It is thought that the policy of the national democracy will be to spend all their spare time in harmonizing the party so as to present a solid front next year. As to the platform, Mr. Bryan has indicated that a simple affirmation of the Chicago platform, with additional planks covering issues that have arisen since President McKinley was inaugurated, will be acceptable.

Lincoln versus Bryan.

In Mr. Bryan's numerous quotations from Lincoln, in the vain endeavor to befog the true issue before the American people and the Filipines who started the insurrection, we have never noticed that be has seen fit to use the following in the United States, containing 1,800 in the world's goods. from Mr. Lincoln's famous speech at men sailed Monday from San France Independence hall, Philadelphia, while for Manila, on transport Tartar. Now, in my view of the present aspect of affairs, there is no need of bloodshed and war. There is no necessity for it. I am not in favor of such a course, and I may say in advance, there will be no bloodshed unless it be forced upon the government. The government will not use force unless force is used against it.

That same year, this same Vallandigham had so great a following in the state ly supposed to be a native of Connecti of Ohio that they selected him as a candidate for governor, and political friends netitioned Lincoln for his release.

The president offered to remit the sentence if the committee of prominent democrats who petitioned would sign a statement that rebellion existed and that constitutional measures were taken, when the army and navy were used to suppress it, and that each of the committee would pledge himself to use his personal influence and power to carry I have just remarked. Of these two cases, one was that of a native who was detected after stealing several sheep, but as he had done so to supply his family, who were suffering for want of food, when he had broken his arm, provisions were furnished to them and work was found for him when he was able to do it, and meanwhile he was placed under medical care, but the stigma attached to his crime was considered sufficient punishment

The other theft was made by a German, who stole 17 sheep. But as he was in comfortable circumstances and the robbery was malicious the sentence passed upon him was that he should at once sell all his property.
