He was way of Hong Kong and Japan on the steamer Fern, and brought a large number of curious and souvenirs for his friends. The boys of the First have travelled much and passed through many hardships and experience since going into the service. Dick will be kept busy for some time telling what he knows about soldiering on the other side of the globe.—Seward Blade.
—Some time since one of our merchants advertised an article for sale and in printing we took a 5 for a 3 making the article appear to be sold for 30c. instead of 50c, as intended. THE JOURNAL had scarcely been distributed, before a rush was made on the store. People had read the advertisement, understood it was a bargain, and were going to take advantage of it. Of course we were sorry we had made a mistake, but what impressed us was the idea that people do read advertisements and when they see a bargain they offered profit by it immediately. A merchant should always advertise his bargain, if he wants to draw the crowd, and if his customers have confidence in his honesty they will not be long in finding his store. Few people realize how reasonable in price advertising through the weekly papers amounts in comparison with the profits derived. None who have ever given it a judicious trial, have found it wanting.

—Constipation means the accumulation of waste matter that should be discharged daily, and unless this is done the foul matter is absorbed and poisons the system. Use HERBINE to bring about regularity of the bowels. Price 50 cts. Dr. A. Heintz & Pollock & Co.
—The business men of Omaha will find themselves up a stump if they open the Exposition grounds again next season. An excellent opportunity has been given the people of the Trans-Mississippi states to see the magnificent display and for people elsewhere to see the wonderful advantages of the West. —Mr. Wm. Ripp, the Monroe Sugar beet raiser, says his beets are turning out better than when he first commenced to dig, he is now getting sixteen or seventeen tons to the acre. He says he will clear from six hundred to one thousand dollars on the crop including his share. It will be remembered that Mr. Ripp pays five dollars per acre rent for the land. He now expects to raise beets again next year.—Looking Glass.

Taylor, the New England artist who has made such rapid strides in his art, will illustrate "The People of Longfellow"—also for The Ladies' Home Journal. The poems selected are "The Psalm of Life," "Hilwates," "Evangeline," "The Courtship of Miles Standish," "The Children's Hour," "The Village Blacksmith," and others.
—Union song services were held Sunday evening in the Congregational church, the Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist and Congregational churches uniting. Prof. Trimmer directing the music. Michel and Prof. Trimmer each gave a talk in regard to the value and beauties of music. Prof. Trimmer excels in the conducting of choruses and would no doubt help the choirs immeasurably were he to stay here a few weeks longer.
—Ernest Meyers of Columbus, was here Wednesday assisting some men from Creston to take the old State bank safe over to that village. The supreme court last week handed down the following opinion which will interest the St. Edward readers: Columbus State bank vs. Dole. Appeal from Boone county. Affirmed. Opinion by Justice Norval. 1. Chattel mortgage given to secure a partnership debt is valid though executed by one partner alone in his individual name, when the other member of the firm either authorized the same or subsequently acquiesced in the act.—St. Edward Sun.

