

Henry Ragatz & Co.,

THE LEADING GROCERS.

A Careful Groceryman fills your orders with precision and promptness. We not only do that, but we fill them with the choicest and best quality in this line that can be procured. We are expert judges of TEAS AND COFFEES,
and our Canned Goods and Table Delicacies we procure from the most reliable and best manufacturers.

WE ANNOUNCE THAT OUR STOCK OF
Groceries, Crockery, Glassware, Lamps, Etc.,

is more complete than ever and invite one and all to come in and inspect it. All of the leading STAPLE and FANCY GROCERIES are to be found in our store, including all of the latest novelties, and we offer, for the first time in Columbus, the famous FERRAND CANNED FRUITS and VEGETABLES which are absolutely the best.

In fine Teas and Coffees, CHASE & SANBORN'S, as usual, take the lead. We sell the celebrated Log Cabin Maple Syrup and warrant it to be the best. You will find our Queensware and Lamp department very complete and can easily find what you want. Persons buying in large quantities will do well to call on us as we have the right goods and will make the price right. Careful attention and courteous treatment accorded to all.

Telephone No. 26.

Eleventh Street, Columbus, Nebraska.

Columbus Journal.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 23, 1908.

H. A. M. TIME TABLE.

Line	Destination	Time
1	Des Moines	6:30 a. m.
2	Des Moines	11:30 a. m.
3	Des Moines	4:30 p. m.
4	Des Moines	8:30 p. m.
5	Des Moines	11:30 p. m.

TIME TABLE U. P. R. R.

Line	Destination	Time
1	Des Moines	6:30 a. m.
2	Des Moines	11:30 a. m.
3	Des Moines	4:30 p. m.
4	Des Moines	8:30 p. m.
5	Des Moines	11:30 p. m.

Society Notices.

ALL notices under this heading will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line.

LEBANON LODGE No. 54, F. & A. M.
Regular meeting on Wednesday in each month at 7:30 p. m. at 1310 S. E. Street. Visiting brethren cordially invited. W. A. W. Sec'y.

WILDEY LODGE No. 44, I. O. O. F.
Regular meeting on Wednesday in each month at 7:30 p. m. at 1310 S. E. Street. Visiting brethren cordially invited. W. A. W. Sec'y.

COLUMBIAN CAMP No. 5, WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.
Regular meeting on Wednesday in each month at 7:30 p. m. at 1310 S. E. Street. Visiting brethren cordially invited. W. A. W. Sec'y.

REORGANIZED CHURCH OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS.
Regular meeting on Wednesday in each month at 7:30 p. m. at 1310 S. E. Street. Visiting brethren cordially invited. W. A. W. Sec'y.

GERMAN REFORMED CHURCH.
Regular meeting on Sunday at 10:30 a. m. in Church every Sunday at 11:00 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 7:30 p. m. Ladies' Aid Society every Thursday in the month at the church.

COLUMBUS MARKETS.

Wheat	50¢
Corn	29¢
Oats	24¢
Rye	40¢
Barley	25¢
Hops	4.85 @ 5.00
Fat cattle	3.50 @ 3.25
Potatoes	20¢
Butter	13¢ 1/2
Eggs	8¢

Markets corrected every Tuesday afternoon.

—Enquire of Herrick.
—Miscellaneous for best photos.
—Nile Nilson died April 22.
—Dr. Naumann, dentist, Thirteenth street.
—Born to Mrs. Roy Palmer, April 14, a son.
—George Sprecher of Schuyler is 91 years of age.
—Dr. Baker, physician and surgeon, office Olive street.
—Dr. L. C. Von, Homeopathic physician, Columbus, Neb.
—J. E. North started for the Black Hills the first of last week.
—Dr. R. D. McKean dentist, over Pollock's, 13th and North streets.
—You that need stock scales, call on H. Schuster. He can save you money.
—Dr. Martyn, Evans & Gear, office three doors north of Friedman's store.
—The vegetable sellers were around Monday for the first time this season.
—For fine watch repairing, call on Carl Frosnel, 11th St., Columbus, Neb.

Notice!
Water consumers whose meters are located outside of residence and have been packed for frost protection will please clean meter boxes out prior to May 1, 1908, that same can be read.
O. C. SHANNON,
Water Commissioner.

—When you need any typewriting ring up telephone No. 90.
—G. W. Elston was "under the weather" a portion of last week.
—Born, Saturday morning, April 21, to Mrs. F. N. Stevenson, a daughter.
—Bert Strother of the Monroe Republican honored us with a call Saturday.
—Do not fail to see our 8-foot galvanized steel mill for $32.00. A. Dussell & Son, it.

