

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.
Governor,
C. H. DIETRICH, Adams.
Lieutenant Governor,
E. P. SAFAJE, Center.
Secretary of State,
G. W. MARSH, Richardson.
Treasurer,
WILLIAM STUEFFER, Cuming.
Auditor,
CHARLES WESTON, Sheridan.
Attorney General,
F. N. BRODT, Center.
Land Commissioner,
GEORGE D. FOLLMER, Nockola.
Superintendent,
W. K. FOWLER, Washington.
Congressional Ticket.
For Congress, Third District,
JOHN R. HAYS.

Nebraska state fair, Lincoln, Sept. 4 to 7.
Democratic national convention, Kansas City, July 4.
Republican national convention, Philadelphia, June 19.
National Farmers' congress, Colorado Springs, Colo., Aug. 21 to 31.
Democratic Congressional convention, Third district, Norfolk, June 26.
Tenth Biennial reunion of the society of Crocker's Iowa brigade, at Keokuk, Iowa, Sept. 26 and 27.
Holiness camp meeting, Lincoln park, Lincoln, Nebraska, June 22 to July 2.
Rev. W. H. Prescott, cor. sec'y., Lincoln.
Northwest Nebraska District G. A. R. reunion, Pierce, Neb., July 10 to 13 inclusive.
Central Nebraska League Assembly, Fallerton, August 11-20. Among expected speakers are Hon. Thos. Roosevelt, Bishop McCabe and Prof. Miller.

CONGRESS has voted $5,000,000 for the St. Louis fair.
Of the 16,000 seats at the republican national convention, Philadelphia will get 4,000.
REV. DR. R. S. STORRS, the noted divine, died at Brooklyn, Tuesday night of last week, aged 79 years.

THE Bee publishing company was fined $500 for contempt of court, Judge Sullivan writing the opinion.
SEVERAL celebrated physicians support the claim of Prof. Mechnikoff as having found a serum against leprosy.
DON'T rely on foreign-built ship of any kind to do our special work for us. We can build our own, and circulate that money at home.

EVEN the Omaha World-Herald says that "the republicans have apparently made a clean sweep" of the elections in Oregon last week.
COMFORTABLE figures—those from Oregon. In 1896, McKinley's majority 1,961; last week's election of the republican ticket was by 6,000 to 8,000.

THE North Nebraska college building at Madison was struck by lightning early Sunday morning and the walls are all that is left. The building had been unoccupied for five years and belonged to E. A. Whitman of Illinois.
REV. SHELDON received $5,000 as his share of the profits on the Topeka Capital for the week in which he conducted it as he promised. Mr. Sheldon distributed his $5,000 among charities.

TELEGRAPHIC reports dated June 11, from London, tell of the wonderful victories of the Boers at Roovalde, South Africa. All but six men of a British battalion killed, wounded or captured, the Boers taking more than 300 prisoners.
THE Schuyler Quill thinks that with William V. Allen and Gilbert M. Hitchcock a senatorial standard bearer this fall, the fusionists can carry the legislature. There is an old saying about the counting of chickens, that is very applicable to this case.

EMANUEL AMIE, who uses a flying machine heavier than air, and Santos Dumont, the aeronaut who uses a double cigar-shaped balloon propelled by a petrol motor, are to be the competitors in a race between flying machines at the Paris exposition.
THE St. Louis strikers' riots are getting to be a serious menace to the peace of the city. Fred Boehme, 65 years old, was killed Sunday. There were three other casualties and twenty-one of the strikers were arrested, and their revolvers and knives taken from them.

POLICEMAN Goebel of Lima, Ohio, met two highway robbers early Thursday morning who had previously robbed Druggist Mell. The men fired on the officer, wounding him, but he promptly returned the fire, killing one of the men. The other escaped, and the officer will recover.
JULIA WARD HOWE, at eighty-one, is not only the survivor of the pioneer woman suffragists. There is Elizabeth Cady Stanton, in her eighty-fifth year, writing convention addresses with all the old-time vigor; and Mary A. Livermore, at seventy-eight, writing, lecturing, preaching and keeping abreast of the current events of the times. Elizabeth Beecher Hooper recently celebrated her seventy-eighth birthday, one of the most intellectual of the famous Beecher family, and still serving as president of the Connecticut Woman Suffrage Association, which she founded over thirty years ago. And there, too, is Zereida G. Wallace, who will be eighty-three in August, known as the mother of Ben Hur, and who made the principal address at the recent suffrage convention in Indiana—Boston Herald.

