Imperial Troops as Well as Boxers Eagage Internationals - Chinese Make Trencherous Attack After Professions

LONDON, June 30.-The adventures of the hard fighting allies under Admiral Seymour, their reaching Anting, twelve miles from Pekin, the decision to retreat, the capture of rice and immense stores of arms and ammunition, affording material for a strenuous defense until relieved-all this is told in a dispatch from Admiral Seymour received by the admiralty at midnight, which runs as fol-

"TIEN TSIN, June 27, via Che Foo. June 29.-Have returned to Tien Tsin with the forces, having been unable to reach Pekin by rail. On June 13 two attacks on the advance guard were made by the Boxers, who were repulsed with considerable loss to them and none to our side.

On June 14 the Boxers attacked the train at Lang Yan in large numbers and with great determination. We repulsed them with a loss of about 100 killed. Our loss was five Italians. The same afternoon the Boxers attacked the British guard left to protert Lofa station. Reinforcements were sent back and the enemy were driven off with 100 killed. Two of our

YORK, Neb., June 30.-The west bound Burlington train No. 41, which passed through here Wednesday, was robbed between this place and Bradshaw. At what point the robber got on the train is unknown. It is generally supposed that he boarded the train either at this place or at Seward. He commenced his work of gong through two Pullman cars at this place and, owing to the limited time he worked, he overlooked passengers and thousands of dollars that he could have secured had he taken more time and done his work more systematically and thoroughly.

His pals, two men driving a team, were waiting for him one mile west of Bradshaw, where the robber pulled the air brakes, jumped off, joined his pals and drove south, with only $74 n cash, the proceeds of his fifteen ninutes' work. The engineer saw the team and two nen and at Aurora news of the robery was wired into Superintendent Bignell's office at Lincoln, who came here on a special train, bringing with him railroad detectives and bloodhounds.
