Twenty-three bills passed were curative acts. They are so designated by attorneys because they cure defects in present laws. The most common defect, as shown by foot notes in the compiled statutes, is the absence of repealing clauses. The courts have held that when an amendatory act is passed the bill must designate the section sought to be amended and also repeal such section. Some important sections in the statutes have been declared unconstitutional, behave been declared unconstitutional, because legislatures have not followed this plan of repealing sections sought to be amended. Lawyers deem the curative acts among the most important pessed by the legislature. Some of the curative acts merely strike out words that have been abrogated by decisions of the courts, or correct palpable errors that occurred in times past in the enrolling room, such as the misspelling of a word or the substitution of a wrong word. Detailed reports of the work of Major General Lawton's expedition show that harder fighting took place during the early part of this week than earlier accounts indicated. In the attack upon San Rafael the American forces were met with a heavy fire from a large number of rebels, who were concealed in the jungle on all sides. It was only the adoption of the tactics followed in Indian fighting in the United States, every man for himself, that saved the division from great loss. THE NEW CAPITAL FALLS WOULD LOAD THE MAIL.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The post-office department today made public the letter of Edward Atkinson of Boston, on which the action of the department in selsing his pamphlets was based. Many lefters asking information about the subject have reached here and today the following statement was given out by Postmaster General Emory Smith: In view of the statement of Mr. Edward Atkinson that he sent his pamphlets only to Admiral Dewey, General Otis, President Schurman and three or four others, the letter of Mr. Atkinson containing his application will be of interest. It is as follows: BOSTON, April 22.—To the Secretary of War, Washington: Sir-I desire to send a large number of the enclose pamphlets on the "Cost of a National Crime," "The Hell of War and Its Penalties," "Criminal Aggression; by privates in the Philippine islands. therefore desire to know whether or not these documents can be sent directly through the war department of may be forwarded in due course of mail. A list of regiments is desired and if there are printed lists of officers available they would serve me a very useful purpose. EDWARD ATKINSON.

No answer was made to this letter, except to send an official copy to the postmaster general, who issued instructions to the postmaster at San Francisco to hold the pamphlets. The spirit and design of the pamphets will be indicated by a few extracts. In one of them Hr. Atkinson says: "I will append one question to each reader: How much increase of taxaion are you willing to bear and how many of your neighbors' sons are you ready to sacrifice by fever, malaria and venereal disease in order to extend the sovereignty of the United States over the West Indies and the Philippine islands?" Again after describing what he calls he "Hell of War and Its Penalties," Mr. Atkinson says: "Lest others should be entrapped into enlistment into the regular army or volunteer service in the tropics, it will only fair and honest on the part of the re- A Weekly Newspaper devoted to cruiting officers to be put in possession of these facts."

Mr. Atkinson also says: "The way has already become plain for the youth of the land to avoid disease in the tropics by refusing to volunteer or enlist in the army or the navy of the United States." Mr. Atkinson not only speaks thus of and to the soldiers of the United States, but he encourages the Filipinos to insurrection when he says: "They have the power to enter into international relations and they may yet be recognized by others powers."
