In the east, as Senator Frye says, it is called Bryanism, and not democracy. J. Sterling Morton calls it Bryanarchy.

Ten thousand workmen at Youngstown, Ohio, the other day, followed in procession a pall fourteen feet high. The full dinner-pail is a good republican emblem.

PREMIER CABINET of the Pennsylvania railroad awarded contracts Friday for 150,000 tons of steel rails, for which the company will pay $25 a ton or a total of $3,750,000.

THE TIMES of Des Moines puts it in this way: "The paramount question four years ago was, When can we get work? This year, the paramount question is, Will you work? There is plenty of it at remunerative prices."

THE anarchist, Bertolani, arrested at Milan as a suspected accomplice of Bresci, has made a confession about anarchist plots, and among them of a plot to kill McKinley or Bryan during the presidential campaign.

HARRY WILSON, near Des Moines, Wednesday last, climbed up to oil some parts of the engine of a threshing machine, when his clothes caught in the wheels, and he was so drawn into them that his collar bone and shoulder blade were both broken. He came near losing his life.

FRANK POPPEKA, of Maple Creek precinct, Colfax county, died suddenly Thursday of last week. The Tuesday before, he fell from a windmill tower and was badly bruised, although not thought dangerous, and the following day was about the place, doing his work as usual. He was 53 years old.

MOIST not this remark of the St. Joseph News be classified as one of unkindness? What has the Assistant Secretary done to deserve such treatment from one of his own party? "At the same time, the Assistant Secretary of War should understand that it is McKinley Bryan is running against."

If there is any one who believes the ball standard is a good thing, so that it must be maintained, I would like to see him vote for it, unless he is prepared to see it not maintained in this country longer than I am able to get out of it. See William Jennings Bryan in a speech at Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 25, 1909.

OMAHA is about to pay an indebtedness now amounting to $211,250, the original indebtedness being $63,300. The bonds were first issued in 1873, to pay a floating indebtedness, and it is the first time in the history of the metropolis of the state when maturing bonds have been paid in cash without the issue of funding bonds to take their place.

ABRAHAM R. STEVENSON once had a congenial opportunity to render great assistance in saving the republic when it was really in danger, but he had other business that interested him more deeply, so he hired a cheap substitute and abandoned his entire time promoting law and "saving" the Lincoln administration. In solemn commemoration of that successful event it becomes the American people to improve the venerable gentleman with the importance of standing by the government in times of peril as well as at other times.—Lincoln Journal.

DEMOCRATIC BOGIES.

1892—"Robber Tariff"
1896—"Crime of '73"
1900—"Imperialism."
1904—"Only the Lord knows.—Ozark Mo., "Republican."

Gen. Edward S. Bragg, a life-long democrat who served several terms in congress in congress and was minister to Mexico under President Cleveland, made a speech last Thursday evening at Milwaukee, Wis., to a large audience, in which all shades of political opinion were represented. The general spoke as a gold democrat and advocated the election of McKinley and Roosevelt. Among other things, he said:

"The fate of the democratic party since the war of the rebellion is but a rehearsal of the fate of the federal and whig parties, and the cause of it the same. It failed as a party organization to grasp the situation and give the unwavering strength of its great power, without reserve, to aid in putting down the rebellion. I hate to say it, but it is true, and for years the name 'democrat' was an opprobrious one all over this nation."

AMERICAN PEOPLE LOYAL.
"Looking over the history of the past and comparing it with present instances of the American people as I know them, it seems beyond possibility that any party or candidate can succeed in reaching the support of the electors of the United States when, in the face of bloody war, he classifies the traitorous Aguinaldo as a patriot, and his guerrilla bands as those shooting down our soldiers as subjects of our sympathy, if not our commendation."

"I may not read the political horoscope correctly but it is my sincere conviction that, were St. Paul to be rehabilitated with mortal presence, and lead the Bryan column with a Filipino badge upon his breast and an 16 to 1 pointed on his banner, nothing but signal defeat would await him."

