—Mr. Bushman succeeds to the Home restaurant, north of the U. P. passenger depot.

—R. B. Kummer returned last week from Mexico, where he had been several months.

—Some good work is being done on the streets of the city in the way of grading.

—Do not fail to see our 8-foot galvanized steel mill for $25.00. A. Dussell & Son. 4

—Four rooms for rent. Inquire of Mrs. Wise, three blocks west of Friedhof's store. 4

—The flouring mill at Albion, to succeed the one recently burned down, has been started.

—The Ladies' Orpheus society will give a dance Thursday evening in the Orpheus hall.

—E. H. Jenkins came down from Madison, Ky., tarrying at home until Tuesday evening.

—The mill at St. Edward, recently destroyed by fire, was worth $20,000; insured for $5,000.

—C. A. Newman regaled us Monday with some interesting reminiscences of Charles A. Stevenson.

—H. P. Coolidge has sixty nice Plymouth Rock cockles for sale. Come early and get the best. 4

—Gettelman's Pure Malt Beer, the finest Milwaukee produces, at Wm. Bucher's Beer Garden. 24aug

—There were no church services held in the Baptist church Sunday, Rev. Phillips having been called to Kearney.

—The populists have three members of the board of supervisors and the democrats four, under the new deal.

—Found a number of finger rings. Owner will prove property and pay for this notice. Call at JOURNAL office.

—C. A. Newman sold his stock of goods excepting coffee last week, determining to pass more of his time out of doors.

—Hear Mrs. Chambers, Miss Dodds, Prof. Garlick and Willie Boettcher in their solos Friday night at the City Band concert.

—Judge Scott of Omaha has held that there is no law in Nebraska making the breaking into a saloon or a bank a burglary.

—E. A. Gerrard of the Monroe Looking Glass and Bert Strother of the Republican were in the city Thursday on business.

—The county supervisors will be William Welch, R. Y. Lisco, Louis Held, J. C. Carrig, Dan Driscoll, John Goetz, M. Dietrich.

—Wm. Schilz makes boots and shoes in the best styles, and uses only the very best stock that can be procured in the market. 4

—Mr. From and his force of men, teams and grader have been doing some much needed work in various portions of the city.

—The Niobrara Pioneer and the Fremont Herald have been doing some illustrating of prominent local persons and buildings.

—Henry Bean tells us that the Platte river has risen considerably since the rain. It must have rained harder up west than here.

—Judge Curtis feels proud of the vote he got, and well he may, leading the race with 411 to Hudson's 375, Fuller's 277 and Taylor's 217.

—FARMERS' ATTENTION. You can get an 8-foot Freeport Galvanized steel windmill from A. Dussell & Son for only $25.00. 4

—The Boston Traveler says the impersonations of Mr. Wentworth were exceedingly well done and his style truly imitable.

—J. C. Swartley, superintendent of the farm at the asylum for the insane at Lincoln, is to be at home for a visit Thanksgiving day.

—The Nebraska Telephone company completed their line between here and Norfolk last Tuesday. Columbus has now telephone connection in every direction out of the city.

—From present indications the opera house will be filled Friday night at the first concert given by the City Band, the members of which are working hard to make it a complete success.

—Knollin & Co. at the sheep ranch just north of the city, received on Sunday 30 car loads of sheep from the west. We learn that it is expected the company will feed some 30,000 head this winter.

—Humphrey station of the U. P. shipped 150 cars of sugar beets this fall, and the crop is reported as light. The sugar beet industry in Nebraska promises to be one of its greatest, in the near future.

—A chemical hair destroyer is used for branding stock. Gibson's patent will add a value of 6 or 7 cents at least to every hide to which it is applied. The right for Australia alone has just been sold for $600,000.

—November 1 was Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Derby's 35th wedding anniversary, and Charlie was rejoicing over the fact that during that time he has become grandpa, besides the father of nine healthy children. —David City News.

—S. C. Quick, the piano tuner, Ferguson Music Co. of Lincoln, Nebraska, wishes to announce that he will again be in Columbus the week of November 12 to 18. Orders left at C. L. H. will receive prompt attention.

—Willie Boettcher has received a fine violin as a present from his uncle, Aug. Boettcher, a leather case to follow. Willie is a young lad yet, but has shown remarkable proficiency in the manipulation of his favorite instrument.

—L. L. Albert has received word that Robert Meldrum, the aged father of his deceased wife, living at Dell Rapids, S. D., has had hemorrhage of the brain for a few days, resulting in paralysis and is in a very serious condition. —Argus.

