The committee have traveled far and wide, and now it is somebody else's turn.

—We clip the following from the Kearney Hub in regard to Mrs. Rhone and son Robert, who have many friends here. Mrs. Rhone is a sister of Mrs. F. W. Farrand and the family visit here frequently: "Robert Rhone of this city has been appointed on the faculty of the conservatory of music of the Wesleyan university at Lincoln, as instructor on mandolin and banjo, and his mother, Mrs. E. W. Rhone, as instructor on the guitar. They will, therefore, in all probability, remove to Lincoln in the fall, to remain at least during the school year. It is an exceptional recognition, but they are entirely deserving of it."

STATE MUST RECEIVE PAY.

Lynch Shortage in Platte County Not Settled.

In the Lincoln Journal of June 8th we find the following:
Attorney General Smyth gave an opinion yesterday in answer to a request of County Attorney William O'Brien of Platte county for directions in the manner of settling up the shortage of ex-County Treasurer J. W. Lynch of that county. Mr. Lynch, a faunistic officer, was short over $30,000. The county board collected about $17,000 from his bondsmen. Now the question is whether the county may keep all the money collected or whether the state is entitled to its share of the money due the state as taxes collected by Mr. Lynch. The amount due the state from the money paid in by the bondsmen is said to be between $8,000 and $9,000. The county attorney asks two questions. First, whether the county board should request, the state officers to demand of Mr. Lynch and his bondsmen the amount of taxes due from him to the state; and second, whether the county of Platte would be liable to the state for the amount of state taxes unaccounted for by Mr. Lynch, in the event it cannot be collected from him or his bondsmen.

Attorney General Smyth gave a written opinion in which he says the county board should request the state officers to make the demand. The state cannot sue in such cases, the county to whom the treasurer's bond runs alone having the authority. It is the duty of the county board to proceed against the ex-treasurer and his bondsmen at once. The auditor of the state may make the request but such request is not necessary. In answer to the second question the attorney general says:
"Answering the second question, you are advised that in my opinion the extent of the county's liability on the hypothesis stated there, would be limited to the maximum rate of taxes which the state board of equalization is authorized to levy. I can find no provision authorizing the levy of any greater tax. Unofficially it has come to my notice recently that the sureties on Mr. Lynch's bond have paid into the treasury of Platte county a large sum of money to liquidate Mr. Lynch's shortage, and that the treasurer of your county has not accounted to the state for any portion of the money so paid. If my information be correct, I shall content myself to become necessary, that the treasurer is responsible to the state for its proportion of the money thus paid, and that a failure to account for that proportion subjects him to the penalties imposed by sections 167 and 168 of the revenue act, as well as section 5, article 33 of the statutes."

Don't Give Up.
EDITOR JOURNAL:—I see George Barnum has been writing about Southern California. The personal part of his letter was good, very interesting and true. Wish as much could be said about the other part.

Trus, I write with some jealousy for my adopted state, but I do not want to take one iota of merit or glory from my old prairie home in grand old Nebraska. George may think Californians know but little about Nebraska. He writes as though he had never heard of a drought, a crop failure, a blizzard, a cyclone, a grasshopper, a flood, a famine or a pandemic in Nebraska. For his sake I wish I could forget such things. For his information let me say that California has fewer such calamities than any state west of the Father of Waters. Statistics can't very well lie.

The one thing that populates Southern California and makes it famous is its dryness. Probably Los Angeles, a city on the very crest of earthly heaven, would not exist in its present matchless beauty, prosperity and healthfulness, were it not that the climate is dry and balmy.

No spot a foot square in all Nebraska for a single day can out-rival all Southern California in health, wealth and prosperity,—where the toothsome orange and fragrant rose constantly abound.

If George was looking for hogs, cattle, corn fields and prairie dogs of course he got a little too far from home.

Abts & Calto's New Building.

On Monday of last week excavation was begun for the basement of the new addition of 90x22 feet to the brick business house of Abts & Calto on Thirteenth street. The excavation will be 30-22 1/2 feet. The scales have been moved to the east side. Openings will be made on each floor between the two buildings, for ready access. The basement wall is to be 36 inches thick; the first story above ground, 20 inches, the second, 16 inches. 130,000 bricks are necessary. Amandus Derr of West Point is the contractor, and it is expected the improvement will be completed by the middle of August.

