

THE LADYSMITH FIGHT

British Troops Have a Hard Time Driving Boer Forces Away.

THE FIGHTING LASTS FOR SIX DAYS

Heavy Defense, but British Perseverance Finally Wins the Day—Splendid Behavior of the Troops.

COLONSO CAMP, March 2.—New York World Cablegram—Buller's army, which was a new position bridge across the river during the night, crossed with Baron and Kitchener's brigade, which came into line beyond the Tugela on the night of March 2 and Northcott's brigade, which were holding positions previously captured. He then made a general attack upon the Boer left and the artillery, which was in position. The action began at 8 o'clock when Barton, who crossed first, defied along a gorge, turned northward and crossed a cluster of kopjes on the Boer left. All the artillery, the naval guns, Colt and Maxim batteries and musketry of the Border regiment, the South African Lighters, covered the advance from the high southern bank of the kopjes, except on the extreme left of the Boer line, were taken by noon with little loss, as the position was completely commanded by our guns.

The Boers made a vigorous artillery fire on both flanks. Meanwhile the brigades under Kitchener and Northcott deployed along the river banks ready to attack Northcott's hill, where the infantry were now firing. Kitchener held Railway hill, midway between Northcott and Barton. The advance began at 1 o'clock. Barton from his captured position, engaged the trenches and the troops attacked with spirit, and although the Lancashire men had been four days and nights exposed to continual fire from the enemy, they were not discouraged by sun or rain they marched with alacrity and enthusiasm to the assault. The artillery, which was well handled, they made the most effective operations yet seen and through the Boers showed their customary courage. By 4 o'clock the next fortified position, containing the main Boer force, was taken. About fifty prisoners being captured in the trenches. Immediately after Railway hill itself was carried and held cheering along the whole front. The main Boer force, Northcott's riflemen to assault the fatal inskillings hill. This they did in good style, taking more prisoners and occupying all the Boer entrenchments.

Thus by 6 o'clock two miles of fortified hills forming the left and center of Pieter's position were occupied by the British troops who were now scarcely five miles from the outposts of Ladysmith. The Boers resisted stubbornly and the captured positions were shelled by their artillery heavily. Another last position was taken, but this White can shell equally with us. Very great substantial success was obtained without heavy loss. The Boer position was well directed the 24th of February of its burden of shame.

At 10 p. m. The six days of fighting called the battle of Pieter's position a victorious close after great slaughter had been made by the troops and much hardship patiently borne. But spite of the heavy loss on an army already reduced by hard fighting the loyal devotion in all ranks never wavered.

Arguing Kentucky Case.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 2.—Argument in the case involving the title to the office of governor and lieutenant governor, was begun before Judge Field in the circuit court today. Present for the plaintiff, Governor Protem L. H. Carter and General John B. Castleman, democrats, filed a demurrer and motion to strike out the state constitution, accompanied by John Marshall, the republican incumbent, after which an order of argument was agreed upon.

CRONJE FLY ABOARD SHIP.

Nothing to Say but His Manner Indicates Frame of Mind.

ORANGE RIVER, March 2.—General Cronje and his wife passed here last night on route to Capetown. Elaborate precautions had been taken to prevent the public from seeing him even the officers were ordered off of the station and the refreshment room was kept closed before his arrival, to the discomfort of the Kimberley passengers, who were obliged to go footless. General Cronje looks dejected and miserable and is much graver. He entered the refreshment room, accompanied by his wife, son and interpreter and General Pretorius and his staff. Taking his seat at a table General Cronje covered his face with his hands for a moment as he sat in prayer.

CAPETOWN, March 2.—General Cronje and his party arrived at Simons town today. General Cronje was received by General Sir Frederick Forrester-Walker and a representative of Sir Alfred Milner, the governor of Cape Colony. General Cronje was immediately escorted on board the British cruiser Doris. There was no demonstration.

Congressmen Here.
WASHINGTON, March 2.—Congressman Sydney Egan of Virginia, who was operated upon for appendicitis today, died at Garfield hospital at 12 o'clock tonight. Mr. Egan was ill but a short time, having attended the house on Wednesday. He was born in 1835, was a journalist by profession and had served in the state legislature of Virginia in the fifty-fifth congress until unseated by the republicans, and in the present congress. He was democrat in politics.

Appeal to All Methodists.
MINNEAPOLIS, March 2.—The membership of the Methodist church is less than it was two years ago and this fact has greatly exercised the bishops of that denomination. How to revive interest in the church is a question which the representatives of the denomination have given serious consideration. To bring the matter directly before the people a committee, composed of Bishop H. Foster, W. X. Nields and I. W. Joyce, acting on behalf of the body of bishops, has issued an address to the church. The conditions are carefully outlined and a week of prayer arranged.

BOER ARMY IS NEAR.

Reformed Troops of the Burgher Moving About Outposts in the Mountains.

LONDON, March 2.—Lord Roberts at Ofontein faces the reformed Boer army, from 5,000 to 6,000 strong. This may be merely a corps of observation ready to retire to prepared position. Doubtless it is receiving accretions from the late besiegers of Ladysmith and from other points.

