NEGOTIATIONS NOT ENDED.

Spain Simply Declined and the Conference Adjourned.

NO COUNTER PROPOSITION.

Before the Meeting the American Commissioners Expected the Retention of the Philippine Provinces—The Spaniards Refused.

PARIS, Nov. 3.—The joint session of the peace commission today lasted two hours. The Spaniards refused the propositions made by the Americans on Monday last, but the negotiations were not broken off. While it is believed that no formal counter proposition was made, the Spaniards have indicated that they are prepared to return to the Philippine question outside the lines of the American proposition. The commission then adjourned until Tuesday.

The two commissions met at 3 o'clock. The Americans were aware before the meeting opened that the Spaniards would decline the Philippine proposition.

The Gaieties says it has been informed on absolutely reliable authority that Spain will refuse to discuss the Philippine question. Spain, it is further asserted, had made particular reservations concerning the retention of the Philippine islands and the Spanish minister of foreign affairs, Duke Almodovar de Rio, had himself, at the time of the signing of the peace protocol, stipulated that the island of Luzon alone should remain occupied by the American troops while the peace negotiations were in progress and that Spain would resume sovereignty over Luzon as soon as a more liberal form of government for the islands should have been decided upon.

The Spaniards say: "The claims of the United States on the Philippine islands are looked upon with disfavor at St. Petersburg. The powers might, in case of American provocation, prohibit on this point, be provoked to protest."

The event says: "Your money or your life is the position taken by America in relation to Spain. It will not tolerate aggression in Porto Rico and the abandonment of Cuba and thinks she has thus discharged her ransom."

"Pardon me," answers Jonathan, "you yet have the Philippine island, which are only an incumbrance to you, and the United States is not to be trifled with on this point, be provoked to protest."