John E. Hays.
With a congressman who is in sympathy with the administration the Third congressional district will receive some legislative benefits. John E. Hays is the right man to represent the district. The prospects of a republican victory in the Third congressional district become brighter and brighter as the campaign advances. John E. Hays is greatly encouraged in his canvass. To insure his election it is necessary for every republican to do all he can to make the victory complete.—Madison Chronicle.

Mr. Hays is very much encouraged over the political outlook in this district, and has every reasonable prospect of election. He will visit Albion and address our people during the present month and become better acquainted. He is one of the common people, approachable by anyone, and possessed of ability only vouchsafed to a few.—Albion News.

SUPR. W. K. FOWLER has spent the past two months in hard campaigning, meeting thousands of voters and making hosts of friends all over the state, who are sure to remember him when election day rolls round. But his campaign days are now practically over, and he has settled down to his eighth year of work in the Blair city schools. It is needless to state that it will be his best year, at least until January, and that the honor of the republican nomination for state superintendent, which came to him unsought, will in no degree interfere with his duty to the city schools or the efficiency of his work. His working hours are his waking hours, and his office hours are when you can catch him. He's a good runner!—Blair Pilot.

THE Wisconsin, just completed, has made the most successful trip ever made by a battleship. The average speed of the trial run, sixty-four knots, was 17.28 knots per hour. The only other battleship approaching this speed is the Alabama, which averaged 17.13 knots.

RESORTING TO FALSHOOD.

Fusion Campaigners in Their Desperation to Save Poynter Resort to Base Slander.

Charley Towne's Oratory Never Failed the Price of a Bushel of Grain or a Pound of Meat.

Omaha, Oct. 18.—In so-called temperance districts in the state and among temperance people some of Governor Poynter's friends are trying to make votes for him by telling falsehoods about Charles H. Dietrich, the republican candidate for governor. When they are talking to these people they tell stories about Dietrich being a saloon man, part owner of a brewery and of making a "saloon campaign." When they speak of Mr. Dietrich to the saloon element, they tell them that he is a rank temperance man and is in favor of prohibition. There are 50 different places in the city of Omaha where the millions of Governor Poynter have been and represented that Charles H. Dietrich was not alone a temperance man, but a prohibitionist. They have gone into many saloons of this city and campaigned against Dietrich on the ground that he is a temperance man. In other communities, among church and temperance people, they have taken just the opposite tact and circulated reports that Dietrich is part owner of a brewery and is in league with the saloon element.

Democrats and Populists, some of their holding office, are going over the state in the temperance districts in the guise of temperance advocates attacking his record and spreading vicious falsehoods about him. It is known that of the saloon element, examiners has devoted a great deal of his time to this class of work the last few months. He has kept his identity covered up and has been 'working' for the good of the temperance cause, by organizing temperance clubs against Dietrich and by misleadingly making statements members of churches and ministers of the gospel.

The statement that Charles H. Dietrich, the republican candidate for governor, now or at any other time owned an interest in a brewery, saloon or any other establishment, where liquor was made or sold, or that he is what is termed a drinking man, is as false and malicious a statement as any one could possibly make. There is not a word of truth in it and it is absolutely false in each and every particular. In the city of Hastings, where Mr. Dietrich has been in business and resided for many years, he is recognized as an exemplary citizen, temperate, industrious and a liberal giver to the churches and to charity. Since this question has been raised it may be appropriate to give the good temperance people some inside history concerning Governor Poynter and the liquor element.

A comparison was made between the present prosperous times, under the McKinley administration, and the state of the country before that under democratic tariff legislation.

Reference was also made to the prophesies of disaster uttered by the fusion candidate four years ago, as published in his book entitled "The First Battle," to read which was to refute them, and all voters were urged to support the party which had done so much for the country; fulfilling all the promises that it had made, and who could be trusted to do what is right.

The address was well received by the large crowd present.

BRYANISM'S WORST FOE.

What the Community Candidate Has to Say for His Own People.

General Prosperity is in command of the Republican forces in Nebraska, and he is already getting the Bryanites on the run.