—John M. Gondring is talked of as the democratic candidate for state senator.
—WANTED—A girl to do housework. Inquire at the store or residence, of J. H. Galley.
—Louis Schreiber, jr., is to graduate from the Chicago School of Pharmacy tomorrow.
—If you are thinking of getting an aluminum plate, go and see samples at Dr. Naumann's.
—Buff Cochran eggs for sale for hatching, one block north of new high school, W. J. Mitchell, it.
—J. H. Galley went to Omaha Monday as a delegate to the grand council of the Royal Arcanum.
—C. C. Gray was unanimously elected president of the city council and he will make a good one.
—Chas. Cortelyou, late of Fremont was in the city last week. He is looking up a location.
—May Bakers for sale next Saturday at the Fair store, Eleventh street, by the Junior league.
—Dr. McKean's method of making aluminum plates places them on an equality with gold.
—At the German Lutheran church, confirmation services were held Sunday, with a class of eleven.
—Dr. and Mrs. Arnold are rejoicing over the arrival of a boy baby April 21, weight fourteen pounds.
—As we go to press the republican county convention has begun its session. Full particulars in next issue.
—Robert Anderson of Genoa was in town Friday on his way to South Omaha, taking two carloads of cattle.
—The sum of $285 has been appropriated to the fire department to help defray the expense of uniforms.

Button Photos Of all kinds and sizes at the BEST at Soley's. If no money in advance.

—The German Reformed church will be repainted on the outside and a new roof put on, some time this spring.
—Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stevenson of Richland are rejoicing over the arrival Saturday April 21st, of a baby girl.
—Wm. Schilz makes boots and shoes in the best styles, and uses only the very best stock that can be procured in the market.
—FARMERS, ATTENTION. You can get an 8-foot Freepost Galvanized steel windmill from A. Dussell & Son for only $25.00.
—For a good set of hand-made harness or anything else in the harness line, call on F. E. Bracha. He will make the price to please you.
—A slight explosion of gas early Saturday evening at the Elevator Boiler mills was sufficient to turn in the alarm but no special damage was done.
—The C. E. of the Presbyterian church will give an ice-cream and cake social at the home of L. Hohl, Friday evening, May 4. Program published later.
—Dr. Naumann can serve you in anything that is known to the dental profession. Aluminum plates, gold plates, crown and bridge work, etc.
—W. E. Levin took a carload of potatoes to Omaha last week, getting 20 cents a bushel for the lot, and was, of course, glad that they were no less.
—Henry Keller of David City, who played with the football team of that place last year, visited Wm. Wagner and other Columbus friends over Sunday.
—Neuragic pains, rheumatism, lumbago and sciatic pains, yield to the penetrating influence of BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. Price, 25 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.
—WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE not only effectively destroys worms, it also loosens the appetite, aids assimilation and transforms a frail infant into one of robust health. Price, 25 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.

Notice!
Water consumers whose meters are located outside of residence and have been packed for frost protection will please clean meter boxes out prior to May 1, 1908, that same can be read.
O. C. SHANNON,
Water Commissioner.

—When you need any typewriting ring up telephone No. 90.
—G. W. Elston was "under the weather" a portion of last week.
—Born, Saturday morning, April 21, to Mrs. F. N. Stevenson, a daughter.
—Bert Strother of the Monroe Republican honored us with a call Saturday.
—Do not fail to see our 8-foot galvanized steel mill for $32.00. A. Dussell & Son, it.

—John M. Gondring is talked of as the democratic candidate for state senator.
—WANTED—A girl to do housework. Inquire at the store or residence, of J. H. Galley.
—Louis Schreiber, jr., is to graduate from the Chicago School of Pharmacy tomorrow.
—If you are thinking of getting an aluminum plate, go and see samples at Dr. Naumann's.
—Buff Cochran eggs for sale for hatching, one block north of new high school, W. J. Mitchell, it.
—J. H. Galley went to Omaha Monday as a delegate to the grand council of the Royal Arcanum.
—C. C. Gray was unanimously elected president of the city council and he will make a good one.
—Chas. Cortelyou, late of Fremont was in the city last week. He is looking up a location.
—May Bakers for sale next Saturday at the Fair store, Eleventh street, by the Junior league.
—Dr. McKean's method of making aluminum plates places them on an equality with gold.
—At the German Lutheran church, confirmation services were held Sunday, with a class of eleven.
—Dr. and Mrs. Arnold are rejoicing over the arrival of a boy baby April 21, weight fourteen pounds.
—As we go to press the republican county convention has begun its session. Full particulars in next issue.
—Robert Anderson of Genoa was in town Friday on his way to South Omaha, taking two carloads of cattle.
—The sum of $285 has been appropriated to the fire department to help defray the expense of uniforms.

