See the latest styles in jackets, capes, collarets and all winter goods. Follow the crowd to FITZPATRICK'S.
—The Knollin company have some 31,000 sheep now on the ranch a half-mile east of the city. Huge vats have been constructed, and at regular intervals the animals are driven through for disinfecting.
—Rev. H. J. Hinman, pastor of the Congregational church at Genoa, has tendered his resignation to take effect December 30. Mr. Hinman resigns to accept a call from David City, so says the Genoa Leader.
—The Ladies' Orpheus society met with Mrs. G. A. Schroeder Thursday afternoon. At the games of cards Mrs. Leo Geitzen won the royal prize, an olive dish. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Frank Hagel.
—The Commercial National bank folks have had planted on the west side of their building, Thirtieth and North streets, a row of elm trees of such size as to furnish ample shade in a year or so provided they thrive.
—H. P. Callahan, engineer on the switch engine in the U. P. yards this city, is suffering from a very sore and swollen eye. The pain became so severe Friday last that he was compelled to take a lay-off from his work.
—Mr. Frank D. Anderson, an employee of the Rocky Mountain News at Denver, visited his friend Editor Burrus Monday, and gave this office a pleasant call. Mr. Anderson has been contributing articles for the Argus the past several weeks.
—Married, Saturday evening, December 9, at Omaha, by Rev. Dr. Mackey, of All Saints church, W. B. Terry and Miss Lucy Martyn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. T. Martyn of this city. Their numerous friends will wish them happiness and prosperity.
—Harvey Holden drove in last night from Columbus. We understand Mr. Holden expects to buy a farm in this vicinity. He was accompanied here by his sister-in-law, Miss Etta Guthrie of this place, who had been there on a visit.—Silver Creek Times.
—Dr. Sailer performed a laparotomy operation upon Mrs. George Spear, Tuesday morning at the Oxnard hotel. She stood the operation well and is getting along nicely. Miss Denhausen was the grafter for and came up from Omaha to nurse her.—Norfolk Journal.
—Owing to the Bishop's rapid tour of the diocese of Nebraska, the Rev. C. A. Weed will be away from home on next Sunday morning, and there will be no morning service. In the evening the usual evening service at 8 o'clock, subject, "Henry VIII and the Church."
—Our readers will not fail to notice the new holiday announcements of Ragatz & Co., J. H. Galley, Asche & Ryan, L. F. Phillipps Co. and W. H. & F. B. Eimers. Each are well supplied in their different lines and you can depend on receiving good treatment. See them.
—Christian Grunther for the past three years editor of the Platte Center Signal, makes his farewell bow in the last Friday issue of the paper, and announces that henceforth John L. Clark who has been his efficient assistant the past year, will be editor of the Signal.
—Miss Emma, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Blaser, left Thursday last for a sojourn with her brother Nick, Jr., of Oregon. Father and mother are lone- some with the young lady away from home, and will of course be glad when she returns after a good visit in the west.

—Services in the Presbyterian church Dec. 17th. At the evening service the pastor will deliver a sermon, taking for his subject: "The Church of Jesus Christ." He will also answer the arguments made by the Episcopal rector in the first of his series of addresses on the Defense of the Faith.
—Last Friday evening about a dozen lady friends of Mrs. O. E. Steinbaugh treated her to a thorough surprise. They brought a fine assortment of dainties with them on which they fed the victim of their surprise and themselves. The evening was enjoyably spent by all.—Humphrey Democrat.
—Julia, daughter of William Newman, aged seven years, died Wednesday night last of scarlet fever and diphtheria combined. Five more children in the family have scarlet fever in a mild form. School was closed in the district on Wednesday, Charles Welch, teacher. The funeral of Julia was conducted Thursday afternoon by Rev. J. P. Kost.
—Articles of incorporation of the Nebraska and Gulf railroad, capital $1,000,000, have been filed at Hastings, and it is proposed that the line start opposite Ranning Water, S. D., south to Kansas. Judge Cosman of Hastings is attorney for the road, and we believe that John S. Freeman is now vice-president. The surveying corps are being put into the field.
—The Nebraska & Gulf railway incorporated at Hastings for the purpose of building a road from Dakota to the Gulf, has incorporated another company under the name of the Townsite and Construction company, with the object of platting out town sites to be under their control along the line of the road. Robert A. Batty of Hastings is president of the company and J. S. Freeman of this city is vice president.
—Miss Josephine Kumpf, daughter of Mrs. John Kumpf, and Mr. Edward McCann were married Thursday evening at the home of the bride's mother, in the eastern part of the city, Judge Robinson, officiating. The happy couple left Friday morning for a trip to Denver. Both young people are well known in this vicinity, having been residents of this county all their lives. THE JOURNAL, with their many friends, wish them a happy future.

—Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Steinbaugh left for their future home in Columbus Monday. The departure of this estimable couple from Humphrey is cause for much regret among the many close friends they have in this place. That they may enjoy abundant prosperity is the common wish of all enjoying their acquaintance.—Humphrey Democrat.
—The coal discovered near Jackson a few weeks ago is said to exist in abundance and is of an excellent quality. Shale has been sunk and the coal will be on the market in a very short time. There is no knowing what wealth is hidden beneath Nebraska soil. She can furnish most anything called for. Nebraska is all right.—Norfolk Journal.
—Theodore Kramer is at the Sisters' hospital, having been brought from Lindsay nine weeks ago. His right foot was singularly afflicted, it being feared for a while that he would lose it, but he held on to it, and it looks now as though he would be able to save it. His father, Chris Kramer, his mother and his sister were down Saturday to visit him. The young man is about twenty-four years old.
—The Ochsley Packing Co. of South Omaha will ship from that point on Dec. 9 a special train of forty-five car loads of soap for distribution in Colorado and Utah. This record shipment of soap consists of 20,000 cases of 100 bars each, a total of 2,000,000 bars; has a net weight of 1,500,000 pounds, and a market value of $60,000. If stacked up, one bar on top of another, this soap would make a pile over 135 miles high. Without mishap the consignment will reach its destination Dec. 14.
—Frank Goings, an educated Indian employed on the police force at the Pine Ridge agency, was in the city Friday, returning to his home from a business trip to Omaha. He returned by way of Genoa, there to be joined by a son who has been attending school. Mr. Goings has two brothers who received their education at the Genoa school who now have good positions and are doing well.
—Louis being foreman of the shoe department at J. H. Shaw, San River, Montana, and James is first butcher and leader of the band at the Pine Ridge agency.
—As we have a great many readers who are old settlers of the state, the following, taken from J. Sterling Morton's paper, published at Nebraska City, may be of value: "The Conservative wishes to secure, for historical purposes, a copy of the original map of the steam wagon road from Nebraska City to Fort Kearney, which was lithographed and published in 1863. Any person who can furnish the foregoing will confer a great favor and have the satisfaction of seeing the map reproduced by the Conservative. In connection with the history of freight across the plains, prior to the advent of railroads, the map referred to is of great value and its reproduction almost a necessity."
—McL. Jenny of Nebraska was in the city Monday on business, and gave THE JOURNAL a very pleasant call. Mrs. Jenny has been afflicted with typhoid fever, but is now better. Mr. Jenny himself has been troubled with one of Job's comforts, an ugly companion that he keeps under cover on his right cheek, and which he is seeing go steadily down these days. Jenny Bros' cheese factory is one of the best of institutions of northeast Platte county, the peculiarity being that the 70 cows they keep are all Holsteins, and that the numerous hogs they raise are Jersey Reds. A steady, first purpose of right doing, a constant holding to a clear-cut, well-marked line of conduct has brought them success in their business.
—At 3 o'clock Sunday morning one man was killed and several others injured in a head-on collision between Union Pacific freight trains twelve miles west of Cheyenne. Benjamin Stocking, locomotive fireman, was instantly killed. Fireman John Castello, Cheyenne, both feet and one hand crushed. Engineer Ernest Davis, Laramie, Wyoming, hand smashed, seriously and perhaps fatally injured internally. Engineer Charles Veig, Omaha, and Fireman Christensen, Laramie, slight hurts, caused by jumping. The trains wrecked were No. 19, the Pacific coast fast freight, and an east bound freight special. Three locomotives were badly damaged. It is reported the wreck was caused by the carelessness of Engineer Veig and Conductor Scanlon, who overlooked their orders.
—John Horst and his mother, Sybilla Horst of Madison, and Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Wilson of Platte County, formed a sorrowful party of mourning friends Monday, on their way to attend the funeral of Mrs. Wilson's father, Philip Smith, who died Monday morning, December 11, 1899, at his home in David City, of Bright's disease, after an illness of about two months. The burial takes place this Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, at the German Methodist church seven miles north of Okeola, Rev. A. J. Ross preaching the sermon. Mr. Smith was about 71 years of age, and was a former resident in the neighborhood where his remains are at rest. He was a man, who in his active life was very much respected by his acquaintance, and his friends have the sympathy of all in their bereavement.
—The High School foot ball minstrel show, given by the players and their friends, under the direction of Harry Hoyt, last Friday evening, was equal to the majority of minstrels traveling as first-class shows. There were no hesitations, each apparently had his part learned. The songs throughout were well sung, the jokes created the usual amount of fun. Mrs. Lulu Geitzen presided at the piano with her usual brilliancy. The dancing by Mr. Hoyt was excellent, but he excused himself to the audience by saying this was not his specialty, he could do better in the serpentine dance. The show will be repeated this Tuesday evening, Dec. 12. New jokes will be added and the program somewhat changed. On account of the rain there was not a very large crowd out Friday evening.

