WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1900.

IF To Subscribers of THE JOURNALE Please look at the date opposite your name on the wrapper of your JOURNAL or on the margin of THE JOURNAL. Up to this date, your subscription is paid or accounted for.

Coming Events.

Pan-American Exposition. Buffalo. New York, May 1 to November 1, 1901.

THE last year's postal receipts were $102,354,579, and the expenditures $107,-740.267.

announced at Frankfort, Kentucky, has simmered down to 3,689. A LAUNCH used by Napoleon and other

Gov. BECKNAM's plurality as officially historical relics were destroyed by recent fire in the Cherbourg arsenal. Ir is said that the crops raised in Iows this season will bring in $102 each for every man, woman and child in the state.

THE census of the German Empire gives Munich a population of 498,508: Dreeden, 395,349, and Magdeburg, 229,-532, increase respectively of 92,982, 58,909 and 15,299.

THE recent balloon voyage from Paris of Count de La Vanix-1,200 miles in 35 hours 45 minutes—is probably the longest on record. Though carrying two men the balloon contained only 57,000 cubic feet of illuminating gas.

JOHN D. LONG, Secretary of the Navy, has purchased a site for a residence which he will immediately erect in Colopermanent home.

une and W. N. Huse of the Norfolk has gradually been built up until it is usually unaccountable. News are invited to become colonels on now one of the foremost dailies of the Gov. Dietrich's staff and will doubtless nation. Much that has been accom- San Francisco, is to receive $3,000,000 good judgment in giving recognition to brasks is due to the efforts of The Bee lionaire, providing she leads a proper and he was not as he used to be, that his these brilliant newspaper writers.

THE statement is made that there are in opposition to the presentation of a respect and carry conviction to those of Creede's will. the demands for a pardon Gov. Districh With these facts in view, and in consid- Harry D. Middleton, of Washington, D. serves both his party and his state."

showing the popular vote for presiden- more than simple justice that he should Admiral Dewey as second engineer on tial electors in the recent election as be selected as one of the two United follows: The total vote, including 6,211 States senators from Nebraska.—Stanscattering, was 13,967,299. Of this Mc- ton Picket. Kinley received 7,217,677, and Bryan 6,357,853. Woolley, prohibitionist, received, so far as reported, 207,368; Barker, middle-of-the-road populist, 50,188; Debs, social democrat, 94,552, and Maloney, social labor, 53,450. McKinley's plurality, according to the figures of the Times was 859,824, and his majority

THE Illinois general assembly, which convenes in January, will be asked to make kidnapping for ransom punishable by death. Stirred by the kidnapping of termined that the Illinois laws shall be to go outside the state for material. amended so as to make liable to the gal- The announcement that the appoint lows any who may commit similar crimes | ment for the Home for the Friendless, engaged in drafting bills to be presented gers has met with general approval. to this end. The Nebraska law seems | The disposition of the new state trees-

OUR TRADE IN THE PACIFIC.

$25,587,421 in 1895 to $83,565,153 in the legislative appropriation to pay the ex- Michael Savage to Carl Rohde, present year, a gain of 226 per cent. Temporarily, there is a falling off in exports to China on account of military Alaska there is a large increase in trade, but as this is our own territory the figures are not included in this showing.

It is to the Pacific that the producers of the United States may look for the most rapid enlargement of foreign trade. | between Capt. Hollingsworth, Capt. Cos-South America, to which our average exports are not more than $3,500,000 a lant First Nebraska, to see which should month, and which sells us more than it be appointed adjutant general. The buys, is a less promising field than the decision that a soldier of the Spanish Pacific. European countries take special war should have the place met pains to cultivate business relations with general estisfaction, and none lent their South America and a convention com- approval more heartily than the posed of representatives from the Spanich speaking countries has just been held charge of this important office. The in Madrid. Its results were chiefly sen- three mentioned candidates all her timental, for Spain is in no position to strong support, and the appointment assume any commercial leadership. The is sure to light upon an excellent officer. open to American enterprise new facili- ments the governor is very fortunate, all ties for reaching the Pacific side of South along the line, as he seems to have I America, Asia and Oceanica, and as our trade there is growing at a greater ratio then with any other part of the world

The increase in the money circulation for the month of November amounts to nearly $19,600,000. Treasury experts place the per capita circulation at $28.04.