HORSE ESTRAY.

Left my premises near the hospital, Columbus, Monday evening, April 9, a FIVE-YEAR-OLD BROWN MARE, weight about 1100, one hind foot white. A suitable reward will be given for her return.
ANDREW PAPROCKI,
27

—The Easter cantata given by the Episcopal choir Easter Sunday was repeated Sunday evening last. A large congregation was present to enjoy the music.
—A few more of the Fair stock of thoroughbred bulls and heifers left and for sale at C. K. Davies' place. Address Silver Creek post-office, or better, call personally.
—See Louis Schreiber's advertisement elsewhere in today's JOURNAL. He tells his own story in that, and you'll find him all right to deal with. Good goods and good workmen.
—Fred A. Foster, representing the Fairbanks & Morse firm, who do an extensive business all over the United States, was in the city Thursday, in the interest of the firm.
—The Seward Blade speaks of a blacksmith there who has put in a gasoline engine, and who by its power works a hammer for forging most of his work of that kind, and why not?

—O. L. Baker has the contract for grading down the hill on the Meridian line road north of the city and will get it as soon as weather permits. The dirt will be used for filling on the bottom road.
—Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Reeder, Dr. and Mrs. Baker, Dr. and Mrs. Evans and J. C. Byrnes were among the Columbus people who heard Henry Irving and Ellen Terry play "The Merchant of Venice," in Omaha last Friday.
—Three hundred and sixty shares have been subscribed for Series F of the Building and Loan. Good investment, little by little each week, and the association is undoubtedly one of the best practical institutions of the city.
—Most women with female weakness suffer dreadfully from piles in addition to their other pains. They may be cured by using TABLET'S BUCKEYE PILE OINTMENT. Price, 50 cents in bottles. Tables, 75 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.

—An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, and a bottle of BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP used in time is worth a staff of physicians with a drug store and two included. Price, 25 and 50 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.
—The U. S. senate has passed a bill appropriating $25,000 for a new school building at the Government Industrial Indian school at Genoa, also $5,000 for a new hospital, $1,500 for a barn. There may be some slip before it becomes a law.
—It is now claimed by expert agriculturists that corn (Indian maize) will grow good in the rich Nile valleys. Anyhow, farmers in Egypt have purchased in Philadelphia 120,000 bushels of seed corn. Great is the corn belt wherever found.

—You do not help to pay high rents if you buy Dry Goods at the White Front Dry Goods Store. Follow the crowd.
—Rev. Conrad of Iowa who preached the past two Sundays in the Congregational church, has well pleased the congregation, and it is probable the church will call him to be the minister. Rev. Conrad is a cousin of Rev. Hunt, a former minister here.
—The Stromberg News commends the excitement concerning the Nebraska and Gulf railroad, which has received bond encouragement to build in Polk, and says that "if they don't get a move on them right away the B. & M. will get the start of them."
—We understand that there were five bids for the sewerage at the Government Indian school, Genoa. A. Dussell of this place getting the contract at $675, his being the lowest bid. There were three others near that. The other and highest was for $1,600, a range of $725.

—Scores of young women, it seems, buy camphor, and take it regularly, in great quantities, for the purpose of giving them a clear complexion of complexion, but the habit, once begun, becomes in many cases very hard to get rid of, for it acts as a stimulant.
—Swan Nilson of Linne, Cal., was in the city Saturday on business. He arrived here Feb. 7, to look after his land interests, and expects to start on his return trip this Wednesday. He can see plainly that Nebraska has improved greatly since his last visit to the state.
—C. J. Scott has the contract for the erection of the Phillips-Engel brick buildings to be erected opposite the Union Pacific depot and on Twelfth street. Mr. Phillips is to be 7x22 feet, and Mr. Engel's 6x22, both one story, 12-inch walls, and to be completed by July 1.
—H. M. Winslow, White Butler, Fred Scofield and E. P. Brightman intended starting this Tuesday with 225 head of cattle, destined for a fenced pasture of 6000 acres in Wheeler county, near Bartlett. Three drives will follow of 300 each, making in all 1125 cattle to be pastured there.
—The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold a mothers' meeting at the home of Mrs. R. C. Gerrard, Friday, April 27th, at 3 p. m. All ladies are cordially invited to attend. Subject: "The Mother's Heart." A collection will be taken for the benefit of the Woman's temple.
—J. R. Day, editor of the Bradshaw Republican was in the city one day last week, on his way home from a visit in the northern part of the state. H. P. Coolidge and he were old comrades in the war of 1861-5, and had not met since before since their discharge, and so had a pleasant time together.
—It quietly started to rain here Sunday evening at 9 o'clock, after one of the most delightful days for which Nebraska has become famous; rained about all night, according to our reckoning, and is still raining—a good, quiet, soaking rain. The previous rains were all right to start crops, but the moisture did not extend down further than eight inches. That now falling will open the like money on deposit in a safe place, for emergency, and for good use when the circulating medium is needed.