—Thursday evening, November 16, at the Congregational church, the Scandinavian quartette, the Misses Christian. They are prime favorites wherever they have been. Miss Dora, besides her other gifts, is a whistling soloist of marked ability.

—Nature can only feed the flame of life with the food eaten, it is digested. HERBINE will reinvigorate a weak stomach, and so improve digestion as to insure the natural bloom of health. Price 50 cents. Dr. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.

—An infant child of Jacob Bachman who resides north of the city, died Saturday, and was buried at Grand Prairie on Sunday. The child was two weeks old, and the family have the sympathy of their neighbors and acquaintances in their loss.

—Friday evening last, there was a family reunion at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hudson, the occasion being the fifty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. The event was a pleasant and profitable one, as rational enjoyment always is.

—Eugene Parker, of Sun River, Montana, farmer at the Fort Shaw Indian school, was in the city Friday, and called at JOURNAL headquarters. He was formerly one of the teachers at the Government Genoa Indian school, under W. B. Backus' superintendency.

—Mrs. Mary Shea was in the city Friday on her way to her home in Platte Center. She had been at Omaha two weeks. Her son William, who was hurt at a packing house there is still at St. Joseph's hospital, but getting along as well as could be expected.

—A number of people having a portion of land under irrigation are contemplating the construction of fish ponds. Whenever plenty of water is available there is no doubt the raising of fish pays a good per cent on the investment when rightly cared for.

—The literary department of the Woman's club will meet with Miss Minnie Becker Saturday, November 27, at 3 o'clock. Roll call, current literature; Review of David Harnum, Miss Becker; French history, Carolingian France; Talk on Charnelange, Mrs. Baker.

—John Kay, a Detroit, Michigan, collector, has just sold a Hawaiian stamp for $3,000, one of four in existence. Some of our Columbus collectors would close their full stock of hundreds for a less sum than that, and many of them are not the ordinary kind of stamps either.

—While blowing out a chimney with powder last Saturday Otis Mason met with a mishap that for a time promised to deprive him of his eyesight. One charge had exploded, but thinking another necessary, and it being slow to act, he removed the dust stop at that instant it ignited and flashed up, striking him square in the face. He cannot see his eyes for some time and will have to have a new set of eyelashes. —Clarke Enterprise.

—A large snow bank near Oconee created surprise on Tuesday, it was at the time on the irrigation ditch where it crosses Lost creek. We suppose the snow and small hail filled the ditch and ran over. C. W. Zeigler says it hailed considerably at the ranch and Henry Clayburn says a streak of hail touched his place. We brought home a chunk and exhibited it as a republican prospect from Lost creek. It looked cold. —Monroe Looking Glass.

—The ladies of the Baptist church had an "experience" social at the residence of Prof. Williams Friday evening. Each was expected to earn a dollar for the church, and tell of their way in earning the money. Some got the dollar by baking bread, a few by washing clothes, and many other ways. One lady said she wanted to shave her husband, but he said he would prefer giving five dollars to the church rather than risk his life for ten cents.

—Prof. Kern and a buggy load of young ladies who accompanied him to Columbus Saturday, to witness the foot ball game of their school boys and those of the city, got stuck in the Platte river on their way home. The horses jerked the tongue out of the buggy, which left them in a bad fix, but Jesse Keller happened to arrive on the scene on his wheel and he rode back to Columbus and secured another buggy to bring them home. In the meantime they had plenty of time to get a good look at the beautiful scenery along the banks of the Platte, but it made them late in getting home. —David City News.

—Doc. Bitby, writing every day in his den at the Lincoln Journal, seems to feel just as bad over the result of the election here as if he was yet living among us, for he says: "When the proposition is one that just men all admit should be defeated, Platte county can be depended upon to give it a brutal majority."

—Some of you Columbus inventive geniuses who have been discouraged for many years, shouldn't give up to despair. John P. Holland, the inventor of the submarine torpedo boat, has proven such a success, waited twenty-five years for his victory. Tired streamers down his cheeks when the naval officers greeted him.

—The Platte county Auxiliary of the American Bible society has moved their office from the store of Mr. Bergen Bros. to that of Eisenman. We are also informed that the stock will be replenished, so that all who wish bibles or testaments of any kind that the depository keeps, can procure them at comparatively small cost.