—Grandma North is one of the oldest settlers of this county and state, and can tell some thrilling stories of pioneer days.
—She came with her husband and family from Central Ohio to Omaha, first stopping in Council Bluffs.
—In 1857 Mr. North was with a company of men near where Papillon is now located, and getting separated from the company in the heavy blizzard, was lost and perished in the storm.
—Soon after, the family came to Platte county.
—Grandma North had a family of seven children, two of which died before coming west. James, Frank, Leta, Mrs. Cushing and Mrs. Morse were with her to share the hardships and pleasures of pioneer days.
—With the exception of Frank, who died twelve years ago, Mrs. North has all the children with her here, an honor to her and a great comfort.
—She was seventy-eight years old last February.
—She has separate rooms with her daughter, Mrs. Cushing, and thoroughly enjoys herself.
—She is an honor to our country as a pioneer lady.
—Thousands of men and women suffer from piles, especially women with female weakness have this suffering to contend with in addition to their other pains. TABLETS BUCKEYE PILE OINTMENT will quickly effect a cure. Price 50 cts. in bottles of tubes 75 cts. Dr. A. Heintz & Pollock & Co.
—The University of Nebraska has just issued a very attractive pamphlet descriptive of the School of Agriculture. Every farmer should write for one. This course in agriculture is altogether the most complete, practical and common-sense thing of the kind that has ever come under our observation. It is something that no farmer's boy or girl of any ambition can afford to miss. The people in charge of the school realize the fact that most farmers' sons and daughters cannot afford to spend the time and money required in the preparation for and completion of the regular college course, but believe that in farming, as in every other business, education and training pay. A short practical course begins January 3, 1899, ending March 17. The studies will be soil tillage, diseases of farm animals, stock-breeding, feeding stock, dairying, horticulture, carpentry and blacksmithing. Cost, room rent, table board, etc., about $38.
—John G. Maher of Chadron and Miss Ruby W. Stuckey were married in Lincoln Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benton Maret. Mr. Maher is well known in Nebraska political and military circles. He has long been a member of Governor Holcomb's staff and was a member of the Second Nebraska volunteers, recently mustered out. He is as chivalrous as he is brave and his many friends are congratulating him on the acquisition of a handsome and accomplished helpmeet. The bride is a daughter of the late Captain Stuckey of Lexington, Neb., and the sister of Mrs. Benton Maret. She has made Lincoln her home for some time and has formed a large circle of admiring friends.—Lincoln Journal.
—In getting off an Elkhorn train at Humphrey last Saturday night, Hon. T. F. Memminger met with a very serious accident. Mr. Memminger together with a party of his Madison friends had been to Newman Grove and came back to Humphrey on the freight and were very anxious to get the U. P. train for Madison, so when the train stopped, they supposed it had reached Humphrey. Tom was the first to get out and instead of reaching the ground within two or three feet fell a distance of about 15 feet, the car being directly over the highest part of a bridge. He was very badly shook up and so bruised that it is impossible as yet to move him, and he still remains at the Granville House where he was taken. Mr. Memminger went down on Sunday morning and it will yet be two or three days before he can be brought home, but it is thought that no permanent disability will result from his very serious fall.—Madison Reporter.
—For burns, cuts, bruises, lacerations, or injuries of any description, BALLARD'S SNOW LIMENT is a sovereign remedy. It never fails to do good, and so promptly that its wonderful curative properties frequently create a surprise. Price 25 and 50 cts. Dr. A. Heintz & Pollock & Co.

—This is the prettiest place I ever saw. I thought San Francisco was the prettiest place I ever saw, but Manila is far superior.
—The horses here are about the size of Shetland ponies—none of them weigh over 600 pounds.
—The Philippines have a circus every night which is fine. The best part of it is there is not a word spoken, it is all acted out.
—Well, I don't think we will stay here much longer, at least I hope not. I am almost sure that we will be home by Christmas. GEO. BROODVORNER.
—Charlie Miner sends No. 4, Vol. 1, of The American Soldier. It looks just like one of our United States papers of a century ago—so old-fashioned in its two postal-cards he also sends along with a picture of his bridge at Manila. He says he is well now, but has been very sick. The boys are dying off like sheep, but Co. K has not lost any yet, although some of them are very sick; James O'Callahan, Anal Killian, T. H. Steen and Theodore Larson are at the big hospital.
—People who want work here can get it without much trouble. If you just intimate that you are not in a very great hurry for a little bit of work—most any time will do, you are apt to be put off a while before you finally get it done. Not much matter in what line the work is, it is all the same. Men are wanted for husking the big crop of corn of Platte county. According to close estimates there were nine hundred and sixty voters stayed at home instead of going out election day to vote against the fusion ticket. Men are wanted to help dig the new sewer; for laying new steel of the branch Union Pacific road out of the city; the New York Irrigation company need men and teams south of the Loup to work on their plant; men are needed on the new High School building, and in all lines of work, carpentry, blacksmithing, masonry, etc., plenty of force are needed to push along the world's work in these sections.