—Nearly every person needs a tonic medicine at this time of year to brace up and invigorate the nervous system, to cleanse the bowels, liver and kidneys. HERBINE is the best and safest remedy to do this, as it will cure constipation, regulate the liver and enrich the blood. Price 50 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.
—Perfect digestion is the only foundation for perfect health. The food we eat makes all the blood we have, which in turn feeds every nerve, muscle and tissue in the body. HERBINE quickens the appetite, aids digestion, gives tone and vigor to all the functions and ensures good health. Price, 50 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.
—The first issue of the Schuyler News, published by D. F. Davis, came to our table last week. The paper is thorough, and to the editor—good presswork, good paper and neat composition. The paper is all printed at home, using part plates. We wish Brother Davis much success and think Schuyler is able to support three papers, as well as Columbus her five.
—Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Matson and two children, of Omaha, came up Monday, going to Monroe on the afternoon train. Mr. and Mrs. Matson go to the funeral of Law Hedberg, who lived on the Looking Glass. They received a message that he died at 2 o'clock, a. m., Monday. Nothing further was known by Mr. Matson. Mr. Hedberg was twenty-nine years of age.
—Last Wednesday a good many Columbus sleepers were awakened by the swift whiz of a Union Pacific train going through the city east before daylight. It was extra, carrying President Burt and party, who had been west on an inspecting trip. The train passed Columbus at 4:38 and arrived at Gilmore, a distance of sixty-six miles, at 5:37. The ninety-one miles between Columbus and Omaha were covered in eighty-seven minutes.
—Dr. and Mrs. Hansen started Thursday on a trip which will be a delightful change from the quiet life of a country village. They will make brief stays with friends and relatives at various points and about June last set sail for Paris. After seeing the expo, Dr. Hansen will take a professional course in some university and Mrs. Hansen will study art. They expect to be away from their home town more than six months.—Plate Central Signal.

—A meeting has been called of the citizens for this Tuesday evening to discuss the pros and cons of opening the north and south streets in the middle of the city now closed to crossing by the railroad tracks. This meeting was suggested by councilmen, and will give opportunity for those interested who may happen to see posters, read this paragraph, or otherwise be informed, to send officials of the Union Pacific, with maps and arguments concerning the matter.
—H. S. Hahn, who was accidentally shot some three weeks ago, was in town last Saturday for the first time since the accident. As he was going home his team became unmanageable and ran away. The occupants of the buggy were thrown out near the water tank, but aside from a severe shaking up were not injured. The buggy was completely wrecked, but no other serious damage was done. It may more mishaps occur to Mr. Hahn he will soon begin to think "they are after me."—Albion News.

—Supr' Leary has sent out circulars announcing the county teachers' institute to be held in the Columbus High school building, from June 18 to 22. Examinations for certificates will be made June 13, 14, 15 and 16. The instructors will be: I. H. Britell, arithmetic; E. A. Garlick, music; R. M. Campbell, language, and grammar; Jas. W. Bowlin of Lincoln, reading, literature and didactics; W. M. Kern, David City, physiology, geography and history; Mrs. May Miller Brown of Sioux City, primary work.
—List of petit jurors drawn for the May term of the district court:
W. G. Lohr, W. T. Rieckly, W. C. Brindley, W. H. Lewis, C. F. Dohda, Theo. Brugger, F. S. Black, C. E. Wagner, F. W. Moudon, Wm. Arndt, John Hennessy, Daniel Brooks, Newell South, Frank Kieba, Henry Gerrard, E. W. Mann, Wm. Thomazin, Godfrey Sammelson, Jacob E. James, Geo. Lindner, Martin Swanson, D. D. Roberts, Henry Kuennean, S. Peter Swanson.

