

Nebraska's most crying need is revision of its revenue laws that will enforce the constitutional mandate for equal taxation of all property and franchises according to its actual worth.

Why Not Go to California?

Here's a suggestion for a holiday trip. Buy a round-trip ticket to San Francisco at the reduced rates which will be in effect on account of the Epworth League meeting in that city in July—go west by way of Denver and Salt Lake City, pass all the glorious mountain scenery of Colorado and Utah—spend a few weeks in California—come home via Portland, Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane and Billings, Mont.

HEADQUARTERS

Columbia, Victor and Ideal buggies; Mitchell and Old Hickory wagons; Rock Island plows and cultivators; Rock Island cornplanters; Cadet cornplanters; Little Engine, the new lister, where the operator can see the corn drop while planting; Jones' Lever binders; Jones' Chain mowers; Jones' Self-dump hay rakes; Jones' Hand-dump hay rakes; Walter A. Wood's mowers; Woodmanse and Aermotor windmills; Jack-of-all-Trades gasoline engines; and all other machinery needed on the farm. Call and see for yourself. We wish your trade.

Blacksmith and Wagon Work...

It is encouraging to know that while the "good roads" speakers and writers are agitators in the air all over the country, the commissioners of Lancaster county are quietly going ahead with their grading machines and making fine new roads at the rate of more than 100 miles a year.

The Fremont Herald is hereby cautioned to preserve strictly the truth of history, especially in minor particulars so apt to become distorted. Once upon a time there was a Southern statesman found his way to Washington, and was for a while considerably elated because of the attention paid him, writing home concerning this, using (if we remember aright) these exact words: "I shall soon be a bigger man than old Grant." For our present purposes, it is not the principle that is discussed, but it is the quotation made by the Herald which annoys THE JOURNAL. We dislike to see that flimsy, flaring phrase which flashed over the country that morning like a ray of some new kind of light made nothing of in the form of a "bigger man than Grant."

EMBARRASSMENT appears to be the natural concomitant of matrimony. At least this is true in the incipient stages. Invariably, however, there is a striking contrast between the relative composure of the man and the woman. Both are nervous but never both at the same time. If it comes a week beforehand to make arrangements she is rattled and he is cool; while on the day of the ceremony she rises to the occasion and he sinks under it.

The five West Point cadets dismissed Wednesday have been employed by the New York Asphalt company, through General Francis A. Green, one of the chief officials of the trust. The young men had sought advice of General Green, and he believed they were patriotic and repentant. Whenever boys or men will insist that they are a law unto themselves, as well as unto others over whom rightly they have no control, it is well enough to make such a change as will convince them that tyranny is not proper, in this country at least.

Ed. Robinson and Jim Minden, two cooks at the Kohler hotel, Grand Island, celebrated pay day by indulging in too much drink. They fought in the kitchen, then out, and back in again, breaking dishes, etc. They were called on by Mr. Coates, the proprietor, to stop their fighting and their destruction of property, but would not, Minden going after Coates with an ax, when the latter in self-defense fired upon them, one after the other, injuring them, but not supposed fatally.

Additional Recal. Quite a goodly number of Grand Army of the Republic members and their friends attended services Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Congregational church, Rev. Manro preaching a splendid sermon, from Judges vi, 18: "The sword of the Lord and of Gideon." Special music was furnished for the occasion by the choir, Messrs. Hieck and Gleason, and Mrs. Gleason. Mrs. Geer and Miss Galley, the last named rendering a very appropriate vocal solo, with accompaniment on the organ by Mrs. Geer.

The Journal noticed so soon as the warm weather set in that the gentlemen of the road were at their usual tricks of making a living without giving any equivalent for it. Their schemes are not entitled to the credit of being original, only a little different from what have been worked before, but they have one safe rule for the whole brood of them, and that is to have nothing whatever to do with them, first or last. One of our exchanges gives this account: "A venerable swindle has been revived successfully among farmers in northern Missouri. A pretended wheat buyer approaches a farmer and offers to purchase all the wheat he has to sell at $1 per bushel. The farmer signs an agreement to deliver the grain at the nearest market at a certain time. Later the supposed agreement turns up in the form of duly signed notes for from $35 to $100.

C. J. Garlow returned Friday from his eastern trip, passing one night at his old home near Farmington, West Virginia, where he left his daughter for an extended visit with relatives. Most of his time was passed in committee work prior to, and in the national convention of the Woodmen of the World, held at Columbus, Ohio. A number of new laws were recommended for passage by the committee, also amendments, the most important being with reference to assessments, and to placing the order on a more solid financial basis. There were delegates present from nearly every part of the United States. The increase in membership the last two years has been eighty thousand. Texas alone has forty thousand members. Mr. Garlow speaks well of the city of Columbus, but one can readily see that Nebraska is important in his thoughts, whenever living and business are spoken of.