—The Convocation of the Episcopal church will be held in this city this week beginning Monday evening and lasting until Thursday. About twenty ministers from over the state are expected here. Wednesday evening a reception will be held at the residence of J. D. Stires for the visiting clergy and the members of the Columbus Episcopal church.

—Mrs. S. W. W. Wilson, formerly of Columbus, visited the Perkins family part of Tuesday and Wednesday. She was on her way from Cheyenne to Omaha. A. B. Cramer, formerly a Columbus merchant and afterward located in Omaha, is a resident of this place. He came Friday and has moved into a house near the Catholic church. —Platte Center Signal.

—Petition and remonstrance have been filed with the county board of supervisors, one asking that Monroe be incorporated as a village, the other remonstrating against it. There are numerous and conflicting interests, and the matter has been set for hearing Dec. 20. Albert & Reeder represent the petitioners, and Whitmeyer & Gooding the remonstrators.

—Prof. Shipman of Tufts college, near Boston, Mass., was in the city Friday, and while here visited the High school. He was accompanied by his cousin, Dr. Martyn of this city. Inspector Crabtree of the Nebraska State university also visited the school and after looking it over, praised it highly. His business is to visit the High schools of the state and report their work and condition.

—Henry Shrode, who enlisted in an Iowa company, returned from the Philippines election day. A big crowd gathered at the home of his sister, Mrs. O. F. Barwell, and when he stepped out gave a cheer and welcomed him home with a hearty handshake. This is the last soldier boy to come home that enlisted from here, excepting Lieutenant Sisson, whose body is expected here in January. —St. Edward Sun.

—There will probably be some contest here next spring between the Emerson people and D. M. Ferry & Co., in securing contracts with farmers for raising garden seeds of various kinds, an industry which has proved quite profitable to many. It is said that the soil of Nebraska and Kansas, the lacustrine formation, is especially adapted for the growth of excellent seeds, and that there are no better grown anywhere.

—It is reported that a 50-inch vein of coal has been discovered on the farm of C. E. Woodruff, a mile west of Jackson, this state. The vein was struck at a depth of 91 feet while digging a well. Those versed in the mineral claim it is a fair quality of bituminous coal. The fact the state pays $1,000 bounty for the discovery of coal in paying quantities furnishes an incentive for further investigation of the find. —Norfolk News.

—The musical and educational entertainment by the Scandinavian quartette at the first Presbyterian church last night by the Misses Marie, Dora, Minnie and Frances Christian was largely attended and a most enjoyable program was rendered to the satisfaction of all present. The Misses Christian are vocalists of a high order. They are assured of a crowded house any time they choose to come to this city. —South Omaha Journal.

—While blowing out a chimney with powder last Saturday Otis Mason met with a mishap that for a time promised to deprive him of his eyesight. One charge had exploded, but thinking another necessary, and it being slow to act, he removed the dust stop at that instant it ignited and flashed up, striking him square in the face. He cannot see his eyes for some time and will have to have a new set of eyelashes. —Clarke Enterprise.

—Sup't Williams gave a short lecture Friday to pupils of the High school upon the "current event" of the astronomical world, —the so-called "hooting stars," that was highly entertaining and instructive to them. Those who come regularly into the study of astronomy through the preparatory courses in geometry and algebra, can never quite forget the beauties and the glories of the knowledge, for which all other knowledge of physical things seems to have been made.

—The unusual good things of school life are certainly worth mention that they may be appreciated by others. Appreciation always leads to action, soon or later. And here is an item from the Fullerton Post regarding their High school: "A new choir has been organized consisting not only of the organ and singers, but also two cornets, a bass horn and a violin. It is a 'howling success' and we will be delighted to sing for visitors if they should choose to come during the morning exercises."

—Rev. J. Zimmerman of Lincoln was in the city a portion of last week representing the Tabitha Home, an institution for the care of orphan children, not alone such as can in a short time find suitable permanent homes with desirable families, but such as cannot readily find help elsewhere — the very sickly ones, the very weak, and those who are marred. Mr. Zimmerman has visited the city before, and has had good success in his work. He preached Sunday morning at the German Reformed church, and at the Presbyterian church in the evening.

—Rev. Zimmerman collected in the city for the Tabitha Orphan Home at Lincoln nearly $50 in money besides a large bundle of clothes for the little ones of the home. Special thanks, Mr. Zimmerman says, are due to Pastor Neumeier of the German Evangelical Protestant congregation, for the interest he took in securing a considerable portion of the sum received. Doubtless Mr. Neumeier was influenced by his special knowledge of the Home, its work and its trials. Mr. Zimmerman started for his home at Lincoln Monday, well pleased with his sojourn at Columbus.