—Rev. J. P. Yost has been selected by G. A. R. post to deliver the sermon on the Sabbath preceding Decoration Day; W. N. Hensley to deliver the address on Decoration Day; the Firemen will participate, as usual; the school children taking part, but not having allotted them any such time last year; the Columbus City band have tendered their services for the occasion, and the exercises will be held at the monument in the park, if the weather is fine. Instead of the customary march to the cemetery, a detail will be made to decorate the graves.
—George Hazen, a brother-in-law of George Dewey, it is reported has said: "I am not in a position to say much, but if the people of this country do not desire to place the destiny of the nation in the hands of a woman, it will be best to let the admiral remain where he is. I know Mrs. Dewey very well, of course. She is my brother's wife. She is bright; a capable, ambitious woman, however, quite familiar with public affairs." Mr. Hazen was former postmaster of Meeker, Colorado, and well known in Fremont, Neb., in the early days. He now lives in Colorado.—Fremont Herald.

—Jerome A. Lillis, president of Union Pacific Pioneers, and one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Omaha died Monday night of last week at his residence in that city. He had lived in Omaha since 1865; was among the injured at the terrible wreck near Logan, Ia., in July 1866. He was 69 years old, leaves several children, among them a son Jerome A. Lillis, jr., who was a soldier of the First Nebraska in the Philippines as sergeant of Co. L. Mr. Lillis died of tuberculosis. On several occasions the Pioneers visited Columbus, and many readers of THE JOURNAL formed the acquaintance of Mr. Lillis, their then honored president.

—The Band Concert.
The last entertainment of the series given to a good house Friday evening, with the band in their new uniforms, was by no means a surprise to the audience, because they knew about what to expect, but it was surely a delight.
It goes with the saying that harmony, either in the study of it or practice of it, does not differ in general principles from any other branch of human endeavor. The rudiments are first to be attained (after one discovers that he really has an appreciation of effects), and after which persistency in study, and industry in practice, will bring in exactly corresponding degrees, the due effects. By higher, wider and deeper study, the way of practice is opened to clear view, the truths of the science are assimilated, becoming a very part of the individual student, and with persistency in practice, that which has all along been aimed at is shown forth.
See and do is about the briefest formula of the whole matter. Seeing shows the way, but practice, like motion developed by study, so that it may reach out towards perfection, which of course is the far-away limit of attainment, the guiding star to every master who was first an appreciator, second a lover (or amateur) third a professional, with the technique at command; fourth, the exact, yet free and complete interpreter, through musical tones, of the sentiments of the author.
We can note considerable advance, in the general quality, the average so to speak, of the compositions selected, though we could always wish for more of the national hymns, and the stately movements of the acknowledged masters. In all matters pertaining to expression, the united attack, the rests, etc., the individual members of the band undoubtedly have improved; also in the variation in volume of tone which is one of the chief charms in music, so delightful in solo or melody, it seems to increase by geometrical progression in concert.
The program was faithfully and fully placed, as published in last week's JOURNAL, each individual doing admirably the part assigned.
School Notes.
Ellsworth Way was up from Lincoln visiting over Sunday.
The Senior grade began studying psychology last Thursday.
Lawrence McTaggart has returned from his westward trip.
The Juniors will begin gathering botanical specimens this week.
The Seniors took a final examination in chemistry last Thursday.
Lawrence Hohl taught school in district 44 a few days last week during his sister's illness.
Harland Dussell of the class of '99, who has been attending school in Omaha, is spending a few days with his parents.
Charles F. W. Bloedorn and Gus G. Becher, jr., two of the leading Seniors, visited in Omaha Saturday and Sunday.
Miss Mollie Morse, who has been visiting Miss Lettie Hockenberger, returned to her home at Clark, last Wednesday.
—John A. Asche and Miss Alvina Wordeman were married the 19th at Loske church, Rev. Frazer officiating. The Leigh World has the following to say of the young couple: "The groom is the third son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard Asche, sr., of Platte county. He is an industrious young man with a bright future before him. He will move into the property he recently purchased of his brother Gerhard here in town. Mr. Asche will devote his time working at his trade. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wordeman and is highly respected by all who know her. The groom is to be congratulated on securing her for a helpmate through life."
—A. R. Leedom suffered the loss and incident worry of having his Index office burned at Petersburg Thursday night of last week. The fire originated in the back room, but how or what started it is a mystery to him. He was working in the front room till late, and had scarcely set foot in his home two blocks away when the cry of "fire" reached his ears. All was right so far as he knew when he left the office. The fire must have had considerable start, but it is strange he did not smell it. He saved his books and papers, but the rest of the plant was consumed. We are pleased to know that he had but a few weeks before placed $500 insurance on the plant.—Albion Argus. A. R. Leedom is son of Rev. Leedom, minister of the Methodist church here a few years ago.

