—The Eleventh annual meeting of the Methodist, Grand Island district foreign missionary convention will be held all day Saturday and Sunday in the Methodist church, this city.
—A man named S. Madurski appeared here Wednesday, and showing signs of mental weakness, was taken in charge by the sheriff. He is a wealthy retired farmer, living near Dodge.
—Leo Borowiak has moved his family down from Genoa and is living in the block north of the Congregational church. He intends engaging in some business in this city.
—Miss Mary E. Sheehan has been named as stenographer to Judge Albert of the Supreme court commissioners. She has certainly shown herself very efficient in that line of work.
—George Brodfuehrer and William Winston entertained a large number of friends at a ball Monday evening in the Maennerchor hall. The Orpheus orchestra furnished the music.
—Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Davies of this city attended the funeral Sunday at Silver Creek of the 8-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Davies, who died Saturday morning of lung fever.
—Neuralgic pains, rheumatism, lumbago and sciatic pain, yield to the penetrating influence of BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. Price 25 and 50 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.
—J. S. Short of Creston was identified by Mrs. Fred. Shipley as the man who deceived Mr. Shipley away from his home and afterwards attempted to burglarize that home. He was held in $500 bonds.
—Parts of the steel chimney at the electric light plant were replaced Saturday. The action of smoke and weather makes pretty quick work of a pipe, even though it be a quarter of an inch thick.
—OSTEOPATHY. G. P. Meeks, D. O., Mrs. N. H. Meeks, D. O., have permanently located in Columbus, Neb., for the practice of Osteopathy. Office at Mrs. Merrill's residence, Fourteenth street.
—John Hartman, an inmate at the county poor farm, aged 75 to 80 years, died Saturday about 4 o'clock a. m., of dropsy, and was buried Saturday evening. He had no relatives so far as known.
—THE TOWN HERD. The town herd will be started next Monday, April 29; the day we count from will be Wednesday, May 1, but we would be glad to have all start in with Monday. C. A. Speice. 1 —Will Schram returned Thursday from Seattle after a month's sojourn, and is engaged in work at Eimer's. Not so much is paid there for wages, and there are many seeking work. Stand up for Nebraska.
—John Best, a pioneer Madison county farmer, died recently at Hennessey, O. T., aged 81 years. He settled on a homestead near Norfolk in 1868 and lived there thirty years.—Madison Chronicle.
—Martin Langley of this city acted as groomsmen for Simon P. Bohler of Randolph who was married to Miss Celia Abta, Monday last week at Madison. J. P. Abta and daughter also attended the wedding.
—Among the sixty persons drawn as petit jurors in the federal court to be held in Omaha for the term beginning May 9th, we see the names of Ed H. Chambers of this city, and Frank Kenyon of Monroe.
—J. E. North was up at his ranch at Monroe Monday. He has some winter wheat that is among the best he ever saw at this time of year. He is getting in readiness to seed down quite a body of land to alfalfa.
—Carl Hinesching has been re-arranging his drug store somewhat, adding some counters, and will proceed to paper and paint and renovate generally inside and lay down a cement sidewalk in front of the establishment.
—WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE not only effectually destroys worms, it also increases the appetite, aids assimilation and transforms a frail infant into one of robust health. Price 25 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.
—The Spanish-American War Veterans' local camp will be mustered in by Department Commander Kilian this Wednesday evening, at the armory. The muster service will be followed by a banquet at L. J. Lee's cafe.
—There are plenty of men who start through the country when the weather gets fine, to make their living by their "wit," so-called, without rendering an equivalent for the money they get. They are fakes and looking for bites.
—Frank Copla complained before Justice Blodgett in Butler township Saturday evening about a tramp who had stolen his overcoat. Blodgett issued the warrant and constable Sokol arrested and brought the tramp to jail in this city.
—Charles E. Magoon, who was years ago a Platte county lad, later a lawyer at Lincoln, later still holding a government position at Washington, has just been appointed to be law officer of the insular division of the War department.
—Charles Hindeup found a pocket book and contents complete last Friday, in a Union Pacific coach, between the cushion and the side of the car, where it had lodged three weeks before. The owner was very much gratified over the recovery.
—Friday's Norfolk News has this reference: Geo. Lehman and wife of Columbus were in town over night. Mr. Lehman returned home this morning, but Mrs. Lehman remained and with Mrs. Spear will go to Neligh this evening to visit G. H. Whaley.
—An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, and a bottle of BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP used in time is worth a staff of physicians with a drug store or two included. Price 25 and 50 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.