The iron mills in the vicinity of Cleveland have enough orders on hand now to keep them busy all of next year. Before McKinley was elected many of them were lying idle or working only half time.—Cleveland Leader.

More Than Funny.

The last Telegram, in an article under the caption "Poor Old Columbus," in a covert way it is true, gives voice to a nameless correspondent, who predicts "that the Union Pacific company will abandon the idea of building a new freight depot at this point, enlarging their round-house, and other improvements, which could not fail to result in benefiting every business man and resident in the city." Doubtless all concerned will endeavor to further their own particular interests, as they see them, the Union Pacific included. Each is in duty bound to defend its own interests in all proper ways. In such friendly discussions or judicial conflicts, the proper results are more apt to be reached, but "Poor Old Columbus," as the Telegram in its effort to be funny calls our thriving little city, is evidencing commendable thoroughness in looking after the general (everybody's) interests in this matter of streets just now.

If the same attention had been given years ago, corporations would not now be claiming title by time-limit occupancy, or by trades and deals that ought never have been made, and probably never would have been made if the light of publicity had shone upon the proposed measures.
Every injury-working act is accomplished in darkness, and "Poor Old Columbus" purposes at this stage to at least know what is going on, and act accordingly.

National Negro Party.

The first steps looking to the organization of a national negro party were taken the other day at Philadelphia, Pa. A presidential ticket will be put into the field with negro candidates, and the country organized for the political best interest of the condition of the race. The names mentioned for president were ex-Judge E. J. Walker of Boston, with P. B. S. Pinchback, ex-lieutenant governor of Louisiana as vice-president, along with four other pairs of candidates. The very fact of being organized for effective work against their enemies may result in securing to themselves their political and social rights, especially in communities and states where they should have to have the balance of power. It does not appear a seemly spectacle this of a political party with a black face as a card of admission to its ranks, but if this color is to be forever regarded as a bar to progress, especially in portions of the country where once it was the badge of slavery and ignorance, and where now under freedom there are so many examples of high intellectual and business attainments by individuals of the race, it is no wonder that the judges and bishops and congressmen and great business men representatives of the race, should, through organization, seek to enforce their rights.
We are paying each year to foreign ship owners more money than is collected at all our customhouses, and this fact strengthens the determination of Americans to not only make more of our commerce with foreign nations, but to make more of our ship-building industries, thus giving employment to more American people.

Additional Local.

Richland and Vicinity.
Bees swarming.
Everything is pleasant and Richland is happy.
Children's Day was observed at the Richland church Sunday night.
Mrs. Rev. Hoover attended a missionary meeting at Columbus Thursday.
Rev. Neumark held services at the Lutheran church on Shell creek Sunday afternoon.
Joseph Bucher had three car-loads of corn shelled and loaded here last week, shipping it to his home in California.
We hear of a farmer who wished to rent a farm this spring, on which weeds would not grow. He finally found one near Creston; now his corn will not grow.
Mrs. Wm. Brockley entertained the Ladies' Aid society Wednesday afternoon. The society have made aprons and sun-bonnets which they are selling rapidly.
The children and grand children of Mr. and Mrs. John Keller gathered at their home Sunday to remind Mrs. Keller of her 48th birthday. Useful presents were left as tokens of love.
Mrs. and Mr. Julius Egger had their infant son baptized Sunday, Rev. Neumark officiating. The usual festivities were enjoyed by near friends in the afternoon at their home north of Richland.
—We know that our nose did not deceive us, as other people's had not deceived them. We are convinced, too that like causes produce like results. So that, notwithstanding what some men have said to us, we are confirmed in the opinion that large yards do occasionally be off odor, to say the very least, Columbus being no exception to the general rule. The Schuyler Quill says:
"When arrested by the maddening roar of a deep-toned, mellow odor stalking through streets, penetrating stone walls, and heaving your sense of smell, you may know it does not come from the Knollin sheep ranch. The Quill editor drove out that way the other day and found that Manager Nye has cleaned the yards thoroughly. The ground is plowed and planted and is as free from odor as a garden spot. It cost the company just $1,000, but it is worth ten times that amount to the community. The work was done at the instigation of Nye, whose efforts the citizens of Schuyler duly appreciate."