As to U. S. Senators.

Under this heading we purpose giving, from week to week, such information and speculation as may be of current interest.—ED. JOURNAL.

large.-Central City Nonpareil.

Hon. E. H. Hinshaw, of Fairbury, the choice of Fillmore and York counties for United States senator, is fast gaining public favor for that appointment. Mr. Hinshaw would make a good senator. His record is clean. His education is of the best. His mental powers are in full pay reduced. Others who knew him said maturity. He is young and strong, capable of bearing up under all the burdens that are apt to fall to the lot of a public servant. He is a safe man. He is not

rado Springs, Colorado. His daughters, of his own or strong financial backing. Her home with her uncle was exception who have been there for the past year It was established on business principles ally pleasant and comfortable and all for their health, will make that their and has ever been so conducted, and by pleasures and comforts which money Ross Hammond of the Fremont Trib good judgment on the part of its editor girl. Hence, her action is more than nlished for the republican party in Neand its editor. Particularly is this true virtuous life until she is 20 years old. in the campaign that has just passed. Such are the terms of the will. Little While others did what they could no Dorothy's life thus far has been as about 16,000,000 pupils attending the influence extended over as wide a scope schools in the United States as many as of country or reached the people as daughter of a California pioneer named Germany, France and Italy combined, generally and as effectually as did The Walker, but her father committed suiand three times the enrollment of Great Bee. What the country press was to cide when ill luck fell on him, and the Britain and Ireland, and five times as the locality in which it circulated The mother was thought to be on her dying many as Bussia, with its population of Bee was to the state in general. More bed when Creede stepped in and adopted than this, it reached the voters of the the girl baby. She made his home happy state for fully four days after the coun- for one year. Then he died and willed THE Omaha News says: "Governor- try papers went to press for the last her his fortune. She is now in her elect Dietrich is to be commended on his time previous to the election. Its arti-mother's charge and is to be carefully good sense in taking a positive position | cles were always such as to command pardon to Joseph S. Bartley, who is now who read them. No one questions the serving a term in the state penitentiary ability of Mr. Rosewater. There is not for looting the state treasury. In an- a man in the state capable of doing the marriage of Miss Pearl E. Forney. nouncing his decision not to submit to state more valiant service than is he. daughter of ex-County Clerk Forney and eration of the services he has rendered C. The groom has lived in Frement the party in the past and what is ex- about a year, coming from Manila, where THE New York Times publishes a table pected of him in the future, it is nothing he served during the Spanish war under

Capital City Letter.

Lincoln, December 24. (Special Correspondence.) The anxiety about appointments under the new administration will soon be ended, except for the hundred or so who desire to be oil inspectors, and the dozen or so who desire to handle the penitentiary. It is announced that these places will not be well down to business. For the deaf and dumb institute at more than for the preceding twelve the Ming tombs, and the sacred person young Cudahy at Omaha and his release Omaha, and the school for the blind at months. on payment of $25,000 in gold, some Nebraska City, the governor is disposed members of the state legislature are de- to look for experts, even though he has in that state. Already three state repre- and the Girls Home, at Milford, will all sentatives from Chicago districts are be referred to the Board of Lady Mana-also to be quite deficient governing such urer is to give a personal bond, instead crimes and the punishment and it may of a guaranty bond. It is said that be that it will be amended and strength- Treasurer Meserve paid the guaranty ened at the coming session of our law company a premium of $1,500, and that now they want to raise it to $2,500. which is the price of the treasurer's salary for just one half his term. Mr. In the last five years the largest per- Steufer will have no difficulty in furcentage of gain in American exports has nishing the required signatures, but he been with Asia and Oceanica. The fig- is being urged to take the proposition of John Busselman to John Purtures of increase for ten months are from the bond company, and depend on a