—Mrs. Judge Robinson of Columbus, Mesdames George Clark, Geitzen and Leach of Humphrey were the guests of Mrs. C. H. Graham Tuesday.... C. G. Duffy of Columbus was in town for the fore part of the week, and made the Statesman office a call.... Ferd Steiner made a business trip to Columbus Saturday.... John Wenk and sister visited at Columbus Friday and Saturday.... Julius Hemholt and family visited with Fred Leach's in Columbus Sunday.... R. H. Wardman, accompanied by Gus Englebert, were county seat visitors Monday.... Carl Wardman and family of Columbus visited with his parents here Sunday.... Wm. Hake of Columbus visited his brother Edwin east of Creston on Sunday.—Creston Statesman.

—Dan Ducey, the boy who was accidentally shot by James Hanes near Lindsay some two weeks ago, died from the effects of the wound Tuesday night last week, and the funeral took place Thursday from St. John's Catholic church south of Lindsay. Some particulars of the shooting are given below taken from the Newman Grove Herald, and should be a warning to others who are in the habit of carelessly using firearms: "Dan Ducey lies dead at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Ducey, nine miles southwest of Newman Grove, the result of the reckless handling of a gun by a fool. The accident happened near Ducey's home last Saturday. Jimmie Hanes, 13 years old, playfully pointed the gun, a 22-caliber rifle, at Ducey, saying he was going to shoot him. Ducey said: 'Don't point that thing at me, it might go off.' Hanes answered that there was no danger as the gun wasn't loaded. The words were scarcely out of the boy's mouth before the gun was discharged and Dan Ducey fell to the ground with a bullet through his abdomen. Dan then called to Hanes to come and help him home, but the boy stood as though paralyzed for a moment, then dropped the gun and ran away as fast as his legs would carry him. Dan lived until 11:30 Tuesday evening. He was about 25 years of age and was an exemplary young man."

—Howard Rontson, a former resident of this city, was married in Schuyler Nov. 29, mention of which we had intended for last week's paper, but which was overlooked. The following from the Schuyler Sun will be interesting to many JOURNAL readers: "Mr. Howard Rontson and Miss Nellie Fahlman were married at the residence of the bride's parents in this city on Wednesday evening, Rev. D. C. Pattee performing the ceremony. They are among prominent young people and well known to all. Mr. Rontson is a Nebraska boy, having been born in Platte county and grew to manhood in that vicinity. Two years ago he came to Schuyler and entered the employ of the Schuyler Creamery Co. as their butter maker. He gave up this position last summer, entered into partnership with Henry Johnson and opened the Vienna restaurant. He is a most worthy young man, industrious, energetic and ambitious and has made a host of warm friends, since coming here. His bride was born and grew to sweet womanhood's estate here. Miss Nellie, as she is familiarly called, is known to all in Schuyler as one of our brightest, handsomest and most amiable young ladies who numbers her friends by the hundreds. All will be pleased to hear of the marriage of this young couple and take pleasure in joining The Sun in wishing them health, wealth and happiness."

—Also new Ornamental Plants such as Palms, Ferns, etc., received recently.