There are long, blank faces in the Democratic state headquarters over the uncomfortable fact that Nebraska farmers are receiving 4% cents a pound for their hogs, where two years ago they could get only 2 1/2 cents; that those farmers are buying pianos, top buggies, dress goods for their wives and daughters; that they are painting their houses, lifting their mortgages and putting good money into the savings banks. The merchants of Omaha, Lincoln and Sioux City report an increase of from 40 to 100 per cent in the volume of their business. The Union Pacific railway has sold more land in the last two years than in the 15 years before. In 1896 the Union Pacific had 125 idle locomotives in its roundhouse. Now it can hardly handle the traffic which pours in upon it from every quarter of Nebraska.

The Populist secretary of the state banking board, who is a statistician first and a calamity howler afterward, reports an increase of $3,000,000 in deposits in the state and private banks of Nebraska, and a decrease of $2,000,000 in loans and discounts. Individual deposits in the Nebraska national banks have increased $1,000,000 since April. Omaha's bank clearings in July were $26,330,000, a gain of almost $1,000,000 over July, 1908.

Mr. Bryan loses his own state, as now seems probable, it is General Prosperity who will do the work—General Prosperity and the determination of the plain people of Nebraska that neither in China nor the Philippines shall the stars and stripes go down at the demand of anarchy.—Boston Journal.

OMAHA PRICES.
Fitzpatrick will give you goods at Omaha prices. Follow the crowd and see.

The posters entitled "Uncle Sam's Balance Sheet" and "That Terrible Eclipse," published by the American Protective Tariff League, are perhaps the most striking illustrations of the difference in conditions between 1896 and 1900, which have been issued thus far in the campaign. These posters can be seen in the rooms of any local republican committee, or will be sent to any address for eight cents. Ask for Posters "G" and "H." Address, American Protective Tariff League, 135 West 23d Street, New York.

To Chicago and the East.
Passengers going east for business, will naturally gravitate to Chicago as the great commercial center. Passengers from here have been false prophets, false to the uttermost degree. It is still the prophecy similar things. If taken are to be run in, surely these gentlemen should not escape.

The Hon. John F. Altgeld as attorney general of the United States would be a fine thing for the anarchist interest.

Why the People Hesitate.
The domination of Mr. Bryan has placed the leadership of the Democratic party in the hands of the Hon. John F. Altgeld, the Hon. George Fred Williams, the Hon. William Sulzer, the Hon. John J. Lentz, the Hon. Joseph W. Bailey and the Hon. Webster Davis. It is a wonder the party is not in a weaker position in its following department.

Hard to Swallow.
In 1896 Colonel Watterston described Mr. Bryan as "a dishonest dodger, a daring adventurer and a political fakir." Furthermore, he expressed his disgust by going to Paris and remaining until after the election. So it will be perceived what an unpleasant dose the colonel is trying to swallow this year.

Populists Deceived.
The Democratic plea that the 16 to 1 plank was inserted in the Kansas City platform to fool the Populists is not calculated to inspire confidence on the part of the other voters. A party that practices deception upon one class of voters will not hesitate to enlarge its field in that particular line.

Cotton's Great Gain.
In 30 years, in which the population of the country has increased 100 per cent, the production of cotton has increased 300 per cent, and they don't feel so bad over this in the southern states either.

The Seattle Fallacy.
The Democratic orators are being instructed to use the soft pedal on the 16 to 1 plank of the Kansas City platform. Thus do they apply the scuttie policy to their own declaration of principles.

Whether Tammany Hall is raising a considerable fund of $200,000, or not, there is no question that it would be entirely easy for it to do so.

California Satisfied.
California's trade with the Philippines now amounts to $2,000,000 a month. California didn't send a single delegate to the Indianapolis gathering of malcontents.

More to Come.
The returns are not complete, and it is not believed that Mr. Bryan has heard from all of his notification committees.

Bryan is "It."
"Save the republic," shouts Mr. Bryan, and then adds, sotto voce, "I am the republic."

A Faded Issue.
What has become of Mr. Macrum? While ago he was to be the paramount issue.

Building a Steak.
The building of steak often fills the houses with smoke and the most often. In many cases this can be avoided by a simple expedient as opening the dampers of the stove or range when the broiler is put on and letting the heat carry the fumes up the chimney. A great many things that are done in housekeeping may be avoided by "knowing how."