—Polk county people were railroad crazy last week. Immediately after the bold proposition carried in Platte and Pleasant Home precincts, the rumor was set afloat that the B. & M. had purchased the G. I. running into Stromsburg and would build to Bellwood or Columbus. A gang of surveyors was at work north from Stromsburg and ran two lines, one due north from the above point and one swinging east to strike Osceola. Madam Bamor had it that the surveyors were in the employ of the B. & M., and that a new railroad was a sure thing. The surveyors quit the job after a couple of days work and left. The Record has it from pretty good authority that it was not the B. & M. gang and that that road has not purchased the G. I. so that we very much fear that it is all talk.—Osceola Record.

—One of the most enjoyable events of the season was the party given by Miss Louise Tomlin at her home corner of Fifteenth and North streets last Friday evening. Pleasant games and dancing were indulged in, after which a dainty lunch was served. Those present were: Misses Grace Hoffman, Clara Schroeder, Mammie Macken, Lottie Hockenberger, Tena Zinnecker, Vis Stevenson, Pauline Bucher, Emily Regatz, Petite Martyn, Vera and Florence Kramer, Eloise Ross, Marjorie Williams, Ethel Heinrich, Ella Rasmussen, Madge Cushing, Alvina Luers, Alice Lickly, Louise Frazer, Della Newman, Blanche Niewohner and Clara Segelke. Mamma Jack Neumark, Lawrence and Harry Hohl, Albert D. Becker, Geo. A. Scott, Wm. Hensley, John Early, Otto Ross, Walter Schroeder, Wm. L. Baker, Ralph Coolidge, Edward Regatz, Mark T. McMahon, Fred Saffron, Edward Kavanagh, Clyde Franzel, Mark Rover and Peter P. Duffy.

—The Band Concert.
The last entertainment of the series given to a good house Friday evening, with the band in their new uniforms, was by no means a surprise to the audience, because they knew about what to expect, but it was surely a delight.
It goes with the saying that harmony, either in the study of it or practice of it, does not differ in general principles from any other branch of human endeavor. The rudiments are first to be attained (after one discovers that he really has an appreciation of effects), and after which persistency in study, and industry in practice, will bring in exactly corresponding degrees, the due effects. By higher, wider and deeper study, the way of practice is opened to clear view, the truths of the science are assimilated, becoming a very part of the individual student, and with persistency in practice, that which has all along been aimed at is shown forth.
See and do is about the briefest formula of the whole matter. Seeing shows the way, but practice, like motion developed by study, so that it may reach out towards perfection, which of course is the far-away limit of attainment, the guiding star to every master who was first an appreciator, second a lover (or amateur) third a professional, with the technique at command; fourth, the exact, yet free and complete interpreter, through musical tones, of the sentiments of the author.
We can note considerable advance, in the general quality, the average so to speak, of the compositions selected, though we could always wish for more of the national hymns, and the stately movements of the acknowledged masters. In all matters pertaining to expression, the united attack, the rests, etc., the individual members of the band undoubtedly have improved; also in the variation in volume of tone which is one of the chief charms in music, so delightful in solo or melody, it seems to increase by geometrical progression in concert.
The program was faithfully and fully placed, as published in last week's JOURNAL, each individual doing admirably the part assigned.

—The Band Concert.
The last entertainment of the series given to a good house Friday evening, with the band in their new uniforms, was by no means a surprise to the audience, because they knew about what to expect, but it was surely a delight.
It goes with the saying that harmony, either in the study of it or practice of it, does not differ in general principles from any other branch of human endeavor. The rudiments are first to be attained (after one discovers that he really has an appreciation of effects), and after which persistency in study, and industry in practice, will bring in exactly corresponding degrees, the due effects. By higher, wider and deeper study, the way of practice is opened to clear view, the truths of the science are assimilated, becoming a very part of the individual student, and with persistency in practice, that which has all along been aimed at is shown forth.
See and do is about the briefest formula of the whole matter. Seeing shows the way, but practice, like motion developed by study, so that it may reach out towards perfection, which of course is the far-away limit of attainment, the guiding star to every master who was first an appreciator, second a lover (or amateur) third a professional, with the technique at command; fourth, the exact, yet free and complete interpreter, through musical tones, of the sentiments of the author.
We can note considerable advance, in the general quality, the average so to speak, of the compositions selected, though we could always wish for more of the national hymns, and the stately movements of the acknowledged masters. In all matters pertaining to expression, the united attack, the rests, etc., the individual members of the band undoubtedly have improved; also in the variation in volume of tone which is one of the chief charms in music, so delightful in solo or melody, it seems to increase by geometrical progression in concert.
The program was faithfully and fully placed, as published in last week's JOURNAL, each individual doing admirably the part assigned.