The unusual interest in the coming session of the legislature has led the operations at Pakin and the disturbed daily newspapers to engage increased condition of the country. But to Japan forces to attend to the reporting of the this year the United States has sent legislative work, and it is now certain goods valued at over $28,000,000, or 50 that the people will be better than ever per cent more than in 1899. There has able to keep track of their lawmakers. exports to Hong It is remarked that the establishment of Kong and Asiatic Russia. Our exports so many rural delivery routes in the into Africa have almost tripled sinte 1896, terior of the state will bring newspapers standing this year at $17,000,000 for ten right to the doors of the farmers, and W T Sibley to D A Hale, lots 5 months. In Hawaii, the Philippines and that the news in both daily and weekly papers will be right fresh when it is received. This leads every one to remark that this is a great country under a republican administration. A very pretty contest has been waged grave and Major Kilian, all of the galsoldiers, who up to this time have empletion of the Nicaragua Canal will In the making of his numerous appointnothing but good material to choose

ED-ACTIVE MAN OF GOOD C

FRANK H. MORRES of Obio, auditor of the War department, was shot and instantly killed about 2:10 o'clock Saturday afternoon by Samuel McDonald, also of Ohio, recently disbursing clerk of the treesury, in the former's office at the Of all the senatorial candidates none Winder building on Severteenth street. are receiving so many complimentary Auditor Morris was closeted alone with notices from the newspapers of the state | McDonald when the shooting occurred as G. D. Meiklejohn. Almost every In trying to make his escape McDonald paper you pick up has something good to also assaulted the watchman. Thomas say about "gentleman George," and the Cusick, with the butt of his revolver. newspapers are generally a pretty good He was arrested while leaving the buildindex to the centiment of the public at ing. Before being taken into enatody however, he shot himself in the stomach and also made an ugly gash in his throat with a small penknife. When the officers arrested him he was heard to exclaim: "I did it. I know I am done for." Employes who knew McDonald said he had a grievance against Morris, who, he claimed, was responsible for having his indulgence in liquors. AT Malvern, Iowa, Saturday last a given to "political fits." No populistic about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, the leanings or proclivities can be ascribed dead body of 12-year-old Inex Gibson. to him. Throughout all his political the niece and adopted daughter of T. D. career he has always been a republican, Gibson, a prominent grocer of that place, and when there was a work to be done was found hanging in a closet which he was ready and willing and has done opened from her bedroom. The corone yeoman service for the party in many was called and held an inquest and destate campaigns.—Fillmore County cided that the child had taken her own life, using her own jumping rope for the purpose. No cause can be given for the Edward Rosewater came to Nebraska act. Inex was a very bright and intelliin an early day and established The gent child, rather quiet, but well beloved Omaha Bee. He did so without fortune by all her playmates and classmates indomitable energy, push, pluck and could buy were lavished on the little they could not attribute his deed to anything but a diseased brain from over

DOROTHY CREEDS, 5 years old, living at romantic as novel. She is the grand- the next time he was called away from reared so she may fulfill the conditions

AT Fremont last week occurred the board the Charleston. The couple will reside in Washington, D. C. Gov. POYNTER has appointed John H Huff, editor of the Anzeiger of Norfolk for member of the state fish commission to fill a vacancy caused by the expiration the term of W. L. May of Fremont. THE Galveston News is of the opinion that "the Nicaragua Canal, the possession of the Philippines and the open door in China will make Texas the greatest state in the Union." THE dividends of the railroads of the filled until after the legislature has got United States for the last fiscal year mount to $109,400,147, or $27,555,388

Real Estate Transfers. Becher, Hockenberger & Chambers real estate agents, report the following real estate transfers filed in the office of the county clerk since our last report: B Jones to Matilda Peterson. lots 8 and 9 first add to Platte Center, wd..... $ 100 00

J Gentleman to C J Carrig. undivided % of part of lot 6 blk 11. Platte Center, wd .... First National Bank, Columbus. to John Gibbon, pt net swi and nw4 se4 6-17-2w, wd..... 1550 00 John Klug to Wm Klug, set 25-18-1e, wd.....

