Real Estate Transfers. Beecher, Jungel & Co., real estate agents, report the following real estate transfers filed in the office of the county clerk for the week ending April 7, 1920.

He Was "Swiped." He sat in the reading room of a Chicago hotel with a notebook and pencil in his hand, and after writing the pencil on his tongue a dozen times with the pen on his left and said: "I want to get at an expression, but can't think of it. I want something synonymous with avalanche."

A Complicated Plot. The Spanish royal standard is most complicated. The red and yellow of the Spanish flag is said to be derived from this occurrence: In 1278 Charles the Bold dipped his fingers in the blood of Geoffrey, count of Barcelona, and drew them down the count's golden shield in token of his appreciation of the latter's bravery.

Get the Watch. A Camden lawyer put up a bluff successfully not long ago. A client came to him and explained that a young man had bought a watch from him on the installment plan. He made one payment, gave the watch to a young lady and skipped out. The client wanted to know if he could recover the watch from the young lady. The lawyer said that he could not without spending more money than the watch was worth, except the young woman could be bluffed.

The Spongy Animal. If the sponge as brought up fresh from the sea bottom were a familiar object, says Dr. Ledekker, few would be in doubt as to its being an animal. When fresh, it is a fleshy looking substance covered with a firm skin, and if cut it presents somewhat the appearance of raw meat.
