE RED MAN NOT GREATLY INTERESTED IN THE GRAND SIGHT.

The Red Man Not Greatly Interested in the Grand Sight.

A TOUR OF THE GROUNDS

Serely and Solemnly Passing Through the Great Buildings Without Looking to the Right or to the Left—The Treated Field of the Various Tribes.

Noon at the Trans-Mississippi Exposition! In the Court of Honor the lazy lagoon was motionless, save for the rippling gleam that followed the lazy gondola. Reflected in its depths were the massive, classic forms of the buildings surrounding it.

Down the steps of the Government building came a brilliant procession. Wrapped in blankets of gaudy hue their faces daubed with many colored paints, unkempt hair hanging over their shoulders, beaded moccasins and leggings—picturesque as a group of Sioux braves as one can often see. Their carriage was dignified and stately, their impetuous faces unweary by the splendor of the scene.

Then their faces straightened into gravity, they wrapped themselves in their accustomed dignity, and serenely solemn once more, started on down the court. They were not to be interested in the buildings with never a sign of interest, turning their faces neither to the right nor to the left, until in the Manufacturing building they came to a great bottle which advertised a well known brand of whisky. Here was something they could understand.

Turning to the left they entered the Midway. The Moorish village with its reproductions of the Alhambra, the beautiful and the gaudy minarets, attracted from them no sign of recognition; but in front of the Mystic Maze they stopped again. With a certain great artificial pond of water where the red man, he Apache or Navajo, chief or warrior, brave, squaw or papoose, took his morning plunge. The dance to cap the climax, a pair of green goggles, evidently considered it a new kind of battle cry, and danced gravely around the bonking medicament, trying in vain to imitate him.

They looked with haughty scorn at a group of almost-evelestials, curiously dressed in the style of the white man, and with a look of indifference at the Arabian dancing girls, and then proceeded unconcernedly on their dignified way toward their own camp.

Here the group of tents belonging to the different tribes were scattered about in picturesque profusion. In the center of each a great artificial pond of water where the red man, he Apache or Navajo, chief or warrior, brave, squaw or papoose, took his morning plunge. The dance to cap the climax, a pair of green goggles, evidently considered it a new kind of battle cry, and danced gravely around the bonking medicament, trying in vain to imitate him.

Exeter dispatch: Off of nineteen and one-half acres P. A. Murphy has three fine bushels of wheat and a fine quality, too. Other farmers around here who thought their wheat would not amount to much are meeting with similar surprises and are feeling a whole lot better than they did two months ago. Corn is doing well, but rain is needed badly to settle the dust and cool off the atmosphere.

Roy Horne, the young burglar who was shot while robbing the till of a Cuming street, Omaha, drug store, was brought to Seward for burial. Horne was born and lived in that city until a few years ago and was sent to the reform school there, after which he moved to South Omaha.

The seventeenth annual Cedar-river fair will be held at the grounds of the Hartington Driving Park and Fair association on September 14, 15 and 16. This promises to be the best fair ever held in the county on account of the good premiums and purses offered by the fair association and the liberal premiums of the merchants.

TURKEY MUST ABANDON CRETE

The Foreign Admirals' Fleet on the Move—The Arrival of the Sultan's Forces.

CRETE, Sept. 10.—The admirals of the foreign powers, replying to the projects of the Cretan executive committee against the recent massacre, have declared that they will recommend that their respective governments solve the question definitely by the removal of the Turkish troops from the island of Crete and the appointment of a governor to be selected by the powers.

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 10.—The following dispatch, dated at 8 o'clock last night, has been received from Candia: "The Bahi Banoles are committing excesses and the Christians in the surrounding districts are arming to march to the assistance of the Candians."

LONDON, Sept. 10.—The London Times and the other morning papers call upon the government for energetic action in Crete, more especially if the stories of the complicity of Turkish troops are confirmed. The German and Austrian papers declare that their governments will have nothing to do with Crete. The Cologne Gazette says: "Germany may congratulate herself on having withdrawn her fleet from Crete, thereby leaving the responsibility to others."

CUBANS DISARM FOR FOOD

The Administration Has Found a Way to Settle the Intractable Question.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The administration has decided that the Cuban insurgents will not be furnished food supplies so long as they remain under arms. Since this decision was made the war department officials have been greatly gratified to learn that the advice of the President is being followed. It has been learned that at least 400 of the Cuban soldiers have surrendered their arms and have asked for food and war, and it is believed that there will be little trouble with the forces remaining in the vicinity of Santiago. If this should prove to be the case, the Cuban problem may settle itself with much less difficulty than has been expected. It may even result in a marked decrease in the number of soldiers to be sent to the island, and this is a matter not yet definitely settled.