B Barnash to John Syslo, lots 1 and 2 Tarnov, wd..... lots 3 and 4 blk 54 Col. wd... Andy J Stevens to John I Stock lot 8 blk 8 Gerrard's add to Columbus, wd..... I F J Hockenberger to 8 M Grover, lote 5 and 6 blk 263 Columbus, wd..... 21-19-1w, wd.....

E A Gerrard to John Sysle, pt nw4 24-19-2w, wd..... and 6 blk 11 Lockner's first add to Humphrey, wd...... EC McDonald to Israel Gluck, lots 8 and 4 and pt lots 2 and

5 sec. 8-16-1e, wd..... C W Hollingsheed to Wm Webster, lot 1 blk "E" Monroe,wd Benj Winkler to James Ducey. lot 21 blk 12, Lindery, wd ... Sophia Korus to Jos Pytel, lots 1 and 2 blk 5. Tarnov, wd.... M Wdonski to L Ignarski, pt nw4 nw4 24-19-2w, wd...... RA Gerrard to M Wdonski, pt nw4 nw4 24-19-2w, wd...... E A Gerrard to L Ignarski, pt nwi nwi 24-19-2w, wd...... State of Nebraska to John Hassebrock all 36-19-2w, deed Theo Wolf to Albertina Kolm. set, s2 sw4 6-19-1e, ged ..... E E Hicks to Serah J Terry, tot 6 blk 1 Hicks' add to Monroe, wd..... C B Lewrence to F W Asche.

net 9-30-le, wd.....

erner, suggested that he make a mini julep for each of the company. The suggestion was received with delight, and the juleps were promptly mixed. In his wife's glass, however, he put only enough whicky to flavor the water, probably not more than a teapoonful. Of this she sipped about half. The result, however, was the all night long, and it was not sutil 5 us worse than any one else.

o'clock in the morning that she drug ppened in an "L" car. He was indicame and just a little too well quence, was not called for breakfast enough to be plainly legible to the op-posite row of passengers the title, "Correct Dress." They all noticed him, the front porch stopped to listen. Her heart filled with motherty pride as she heard her elder son, a bdy of 6, telling seven or eight children from the neighborhood that they must not make too was reading. The passengers followed much noise as his mamma was actoop. It almost line by line and knew just Imagine her horror, too, as the young for he was really beautiful.

There was no doubt as to whe

what part of the essay he had reached.

An Amstour Sevent Pholos.

an amusing anecdote is related of one

Herr von Radowitz, who was given to making the most of easily picked up information. A friend of the baron's went to an evening party near Frankfort, where he expected to meet Herr von Radowitz. On his way he saw a barn burning, stopped his carriage, assisted the people and waited till the flames were nearly extinguished. When be arrived at his friend's bouse, be found Herr von Badowitz, who had previously taken the party to the top of the building to see an aurors. dilating

on terrestrial magnetism, electricity,

etc. Radowitz asked Stockmar's friend.

"Have you seen the beautiful aurora

He replied: "Certainly. I was there myself. It will soon be over." An explanation followed as to the barn on fire. Radowitz was silent some ten minutes, then he took up his hat and

Het a Success

that he was too prosaic and matter of the city, made a copy of it and mailed

"John Henry," she excisimed when he returned, "you're the biggest fool that ever lived. I believe you have softening of the brain. What did you

"Yes, trash-just sickly, sentimental

"That isn't how you described it

you," he protested. "You said then it changed and you haven't. I thought I

"Well, you didn't succeed," she

to please a woman.—Chicago Post.

days. Sometimes it is mighty difficult

Doors In China.

shaped or semicircular. In placing them the builder usually avoids having one opposite another lest evil spirits

find their way from the street into the recesses of the building. The doorways separating the courts of a garden

are usually of an elaborate kind, and the octagonal form is one of the most

Religious superstition asserts itself in Chinese architecture, and the universal acredness of the numerals three and nine is shown in the arrangement of temple doors. There is a triple gateway to each of the balls of the imperial palace, and the same order prevails at

of the emperor when he was in his Peking home could only be approached even by the highest officials after three times three prostrations. The Temple of Heaven has a triple roof, a triple marble staircase, and all its mystic symbolism points either to three or its Identified at Last.