—Most women with female weakness suffer dreadfully from piles in addition to their other pains. They may be cured by using TABLET'S BUCCAL PILE OINTMENT. Price 50 cents in bottles. Tubes, 75 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.
—Henry Jackson and Miss Lena Gronenthal were married in the St. Anthony Catholic church near Platte Center last Tuesday morning, before a very large crowd of friends. Miss Anna and Katie Smith and Chris Gronenthal were among the guests from here.
—Tuesday afternoon of last week the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Heintz, aged 7 months, died after an illness of a few hours. Rev. G. W. Cory conducted funeral services Wednesday at the home, and a large number of friends followed the mortal remains to the cemetery.
—Elder H. J. Hudson returned Friday from his two weeks' sojourn at Independence, Missouri, where he attended the largest convention ever held of the representatives of the Church of Latter Day Saints. There were delegates present from many countries, and a very interesting convention.
—Nearly every person needs a tonic medicine at this time of year to brace up and invigorate the nervous system, to cleanse the bowels, liver and kidneys. HERBINE is the best and safest remedy to do this, as it will cure constipation, regulate the liver and enrich the blood. Price 50 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.
—The Sunday Omaha World-Herald contains a picture of the officers and a few active members of the Shiloh reunion which met in this city on the 9th and 10th. Several Columbus people are among them. The paper also contains a picture of Hon. J. L. Albert, the new Supreme court commissioner from this city.
—John Clark, an old settler in Woodville township, died at St. Mary's hospital this city Friday last. A week before that he had been operated upon for gravel. He came to St. Edward from Ohio, in 1884, and leaves his second wife, one son and two daughters. The body was sent to St. Edward Friday afternoon.
—About fifty people from Columbus went to Bellwood Saturday evening to attend a concert there, given for the Episcopal mission. The high school orchestra of this city assisted in the program. Jules Lombard of Omaha was one of the principal participants and was highly appreciated by the Columbus crowd.
—Bargains! Great Bargains in all heavy goods. We must have room for our big stock of spring goods. Come and save money. The White-Front Dry Goods Store. E. D. Fitzpatrick. 11
—JOURNAL readers will see by the enclosed supplement that another addition to the city has been placed on the market. Call on J. E. North, agent for the sale of these lots in Evans' addition. The prices range from $25 to $150, and we have no doubt will be promptly picked up. Intending buyers would do well to call at once.
—C. J. Garlow has been selected as one of three, a law committee for the Woodmen of the World organization of the United States, which will meet at Columbus, Ohio, for a two to three weeks' session beginning May 4. Mr. Garlow's daughter, Miss Greenleaf, will accompany him to Columbus, and go from there to visit relatives at Fairmont, W. Va.
—Fritz White, a man living alone in the southern part of the city, about 71 years old, was found dead in a kneeling posture at his home this Tuesday morning by the woman who took his breakfast to him. At supper time Monday evening he seemed in good spirits. Sixty dollars in money was found in the house. It is understood that the only relative he has in this country is a brother in Virginia.
—If you have lost anything, be sure to advertise the fact in THE JOURNAL. Here was a pair of spectacles worth perhaps six dollars that a townsman had lost, and almost despaired of ever getting them again, but he bought them to speak of it in THE JOURNAL, when lo and behold, in come the spectacles, which had been picked up on the public highway by an honest farmer boy, just as the wagon wheel was about to crush them to atoms.
—H. M. Winslow was down from his new home several days last week. His section is located twenty-one miles northeast of Atkinson in Holt county; eight miles from Beate, the county seat, Boyd county; the nearest village is Badger, where there is a good flouring-mill, postoffice, etc. Mr. Winslow is well pleased with the prospect before him in that country, and with the capabilities of the soil for mixed farming and stock raising. With his abundant experience east and west, and with his knowledge of what this new land is and the foundation it has for developing into a productive land, we do not doubt Mr. Winslow's success. He has promised to communicate occasionally with old friends here, through the columns of THE JOURNAL, which we have no doubt will be of mutual value.
—Prof. E. E. Blackman of Eoca was in the city two days last week between trains going to and returning from Fullerton, where he delivered a lecture. The professor is writing some interesting articles for The Conservative, the number of April 18, containing a description of an ancient bone, a unique specimen of aboriginal handiwork, found by Master Perry Ellis, last January near the Eoca Indian village site. Mr. Blackman has done several good things in his line of investigation: he has aroused considerable interest in the study of what the human family did here in Nebraska in ages in the far-distant past; he has gathered a number of interesting specimens which may tend to create a thirst for more, and an endeavor to find more, and added to these, he has elicited the aid in his investigation of Prof. J. V. Brower of national fame, who commends the explorations so well commenced by Mr. Blackman. Mr. Blackman takes home with him every time some specimens gathered on his trips that may be of interest in his studies. His last from here was a number of flint implements of agriculture also what appeared to be of meteoric origin.

which will be sold to farmers and others at the most reasonable, living rates. I will be pleased to have any one interested call on me, or address as above.

—J. P. Wolgan of Grand Prairie died suddenly in his chair Wednesday evening at the residence of his oldest son Henry, where he had made his home. He was 77 years and 17 days old, and had lived here since 1881, coming from Europe. His wife and six children survive: Henry and August; Mrs. Peter Lutgens, Mrs. J. F. Siema, Mrs. P. L. Benthack and a married daughter in Germany. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the German Baptist church, Grand Prairie township.

—The last of the winter City Band concerts was given last Friday evening in the opera house, to a crowded house. The audience were appreciative and gave repeated encores. Miss Walker was unable to sing on account of sickness, and her place was filled by a gentleman's quartet composed of Messrs. Kinney, Swan, Darrington and Hickok. Prof. Garliche responded to encores twice and, as usual, gave his audience a great treat with his violin. He was accompanied by Mrs. L. Jaeggi on the piano.

—Friday afternoon near J. F. Siema, a man named Thompson of Tarnov, going home from Columbus met with quite a mishap. He was driving a pair of bronchos; the double tree broke; he was thrown out, lighting about six yards away but fortunately not having his neck broke, although severely tried. The bronchos ran twice into a wire fence, one of them having his throat cut, the other cut badly in one fore and one hind leg, and the body cut open—both animals dying. Mr. Thompson's conclusion is that he wants no more bronchos.

—Thomas Deck of Platte Center is in the city today, Tuesday. Mr. Deck is contemplating the purchase of the Gun. Spico residence on west Fourteenth street, also the business lot east of Ragatz, the third lot from the corner of Olivé and Thirteenth, belonging to J. C. Echols. If Mr. Deck buys the business lot, he intends building a business house for a drug store. He is now engaged in that business in Platte Center. Mr. Deck has been one of the thrifty farmers of Platte county for many years, and Columbus is glad to have such people in their business circles.
