DOWAGER STEPS BACK

Chinese Empress Appoints a Commission to Breast the Public for Her.

SHE IS NOT SO ARBITRARY NOW.

New Plan Seems to Indicate Loss Inclination to Run Things Herself-The News as Received in Washington Regarded se Most Important.

WASHINGTON, April 27.-The following cablegram has been received at the State department from Mr. Squiters, the United States charge at Pekin, dated today:

"The empress dowager has appointec a board of national administration to relieve her of her public functions. They embrace three members of the cabinet now with the empress at Sian I'm and Prince Ching, Vicercy & and Prince Kung, who are now in Pekin." This news is regarded as of importance, indicating as it does the relinquishment by the empress dowager of the arbitrary powers she heretofore has exercised. It also is apparent that she has placed herself in a position to avoid direct responsibility to the foreigners for whatever may happen in the future and the board will have to bear the brunt of any complaint. It is felt that the appointment of this board will make it much easier for the foreign ministers to transact business tith the Chinese government. The three members of the Chinese cabinet now at Sian Fu include the notorious Jung Lu, who was one of the most active in the outbreak against . the foreigners last summer. One of the other members of this council is 70 years old and is said to be greatly

One of the dispatches coming through an European foreign office says that Sir Robert Hart has concluded that China can pay a total of $200,000,000, and the impression is conveved that this will be the amount agreed upon, the various claims being scaled down to this limit. Another dispatch comes from one of the most prominent Chinese officials and from a plenipotentiary in the peace regotiations. He makes a suggestion that when the amount of indemnity ir agreed upon it will be greatly to the interests of China as well as to the powers if the amount payable to each power can be made by installments and not by a gross payment outright. In that case China would not be compelled to negotiate a large loan. The view prevails among officials that while this proposition is fair it is not practicable and there is little idea that it will be favorably en-

Other dispatches which have passed within the last few days revive the idea of having The Hague tribunal administer the indemnities after the total is once agreed upon,

Standard Oil Company Has New Toxas Fields Malled In

BEAUMONT, Tex., April 27.-The Beaumont Oil exchange today posted the statement that the Standard Oil company had purchased the railroad terminals, wharves and shipping facilities at Port Arthur and 90,000 acres of land surrounding the port. The price was not given.

Port Arthur is the nearest deep water port to the Beaumont oil field. and by controlling this outlet the Standard Oil company can control every barrel of oil taken from the Beaumont field. The railroads cannot compete in freight rates with pipe line and ship via Port Arthur to New Orleans and Galveston. Thus owning Port Arthur, the Standard Oil company will control even the domestic trade in crude oil.

gation's Call at White House is Med

WASHINGTON, April 26.-The Cuban delegation from the convention framing a constitution for the new island republic saw President McKinley twice today, once in the early part of the day, when there were introductions and a formal exchange of expressions of friendship between the United States and Cuba and again at night, when the members of the delegation were the guests of honor at a state dinner at the White House.

The real business which brought the delegation here was transacted with Secretary Root of the War department, the president, in the forenoon interview at the White House, saying to the delegates that he would confer with the secretary, who would act as his representative in conferences over the Cuban situation. The delegation and Secretary Root were closeted for some hours in the forenoon in a discussion of the relations of the island to the United States. Secrecy was observed as to the conference, the statement being made that after results were reached some announcement as to the conclusion would be made. Questions of importance were not touched upon in the interview between the president and delegation, the conversation being almost wholly formal. Senor Capote in his address to the president spoke of the desire of the Cubans to have the closest possible relations with the United States. He said that United States soldiers and Cubans had fought side by side and driven Spain from the island and the ties between the two countries were bound in blood. The relations, he said, were most amicable and more than that which usually exists between nations. He also spoke of the gratitude which Cuba had to the United States for the assistance rendered in her liberation.