The Railroad Ordinance.

The now noted ordinance, drafted by a Union Pacific attorney, introduced by Mr. Letz, and under a suspension of the rules (moved and seconded by Messrs. Letz and Niswonger), and by a vote of Lehman, Letz, Niswonger and Phillips as against Gray, read a second time, we give in full below, for the benefit of our readers who are interested. It may be well to preserve it for future reference, remembering at the same time that it is well enough to give close attention to public matters than is generally done.
It is thought that the ordinance might have been passed at that meeting, but for the fact that councilman Elliott was absent because of sickness, and it was deemed wise all around to defer action:

AN ORDINANCE.

Vacating portions of Murray, Quincy, Hick and Spicet streets, all of which are in blocks 89 and 90, and that portion of the alley in block 90 not heretofore vacated by ordinance No. 55; also, opening Platte street from the north line of Eleventh street to the north line of Twelfth street, in the city of Columbus, Nebraska; also to modify provisions of ordinance No. 55 of the city of Columbus in relation to the location of Union Pacific Railroad company's station.
Be it ordained by the mayor and council of the City of Columbus, Nebraska: Section 1. That all those parts, hereinafter described, of the following named streets and alleys be and the same are hereby vacated, to-wit: Murray street, the north line of Twelfth street to a line parallel with and 210 feet north from the center line of the main track of the Union Pacific Railroad company; Bickley street and Spicet street from the north line of Twelfth street to a line parallel with and 100 feet north from the center line of the main track of the Union Pacific Railroad company; also, that part of the alley in block 122, in said city, also the alleys in blocks Nos. 89 and 95 and that part of the alley in block No. 90 not heretofore vacated by ordinance No. 55 of said City of Columbus, also Quincy street from the south line of Twelfth street to the south line of the right-of-way of the Union Pacific Railroad company.
Section 2. That Platte street from the north line of Eleventh street to the south line of Twelfth street, and the same is hereby opened to public use and travel. Provided the Union Pacific Railroad company consents to such opening without cost to the city.
Section 3. Union Pacific Railroad company is hereby granted the right and privilege to locate and maintain its freight station at such point as it may select between "L" and "N" street, notwithstanding the provisions of ordinance No. 55 of the City of Columbus. And the conditions of said ordinance No. 55, and the conveyance thereunder are hereby modified in respect to the location of the Union Pacific Railroad company station accordingly.
Section 4. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, approval and publication.
It is understood at the time of writing this paragraph that the Union Pacific have thought best not to urge the passage of the above noted ordinance, but that another has been drafted, with provisions more favorable to this city than the one here printed, but still not providing for the opening of M street.

We prefer not to make comment on an ordinance not already formulated and presented for the consideration of the council, but it is always a safe rule for a law-making power to refer so important a matter as this is to the city attorney and to a proper committee, so that whatever is done would be after deliberate consideration of all the city's interests.
THE JOURNAL believes that railroad companies should be given no other or different privileges than are conceded to ordinary individuals.
Sidewalks are for "foot-passengers," and are not to be obstructed by people whom the policeman are directed to have "move on," or by goods or truck that have no proper abiding place on the walk.
The public highway or street is devoted to the free passage of the traveling public, and unless the reasons are overwhelmingly good ones for vacating a street clearly in the public interest, there should be no potato patches or private residences or railroad depots allowed in them.
Keep all streets in the business portion of the city open, free from obstruction of any kind.

Weather Report.

Review of the weather near Genoa for the month of May, 1900.
Mean temperature of the month..... 64.00
Mean do same month last year..... 63.50
Highest daily temperature on 11th..... 85
Lowest do same on 2d..... 25
Rain days..... 11
Clear days..... 12
Fair days..... 12
Cloudy days..... 10
Snow days..... 0
Inches of rainfall..... 4.15
Do same month last year..... 3.54
Prevaling winds from S. to S. E.
Heavy frost and slight ice on the morning of 3d.
Hazy on the 4th, 12th and 13th.
Fogs on the 24th and 27th.
Thunder storms on 6th, 14th, 16th, 23d, 25th and 31st.
Partial eclipse of the sun on the 29th at 7 a. m. and the conditions being favorable, a good view of the same was had but having been favored years ago to see both an annular, as well as a total eclipse, this one did not come up to the anticipations from previous reports.