Whatever the force may be Lord Roberts has ample troops to cope with it. As a heavy rain is falling on the veldt and the grass is improving, this will be a good thing temporarily for the Boers. Lord Roberts has surprised observers by the excellence of his transport during the last advance, and is likely to do so again although military men here think he must rest for some days before going much further. The Boers, presumably, will use this delay for all sorts of work, pulling their resources together. Dr. Lewis gives out the opinion that the British entry of Bloemfontein is expected to be accomplished in a few days. Lord Roberts has been instructed to retard the advance of Lord Roberts only until the concentration under General Louber has been accomplished. No adequate explanation has been made of the 50,000 reinforcements that are preparing for Lord Roberts. Such explanations as are advanced are that the Boers are not to be trusted. The Dutch have been more reticent, or the imperial government has a hint of further suggestions as to the future safety of the allied republics. The admiralty board has telegraphed to the Cape commander an expression of admiration and thanks on the part of the admiralty for the services of the marines and the bluejackets engaged in the war "for the splendid manner in which they have upheld the traditions of the service and have added to the reputation of their resourcefulness, courage and devotion."

ROOT LEAVES FOR HAVANA.

Secretary of War Starts Out for a Tour of the Island.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Secretary Root of Washington today for a flying trip to Cuba. With him were Mrs. Root, Miss Root, Edward Root, his son; Colonel Carter, assistant adjutant general; Private Secretary W. S. Courneyer and several Brooks attendants. The party had a special car over the Southern railroad. It is reported that the trip will occupy about two weeks, during which week's tour around the island of Cuba. The army transport Sedgwick is on its way to Tampa and the party will embark on it tomorrow for Havana. The main object of the trip is to enable Secretary Root to confer personally with General Wood, and as the latter will accompany him on his tour around the island of Cuba, there will be ample opportunity for such conferences. It is gathered from rather urgent communications that has been received here from Havana that notwithstanding the apparent serenity of conditions in Havana and Cuba generally, General Wood has reason for grave apprehension as to the future of the island, because of the possibility of outbreaks, but rather owing to the extreme gravity of important questions that are pressing from all sides for immediate decision.

ADOPTS INSURGENT TACTICS.

Col. Anderson Tries His Hand at the Am- bush Tactic.

MANILA, March 2.—Colonel Anderson, with the Thirty-eighth infantry, employed insurgent tactics in a recent ambush of the enemy near Batangas. Through spies Colonel Anderson learned that a detachment of insurgents had been taken to a certain road. He posted his soldiers concealed among the trees lining the road, and when the enemy arrived the Americans volleyed unexpectedly, killing twenty-four insurgents and capturing several arms and cartridges. Some arms and ammunition also was captured. The effect of this blow has been salutary. The enemy in that locality are dismayed.

Street Duel to the Death.

NORTH VERNON, Ind., March 2.—At Breckenridge today in front of Stearns store A. Fuller and Isaac Powers, a school teacher, met and began shooting. The trouble was over the correction of Fuller's child by the teacher. Powers was shot once through the lung and Fuller received three balls. Both men will probably die.

Other Nations Not Convinced.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.—The secretary of state authorities a contradiction of the printed statement that the state department had secured the assent of other powers to the provisions of the pending canal convention. No propositions in relation to the subject matter of this convention, he says, have been laid before any other country.

Assure Western People.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Senator Carter of Missouri presented a memorial of governors of western states protesting against the bill introduced in congress providing for the leasing of public lands for grazing purposes. In presenting the memorial Senator Carter said there was no probability of any such bill passing and in order to prevent further agitation in the west he hoped the bill would find eternal sleep.

RELIEF OF LADYSMITH

General Dundonald Pushes His Way Through and Raises the Siege.

DISPATCH CONFIRMING THE NEWS

Country Between the Main Army and the Town Clear of Boers—The News Causes Great Rejoicing in London—Congratulatory Telegram Sent to the Front.

LONDON, March 2.—The War office has received the following dispatch from General Buller: "LYTTLETON'S HEADQUARTERS, March 1.—9:06. Morning—General Dundonald, with the Natal Carbineers, a company of mounted rifles, and a company of the Buffs, relieved Ladysmith last night. The country between me and Ladysmith is reported clear of the enemy. I am moving on Nelthorpe. The news of the relief of Ladysmith was received with much more enthusiasm than any previous event of the war. Flags were immediately hoisted on a number of hotels and other buildings and the streets were everywhere decorated with the news. The news has not yet affected the Stock exchange. The lord mayor of London immediately telegraphed his congratulations to General White and Buller. When the news received the news at Windsor castle the bells of the tower of the castle were rung in honor of the event."

COLONSO CAMP, March 1.—(New York World Cablegram)—During the afternoon of the 28th the cavalry brigade pressed forward on the march toward Bulwana hill, Dundonald in the direction of Ladysmith. The Boers fired on both with artillery from Bulwana. About 4 Major Gough's regiment, which was in advance, found the ridges surrounding and concealing Ladysmith apparently unoccupied. We commenced making an approach there to and on February 26, finding that I could make the passage practicable, I crossed the Imperial Light Horse back to the south side of the Tugela, took up the pontoon bridge on Monday night and re-laid it on the new site, which is just below the present marked camp. During all this time the troops had been scattered, crouching under hastily constructed small stone shelters and exposed to a sniping shell and rifle fire and throughout they maintained the most excellent spirit. Tuesday General Barton with two battalions of the Sixth brigade and the Dublin Fusiliers, a company of mounted rifles and a half dozen of the river and ascended an almost perpendicular cliff of about 600 feet, assumed and carried the top of the hill. The hill, to a certain extent, turned the enemy's left and the Fourth brigade under Colonel Norcott and the Eleventh brigade, Colonel Kitchener commanding, which was in the rear, followed. General Warren, assailed the enemy's position, which was magnificently carried by the South Lancashire regiment about sunset. We took about a mile and scattered the enemy in all directions. There seems to be still a considerable body of them left on and under Bulwana mountain. Our losses I hope are not large.