Glen Miller, a United States marshal

to Utah, was sitting in his office at Salt

Lake City one day when a well dressed and intelligent looking man entered and addressed him. "I was confident that I knew the man," said Glen in re-pleasantly it gradually became impressed upon me that he was an old

Kansas acquaintance, perhaps some one I had known at the university, but be spoke so cordially and with such an assumption of his knowing me and my knowing him that I did not have the

"In Salt Lake," continued the smi

friend that used to prevail in Kansas.

where I invited him to my house for my mind to learn his identity and

"'By the way,' I said at last, 'when night. You see, they cut off nine

"Then it broke over me. My gues

was Pete Curry, a celebrated mail robber, whom I had taken to the penitentiary just three years before."-Kan-

In Hyde Park lives a young matron

who is of such a high nervous tempers

ment that if she drinks the very small est amount of alcoholic stimulant be fore going to bed the result is sleepless ness for the remainder of the night

Some nights ago a number of friends dropped in for the evening, and the husband, who, by the way, is a south-

months for good behavior."

give me a clew.

sas City Journal.

nerve to ask him who he was.

multiples.

In China doors are often round, leaf would try to"-

"Trash, my dear," he expostulated.

mean by sending me that trush?"

The experiment was not a success

quietly disappeared.—Knowledge.

borealis?"

It began when his eyes left the book She drank so much whisky last and glanced dubiously at his cloth topnight that she couldn't come down to ped patent leathers. He shook his head slightly as he saw that the upper breakfast this morning."-Kaneas City was of a trifle too pronounced a patmething He Couldn't Wear, tern. Next be took in his troppers, and A wealthy American who became a bland smile of satisfaction wreathed onvert to Rome was very generous to his face. There was a slight frown Pope Leo XIII in money matters. He when he compared his waistcoat with had done many generous things, and the haberdasher's manual, but his coat the pope had rewarded him with orand hat were evidently irreproachable. ders and medals galore. For once a The end of the inventory and of the year this convert made a pligrimage to spectators' self control came when the me, where he was kindly received beautiful one began to admire in the by the holy father as a son and generback of his watch case his neckwear. ally, until the orders were exhauste his shirt and the faultiess curves of his time was bestowed with some collar. A titter from the two girls in fresh honor. On such occasions all the corner, and the whole benchful these brave metal pieces were attached exploded. The model of pulchritude to the rich American's breast looked up, shut his book with a snap. "I'll soon end that," the pope remark blushed furiously and left the car at ed to a confidente who was at his side the next station.-New York Mail and during the levee. "Next time I shall give him a snuffbox," which he did. and a beautiful jeweled box it was. The following year the American The stories are common enough of turned up again and was granted an fire engines being turned out to quench audience, when to the holy father's an aurora, and, on the other hand, it consternation the faithful son of the has not seldom happened that a very church appeared not only with all his mundane configuration whas passed muster for a "celestial display."

In the memoirs of Baros Stockmar medals, but with the snuffbox attached to his waistcoat.

"The next time," the pope said, with a comical sigh, "I shall present him with a marble topped table. It is the only thing I can think of that be can't tie to his waistcoat."-Chicago Times-Herald.

Poor Air and Poor Living.