Hunters, Take Notice!

The public are strictly forbidden to hunt upon the whole of section 8, in which is located the Irrigation Pond. Any persons trespassing will be prosecuted to the full limit of the law.
15-nov-7 W. T. EMMERT.
NICK ADAMS.

From Head to Mouth.

"I never speak to him again!" exclaimed the young woman in the pale blue jacket. "He called me his queen and asked if he might kiss my hand. I said yes, and—after that he kissed me on the lips without asking."
"I suppose," said the young woman in the yellow buskin, "he followed along the line of least resistance."—Chicago Tribune.
—See my new engraving ring. Don't you think George has good taste? "I certainly have—in the selection of a ring.—Chicago Record.

Personal Mention.
Earl Pearsall was in the city Sunday.
J. C. Fillman went up to Albion Monday.
Frank Schram was in Omaha Saturday.
Mrs. W. A. Schroeder is visiting friends at Omaha.
Mrs. A. J. Smith made a business trip to Schuyler Friday.
Miss Lizzie Dunn of Humphrey was in the city Monday.
P. H. D. Haged made a business trip to Fullerton Monday.
Mrs. Niemieller of Platte Center visited here last Saturday.
Mrs. Charles Smith went to Albion Monday to visit friends.
Charles Mentzer of Schuyler visited friends here Wednesday.
L. G. Zinnecker made a business trip to Omaha Wednesday last.
Miss Eugene Hale of Humphrey visited her sister, Miss Frank, last Friday.
Mrs. Gietzen of Humphrey visited friends and relatives in this city last week.
Miss Brewer of Albion passed through the city Friday on her way home from school.
L. B. Musselman of David City was in town Monday, on his way to Antelope county.
Prof. Abbott, principal of the schools in Albion, visited in the city the first of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. Malleger of Lindsay visited friends in and near Columbus the past week.
Ernest Gerrard returned home last Wednesday from his year's study in New York.
Mrs. S. S. Crouch of St. Edward, returned home today after a visit with Prof. Britell's family.
Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Swanson of Palestine, are visiting Mrs. Swanson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jones.
Mr. Yost, father of Rev. Yost, traveling representative of the Omaha Bee, spent Sunday here with his son.
Miss Jessie Swartsley is home for the summer from Ida Grove, Ia., where she has been working at the millinery trade.
Mrs. J. C. Post and daughter Einor of Kingsdale, Oklahoma, are visiting Mrs. Post's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Speck.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meedel were in the city Thursday, on their way home after a few days' visit with friends at Shelby.
Miss Anna Douglas returned to her home in Benedict Thursday, after attending the high school in this city the past term.
Mrs. F. H. Geer and Miss Florence Whitmore went to Crete Saturday to attend commencement exercises of the college there.
Frank Otis of Humphrey, was in the city Monday on his way to St. Paul, Minn., accompanied thus far on his way by his father Thos. Otis.
Mrs. E. G. Brown and children of Humphrey, visited a few days with relatives in this city, on their way home from a visit at Cedar Rapids.
Carl Hirsching, who has been with Dr. Heintz at his drug-store for twelve or thirteen years past, started Wednesday last for Hamburg, Germany.
Mrs. Hartshorn and daughter Beatrice, of Manchester, N. H., are visiting Mrs. Chambers. JOURNAL readers will remember Mrs. Hartshorn as Mrs. J. E. Tasker.
Mrs. Kate Kavanagh of Milwaukee, Wis., who has been visiting the family of her son, D. C., the past two weeks, and was taken seriously ill, is now very much better. Her son Charles of Milwaukee, arrived in the city Friday, starting on his return home Monday.

Chicago's Queer Indian.

An Englishman of rank and money visited Chicago recently and with him came his private secretary, a young, fresh faced, jolly fellow just out of Oxford university. The secretary brought letters of introduction to a Chicago man from a well known London actor and an equally prominent man of letters. The Englishman came direct to Chicago, making no stop in New York. The secretary called upon the Chicago man to whom he had letters and who did a little entertaining, inviting three city friends to meet the private secretary at luncheon at a noted restaurant.
It was after the cigars were lighted that the conversation turned upon things American. The Chicagoans knew that the Britons were credited with believing that they could shoot buffalo under the shade of the Anse Shokle, but they were not quite prepared for what was to come. The little luncheon party had been waited upon by a coal black negro with crisp hair curled tight to his head. The secretary throughout the repast and eye catching her with interest. When the waiter finally had left the room, the English guest turned to his host and said:
"Mr. Nelson, it seems to me that I read somewhere that the American Indians had straight hair. The hair of the one I waited on with curls like astrakhan."—Chicago Tribune.

