Mr. Wilson was born at Enniskillen county Fermanagh, Iroland, November 16, 1818, and left that county at the age of sixteen, coming to Canada, where he lived until 1845, after which Buffalo. New York, was his home three or four years, after which he found his way with many other enterprising young men, to what was then a portion of the great west, locating near Rock Island, where he enlisted in Co. C. 102d Illinois Infantry, serving from 1862 until after the close of the war in 1865, and where also he married Miss Mary Olin, who with their two children, Emily J. Brownrick of Oklahoma, and Charles D., of Jamestown, N. D., survive him, four children having died in infancy.

Mr. Wilson and family came to Neoraska in 1880, settling upon a farm in Platte county, where they lived until they removed to this city in 1892 and at his residence on Kummer street he breathed his last.
