CAPTAIN CHARLES W. JENS was born in Germany in 1868, coming to this country when about two years old. For over ten years Mr. Jens has been employed in Friedhof's store in this city, where he has been a most faithful and trusted employe. When the militia company, the Whitmoyer Rifles, was organized here, Mr. Jens was elected lieutenant, and when company K left San Francisco for Manila June 15, '98 leaving Captain Kilian drilling recruits in Nebraska, Mr. Jens was appointed acting captain, which he held until Nov. 27, when they were joined by Captain Kilian and the recruits. Soon after this Mr. Jens was appointed captain of company F of Madison, an office he filled with honor to himself and his company through the hard fighting near Manila. Captain Jens was in the hospital in Manila from the 26th of March to the 1st of May, from a bullet wound in the right arm, the bullet going in one side and passing through the arm, causing a painful wound. He was also in the hospital five weeks last fall with sickness. Captain Jens was married in 1892 to Miss Emma Schram. Mr. Jens has three children, two daughters and one son, all bright children. Personally, Mr. Jens is a gentleman well fitted for an army officer, well disciplined himself, he expects those around him to be the same. He would do his duty at whatever cost to his own comfort.

—When Commodore Schley captured the Spanish fleet off the coast of Cuba the Spaniards were found to be out of coal. Bad for the Spaniards, wasn't it? Well, now, don't you be like them, but leave your order at once for your winter's supply of both hard and soft coal with C. A. Speice & Co. 4t

—Professor Sheetz comes to Lincoln from Burlington, Iowa, where he had charge for twelve years of the music in the Burlington public schools. There has been no music department in the Lincoln schools for the past six years. The professor expects to arouse an interest in the high school, and will form there a gleu club with a chorus for the young ladies, and in all ways work as though a new department is to be created. There is no doubt but the importance of music in the public schools is being more and more recognized by parents and school officials, as teachers themselves (even those who are not musicians) and it is safe to say that more attention is to be given it in the future than in the past.

—We learn that the authorities of Columbus township are ready to do their half of the work on the roads from Whitaker's corner south and east, and are waiting the convenience of the city road master. This was a bad piece of road last winter, farmers not being well able to get to the city, at times, with heavy loads.

—Thursday afternoon of this week at 2:30 a Denver, Colorado, nine, the Denver Gulls, play a game of base-ball with a Columbus nine on the grounds of the latter near the Brewery, to which an admission of 25 cents will be charged, seats being erected for the occasion. The Columbus nine will be strengthened for the game, and no doubt but the game will prove a very interesting one.

—J. M. Curtis returned Saturday night from a trip to Chicago. He enjoyed his visit in the city immensely, passing four days of his time with the band boys of the Wild West, with whom he got acquainted several years ago. One of the new features of the show, and a great attraction, is the realistic representation of the battle of San Juan. The show has had a wonderfully prosperous season.

Deaths.

WARNER—Wednesday, August 23, 1899, James Warner, aged 77 years.

Mr. Warner was born in Lincolnshire, England, August 12, 1822. In 1851 he came to the United States, locating at St. Louis for three years. In that city he lost his first wife, and in 1856, married her who is now his widow. They came, the same year, to Genoa, which place they left in 1863 to take a homestead northwest of this city, near Patrick Murray's. Since 1894, they have resided in this city.

Mr. Warner had been in failing health for several years, and was confined to the house several weeks. The funeral services were at the residence Thursday afternoon, closing at 5 o'clock, Elder Hudson of the church of Latter Day Saints preaching the sermon, and a large number of sorrowing friends and neighbors following the body to its last resting place.

His widow, a daughter, Mrs. McNamee, of California, and grandson, Harry W. Lawrence of this city, are the relatives left to mourn the departure of a friend who was always kind and thoughtful, and who exemplified in his life the sincerity of his religious belief.

DWIGHT—Friday, August 25th, 1899, Mrs. H. D. Dwight, after a lingering illness, of consumption.

Services were held Sunday at the Congregational church, Rev. Rogers preaching the sermon. After the remains were taken to their former residence in Iowa, for burial, accompanied by the bereaved husband, his father, and brother and two sisters of the deceased.