Married With a Bump.

The marriage customs of the Negulus are peculiar. The young man who seeks a bride first obtains the favor of the parents and then proceeds to catching her in his arms. She breaks loose and runs and does not yield until he has caught her several times. Finally he leads her in triumph to her home. Here her father drags the youth up a ladder to her floor of their hut. The mother drags up the maiden. They are then made to kneel, and the father pours over them a coconut shellful of water. He then bumps their heads together, and the ceremony is completed. They spend their honeymoon in the depths of the mountains for five days and nights are kept to sight, after which they come back to everyday life.
There is another marriage custom which is worth describing. Instead of the hut ladder they are made to go to the top of a tree that grows near each other. Then an elder of the group grasps the saplings and draws them together until the heads of the young couple touch, with a kiss or a bump, according to the force used. This makes them man and wife.—Forum.

Taking Umbrellas.

A few idlers (no very unusual thing) were lounging in front of the shop of the battle of the burgh, among whom the laird espied the village Aesculapius, who was his political oracle, and so addressed him:
"My 'ow' ye' ye' the day, doctor? O'ny political news?"
"Nothing very particular," replied the doctor; "only it is said that the Dutch have taken umbrage at"—Here the doctor got a touch on his shoulder from his shop boy, who acquainted him that a game of poker was waiting for him, and he broke off abruptly from his political laird.
"Ta'en umbrage!" exclaimed the laird. "Mercy upon us! Hae they ta'en umbrage? Baillie, ken ye it's a wa'd'ed town or no?"
"A wa'd'ed town said the baillie; "nae sic thing. It's a sugar island and aye o' the sweetest o' them. The article's up already, but ye shall hae a stane weight ham w' ye at the auld price."—Cornhill.

An Exasperated Knave.

An old man went into a cigar store where pocketknives are on sale. He had a fancy for one of the knives, but thought the price, 75 cents, too high. After a parley with the proprietor he concluded to wager 75 cents against the knife in a game of poker. He lost the money and then that much again. He continued to lose until he lost $121, all the money he had, but the proprietor made him a present of the knife.
In the afternoon he returned, saying he was dissatisfied with the knife. He had paid $121 for it, but would willingly exchange it for a $1 article. The dealer kindly made the exchange, and the man went his way rejoicing. He had no money to trouble him, but he had a knife, and, after all, a knife is a good thing to have.—Arizona Republican.

Setting Down.

"I'm anxious to get married and settled down," said the fagged bachelor, "so that I can pick out one good club and stick to it."—Philadelphia North American.

To Chicago and the East.

Passengers going east by business, will naturally gravitate to Chicago as the great commercial center. Passengers re-visiting friends or relatives in the eastern states always desire to "take in" Chicago on route. All classes of passengers will find that the "Short Line" of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, via Omaha and Council Bluffs, affords excellent facilities to reach their destinations in a manner that will be sure to give the utmost satisfaction.
A reference to the time tables will indicate the routes to be chosen, and by asking any principal agent west of the Missouri river for a ticket over the Chicago, Council Bluffs & Omaha Short Line, or the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, you will be cheerfully furnished with the proper passport via Omaha and Council Bluffs. Please note that all of the "Short Line" trains arrive in Chicago in ample time to connect with the express trains of all the great through car lines to the principal eastern cities.
For additional particulars, time tables, maps, etc., please call on or address F. A. Nash, General Agent, Omaha, Neb.
Burlington Route—The Democratic National Convention.
Only a few weeks to the big convention at Kansas City. Time you decided about your route. Time you found out, for yourself, how quickly and comfortably you can reach Kansas City if you take the Burlington.
The rate will be one fare for the round trip, and tickets will be on sale July 2, 3 and 4.
See the local ticket agent of the B. & M. R. R. R. J. FRANKIE, 15Jan2 General Passenger Agent.

DUBOUC-JERSEYS

choicely bred; a few well-bred sows left for sale. Call soon. C. K. DAVIES, Silver Creek, Nebr.