HEAVY IS THE QUEEN'S CROWN

Wilhelmina Is Well Nigh Exhausted With Her Landing Honors.

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 10.—Queen Wilhelmina is well nigh exhausted by the prolonged festivities in connection with the enthronement. Her majesty has issued a special request to the members of the cabinet to leave the palace in charge of the hospital convalescing board that they had not failed to make the necessary requisitions for supplies, but could not get them. It is not possible for this board to say whether they did all that was required, but they did not succeed in so far as they were concerned.

G. A. R. NAMES A CHIEF

Colonel James A. Sexton of Chicago Elected Commander.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 10.—Colonel James A. Sexton of Chicago was elected commander-in-chief of the G. A. R. and Philadelphia chosen as the location of the thirty-third annual encampment next year. The encampment opened this morning with a small attendance and proceeded to finish the election of officers. The following were elected by acclamation: Senior vice commander-in-chief, W. C. Johnson of Cincinnati.

GRAY TO TAKE WHITE'S PLACE

Peace Commission Completed by the Detachment of Senator's Appointment.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The President has named Senator George Gray of Delaware as the fifth member of the peace commission. This completes the personnel of the commission, which stands: Secretary Day, Senators Brand, Frye and Gray and White. In selecting Senator Gray the President has given Democratic representation upon the commission. The appointment probably will necessitate the retirement of Mr. Gray from the Anglo-American commission which is conducting its sessions in London. In selecting Senator Gray the President's commission will resume its work about the time the peace commission will be organized.

OUR TRADE WITH ENGLAND

Figures for the Fiscal Year for All Exports and Imports.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The exports from the United States to the United Kingdom have increased 12 per cent from the imports from the United Kingdom have fallen off 33 per cent during the fiscal year. The exports from the United States to the United Kingdom were in round numbers five times as much as the imports from the United Kingdom, the figures for the fiscal year being: Exports to the United Kingdom, $109,138,363; imports to the United Kingdom, $34,960,132.

MILES CALLS ON WINKLEY

The Visit Was Formal and Lasted Only a Few Minutes.

THE GENERAL TO CALL AGAIN

General Shafter Says All Talk of Friction Between Himself and Miles Is "Poppycock"—Was a Long Sober Interview With Secretary Algeo to the Lator's Car

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—General Miles paid his respects to the President at 10:45 o'clock. The call was brief owing to the cabinet meeting at 11 o'clock and was confined to a formal exchange of courtesies. The general wore a very fatigued expression showing the two-starred epaulettes of a major general. At the time of his arrival the President was conferring with Justice Harlan, Senator Allison and other callers. General Miles and Colonel Michler were shown into the cabinet ante-room and there the President joined them, excusing himself from the other callers.

It was not in the nature of a conference, during which questions relating to the war were discussed, but was that formal call of respect usual upon the return of a high official. The conference for more extended discussion of the war affairs, pushing forward, although it was said after the call that no exact time had been fixed for a further meeting. General Miles had nothing to say before or after the call. He was greeted with a round of applause as he left the White house, pushing his way through the dense crowd awaiting the review of returning District of Columbia troops.

MANILA STRIKE AT AN END

Street Car Lines Again Running—The First Protestants Service.

MANILA, Sept. 10.—The United States consul here, G. F. Williams, in behalf of Captain N. Mayo Dyer of the United States cruiser Baltimore, has returned to General Miranda the sword which the latter surrendered to the American officer at the entrance of Corregidor island, at the entrance of the bay of Manila. The general replied that he was overwhelmed by the generosity of Captain Dyer. The men who went out on strike on account of an attempt to return to the bay of Manila, which was the order of the American authorities, in the early exigencies of the situation here, had agreed to the extravagant demands of the laborers, and are disappearing, and it has become necessary to employ soldiers to take their place in some cases, while in other cases the strike has been compromised. One of these strikes, as called September 5, caused the suspension of traffic on the horse car lines of Manila, but they resumed operations to-day.

The American army chaplains have instituted Protestant services in private buildings. Such services have never previously been held in the history of the Philippine islands. The services were held in the afternoon at 7 o'clock. The services were held in the afternoon at 7 o'clock. The services were held in the afternoon at 7 o'clock.