When Jim Bridger, the famous scout of the plans, grew old, he thought he would like to retire from the somewhat arduous life of a plainsman and settle down to the ease of "the east." which to him meant Missouri. So he used his best endeavor to find a competent man to fill his place and went back to Mis. every home in the state. Printed at the sourL the post which Bridger had left, was surprised to see the old scout heave in sight. When he came in, the captain asked:

"Well, Bridger, what brings you back "Captain," said Bridger, "I want to go back to scouting again." "Indeed? Why, I thought you had

I went back to old Missours, and if fact. So when he found one of his old you'll believe it they've got a railroad love letters to her he took it with him station within ten mile o' the old place -ves sir, a railroad station! And what's more, they've got a ranch now in every four mile. I tell you what, cap'n, the air ain't pure down there no > you'd like the good things to eat they have down there. You like good things to eat, I remember." "Good things to eat! Why, cap'n, 1 didn't have a brilled beaver tail the whole time I was there!"-Youth's when I first wrote it and sent it to Companion. Elephant Stories.

was the dearest, sweetest letter ever Talking of elephant fables, the ani written, and you insist now that I have mal trainer said: "Take, for instance, the story of the trunk and years afterward was delterrupted, and she was mad for two uged with dirty water by the remembering elephant. I am surprised that any one should take this yarn seriously. Why, the average thickness of the elephant's hide runs from half an inch to two inches deep. Now, imagine a pin going through that thickness on an errand of pain. It would swallow a pin and break a needle. "The old fashioned elephant story that has any real basis of truth is the one that makes the big brute afraid of mouse. Experience in the winter quarters of a show, where mice and rats thrive, convinces one of this fact. A mouse will make an entire herd noisy with fright, and a rat will put them in a condition of desperate fear.

An elephant may defend itself against and prayer of which are to recover judgment on two certain promissory notes, one for $35.10 and interest at 10 per cent per annum from the 17th day of September, 1865, and one note for $35.00 and interest at 7 per cent per annum from the 18th day of July, 1867, and to sell the southwest quarter of section twenty-six, in township seventeen, a lion, tiger or any other natural enemouse baffles his conception of offensive or defensive warfare. The mouse is too quick to be crushed underfoot or to be caught by his trunk, and it can scamper over his rough hide with impunity. The elephant realizes his helplessness against such a diminutive foe and learns to fear it as he fears no other animal."-Buffalo Express.

Little Willie Ate Everything. Until they are trained to eat properly voungsters are usually like little pig gies. They "root" through everything and leave a muss after them. Willie, 6 years old, has a pair of parents who try to break him of the habit of takciting the circumstances, "but I was ing things on his plate that he cannot not able to place him. As we conversed ent and leaving much to go to waste. He is in a fair way to improve under their watchfulness. "You must eat the crust, too, Willie," his mamma will say, and Willie will "Don't take such a large piece of cake, Willie, unless you can eat it," his papa will say, and Willie will take it and stuff himself with it rather than ing marshal, "we have the same fash- to leave a crumb for his father to ion of doing the square thing by a grumble about. The other day Willie was invited to There is no prohibition law in Utah, a birthday party. His mother dressed and we found a place near by that was him in his best clothes. sufficient unto orr purposes. After I | "Now, mind, Willie," was the last had said something, and he something, thing she said to him; "eat everything

Willie came home that evening with dinner, but all the time I was taxing severe pains. The little girl in whose honor the party was given was 13 watching for a chance word that would years old. Her mother had baked a birthday cake, and part of the scheme of ornamentation of it were 13 wax did you come out? meaning from the candles. There were three of them on States, of course. 'Oh, I got out last | the piece that was put on Willie's plate.-Pittsburg News.

> Letting Him Of Basy. "Before I agree to undertake your defense," said the eminent criminal lawyer who had been called in, "you will have to be perfectly frank with me and tell me the whole truth. Did you embernie the £20,000 you are ac cused of having taken?" "Yes, sir," replied the accused man

> "I'll not attempt to conceal the fact from you. I stole every penny of it." "How much of it have you left?" "It's all gone but about £10." "Young man," said the eminent lawrer, putting on his gloves, "you'd better plead guilty and throw yourself on the mercy of the court."

A conscientious person should beware of getting into a passion, for ev-

"Ten pounds."-London King.