—The Band Concert.
The last entertainment of the series given to a good house Friday evening, with the band in their new uniforms, was by no means a surprise to the audience, because they knew about what to expect, but it was surely a delight.
It goes with the saying that harmony, either in the study of it or practice of it, does not differ in general principles from any other branch of human endeavor. The rudiments are first to be attained (after one discovers that he really has an appreciation of effects), and after which persistency in study, and industry in practice, will bring in exactly corresponding degrees, the due effects. By higher, wider and deeper study, the way of practice is opened to clear view, the truths of the science are assimilated, becoming a very part of the individual student, and with persistency in practice, that which has all along been aimed at is shown forth.
See and do is about the briefest formula of the whole matter. Seeing shows the way, but practice, like motion developed by study, so that it may reach out towards perfection, which of course is the far-away limit of attainment, the guiding star to every master who was first an appreciator, second a lover (or amateur) third a professional, with the technique at command; fourth, the exact, yet free and complete interpreter, through musical tones, of the sentiments of the author.
We can note considerable advance, in the general quality, the average so to speak, of the compositions selected, though we could always wish for more of the national hymns, and the stately movements of the acknowledged masters. In all matters pertaining to expression, the united attack, the rests, etc., the individual members of the band undoubtedly have improved; also in the variation in volume of tone which is one of the chief charms in music, so delightful in solo or melody, it seems to increase by geometrical progression in concert.
The program was faithfully and fully placed, as published in last week's JOURNAL, each individual doing admirably the part assigned.

—The Band Concert.
The last entertainment of the series given to a good house Friday evening, with the band in their new uniforms, was by no means a surprise to the audience, because they knew about what to expect, but it was surely a delight.
It goes with the saying that harmony, either in the study of it or practice of it, does not differ in general principles from any other branch of human endeavor. The rudiments are first to be attained (after one discovers that he really has an appreciation of effects), and after which persistency in study, and industry in practice, will bring in exactly corresponding degrees, the due effects. By higher, wider and deeper study, the way of practice is opened to clear view, the truths of the science are assimilated, becoming a very part of the individual student, and with persistency in practice, that which has all along been aimed at is shown forth.
See and do is about the briefest formula of the whole matter. Seeing shows the way, but practice, like motion developed by study, so that it may reach out towards perfection, which of course is the far-away limit of attainment, the guiding star to every master who was first an appreciator, second a lover (or amateur) third a professional, with the technique at command; fourth, the exact, yet free and complete interpreter, through musical tones, of the sentiments of the author.
We can note considerable advance, in the general quality, the average so to speak, of the compositions selected, though we could always wish for more of the national hymns, and the stately movements of the acknowledged masters. In all matters pertaining to expression, the united attack, the rests, etc., the individual members of the band undoubtedly have improved; also in the variation in volume of tone which is one of the chief charms in music, so delightful in solo or melody, it seems to increase by geometrical progression in concert.
The program was faithfully and fully placed, as published in last week's JOURNAL, each individual doing admirably the part assigned.

—The Band Concert.
The last entertainment of the series given to a good house Friday evening, with the band in their new uniforms, was by no means a surprise to the audience, because they knew about what to expect, but it was surely a delight.
It goes with the saying that harmony, either in the study of it or practice of it, does not differ in general principles from any other branch of human endeavor. The rudiments are first to be attained (after one discovers that he really has an appreciation of effects), and after which persistency in study, and industry in practice, will bring in exactly corresponding degrees, the due effects. By higher, wider and deeper study, the way of practice is opened to clear view, the truths of the science are assimilated, becoming a very part of the individual student, and with persistency in practice, that which has all along been aimed at is shown forth.
See and do is about the briefest formula of the whole matter. Seeing shows the way, but practice, like motion developed by study, so that it may reach out towards perfection, which of course is the far-away limit of attainment, the guiding star to every master who was first an appreciator, second a lover (or amateur) third a professional, with the technique at command; fourth, the exact, yet free and complete interpreter, through musical tones, of the sentiments of the author.
We can note considerable advance, in the general quality, the average so to speak, of the compositions selected, though we could always wish for more of the national hymns, and the stately movements of the acknowledged masters. In all matters pertaining to expression, the united attack, the rests, etc., the individual members of the band undoubtedly have improved; also in the variation in volume of tone which is one of the chief charms in music, so delightful in solo or melody, it seems to increase by geometrical progression in concert.
The program was faithfully and fully placed, as published in last week's JOURNAL, each individual doing admirably the part assigned.