—We are unable to predict the exact hour at which the November meteoric showers will begin," says Prof. William A. Harkness of the United States Observatory. "Although these meteoric showers revolve around the sun in a definite orbit, the point of that orbit's intersection with the orbit of the earth moves forward at the rate of a degree and a half a year, thus throwing the advent of the meteors a few hours later at each succeeding fall. For example, the fall of 1833 occurred on the night of November 13th; the fall of 1899 will take place on the evening of November 14th and probably will be of several hours duration."

—Paul Roen, the second son of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Roen, was seriously hurt Sunday afternoon about 3 o'clock at the farm of John Browner northeast of town. He and Willie Hockenberg were riding horses in the pasture. Paul had tied the halter of his horse around his waist and in falling off he was dragged along the ground for some distance. When picked up his clothes were torn, his shoes worn into shreds, his face dreadfully bruised and a part of the scalp about four inches square cut clear off his head. He is now at home resting as well as could be expected, in a semi-conscious state.

—We are in receipt of Vol. 1, Nos. 2 and 3, of the Gunnison (Utah) Gazette, published by Camp & Co., which, we take it, means the latest of Joe Camp's newspaper ventures. We never heard of a man who has started more newspapers than Mr. Camp has, and he is not an old man either. He usually made money by starting and then selling out before long at a profit, so that sometimes it has been a query whether he was not an agent for the Western Newspaper Union. Mr. Camp is a practical printer, however, and knows well the kind of matter that should enter into the make-up of a newspaper.

—John L. Sturgeon puts in a plea for broad-tired wagon wheels. He recently invested, after being convinced of their superiority, and finds them even better than he had supposed, and says that if all farmers used nothing but the 4-inch tires on their wagons which carry heavy loads, the roads themselves would be better than now for keeping them in order, and there would be less hard work for the teams. It is his belief, from trying both kinds of tires, under otherwise like circumstances that the same team which tug hard at 2300 pounds, could easily haul 4000 pounds. There are now in this section quite a number of wide-tired wagons, and so far as we remember they give good satisfaction.

—Applications for the location of Farmers' Institutes should be addressed to E. A. Burnett, Superintendent Farmers' Institute, Lincoln, Neb. Under the provisions of law these institutes are free to the people, who pay only the expense of hall, programs and local entertainment of speakers, all provided for before the opening day of the institute. The objects are "to encourage better farming, more intelligent methods, a livelier interest in life, and the building of happier homes and broader, nobler lives." Only a limited number of institutes can be held, and it is the purpose of the superintendent to locate these at an early date so that sufficient time can be given to the advertising and preliminary arrangements to insure the success of the meetings.

—W. F. Wentworth, one of the leading impersonators of this country, will appear in Columbus on Monday night, Nov. 20. He is booked to render several of the finest scenes from "Hamlet," and will also give Howell's "Sleeping Car." The two plays make up one of the most attractive programs ever presented in this city. Mr. Wentworth has a national reputation, having appeared before large audiences in the leading cities both east and west. On Thursday evening, Nov. 23, the closing entertainment of the course will be given by the Rev. Dr. Reilly of Omaha — The Emerald Isle, a stereoscopic of great merit and much interest to all lovers of old Ireland. Tickets for the two entertainments, 70 cents; either one alone, 50 cents. Seats on sale at Pollock's.

Personal Mention.

J. E. Muehler spent Sunday at home. Will Becker of Omaha is visiting his brother John.

Mrs. A. M. Post started last Friday for a few weeks' visit in Chicago.

Miss Mary Wells of Genoa visited Mrs. M. Whitmeyer last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Thomas of Schuyler were in the city Monday.

Martin Canter of Breslau, Germany, is sojourning with his uncle, I. Gluck.

Mr. Garlow of Pittsburg, Pa., is visiting the family of his cousin, C. J. Garlow.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Brown and children of Humphrey spent Sunday in the city.

Miss Fred Limback of Utica is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Fillman and Mrs. Rorer.

Miss Jessie Timothy of Platte Center is visiting Misses Josephine and Annie Kumpf.

Paul Krause of Albion passed Sunday in the city with his mother and sister Bertha.

Mrs. M. Abte left Thursday for Washington state, on an extended visit with relatives.
