"THE ANGEL HEART OF MAN."

An angel hath been majestic
In life, and in death times been,
Is native in the simple heart of all.
The angel heart of man.

—James Russell Lowell.

MORE THAN ONE.

One step won't take you far—
You've got to keep on walking;
One step won't make you late—
You've got to keep on talking;
One step won't make you tall—
You've got to keep on climbing;
One step won't work it all—
You've got to keep 'em going.

—Enough is enough" is about the verdict of the country outside of Omaha upon the continuance of the Exposition next year.

—Lincoln's sentiment to his neighbor, when he was leaving his home to serve as president, is commendable in every event during life: "I beg you, my friends and neighbors, to pray that I may have divine assistance, without which I cannot succeed, and with which I cannot fail."

—See Mr. Galley's new advertisement in this week's JOURNAL, and when you are in need of anything in his line give him a call. There is no establishment in all this country, where there are better goods or juster treatment. Mr. Galley is in every way a reliable business man, and when you transact business with you, we will find it business worth continuing.

—The very interesting letter from C. J. Cookson at Manila goes over to next issue. August Wagner, which was received before it, occupies most of our space for this week. THE JOURNAL considers these letters from the boys away as among our most interesting items, and we are glad to publish from all that reach us.

—The COLOMBO JOURNAL is running sketches of noted Platte county pioneers. Several weeks ago the photograph and sketch of Mrs. North was given, and in this week's issue is that of Rev. Samuel Goodale. Miss Martha Turner is the artist, and is to be commended for her neat and natural portrayal of the subjects.—Platte County Democrat.

—Subscriptions are received for THE JOURNAL at any time. Select what other periodicals you wish—weeklies, monthlies or quarterlies, scientific, religious or story papers—and let us give you club rates. Those who have already subscribed for THE JOURNAL can now add any other to their list, by keeping THE JOURNAL paid up one year in advance.

—Friday night Columbus Lodge No. 268, Ancient Order United Workmen, elected the following officers: E. D. Brink, M. W.; August Schack, foreman; John Wiggin, recorder; Louis Held, financier; Ed. Rosser, overseer; D. C. Kavanaugh, guide; W. H. Lewis, receiver; James Gray, I. G.; Ed. Shober, O. G.; T. R. Clark and F. H. Geer, examiners. The Lodge has reached a membership of nearly a hundred with more coming.

—The city council will probably pass a Curfew law at their next meeting. The ordinance reads that children under the age of 15 years shall, between the months of March and October, not be allowed on the street later than 9 o'clock p.m. and not later than 8 o'clock between the months of October and March, unless given permit by parents. The ordinance may be changed to include all children under the age of 17 years. A great many cities have adopted these Curfew laws and found more warm against the project.

—The net proceeds of the fair for the benefit of St. Mary's Hospital, after paying all expenses, are $800.00. THE JOURNAL said at the time that it would be about $800.

—We are informed that the priest has made an announcement in the church that in the future no charges for tuition will be made at the Sisters' school to those living in the parish.

—From the way the robbery of Palmer & Frantz's store at Creighton took place last week, it would seem that the same thief engineered it that stole here from Flynn & Co.'s store.

—O. L. Baker began work Monday to clean out his ice ponds, which was necessitated because of the dirt in the ice. It makes him an extra expense of about two hundred dollars.

—It is said that at least half the corn crop of Butler county is yet unharvested. We find that even in Platte county, which usually is fully up with work, has a good deal of corn yet on the stalk, and rolled over down the bank. There is a great many improvements being made to the different feed yards. Among the improvements might be mentioned an orchard of fifteen acres, the last addition to it being 300 thrifty peach trees.—Arlington Times.

—The Union Pacific flyer went into the ditch last Tuesday evening between St. Edwards and Genoa. The train consisted of ten or a dozen freight cars, baggage car and coach, and when rounding a curve the last three freight cars, baggage and coach jumped the track and rolled over down the bank. There were several passengers aboard in addition to the train men. One was seriously hurt although most of them have a few bruises to rub on. It is supposed the accident was caused by a broken rail.—Albion News.

—A person who has been continuously advancing more than 30 years and recently: "I advertise to be known—To keep house. I employ salesmen to sell my goods. I do not want my representatives to enter a factory in California or Illinois and present my card to them. The ladies have amended their constitution and will hereafter admit any lady the age of sixty-five years and upwards free of any dues, as the guests of the club. The club contemplates giving a reception, similar to that given last year, sometime during the holidays. The programs arranged by the Woman's club are always excellent, and last Saturday's meeting was one of the best. Music was furnished by the musical department, Mrs. Garlow playing an instrumental selection; Madames Beeler, Geer, Whitmoyer and Page singing a quartet. "Oh Tell It, Her," by Mendelssohn; Mrs. Seeger gave an article on the Crusades; Miss Letch recited a poem by Kipling and Miss Sheldon gave a splendid review of the "Houseboat on the Styx."