In the meantime nothing interferes with the filling of orders, as usual. THE JOURNAL congratulates this enterprising firm upon its increasing prosperity.

—Prof. Q. H. Stevens and Miss Vera Morris were married Wednesday morning, at the home of the bride's mother in the western part of the city, Rev. Mickel officiating. The wedding was so quiet that few outside the family knew anything about the matter. After the wedding the couple took the train for Fremont, where they will immediately go to home-keeping for the summer. Prof. Stevens is engaged as principal of the Bellwood schools for the coming year. Miss Morris has been a successful teacher in the Third ward school here for several years, is a young lady of refinement and education, and with her husband will be successful in educational work. Mr. Stevens has been in surrounding towns as teacher for several years and always with success.

—The wedding ceremony of Mr. P. J. Hart and Miss Agnes Keating was witnessed by a large number of friends, at the Catholic church Wednesday morning. The ceremony was performed by Father Marcellinus; the groom and bride were attended by Mr. J. T. Cox and Miss Abbie Keating. After the ceremony the friends and relatives were given a reception at the home of the newly-married couple in the western part of the city. Mr. and Mrs. Hart have many friends, who wish them a long and happy sojourn together.

Telephone No. 26.
Eleventh Street, - Columbus, Nebraska.

—Boy Martyn, cashier of the Citizens bank, returned home from his Vermont trip Tuesday. He reports a very pleasant trip. He spent a week in New York city while gone. In regard to crop conditions in the middle and eastern states, he says that prospects are nowhere so bright as in Nebraska. From appearances in Iowa they have had too much rain, and corn is not starting well. In the New England states it has been dry and cold.—Humphrey Democrat.

—Reno's Oriental shows and Trained Animal exhibitions are to pitch their tents in Columbus, Monday, June 19, for two performances. This show stands solely on its own merits, and in its construction are found acrobats and gymnasts from both continents, each selected for his or her individual merit. Trained dogs, birds and mules whose equal does not exist are here to amuse the little ones and funny old clowns galore—in fact to delight old and young. In summary an ideal show of the closing century and one that stands as firmly in public esteem as the mightiest amusement institution of the universe. Prices 15 and 25c. Columbus, Monday, June 19. It —Columbus will celebrate the 4th of July in the grand old-fashioned style, lots of noise, parade, program of music and speeches, games and racing, with fireworks in the evening. The committee, composed of C. L. Stillman, R. Miller, L. F. Phillips, J. H. Myers, W. Schupbach, Will Gregorius and C. Kramer, have made out a program for the day's celebration, and have succeeded well in securing a good sum for defraying expenses. The Columbus band has been engaged to furnish music, also the drum corps. Prof. Garlich has been given charge of other music to be furnished for the program. Prizes will be offered for different games and especially for bicycle racing best decorated wheel in the parade. It is expected about two hundred wheelmen will be in parade.

—Mrs. Albert, wife of Judge I. L. Albert, died at her home Wednesday morning of last week at 6 o'clock. Tuesday afternoon she gave birth to a fourteen-pound daughter and passed to the spirit land herself the following morning, leaving a bright daughter, three older sons, Daniel, Robert, Frederick, and a devoted husband to mourn an irreparable loss. Mrs. Albert was a remarkable woman for her many virtues. Although her home was never neglected, she was prominent in church work and society circles and was loved by every one who knew her. The funeral services were held Friday afternoon from the Methodist church, where she was a member. Rev. Mickel assisted by Rev. Otteot conducting the services. The pall-bearers were among the attorneys: Judge Sullivan, J. G. Reeder, W. A. McAllister, Wm. O'Brien, C. J. Garlow and J. D. Stires. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. Mrs. Albert's maiden name was Mary Meldrum, born at Ontario, Canada, in 1822; married in Iowa in 1848. The remains were taken to the Columbus cemetery for burial. The entire community, and all who are acquainted with the family, will sincerely sympathize with the afflicted husband and children.
