—Some cool days the past week.

—Present for the graduates at Snow's.

—Ice cream trolleys at von Bergen Bros.

—Hammocks and croquet sets at Snow's.

—Hammocks in abundance at von Bergen Bros.

—Our new car of furniture was a beauty.

—Jay Cushing has a position with the Gray Mercantile company.

—We have ordered the second lot of ice refrigerators.

—See the elegant line of goods suitable for presents for graduates at Snow's.

—For fine watch repairing, call on Carl Frosnell, 11th St., Columbus, Neb.

—James Daugherty's little boy got lost Wednesday evening, and for quite a little while it looked as though he might have trouble in finding his folks.

—Dr. Naumann can serve you in anything that is known to the dental profession. Aluminum plates, gold plates, crown and bridge work, etc., etc.

—Ed. Early has bought a cottage at Eureka Springs, Mo., and after a few weeks, Mrs. Early and her son John expect to go down there for a sojourn.

—Johnny Brown of Schuyler, who was so badly hurt by being run over by a stalk cutter that his life was almost despaired of, is reported as getting well.

—Our refrigerators will consume less ice and do better service than anything else in the market. Call and see them, and you will be convinced.

—For rent, a dwelling house, near depot, in good repair, five rooms, possession given at once. For further particulars inquire at THE JOURNAL office.

—A few more of the failer stock of thoroughbred bulls and heifers left and for sale at C. K. Davies' place. Address Silver Creek post-office, or better, call personally.

—We carry the most complete sample line of Carpets, Linoleums and Mattings in the city. Our patterns are the latest and prices the lowest. The Fair, Eleventh street.

—Two fire escapes have been placed at the Meridian hotel, one at the north, the other on the west—making a very desirable addition to the equipment of the premises.

—Miss Louisa Key, who has been a resident of this city for the past year or two, left this morning for Omaha, where she enters the Clarkson hospital to study for a trained nurse.

—At the Methodist church next Tuesday evening, May 29, Freeman Bros. will give the "Passion Play." Admission 5c, children 15c. This company comes to us highly recommended.

—The Bachelor Girls gave Miss Emma Segelke a surprise birthday party Saturday evening. The time was passed in guessing games and a refreshing lunch was served about midnight.

—August Boettcher and Fred Stanger took the train here last Thursday afternoon, and THE JOURNAL will follow them to keep them posted on home news while they are traveling in Europe.

—M. Jerome is out again and seems to be gaining considerably in strength.

—Paul Engel went to Omaha and Sioux City Monday on business for his firm.

—Mrs. J. W. Coolidge is so much improved in health that she is around the house again.

—James Naylor is erecting a 4-room cottage on his half block on west Fifteenth street.

—The name of the new Union Pacific siding about two miles east of the city is Warwick.

—Dr. Rhoads and Mr. Welch of Grand Island, were the guests of W. J. Winston over Sunday.

—J. H. Smith and family have returned from Stanton, where he recently sold his stock ranch.

—Freda Pilling went to Missouri Valley, Ia., Monday to work for the Union Pacific in the lunch room there.

—The city schools close the year next Friday. All the week will be taken up with examinations and class-day exercises.

—Henry Measter of Humphrey is at the Sisters' hospital. He is brought down for treatment, having burst a blood vessel.

—I. A. Whiteley, who was here with a large herd of horses, sold twenty-five, and went with the remainder Saturday to Sioux City.

—Boone county singers, notably those of Albion, Cedar Rapids, St. Edward and Petersburg are talking of a grand musical festival.

—The cloud over the sun Wednesday forenoon for two hours seems to have been a local affair here, probably a gathering of dust.

—Jensen, the man who was injured accidentally at Platte Center some weeks ago and suffered the amputation of a leg, is recovering.

—Frank Thomas of Co. K, regimental color bearer First Nebraska, has been appointed one of the census enumerators for Polk county.

—May 12, Mrs. Agatha Leibert near Albion was drowned in a water tank on the place, supposed to have been during a temporary fit of insanity.

—The true test of civilization is not the census nor the size of cities and crops, no, but the kind of man the country turns out.—Emerson.

—The republican state central committee will make their headquarters at Omaha this year, having rooms on the second floor of the Her-Grand.

—James Daugherty's little boy got lost Wednesday evening, and for quite a little while it looked as though he might have trouble in finding his folks.

—Dr. Naumann can serve you in anything that is known to the dental profession. Aluminum plates, gold plates, crown and bridge work, etc., etc.

—August Boettcher and Fred Stanger took the train here last Thursday afternoon, and THE JOURNAL will follow them to keep them posted on home news while they are traveling in Europe.

