Stand Up For Hobraska. Everything in any of the worlds we are acquainted with is matter of quality, day. quantity and degree, and music is no exception. There is the abundant air to begin with, and the numberless methods of converting the raw material into pleasing melodies, songs, choruses marches and what-nots. Of all these methods, the band of our time, according to ability of individual members with conscientions and thorough leadership, is regarded as one of the very best interpreters to the public, of the master-pieces of musical composition. There is individuality of expression, with varjety and fullness, so that when there is wanted the "chime of the evening bells;" the tramp, tramp, tramp of the soldier to the battle-field; the clarion tones of the trumpet to the charge; the all-embracing anthem of praise and thanks giving, voicing a nation's warm grati-sufficient for the occasion. Neither is it lacking when there is to be a dash of fun and frolic. The services of the Columbus City Band are likely to be called for at the Grand Island street fair, and these words will apply to them, and we here wish also to say a good word for the Hagenow Band to the good friends at Fremont for their street fair. We personally know several members of that band, talented musicians, and the aggregation of thirty-six makes a first-class band, occupying the position in this part of the United States that Sousa's does for the Union. By the way, we notice that at the national convention at Kansas City recently, W. F. Beckett, nusician, was with the Hagenow band her brother, Dennis Sullivan. in their excellent service on that occasion, where their work was highly praised. Last year at Kansas City Sixteenth annual Boone county fair, Hagenow's band were at the Modern Woodmen meeting, and won the first prize in a contest open to all, and their of Crocker's Iowa brigade, at Keokuk, work is such that we feel a lively interest in seeing them capture all the large Central Nebraska League Assembly, prizes in this region, and we are very sure that if Fremont should secure Hagenow's band they will make no mistake. A number of Columbus citizens will doubtless attend the fair if Hagenow is there, and there are doubtless

"I have met here today a few men from my old stamping grounds in the Dekotas and Montana, where I used to be a delegate to the cattle conventions. There are a few of my fellow delegates here tonight. I was then in the cow business myself. Out there the cow puncher and the branding iron took the place of the fence. We used to brand the calves every year, and if a calf was passed over it became a maverick. It was the rule in those days that a mayerick when found might be branded with the brand of the ranch on which it was found. "And one day I was riding over the ranch with a cow nuncher and we came State Journal, will be mailed from now across a maverick. It was on the until January 1, 1901, for 25 cents. He must have the Saving Grace of Common Sense Honesty, courage and common sense are needed in public life just as they are needed in private life. And it is because I believe that associations like this club, associations like this league, make for the elementary decencies of political life that I take such pleasure in addressing you tonight.

"I do not address you as a Repub-

Today it would mean all this, and in with the base hope that thereby they addition the unmeasurable disgrace of may further their own political advance abandoning the proud position we have against him are arrayed The Forces of Chaotic Evil; because of the brooding menace to our moral and industrial welfare which is pose of the Populistic-Democracy. "We know definitely what we be-

"Nor is this to be wondered at, when one of the makers of their platform, the representative from New York, and the leader of that organization in New York are both themselves among the most prominent stockholders in the which our opponents often unjustly apply to every form of industrial effort.

"We now come to the Philippines and to the general question of expansion. Many of the positions taken by the Populistic-Demecracy at the moment are so palpably dishonest and maintained in such palpable bad faith that to state them is sufficient. It is hardly necessary to discuss what they may about "the constitution following the flag." The Democratic party never championed the doctrine thus set forth save in the dark days, when it had be-

and rebellion, and danced to any tune which the apostles of slavery chose to pipe. When, under Jefferson, the great West beyond the Mississippi was ac-quired, when, largely through the instrumentality of Jackson, Florida was added to the Union, the new provinces with their Indian populations, were governed precisely and exactly on the President McKinley secured the Philippines and Andrew Jackson warred acquired Florida from Spain, precisely as General MacArthur is now warring against the bandits among the Tagals in Leson. Unless we are willing to deprive Jefferson and Jackson of the meed of honor which has been held to be peculiarly theirs, we cannot deny the same high praise to President Mo-Kinley. At Kansas City, the men en-

"So it is with their cant about mili tarism and 'intimidation and oppres We cannot argue with them on this proposition, because no serious man hinks for one moment that they be lieve what they assert. During the great civil war there were many preachers of the gospel of disloyalty among the socalled copperheads of the north, and these men, like their representatives among our opponents today, prophesied the subdivision of the country when the great armies of Grant and Sherman should come back from the war; but the great armies of Grant and Sherman returned to civil life and were swallowed up among their fellow citizens without a ripple. A considerable army was kept for a year or two on the Indian frontier and in some of the southern states, but it never entered the head of a human being to attempt what danger of militarism is the idlest. The army we have now is, relatively to the when we had only our own Indians to guard against. In Washington's administration Gen. Wayne spent some three years in Ohio warring against the Tagals of that day, with an army under him larger in proportion to the then population of the nation than all our present national forces, regulars and rolunteers combined, and there is just as little danger from the evils of militarism now as there was then. It is as ntter folly to talk of our liberties as menaced by the existence of a force capable of keeping order in our outlying possessions as it would have been to talk of their being menaced in the seventies by the soldiers who followed Custer and his fellows against Comanche, Apache and Sionx. "I would ask those who by their words have encouraged the warfare of the Filipinos against us to recall the letter of General Lawton, written just before his death, in which he pointed out that the blood of his soldiers reddened the hands of the men at home who encouraged Our Foes Abroad. "Some years ago when certain east erners were clamoring in the name of humanity against the army officers who warred to protect the western settlers from the Indians, General Sheridan wrote: 'I do not know how far these humanitarians should be excused on account of their ignorance, but surely it is the only excuse that can give shadow of justification for aiding and abetting such horrid crimes.'
