

WAS DOUBLE MURDER

Confession of Woman Clears Up Mystery of Oleson Double Killing.

MRS. LAUE TELLS THE TRUTH.

She Asserts that Frank Dinsmore Killed Laue and Mrs. Dinsmore—He First Poisoned His Wife, Then Carried Her Body to the Kitchen—Laue Shot While Asleep in Bed.

KEARNEY, Neb., Dec. 9.—(Special to the Omaha Bee.)—The mystery surrounding the double murder that occurred at Oleson, ten miles west of Kearney, Monday night, in which the lives of Lillian Dinsmore and Fred Laue were taken, has been cleared up by Mrs. Laue, the wife of the murderer, charged Frank L. Dinsmore, husband of the murdered woman, with committing both crimes. The confession was made only after several hours' work with Mrs. Laue by a brother and an uncle of the dead man. As soon as Mrs. Laue had confessed to them D. Laue, the uncle mentioned above, was taken to the hospital, where he died.

EIGHT MILLION TONS OF SUGAR.

Amount of Output in the Entire World This Year.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—The entire sugar cane output and beets for 1899-1900 will amount to about 8,000,000 tons, about the same amount as last year, according to carefully prepared statistics submitted to the State department by United States Consul Friedrich a Magdeburg, Germany. Of this amount the United States has about one-fourth. The total figures show that so far as best sugar is concerned, while the best crop this year is larger than last, perhaps by 250,000 tons, the sugar extracted amounts to about the same, owing to defective sweetness. The bulk of sugar is placed at 5,300,000 tons, against 4,947,000 tons last year.

SORROW FOR HAYWARD

Remains of the Late Senator Consigned to the Tomb.

A SIMPLE SERVICE AT THE HOME.

Nebraska City Suspends Business to Pay Fitting Tribute to a Good Man—State Officials and Personal Friends Honor His Memory—A Long Line of Mourners Present.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Dec. 8.—A lingering whiff of luminous fragrance from banks of splendid flowers; a few heartfelt sentences of loving eulogy; a loving look at the past and all that mortality ever claimed of Senator Monson L. Hayward was tenderly consigned to the marble sarcophagus that marks his resting place until time shall be no more. It was as the ceremony was decidedly simple, although prolonged. During the hours of between 10 a. m. and 12 m. the remains lay in state in the front parlor. Great bunches of rare exotics and sincerely suggestive devices rested on every table and over the massive metallic casket sheathed in deep velvet. The face of the senator was but little wasted and the color was an animated gray, devoid of the yellow transparency of death. Hundreds passed around the bier. As soon as the parlor was vacated and the family spent therein the most agonizing hour that comes to mortals. The mainstay among them was the gallant son, William, who sought to comfort his mother for the absence of her other son in the Philippines. The services were conducted by Rev. H. L. House of the Baptist church. Scripture reading was given by Rev. C. M. Shepherd, a Methodist pastor. The eulogy by Mr. House was eloquent and prolonged. Passing the public career of the dead senator he pointed out the many sterling attributes that made him great and strong. His home was a typical Christian home of a generation ago, where robust and many virtues were inculcated. He was a type of that American citizen of whom we all are proud. He possessed the spirit of the good old man, who was a man of the people. Above all he was honest and possessed the genuine integrity of the old man. He was a man of the people, a student, a thinker, a hard worker. Above all he was honest and possessed the genuine integrity of the old man. He was a man of the people, a student, a thinker, a hard worker. Above all he was honest and possessed the genuine integrity of the old man.

AGUINALDO GROWING BOLD.

Said to Be Proceeding to Cavite, Across the Bay From Manila.

MANILA, Dec. 8.—Expectation of catching Aguinaldo in the north has been practically abandoned and the probability now is that he will turn southward if he is not already there with his destination Cavite province, his hope, where the insurrection began and where it still has its greatest strength. The Filipino soldiers in that province have recently been showing increased enthusiasm and boldness and captured insurgents say that Aguinaldo is coming to join them with a large army. The same belief prevails among the natives at Manila and elsewhere, that Aguinaldo intends to make his headquarters in Cavite province. There are 3,000 insurgents before Imus and Bacoor, keeping the Americans sleeping on their arms and night waiting attack. The Filipinos have several cannon and machine guns. The first major of Imus under the American regime, who ultimately deserted, is their leader in the assault on Imus. General Grant, who was in command of the American forces, has been ordered to move on Imus. Three soldiers of the Fourth infantry have deserted and are now with the enemy. Most of the inhabitants of Imus are not in their sympathies with the insurgents that it is necessary to use a part of the regiment to patrol the streets and prevent shooting from houses when the attack begins. The American forces in the north have separated into many small commands and are pursuing bands of Filipino guerrillas. General MacArthur is engaged in clearing the mountain country west of the Manila-Dagupan railroad. General Grant is operating from Angeles against Subig, with 10,000 men. Colonel Bell is sweeping south from Mangaritan. Thus far the American commanders have been unable to locate the large bodies of insurgents, although there were about 500 in San Clementine, nine miles south of Mangaritan, early in the week.

Sterling Morton, president of the Historical Society.

SOLD ALL ITS CATTLE.

Opalika Company Retains Only 12,500 Acres of Land.

OMAHA, Dec. 9.—The stockholders of the Opalika Land & Cattle company, at the annual meeting at the Paxton hotel, have re-elected the old board of directors. Owing to the absence of several directors the board did not organize, doing so being postponed until January 20. During the year, in accordance with the decision of the company to retire from business, all the cattle belonging to it were rounded up and sold. All that is left is 85,000 acres of land in Keith county, Neb., and this will be sold as soon as a buyer can be found for it.

Plattsmouth, Neb., Dec. 9.—Harry J. Cannon was prevented in his attempt to commit bodily injury to Councilman N. S. Burt. Cannon was arrested himself on one of the back streets upon which Mr. Roland would travel when going home. Having put out a street lamp and waited with a ball bat the arrival of Mr. Roland. Another man came around the corner just in time to save Mr. Roland a severe row. Cannon was promptly lodged for the night. Burt, however, was not arrested. Cannon had been in the city for some time and had had numerous accounts with merchants and had the same charged to John Laurie, claiming to be working for him. Young Cannon was arrested on March 1st last, when he was caught by James Cannon, who in March last caught the farmers here for $12,000 on stored wheat in his elevator and who has not been seen since.