The Missionary's Little Joke.

A native Maori chieftain, the descendant of cannibal kings, is now completing his medical education in Chicago. Cannibalism ended in his tribe, he says, when Bishop Selwyn converted his grandfather, but he tells some stories of it which have a distinctly humorous flavor. For instance: It is said that once a chief captured a missionary who was anything but a toothsome morsel, as he was old and thin and looked as if his flesh would be tough. The missionary warned the chief that he would not make a good dinner and, pulling up his trousers, cut a slice of the calf of his leg and offered it to the chief.
The chief tasted it, said he didn't like it and passed it to a subchief. The sub chief tasted it, made a wry face and passed it to the next man who took a bite of it and spat it out. The missionary was released. After he had gone it was discovered that he wore a cork leg.
The Fads of Authors.
How novelists write will always be of interest to readers. Each seems to be completing his medical education in the muse. Row wrote "Near to Nature's Heart," Hay "At the Seaside" and Besant "All in a Garden Fair." Verne wrote "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea," Dryden "In Sunny Lands" and Auerbach "On the Heights."
While Gibbon wrote "For Lack of Gold" and Payne "In Peril and Privation," Black wrote "In Silk Attire" and Haven "Out of Debt, Out of Danger."
Horatio Alger wrote "Slow and Sure," Williams "On and On" and Pike "Every Day."
Most curious of all were Bellamy, who wrote "Looking Backward," and Parker, who wrote "Upside Down."

Justice of the Peace.

Would respectfully solicit a share of your business.
OFFICE: Over First National Bank at rear of hall, 15Jan2

Chicago's Queer Indian.
An Englishman of rank and money visited Chicago recently and with him came his private secretary, a young, fresh faced, jolly fellow just out of Oxford university. The secretary brought letters of introduction to a Chicago man from a well known London actor and an equally prominent man of letters. The Englishman came direct to Chicago, making no stop in New York. The secretary called upon the Chicago man to whom he had letters and who did a little entertaining, inviting three city friends to meet the private secretary at luncheon at a noted restaurant.
It was after the cigars were lighted that the conversation turned upon things American. The Chicagoans knew that the Britons were credited with believing that they could shoot buffalo under the shade of the Anse Shokle, but they were not quite prepared for what was to come. The little luncheon party had been waited upon by a coal black negro with crisp hair curled tight to his head. The secretary throughout the repast and eye catching her with interest. When the waiter finally had left the room, the English guest turned to his host and said:
"Mr. Nelson, it seems to me that I read somewhere that the American Indians had straight hair. The hair of the one I waited on with curls like astrakhan."—Chicago Tribune.

Married With a Bump.

The marriage customs of the Negulus are peculiar. The young man who seeks a bride first obtains the favor of the parents and then proceeds to catching her in his arms. She breaks loose and runs and does not yield until he has caught her several times. Finally he leads her in triumph to her home. Here her father drags the youth up a ladder to her floor of their hut. The mother drags up the maiden. They are then made to kneel, and the father pours over them a coconut shellful of water. He then bumps their heads together, and the ceremony is completed. They spend their honeymoon in the depths of the mountains for five days and nights are kept to sight, after which they come back to everyday life.
There is another marriage custom which is worth describing. Instead of the hut ladder they are made to go to the top of a tree that grows near each other. Then an elder of the group grasps the saplings and draws them together until the heads of the young couple touch, with a kiss or a bump, according to the force used. This makes them man and wife.—Forum.

Taking Umbrellas.

A few idlers (no very unusual thing) were lounging in front of the shop of the battle of the burgh, among whom the laird espied the village Aesculapius, who was his political oracle, and so addressed him:
"My 'ow' ye' ye' the day, doctor? O'ny political news?"
"Nothing very particular," replied the doctor; "only it is said that the Dutch have taken umbrage at"—Here the doctor got a touch on his shoulder from his shop boy, who acquainted him that a game of poker was waiting for him, and he broke off abruptly from his political laird.
"Ta'en umbrage!" exclaimed the laird. "Mercy upon us! Hae they ta'en umbrage? Baillie, ken ye it's a wa'd'ed town or no?"
"A wa'd'ed town said the baillie; "nae sic thing. It's a sugar island and aye o' the sweetest o' them. The article's up already, but ye shall hae a stane weight ham w' ye at the auld price."—Cornhill.