A Trunkless Bedr. An explorer lately returned from his At 10 e'clock she came down stairs, and hearing the voices of children on the front porch stopped to listen. Her tering critic, "who ever house of a running mode," "My triend," replied the traveler quietly, "the budy was that of an elephant." He then resumed his story.—London Globe.

> "Forgive me, my dear." said the goe sip humbly, "but I thoughtlessly mened to Mrs. Brown the things that you told me in strict confidence."
> "There is sothing to forgive," replied the wise woman pleasantly. "It was for that very purpose that I told them

A formen in Brief. A man met a buil in a field. "I'll toes you to see who stays," said the built He tossed, and the man lost. The moral is that it is never safe to indulge it games of chance, especially when all the odds are against you.-Philadelphia North American.

PUBLIC SALK.

At the old Harry Reed place three miles northeast of Columbus, Thursday, January 10, 1901, horses, mares, colts, Polled bull, I fresh cow, 10 heifers, farm wagons, harness, buggy, plows, binder, disc lister, harrow, hay rake, cart, household furniture, etc. Terms, $10 and under, cash; above that, a credit of one year's time with eight per cent interest, five per cent off for cath > GROBGE W. CARTER. Pree Until January 1, 1901.

In order to introduce The Semi-Weekly State Journal to a whole lot of new homes it will be sent free from now until January 1, 1901, to any person sending us One Dollar for a year's subscription. This gives you the paper from now until January 1, 1902, for only One Dollar. The State Journal is the recognized state paper and should be in capital it gives more prompt and accur-A year or two passed, and one day ate reports of Nebraska doings than any Captain Russell, the commandant of other paper, and as it gives you two papers each week it furnishes you with the latest news several days ahead of other papers. You will not want to be without The Journal during the legislature and the great senatorial contest. The earlier you send the dollar the more papers you will get for your money. Address, The Journal at Lancoln, Neb.

PROBATE NOTICE.

In the county court of Platte county, Nebraska, In the matter of the estate of Lewis White, deceased. Notice of final settlement and account. To the creditors, heirs, logatees and others interested in the estate of Lewis White, deceased, Take notice that Martha White has filed in the county court a report of her doings as administratrix of the estate of Lewis White, deceased, and it is ordered that the same stand for hearing on the 10th day of January, 1901, hefore the court at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m., at which time any person interested may appear and excourt at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m., at which time any person interested may appear and ex-cept to and contest the same.

This notice is ordered given in THE COLUMNUS JOURNAL for three consecutive weeks prior to the 18th day of January, 1901.

Witness my hand and the seal of the county court at Columbus this 18th day of December,

PROBATE NOTICE.

In the county court of Platte county, Nebraska. In the matter of the estate of Katherine Behr, deceased. Notice of final settlement and ceased.

Take notice that Gus G. Becher has filed in the county court a report of his doings as executor of the estate of Katherine Behr, decessed, and it is ordered that the same stand for hearing on the 27th day of December, 1900, before the court at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m., at which time any person interested may appear and except to and contest the same.

This notice is ordered given in The Columbus Journal, for three consecutive weeks prior to the 27th day of December, 1900.

Witness my hand and the seal of the county court at Columbus, this 21st day of November, 1900.

12dect

braska, on the 19th day of December, 1900, that there is now due on the said notes the sum of $173.40 for which sum with interest from this date, at 10 and 7 per cent per annum on the respective notes, plaintiff prays judgment, and that the above described premises of defendant may be ordered sold to satisfy the amount found due. You are required to answer said petition on or before the 4th day of February, 1901.

COMMERCIAL NATIONAL BANK of COLUMBUS.

By MCALLISTER & CORNELIUS,

Its Attorneys,

NOTICE OF REFEREES' SALE.

section ten (10), township nineteen (19) north of range three (3) west of the 6th P. M. in Platte sounty, Nebraska.

eka. Edwin H, Chambers, Gus. G. Becker, Hundy F. J. Hockers

D. STIRES, ATTORNEY AT LAW

COLGERY .. NEBRASEA W. A. MCALLISTER. T-ALLISTER & CORNELIUS

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

WHEN IN NEED OF

filch checks,

Out This Out. It May Not Appear Again.