—The Band Concert.
The last entertainment of the series given to a good house Friday evening, with the band in their new uniforms, was by no means a surprise to the audience, because they knew about what to expect, but it was surely a delight.
It goes with the saying that harmony, either in the study of it or practice of it, does not differ in general principles from any other branch of human endeavor. The rudiments are first to be attained (after one discovers that he really has an appreciation of effects), and after which persistency in study, and industry in practice, will bring in exactly corresponding degrees, the due effects. By higher, wider and deeper study, the way of practice is opened to clear view, the truths of the science are assimilated, becoming a very part of the individual student, and with persistency in practice, that which has all along been aimed at is shown forth.
See and do is about the briefest formula of the whole matter. Seeing shows the way, but practice, like motion developed by study, so that it may reach out towards perfection, which of course is the far-away limit of attainment, the guiding star to every master who was first an appreciator, second a lover (or amateur) third a professional, with the technique at command; fourth, the exact, yet free and complete interpreter, through musical tones, of the sentiments of the author.
We can note considerable advance, in the general quality, the average so to speak, of the compositions selected, though we could always wish for more of the national hymns, and the stately movements of the acknowledged masters. In all matters pertaining to expression, the united attack, the rests, etc., the individual members of the band undoubtedly have improved; also in the variation in volume of tone which is one of the chief charms in music, so delightful in solo or melody, it seems to increase by geometrical progression in concert.
The program was faithfully and fully placed, as published in last week's JOURNAL, each individual doing admirably the part assigned.

—The Band Concert.
The last entertainment of the series given to a good house Friday evening, with the band in their new uniforms, was by no means a surprise to the audience, because they knew about what to expect, but it was surely a delight.
It goes with the saying that harmony, either in the study of it or practice of it, does not differ in general principles from any other branch of human endeavor. The rudiments are first to be attained (after one discovers that he really has an appreciation of effects), and after which persistency in study, and industry in practice, will bring in exactly corresponding degrees, the due effects. By higher, wider and deeper study, the way of practice is opened to clear view, the truths of the science are assimilated, becoming a very part of the individual student, and with persistency in practice, that which has all along been aimed at is shown forth.
See and do is about the briefest formula of the whole matter. Seeing shows the way, but practice, like motion developed by study, so that it may reach out towards perfection, which of course is the far-away limit of attainment, the guiding star to every master who was first an appreciator, second a lover (or amateur) third a professional, with the technique at command; fourth, the exact, yet free and complete interpreter, through musical tones, of the sentiments of the author.
We can note considerable advance, in the general quality, the average so to speak, of the compositions selected, though we could always wish for more of the national hymns, and the stately movements of the acknowledged masters. In all matters pertaining to expression, the united attack, the rests, etc., the individual members of the band undoubtedly have improved; also in the variation in volume of tone which is one of the chief charms in music, so delightful in solo or melody, it seems to increase by geometrical progression in concert.
The program was faithfully and fully placed, as published in last week's JOURNAL, each individual doing admirably the part assigned.

—The Band Concert.
The last entertainment of the series given to a good house Friday evening, with the band in their new uniforms, was by no means a surprise to the audience, because they knew about what to expect, but it was surely a delight.
It goes with the saying that harmony, either in the study of it or practice of it, does not differ in general principles from any other branch of human endeavor. The rudiments are first to be attained (after one discovers that he really has an appreciation of effects), and after which persistency in study, and industry in practice, will bring in exactly corresponding degrees, the due effects. By higher, wider and deeper study, the way of practice is opened to clear view, the truths of the science are assimilated, becoming a very part of the individual student, and with persistency in practice, that which has all along been aimed at is shown forth.
See and do is about the briefest formula of the whole matter. Seeing shows the way, but practice, like motion developed by study, so that it may reach out towards perfection, which of course is the far-away limit of attainment, the guiding star to every master who was first an appreciator, second a lover (or amateur) third a professional, with the technique at command; fourth, the exact, yet free and complete interpreter, through musical tones, of the sentiments of the author.
We can note considerable advance, in the general quality, the average so to speak, of the compositions selected, though we could always wish for more of the national hymns, and the stately movements of the acknowledged masters. In all matters pertaining to expression, the united attack, the rests, etc., the individual members of the band undoubtedly have improved; also in the variation in volume of tone which is one of the chief charms in music, so delightful in solo or melody, it seems to increase by geometrical progression in concert.
The program was faithfully and fully placed, as published in last week's JOURNAL, each individual doing admirably the part assigned.

—The Band Concert.
The last entertainment of the series given to a good house Friday evening, with the band in their new uniforms, was by no means a surprise to the audience, because they knew about what to expect, but it was surely a delight.
It goes with the saying that harmony, either in the study of it or practice of it