An Exasperated Knave.

An old man went into a cigar store where pocketknives are on sale. He had a fancy for one of the knives, but thought the price, 75 cents, too high. After a parley with the proprietor he concluded to wager 75 cents against the knife in a game of poker. He lost the money and then that much again. He continued to lose until he lost $121, all the money he had, but the proprietor made him a present of the knife.
In the afternoon he returned, saying he was dissatisfied with the knife. He had paid $121 for it, but would willingly exchange it for a $1 article. The dealer kindly made the exchange, and the man went his way rejoicing. He had no money to trouble him, but he had a knife, and, after all, a knife is a good thing to have.—Arizona Republican.

Setting Down.

"I'm anxious to get married and settled down," said the fagged bachelor, "so that I can pick out one good club and stick to it."—Philadelphia North American.

To Chicago and the East.

Passengers going east by business, will naturally gravitate to Chicago as the great commercial center. Passengers re-visiting friends or relatives in the eastern states always desire to "take in" Chicago on route. All classes of passengers will find that the "Short Line" of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, via Omaha and Council Bluffs, affords excellent facilities to reach their destinations in a manner that will be sure to give the utmost satisfaction.
A reference to the time tables will indicate the routes to be chosen, and by asking any principal agent west of the Missouri river for a ticket over the Chicago, Council Bluffs & Omaha Short Line, or the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, you will be cheerfully furnished with the proper passport via Omaha and Council Bluffs. Please note that all of the "Short Line" trains arrive in Chicago in ample time to connect with the express trains of all the great through car lines to the principal eastern cities.
For additional particulars, time tables, maps, etc., please call on or address F. A. Nash, General Agent, Omaha, Neb.
Burlington Route—The Democratic National Convention.
Only a few weeks to the big convention at Kansas City. Time you decided about your route. Time you found out, for yourself, how quickly and comfortably you can reach Kansas City if you take the Burlington.
The rate will be one fare for the round trip, and tickets will be on sale July 2, 3 and 4.
See the local ticket agent of the B. & M. R. R. R. J. FRANKIE, 15Jan2 General Passenger Agent.

DUBOUC-JERSEYS

choicely bred; a few well-bred sows left for sale. Call soon. C. K. DAVIES, Silver Creek, Nebr.

The Missionary's Little Joke.

A native Maori chieftain, the descendant of cannibal kings, is now completing his medical education in Chicago. Cannibalism ended in his tribe, he says, when Bishop Selwyn converted his grandfather, but he tells some stories of it which have a distinctly humorous flavor. For instance: It is said that once a chief captured a missionary who was anything but a toothsome morsel, as he was old and thin and looked as if his flesh would be tough. The missionary warned the chief that he would not make a good dinner and, pulling up his trousers, cut a slice of the calf of his leg and offered it to the chief.
The chief tasted it, said he didn't like it and passed it to a subchief. The sub chief tasted it, made a wry face and passed it to the next man who took a bite of it and spat it out. The missionary was released. After he had gone it was discovered that he wore a cork leg.
The Fads of Authors.
How novelists write will always be of interest to readers. Each seems to be completing his medical education in the muse. Row wrote "Near to Nature's Heart," Hay "At the Seaside" and Besant "All in a Garden Fair." Verne wrote "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea," Dryden "In Sunny Lands" and Auerbach "On the Heights."
While Gibbon wrote "For Lack of Gold" and Payne "In Peril and Privation," Black wrote "In Silk Attire" and Haven "Out of Debt, Out of Danger."
Horatio Alger wrote "Slow and Sure," Williams "On and On" and Pike "Every Day."
Most curious of all were Bellamy, who wrote "Looking Backward," and Parker, who wrote "Upside Down."

Justice of the Peace.

Would respectfully solicit a share of your business.
OFFICE: Over First National Bank at rear of hall, 15Jan2

Cheap Rates Galore.
Here's a list of reduced rates that will interest you. Look it over. If you want more information, call at the Burlington ticket office, the agent will take pleasure in answering your questions:
Des Moines and return, June 18 to 22, $2.00.
Philadelphia and return, June 14 to 16, $3.20.
Denver, Pueblo, Colorado Springs and return, June 21, $19.00.
Glenwood Springs and return, June 21, $20.00.
Ogden, Salt Lake and return, June 21, $22.00.
Hot Springs and return, June 21, $18.25.

