FELL FROM A SCAFFOLD.

John Young, of Le Roy, N. Y., is 75 years old, and is well known in that neighborhood. He was putting some of his lumber on a scaffold twenty-two feet from the ground, he fell down his ladder and fell to the ground. The side of his face, arm and one entire side of his body, on which he struck, was badly bruised. Ficked up and carried to the house, he was under a doctor's care for several weeks. The doctor finally came to the conclusion that his patient had received a stroke of paralysis of the right side of the face, arm and leg, and was beyond recovery. He could not use his arm, or turn over in bed. One day, while lying on the bed, he read of the "Little Pink Pills for Pale People." He bought a box of the pills. After that he had been used for several weeks, he began to feel better. At the end of four he could move his fingers; at the end of two months he could walk, and in three months he could shave himself with the injured hand. As he told his story in the Herald office, he looked the perfect picture of health. He carries a box of the pills in his pocket, and whenever he does not feel just right, he takes them. They cured him after doctors had given him up, and his death was daily expected. All the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves are contained in a condensed form in Dr. Williams' "Little Pink Pills for Pale People." They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, neuralgia, paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, chorea, neuritis, rheumatism, nervous headache, and other affections of the brain, and all forms of weakness either in male or female.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last year was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, made and sold by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful, and reaches the seat of the disease through the mucous surfaces of the system. It cures catarrh of the bladder, prostate gland, and urethra in both males and females. Send for circular and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

Sweet Curdling of Milk.
Sometimes Milk, instead of souring, curdles in a relatively sweet condition, writes Prof. H. L. Russell in Hoard's Dairyman. To the casual observer, such a curdled or lopped condition of milk is not infrequently met with, but the difference is apparent when the milk is once tasted, for, as a rule, it lacks the acidity that marks ordinary sour milk. Then, again, the curdling occurs much earlier than it does when the milk sours. If the curd is carefully noted the appearance of the curd is not infrequently recognizable other differences than those mentioned, as he compares it with the ordinary lactic acid fermentation. The curd produced by the sour milk fermentation is usually firm and hard, the curd from the sweet milk is soft and spongy and becomes jelly-like, and finally dissolves, leaving a turbid whey. This whey is not infrequently quite slimy. As a rule, milk that curdles white, generally undergoes subsequent digestion or dissolution of the casein. In such cases the curd softens and becomes jelly-like, and finally dissolves, leaving a turbid whey. This whey is not infrequently quite slimy.
