TO OUR Friends and Late Patrons.

COLUMBUS, NEBRASKA, February 1, 1901.

We have sold our stock of groceries, crockery, glassware, etc., to Hulst & Adams. For the liberal patronage received from the good people of Columbus and vicinity, we wish to thank them one and all, and assure them that although temporarily out of business we will continue to make Columbus our home and hope to do our share towards its up-building.

We retained our books and wish to say that parties owing us on account should make settlement with us.

Those who have a credit will please call and receive the amount.

We have opened an office in the basement of the Commercial National Bank building, where parties having business with us can find us during business hours.

HENRY RAGATZ & CO.

—As the Nebraska & Gulf railroad project, which will very evidently be a good thing for this section, if it shall come to a successful, practical and active existence, as projected, we learn that the survey has been finished from the Platte river near Havana (between Silver Creek and Clark) to Concordia, Kansas.
—There is probably no disease or condition of the human system that causes more suffering and distress than piles. TABLET'S BUCKEYE PILE OINTMENT cures them quickly, without pain or detention from business. Price 50 cents in bottles. Tubes, 75 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.
—The special train on the Union Pacific which brought the Sevon Band from Omaha to Fremont made the run in forty-six minutes. The best time that has ever been made is forty-one minutes. If the wind had not been so strong in the face of the train, the probabilities are that the record would have been tied.—Herald.
—Mortgage indebtedness record of Platte county for the month of January, 1901: Thirty farm mortgages filed, $43,190.85; same released $7, aggregating $36,190.85. Seven city mortgages filed, $2,673.90; same released $, $4,900. The chattel record shows 72 mortgages filed, $19,381.50; same released $2, $1,176.74. No deeds in foreclosure filed during the month.
—Supervisor Lisco tells us that there was no truth whatever in the report current in the city last Wednesday that there was a case of smallpox near his farm south of the Loop—a man traveling through. The report was traced down to its reputed origin, and found to be without foundation in truth, or any excuse at all for the falsehood, manufactured from start to finish.
—Miss Martha Turner left Wednesday morning for Chicago where she enters the Art Institute in that city to take a term in a profession which she is a natural adept, and we feel sure a bright and promising future is before her. She will be missed in this city of her life long home—most of all by our esteemed contemporary, THE JOURNAL family—but we hope not for long.—Times.
—Nervous children are almost always the children. The "out-door-boy" is seldom nervous. WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE is the best preventive of nervousness in the strongest form, and settles in that sort of flesh which gives strength and power of endurance. Price 25 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.
—To make hens lay, says a writer in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, take one tablespoonful of ground cayenne pepper, one tablespoonful of ground cinnamon, ground fine, and two tablespoonfuls of oyster shells, ground fine. Mix this with enough corn meal dough to feed twenty or more birds, and they will produce twice as many eggs as usual. This will make hens lay in winter as well as summer.
—Otto Hembd and Miss Mary M. Adams were married this Tuesday morning at Saint Joseph's church, this city. Rev. Father Marcellus officiating. The wedding celebration and festivities took place later in the day and evening at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Nick Adamy, ten miles north of this city. A host of friends extend their congratulations to the happy couple.
—Henry Thomsen sold his farm of forty acres five miles northeast of town to J. A. Fina. The consideration was $40 per acre. This deal was made by C. W. Smith. It happened that A. L. Norris sold the same piece of land at the same time to another party and it is now a question as to who has a right to this much sought property. This is a great country where farms can be sold while you wait.—North Bend Eagle.
—The funeral services for Mrs. J. H. Drimmin, (mention of whose death was made in last week's JOURNAL), were held at the Congregational church, this city, Tuesday afternoon of last week. Rev. Munro preaching an impressive sermon, the choir singing: "Nearer, my God, to Thee"; "Abide with me"; and "It is not death to die." The pallbearers were: J. B. Taylor, C. G. Hickok, C. C. Sheldon, Mr. Engel, H. E. Babcock and R. S. Dickinson.
—There are not a few people who are opposed to vaccination for themselves, just at this time. They say they would rather take their chance of catching smallpox or whatever it is in the light form it is going, than of getting some vile disease through vaccination. It is our understanding that the manner in which the vaccine matter as now prepared and applied, is all right in every respect. Years ago the preparation was far different, and there were then severe cases of transferred blood diseases, the result of vaccination.

The Omaha Bee gives this brief account of the happening: "At Millard a drawhead was pulled out between the waycar and the Market commissary car and he had gone in between the cars to fix it, when, it is said, a train came up from behind, bumping the waycar and crushing the conductor's chest."

—Be sure to take and read a local paper. There is scarcely an issue but you will find one or more items that will amply repay you for all the expense. You may be about to take a journey for instance, but when you see, by the local paper, that a big bridge on the proposed route is down, you defer your journey and save time and expense. Or a sale is advertised, at which you may be able to buy exactly what you want, and cheaper than the usual market, and also help the man who perhaps was compelled to sell, get a better price through your bidding. Or there may be many suggestions of better ways of managing that you have known; enlarged views of life that will be of untold value to you. Your home paper is presumed to be at work for your best home interests.