—A blind man and woman spent a good deal of time on our streets last week, giving open-air concerts, also accompanying on a small organ. At times they attracted crowds of people, who seemed interested in the pathetic songs by which they picked up a good many pennies.

—Albert Reider of Council Bluffs, Ia., was in the city Wednesday and Thursday last on business connected with the final settlement of the estate of his father, George Reider, deceased. The farm was recently sold, and it was thought best to make final settlement of the estate.

—Children who are weak, fretful or troublesome should be given a few doses of WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE. They will then become strong, healthy and active, have rosy cheeks, bright eyes, will be happy and laughing all the day long. Price, 25 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.

—The republican delegates to the national republican convention met at Omaha the other day and organized by electing W. F. Gurley as chairman, and Geo. B. Dana as secretary. Henry Ragatz attended the meeting from here. They leave for Philadelphia on the evening of June 15.

—There are thousands of present and former employes of the Union Pacific railroad who will rejoice to hear that S. H. Clark is resigning his health. Mr. Clark was never too big to listen to the just complaints of the humblest man in the employ of the road he managed.—Omaha World-Herald.

—A false alarm of fire was given Monday evening, intended to test the new well. The notice to water consumers published elsewhere is the direct result, and we are told the violation of the ordinance was such that had there been an actual fire, there could have been no satisfactory stream to put it out.

—When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. HERBINE has a direct action on the liver and excretory organs, and a few doses will cure any case of biliousness. Price, 50 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.

—Mr. and Mrs. Herman P. H. Oehlrich left the city Saturday afternoon last for their European tour and as their departure was rather hasty they were unable to see all they take this method of saying farewell to their very many friends until they can greet them again on their return three or four months hence.

—Dr. G. F. Keiper, superintendent of the state asylum at Norfolk for the insane, has notified Governor Poynter that he will not be a candidate for re-appointment, and expects to sever his connection with the institution at the expiration of the present term, July 1, when he will have served four years.—Norfolk News.

—Sunday night three bombs in a freight car in the east part of the city lined up seven of their unarmed companions on one side of the car and robbed them. One endeavoring to escape was struck on the face with a pistol, but got away and sought the police, but nothing was seen of the gang when the police got there.

—Monday a young horse attached to a buggy in front of John Honahan's store on Olive street, got frightened at a Union Pacific train, broke loose from his fastenings, kicked loose from the tracks on Olive street. Louis Schreiber mended the buggy, and the stranger proceeded on his way to Sioux City.

—Don't despair because you have a weak constitution. The vitalizing principle of HERBINE will assuredly strengthen it. In every drop of HERBINE there is life. There is a stimulating, regenerating power, unequalled in the whole range of medicinal preparations. Price 50 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.

—Frank Welch at 10:30 Monday night, near W. T. Allen's was held up by a revolver thrust in his face and a demand for his money. There were two men one tall, with a stiff hat, the other short, with a slouch hat. Frank had a dollar but had it in his hand when he put up, and told them he didn't have any. In a moment they left going towards Hagel's.

—Piles are not only most painful, but also very dangerous, as the inflamed nodules are very apt to take on malignant action and cancer of the rectum is produced. They should be cured. TABLET'S BUCKEYE PILE OINTMENT will cure the most obstinate cases. Price, 50 cents in bottles. Tubes, 75 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.

—We made mention last week of the purchase by the Commercial National bank, (who had a second lien on the property) of the livery barn and two-story brick, known as the Abta property, on Thirteenth street. Since the purchase at the sheriff's sale, Herman Oehlrich has bought of the bank at an advance of $400, making the cost to him some $7300.

—The Latter-day Saints will hold conference for the Northern Nebraska District commencing May 25th, at 7:30 p. m. continuing Saturday and Sunday. Services at 11 a. m., 2:30 and 8 p. m. in Saints chapel, corner of North street and Pacific avenue. Elder Fred A. Smith of Lamoni, Iowa, presiding. All are cordially invited to meet with us. H. J. Hudson, pastor.

—On Thursday last J. W. Jordon, while plowing on Louis Zimnoch's farm east of the city, unearthed a 3½-inch rusty shell, that had probably been lying six inches under the ground there since 1863. Charles Hudson says that he has seen the artillery man shoot at night into the air toward Ernst's farm on the eastern part of the city, just for the fun of it. This ball looks as though it might yet be able to do some execution.

—Miss McLaughlin, who was formerly foreman of the Union Pacific coal chutes here, and went from here to Cheyenne, and was holding a similar position there, lately had trouble with a workman under him for disobedience of orders, and was struck with a pick by the workman on Wednesday of last week. A North Platte paper speaking of the matter said it was rumored there that the injury received by McLaughlin had proven fatal, but they could find no confirmation of the report. He had surely been seriously hurt, and had been taken to the company's hospital at Denver.