10 WEEKS SUBSCRIPTION 10C The Twentieth Century Farmer.

It contains a number of special articles each week b the most competent specialists in every branch of agriculture - depart ments devoted to live stock, crops, the dairy, poultry yard, orchard and garden, farm machinery, veterinary topics, irrigation and the markets. The farmer's wife, too has her share of space, with recipes and suggest tions on cookery, dressmaking, fancy work, care of flowers, and matters perticularly pleasing to her, while the children have a department edited for them exclusively. Four or ave pages are devoted to a complete review of the news of the week, covering both happenings at home and abroad. and news in particular interesting to the great farming west. Then, too, are the stories, choice postry and humor, and all the good things that one likes to read after the lamps are lighted and the day's work is done.

An Ideal Agricultural $1 per year and Family Weekly... $1 per year

Cut this out and send it with a dime or five 2-cent stampe to THE TWENTIETH CENTURY FARMER. 1895 Farnam street, Omaha

CONSULTATION FREE TO ALL!

DR. DASSLER.

Has permanently located at Columpatronage. Special attention given to tions. These delightful odors are capfemale diseases, diseases of the womb and rectum, piles and all chronic diseases successfully treated. Night or Day Calls in the Country

Office Telephone 59. Removed to Niewebner Bleet, Thir-

promptly attended to.

American Beauties.

We have them in all styles and shapes to fit every figure, and every corset

under this most liberal warrant-"Money refunded after four weeks' trial if corset is not satisfactory." Look for this Trade Mark on inside of corset and on box.

KALAMAZOO CORSET CO. Sole Makers. FOR SALE BY F. H. LAMB & CO.

M. C. CASSIN,

Fresh and

Salt Meats.

Game and Fish in Season

Highest market prices paid fo Hides and Tallow. THIRTEENTH ST ...

ST. LUKE'S MILITARY ACADEMY KEARNEY, NEB. This school has recently been reorganized and placed in charge of Archdeacon Atmore whose scholastic attainments are well and favorably known in many portions of the United States. Here is the opportunity for parents to procure for their children a

Terms reasonable. The next term commences January 17th, 1901, and arrangements can be made by which For further information, address ARCHDEACON ATMORE,

Principal,
Kearney, Nebraska.
References:— Hon. John I. Redick,
Omaha, Neb., Rt. Rev. Bishop Graves,
Kearney, Neb.

OF COLUMBUS, NEBR.,

SNODDY . MEDICINE . CO. Manufacturers of the now FAMOUS SNODDY HOG CHOLERA SPECIFIC. ED Call on them when in town, or write for circulars and price

J. M. CURTIS. Justice of the Peace

Would respectfully solicit a sha of what you might place before the object of your esteem. Truly such exquisite PERFUMES bus, Neb., and solicits a share of your rival Nature's most ambitious produc-DAINTY COT GLASS AND CRYSTAL BOTTLES, > any one of which will make a pleasing addition to my lady's dressing table. Triple extracts of great strength at very little prices.

> > W. SCHUPBACH

FC.CORSETS Wagon Work...

Everything in our line and everything guaranteed. Wagons made to order. Best horse-shoeing in the city.

A fine line of Buggies.

Carriages, etc.

tee of strictly first-class goods.

LOUIS SCHREIBER

Columbus Buggy Company, of Columbus, Ohio, which is a sufficient guaran-

Now is the Time

-TO GET YOUR-

-AT GREATLY-

make the following clubbing rates:

Chicago Inter Ocean (semiweekly) and Columbus Journal both for one year...... $ 3 10

Chicago Inter Ocean (weekly) and Columbus Journal both one year for. .....

Peterson's Magazine and Columbus Journal one year.... 2 25

Omaha Weekly Bee and Columbus Journal one year .... Lincoln Journal (semi-weekly) and Columbus Journal, one