—William Baehner and daughter Pauline left Sunday morning for Buffalo, where they will spend some time, after which they will make an extended visit to Paris and other European cities. The Maennerchor society serenaded Mr. Baehner both at his place of business and at his residence Saturday evening. Their many friends will wish them a pleasant voyage and safe return.
—A very interesting missionary service will be held by Rev. John Aberly of India, Missionary of Lutheran General synod now in session at Des Moines, Iowa, on Tuesday, June 11, 8 p. m., in the church on Eleventh street, Rev. Nunmarker, pastor. Rev. Aberly, who is on furlough in America, will talk upon "India," where he has been a long time. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. He will speak in German and English.
—The examination of teachers of the county will begin Wednesday in the High school, the institute proper will begin Monday next, lasting five days. Owing to a necessitated trip east Prof. Kenn of Wayne can not be present as one of the teachers, and Prof. D. C. O'Connor of Norfolk will take his place. Mr. O'Connor is not a stranger in the county, but will be remembered as a favorite with many teachers. The institute this year promises to be unusually interesting.
—The policemen Monday night took in three boys that had run away from their homes at North Bend, a fourth one Jan. Miller getting away westward before he was arrested. Those detained here till the arrival of an escort home are: Glenn Koston, Charles Scott and Fred Strayer. The boys, whose ages run from 13 to 15 years, will find that among the best channels for the flow of exuberant strength is steady employment at useful work, with strict attention to duty.
—Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Lachnit and family spent Sunday at Columbus visiting Mr. Lachnit's father and family. Wm. Mason, of Columbus, was shaking hands with old friends in town the first of the week. The people in this section are always glad to see Mr. Mason.

—The best time to answer a letter is while you are under its spell, and before your interest in it has grown cold. Home letters should be regular. The glow and impulse of love, stimulated anew, will be responsive stirred, if the reply is not too long deferred. I am always sorry for families who suffer the lines of communication between them to weaken or rest because of carelessness in writing, and many a time my heart has ached for the disappointment visible in an old face, when some young Jean or Molly, whose letter is wistfully anticipated, has forgotten to send it at the right time.
—Margaret B. Sangster, in the Ladies' Home Journal for June.
—The following from the Seward Blade tells the tale of a day for two Nebraska towns and it were well if such pleasant occasions were more numerous: The Lincoln high school with some of the lower grades, chartered a train of ten coaches Friday and came to Seward for an outing. A stop of an hour was made at Millard on the way here. The young people brought their lunches and ate under the fine trees of the fair grounds. Many different amusements were indulged in. A game of base ball between Seward and Lincoln resulted in a score of 6 to 3 in favor of Seward. Rowing on the river, fishing and botanizing helped to pass away the hours. Prof. Davenport, principal, with Prof. Clyde Jeffries, Miss Louise Pound and a number of other teachers accompanied the students.

—Beautiful books for the graduates at Snow's.

THE NATION'S NATAL DAY

WILL be fitly celebrated with all the old time enthusiasm, splendor and patriotic fervor of Columbus citizens and their invited guests. Thoughts will wing backward full across one century to the days of 1776. We are to have all kinds of harmless amusements, laugh-provoking races, parades, dances, speaking, fireworks without let up. A great time is assured.

Gov. E. P. Savage is to be the orator of the occasion, and he will, no doubt, please his hearers. He is an able man, a good speaker, the chief executive of our state, and it will be a rare pleasure to hear him.

—Mrs. Andrew Paproske, aged 59 years, living south of the hospital, died at her home Sunday, from a cancer. The family lived on a farm near Tarnov for over 26 years, moving to this city about a year ago. She leaves a husband, four sons and five daughters. Funeral services will be held this Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Catholic church.
—If you are troubled with that most uncomfortable disease called piles don't neglect it. Don't let the complaint get a firm hold. Every day the disease is neglected it grows worse. —In a business letter, W. R. Notestein writes from Salida, Colo., that business is good in Colorado, and that they are having very nice weather. It will be remembered by JOURNAL readers that Mr. and Mrs. Notestein went west several years ago for her health, which is now very good. After saying that they cannot get along without knowing the news, he sends best respects to all old friends.
—Carl Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Johnson, and Miss Gene Wilson, of Claymore, formerly of Columbus, were married Wednesday at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. S. W. W. Wilson of Claymore. Both young people are well known in Columbus, having grown to manhood and womanhood in this city and graduating from our public schools. All their acquaintances will wish them a prosperous life journey together. The couple are at present with the groom's parents.
—Keep your children busy if you would have them happy. When the occupation is some daily labor which is accomplished as well as it is possible for the child to accomplish it under existing circumstances. But whether it is in work or play, let him understand that no matter how well he may have done today—and do not be chary of your praise—he has within himself that which will make it possible for him to do still better tomorrow. This will encourage, by inciting the child toward even better work, and will early implant that spirit of divine discontent which allows of no absolute satisfaction in that which has been accomplished until the achievement reaches perfection. This is the discontent which Emerson preaches and which is holy if doubt is not allowed to creep in to mar the aspiration.—Woman's Home Companion.

Memorial Day.

May 30, dawned rather cloudy with threats of rain, but long before noon the heavens cleared and a more beautiful day could not be imagined.

During the forenoon all was activity at the various meeting places; all were busily preparing for the parade and exercises of the afternoon.
At about 1:30 the parade started, headed by Marshall of the Day E. H. Funk, and Aide Cham, T. J. Miner, followed by the Columbus City Band, Firemen, Co. K, 1st Neb. N. G., Spanish-American War Veterans, Sons of Veterans and Grand Army of the Republic.

After a short march through the business streets to Franklin Park where the program as already published was rendered, and in addition read by Chaplain A. W. Clark, was the charge to the Sons of Veterans by the Grand Army to perpetuate the observance of the day, and through all the years to continue the honor to their fathers' memory.
The usual services of the G. A. R., including the salute by the S. of V., taps by Bugler Miner and placing of flowers upon the monument in remembrance of the unknown dead, finished the services at the park.

A detail from Baker Post was sent to the cemetery to strew flowers upon the graves of the dead soldiers and, the work of the day was finished.
A detail from Co. K, decorated the grave of Mark Ezer, he being the only member of that organization buried here.

NOTES.
The addresses by Commander W. A. McAllister, for Baker Post, and by Judge Hensley for the Firemen, are spoken of by those who heard them as being very appropriate for the occasion.
Several out of town members of Co. K. were in the city to participate in the parade, among them: John Geitzen, Will Mahar and John Bodewig of Humphrey, and Sergeant Bloodorn of Platte Center.