In response the president expressed his pleasure at meeting the delegation and desired through them to extend the kindest wishes to the people of the island. He said that his interest in Cuba always had been great and he made reference to messages he had sent to congress concerning the island. Its welfare always would be the subject of his most earnest consideration. He congratulated the members of the delegation upon being members of the Cuban constitutional convention and said it was a high honor and fell to the lot of but few men to have the opportunity to frame a government for a republic. Concerning the object of the delegation's visit the president said he would confer with the secretary of war and the secretary, having an intimate knowledge of the situation, would confer with the delegation. The most important meeting of the day was a conference in Secretary Root's office, lasting until 6 o'clock in the afternoon. This was the first business meeting, the others having been social and formal. Those present were the five Cuban delegates, their interpreter, Secretary Root, General Wood, Assistant Secretary Sanger and Senor Gonzales, General Wood's secretary, who acted as interpreter a great portion of the time. The army officers who are acting as escort for the Cubans also were present. When the meeting adjourned no of ficial statement was made as to the proceedings, but it can be said that the result was considered satisfactory both by the Cubans and Secretary Root. The business was not completed and the conference will resassemble tomorrow forenoon. The fact that the entire conversation had to be through interpreters made it necessary to proceed slowly.

REITERATES FORMER STATEMENTS The Trial of the Alleged Kidnaper Draw a Great Throng-The Youthful Victim

> OMAHA, Neb., April 25.-Edward A Cudahy; sr., and Edward A. Cudahy jr., father and son, testified at the trial of James Callahan yesterday. The story of the kidnaping and the subsequent payment of the $25,000 ransom, as related by Mr. Cudaby, sr., was a repetition of the reports of the offair as published at the time in the news columns of the Bee. The testimony of the boy, giving the details of Mis abduction and imprisonment, also tallied with the reports heretofore published in this newspaper. In no detail did the evidence given by Mr. Cudahy and his son differ with the authentic and exclusive stories of the crime printed.

> Yesterday forenoon was taken up with the opening statements of counsel and a visit by the jury to the scene of the crime, and in the afternoon the taking of testimony began.

Young Cudahy was placed on the witness stand at 4 o'clock and when court adjourned at 5:30 o'clock his cvidence had not reached that point where he is expected to positively identify Callahan as one of the kidnapers. It is apparent that the prosecution is leading up to an identification, for the boy was made to relate in detail the numerous conversations ce at the inquest showed that he twenty-eight hours he was confined in the Melrose Hill house. It is therefore predicted that the prosecution will today ask young Cudahy to identify Callahan by his voice and articulation. So far as given the boy's testimony describes his captor and guard as a dark man with a stubby black moustache and black hair. This description may be fitted to Callahan, although it is extremely meager and Callahan's moustache at this time is long enough to support a small curl at each end. When the trial was resumed in the norning the court room was crowded with spectators, public interest having been revived by the announcement that the jury had been completed and and the relation of the story of the kidnaping would begin, Edward A Cudahy and the son for whose release he paid the $25,000 ransom were in court, occupying seats directly behind those of County Attorney Shields and General Cowin. Callahan appeared as bright and cheerful as he was the day before and displayed keen interest in all the proceedings.

ROCK ISLATO WAS ITS SUIT.

Maximum Proight Law is Again Declared

OMAHA, April 29.-Judges Sanborn and Munger, the former of the United States circuit and the latter of the United States district court, sustained the demurrer of the plaintiff in the suit of F. L. Prout, attorney general, against the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad company, brought to recover fines and penalties aggregating $450,000 on account of alleged violations of the maximum freight rate law passed by the legislature during the session of 1893.

As a result of the sustaining of the demurrer the attorney general is restrained from commencing suits and from prosecuting those heretofore commenced in order to enforce the provisions of the law, which is held to be unconstitutional and void. Shortly after the passage of the maximum freight rate law an attempt was made by the state board of trassportation and George -16. Hastings. then attorney general, to carry out its provisions. To prevent this the Union Pacific, Northwestern and Burlington Railroad companies took the matter into court. An adjudication was finally reached in the United States supreme court, where it was held that the law was unconstitutional. A permanent injunction went out.

The suit against the Rock Island was not tried at that time, but was handed down as one of the assets of the office, passing to C. J. Smyth, who became his successor. The cases against the other roads being in litigation and farther advanced than that against the Rock Island, was not reached by Attorney Smyth. By him it was passed to his successor, Frank L. NO THOUGHT OF FOUL PLAY. No New Sensation in Death of A. G. Linstrum. YORK, Neb., April 29.-The effort to create a sensation out of the tragic death of A. G. Linstrum seems a little far-fetched. While the construction of the verdict of the corner's jury is a little peculiar, there remains no at South St. Paul, which has been doubt as to the fact that the deceased came to his death by his own hand. It is said that a daughter hysterically remarked that her mother was the cause of ter father's death, but it is claimed she had no grounds other than that the wife and husband had beretofore guarreled.