An Ideal Climate.

The first white man to set foot on Utah soil, Father Silvestre Velez de Escalante, who reached the GREAT SALT LAKE on the 23d day of Sept., 1776, wrote in his diary "Here the climate is so delicious, the air so balmy, that it is a pleasure to breathe day by day and night." The climate of Utah is one of the richest endowments of nature. On the shores of the Great Salt Lake especially—and for fifty miles therefrom in every direction—the climate of climates is found. To enable persons to participate in these scenic and climatic attractions and to reach the famous HEALTH, BATHING and PLEASURE RESORTS of Utah, the UNION PACIFIC has made a rate to OGDEN and SALT LAKE CITY of one fare for the round trip, plus $2.00, from Missouri River, to be in effect from June 21st, July 7th to 10th inclusive, July 19th and Aug. 2d. Return limit Oct. 31st, 1900.
For full information, call on or address 2Aug W. H. BENHAM, Agent.

For a Summer Outing.

The Rocky Mountain regions, reached via the UNION PACIFIC, provide lavishly for the health of the invalid, and the pleasure of the tourist. Amid these rugged steepes, are to be found some of the most charming and restful spots on earth. Fairy lakes, nestled amid sunny peaks, and climate that cheers and exhilarates. The SUMMER EXCURSION RATES put in effect by the UNION PACIFIC enable you to reach these favored localities without unnecessary expenditure of time or money.
In effect June 21, July 7 to 10, inc., July 18 and August 2. One fare, plus $2.00, for the round trip from Missouri River to Denver, Colorado Springs, Pueblo, Ogden and Salt Lake City. Return limit October 31st, 1900.
For Time Tables and full information call on 2Aug W. H. BENHAM, Agent.

Some Special Rates via Union Pacific.

Washington, D. C., May 22-24, annual Shrine meeting, one fare plus $2.00 the round trip.
Des Moines, Ia., June 19-22, Music Teachers' national convention, one fare round trip.
Cincinnati, Ohio, July 12-15, convention Baptist Young People's Union, one fare plus $2 round trip.
Philadelphia, Penn., June 19, republican National convention, one fare round trip.
St. Paul, Minn., July 17-19, convention Republican League of the U. S., one fare plus $2 round trip.
Milwaukee, Wis., June 4-8, General Federation of Women's clubs, one fare plus $2 round trip.
Grand Island, Neb., June 26-27, Populist State convention, one fare round trip.
For further information call on 2Aug W. H. BENHAM, Agent.

Thirteen Cash Prizes—$115.00 for Nebraska Letters.

Burlington & Missouri River Railroad in Nebraska, Passenger Department, Omaha, Neb., May 10, 1900—General Passenger Agent Francis of the Burlington Route offers $115.00 in prizes for letters about Nebraska, its resources, possibilities and opportunities. The letters will be used to encourage immigration to this state. This contest is open to all. The letters should contain between 200 and 1,000 words, and must reach Mr. Francis at Omaha, by July 1, 1900.
A circular giving all the conditions of the contest will be mailed on application. 16ny41

NOTICE TO REDEEM.

To James Allen, or to whom it may concern: You are hereby notified that the 19th day of November, 1898, the following described real estate, to-wit:
Lot number six (6) in block number twelve (12), in Highland Park addition to the city of Columbus, Nebraska, containing 1.25 acres of public tax, to Wm. T. Allen for non-payment of delinquent taxes levied and assessed against the same, for the year 1897, said purchase or sales paying the subsequent taxes for the years 1898 and 1899, on said lot.
Said lot was taxed in the name of James Allen, and time of redemption of said lot from said sale will expire on the 10th day of November, 1900.
15 Jan 2 WM. T. ALLEN.

PROBATE NOTICE.

In the matter of the estate of Nels Nelson, deceased, Notice is hereby given, that the creditors of said estate, before the county judge of Platte county, Nebraska, at my office in Columbus, Nebraska, on the 19th day of December, 1900, at 2 o'clock p. m., said day, for the purpose of presenting their claims for examination, adjustment and allowance.
Six months are allowed for the creditors to present their claims, and one year for the administrator to settle said estate from the 19th day of June, 1900, and this notice is ordered published in THE COLUMBIAN JOURNAL, for four consecutive weeks, prior to the 19th day of June, 1900.
T. D. ROBINSON, County