The head of the fork entered the little boy's between and he only lived a few hours. This is a most distressing case and the distracted parents have the sympathy of the entire community. The funeral was held yesterday. - Albion News.

On Tuesday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hoppen were entertained by the Maennerchor society, in their hall, in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding day. Music and dancing constituted a goodly portion of the evening's enjoyment, refreshments being served at 11 o'clock. E. Pohl, on behalf of the society, presented Mr. and Mrs. Hoppen a beautiful silver fruit dish accompanying the presentation with words of congratulation and good cheer.

A communication reaches our table making complaint that there are a few young men who make a practice of insulting people and then laugh and say there is no danger, the police will not arrest them. The inquiry made is, Where is the law? We can answer that the law is an ample safe guard, if you will invoke it in the right way. Be determined in asserting your rights - but as our correspondent says, a paragraph in the paper is often very much better than a law suit.

The city refunding bonds for $37,000 are regarded as a good investment by capitalists, as witness the following bids of premiums: The New First National bank of Columbus, Ohio, $575; Landerhrodt Bros. A certain lady north of town is reported to have about thirty little chickens which were hatched by hens in the cellar. If the "chickies" grow un-molested from wild animals, which so often enter the cellar for prey, "fried" chicken will appear at this rural mansion rather in advance of the season. The incubators will have to get a "move" on them to beat this. - Cedar Rapids Outlook.

We can say to eastern men having small holdings of land that they might better their situation by coming west, looking over the country, selecting and purchasing the farm that suits them and disposing of their property in the east. With cash you can get two or three, often four or five times as much land as you can buy east, and mostly of better quality, more easily farmed, and so on. It will pay you to investigate, at least.

W. Hardy of Leigh is making a week's visit with his son C. C. of this city. Seven years ago while at work at his business of well-cleaning, by a mishap he fell 85 feet into a well, "breaking" nearly every bone in his body, and lying in hospital 235 days before he was able to get out and around again. He is now 63 years old, and with violin and song, visiting among friends, enjoys life better than most people who have never fallen 85 feet into a well.

A newspaper whose columns overflow with advertisements of business men, says Talmage, the great preacher, has more influence in attracting attention to and building up a town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor where there is an enterprising community. No power on earth is so strong to build up a town as a newspaper well patronized, and its power should be appreciated.

Creameries all through Nebraska seem to be doing very nicely. The Schuyler Quill, speaking of their creamery, says: The business for January amounted to the receipt of 18,000 pounds of milk in excess of the December purchase. The total amount received in January was 155,498 pounds with an average test of 4.2, yielding 6,266.7 pounds butter fat and at the rate of 15 1/2 cents per pound netted the seventy-six patrons a total of $970.16.

In last week's JOURNAL was recorded the death of Ruth, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Britell, on Tuesday morning, February 28. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church, this city, by Rev. Mickel, assisted by Ezra Snyder of Genoa and King of Grand Island, the funeral taking place at St. Edward, the body being buried beside that of a sister dying several years ago. The sorrowing parents, Rev. and Mrs. D. T. Olcott, Oley Britell and Rev. Mickel went from here to St. Edward.

The teachers of the public schools were all at their posts again Monday morning, Mrs. Ballou and Mr. Britell having been detained away awhile by sickness and death in their families.

George, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Kummer of this city, is again troubled with asthma, which has bothered the lad more or less, it seems, since he was two years old. His mother will take him to Denver probably going today, Wednesday, and it is hoped that in that higher altitude he may find relief.

No matter how Nebraska may scourge us with drouth, heat or cold, the dear old commonwealth has a way somehow of coming around in a little while wreathed in smiles of sweet innocence, and then it is that we forget and forgive all, again renewing our pledge of fealty to a state from which few go away but to speedily return. - Wahoo Wasp.

James Pearsall, who has been at work quite a while at Monroe and Genoa, expects to return soon to the city to live. By the way, the word is all around that a number of business and residence houses are to be erected here the coming summer. There is no doubt but that the prospect is good - better than in many years - for increased business along all lines.