WILL BE SECRET

Cuban Commission to Meet Behind Closed Doors—Spain Sends Instructions.

HAVANA, Sept. 10.—The Spanish minister to Madrid, General Canales, who arrived yesterday afternoon, brought instructions from the Madrid government to the Spanish evacuation commission, dealing with the details of the evacuation, the question of fortifications, buildings, mortgages and other properties of the state to be renounced by Spain along with her sovereignty in the island. The joint sessions of the co-commissioners will be held behind closed doors, and it is expected that the government, and it is understood that the utmost secrecy will be observed, all avenues of information being zealously guarded.

MR. HAY'S SENTIMENTS

He Favors a Clear "Understanding" With England.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—A committee of the Anglo-American League, headed by its chairman, James Bryce, president of the United States ambassador, Colonel John Hay, yesterday with address congratulating him upon his acceptance of the portfolio of secretary of state at Washington. Colonel Hay, in reply, said in part: "On both sides of the ocean the conviction is almost universal that a clear, distinct and friendly understanding between Great Britain and the United States is a necessity of civilization. I shall hold myself signally fortunate if I am able to do anything to continue and strengthen the relations of fraternal amity between our two nations."

GRAY TO TAKE WHITE'S PLACE

Peace Commission Completed by the Detachment of Senator's Appointment.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The President has named Senator George Gray of Delaware as the fifth member of the peace commission. This completes the personnel of the commission, which stands: Secretary Day, Senators Brand, Frye and Gray and White. In selecting Senator Gray the President has given Democratic representation upon the commission. The appointment probably will necessitate the retirement of Mr. Gray from the Anglo-American commission which is conducting its sessions in London. In selecting Senator Gray the President's commission will resume its work about the time the peace commission will be organized.

OUR TRADE WITH ENGLAND

Figures for the Fiscal Year for All Exports and Imports.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The exports from the United States to the United Kingdom have increased 12 per cent from the imports from the United Kingdom have fallen off 33 per cent during the fiscal year. The exports from the United States to the United Kingdom were in round numbers five times as much as the imports from the United Kingdom, the figures for the fiscal year being: Exports to the United Kingdom, $109,138,363; imports to the United Kingdom, $34,960,132.

SILVELLA WANTS SAGASTA OUT

A Duke for Power in Promoting the Conservative Leader's Course.

MADRID, Sept. 10.—The following statement has been made by an important Spanish official: "Senator Silvela, the leader of a section of the Conservative party, refuses the government support of his party, although he is fully aware of the difficulties of the situation. He is doubtless prompted by the desire to obtain power. We will do all in our power to realize his desire with short delay. The country will then see how soon the man who is posing as a Liberal will be transformed into a despotic dictator."

General Feliu has handed a copy of his manifesto to the newspaper men; but the censor forbids its publication. The censor also forbids its transmission by telegraph. It is probable that the general intends to read it to-day in the Cortes, but it is certain that the general will give up his office, and will insist upon a secret session. The Madrid Liberal to-day again makes the assertion that Premier Sagasta will resign as soon as the chamber adopts the peace bill.

FUNERAL OF CADET WHEELER

The General Will Accompany His Son's Body to the Alhambra Rooms.

CAMP WHEELER, N. Y. Sept. 10.—An impressive funeral service was held at 7 o'clock this morning for Naval Cadet Thomas H. Wheeler, son of Major General Joseph Wheeler, and Second Lieutenant Newton D. Kirkpatrick, First United States cavalry, who were drowned while bathing Wednesday afternoon last. General Wheeler, his daughter and his son, Lieutenant Joseph Wheeler, Jr., were the chief mourners. The Rev. Archibald Bradshaw, chaplain of the One-Hundred and Seventy-first provisional New York regiment, offered prayer and read the burial service.

AGUINALDO TO BE OUSTED

Jalisco State Between Insurgent Leaders—They Oppose Americans.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—A dispatch to the New York Herald from Manila says: "The attitude of the Philippine insurgent leaders is daily becoming more dangerous. So open is their opposition to the American authorities, which has become so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What makes the situation the more troublesome is the undivided rivalry between the followers of General Aguinaldo, the self-proclaimed dictator, and General Pilo, who is a more moderate and conciliatory leader. Aguinaldo no longer attempts to conceal his hostility to the officials who represent the United States, and yesterday issued an order prohibiting his soldiers from entering the American lines. This course was probably deemed necessary in order to prevent their becoming so strained and reconciliation may be difficult. What