MONARCH PURE-FOOD EXHIBIT.....

In the selection of eatables it is most essential to know that what we buy for table use is pure and wholesome. Especially is this true when it comes to buying canned goods, of which there are so many different brands many of them being put up as cheaply as possible without any regard to quality or purity. It is therefore quite important that every housekeeper should be familiar with brands of unquestionable merit and absolute purity, put up with great cleanliness and always reliable. Such a brand we have in the MONARCH goods. They have been on the market for over thirty years, every item of which is fully guaranteed. It is a most comprehensive line, in that it embraces more items than any other line on the market.

In order that you may see what degree of perfection has been attained in their preparation we will have an opening at our store on Wednesday, June 19th, 1901, when we will cut and serve Monarch goods all day (beginning at 10 a. m.) and cordially invite your self and your friends to call on us on that date, assuring you that no pains will be spared to make your visit both profitable and enjoyable.

Yours very truly,

GRAY MERCANTILE CO.

THE NATION'S NATAL DAY

WILL be fittingly celebrated with all the old time enthusiasm, splendor and patriotic fervor of Columbus citizens and their invited guests. Thoughts will wing backward full across one century to the days of 1776. We are to have all kinds of harmless amusements, laugh-provoking races, parades, dances, speaking, fireworks without let up. A great time is assured.

Gov. E. P. Savage is to be the orator of the occasion, and he will, no doubt, please his hearers. He is an able man, a good speaker, the chief executive of our state, and it will be a rare pleasure to hear him.

—Miss Anna Rasmussen, who is teaching as a specialist, wood carving and needle work in the public schools of Pueblo, Colorado, passed through the city Friday on her way east for her summer vacation. The Rasmussen family visited her here at the train.

—To save mending, avoid breaking, and to avoid suffering, prevent coughs and colds by the timely use of BALDARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP. It is a safe, sure and swift remedy for all for all bronchial ailments. Price 25 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.

—Announcement cards have been received here by friends of the marriage 19th of Miss Sophia Ware, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ware of Cosad to Mr. John W. Gill of Omaha. The Ware family will be remembered as residents here some fifteen years ago.

—The Modern Woodmen announce a big picnic to take place at Humphrey, this county, Thursday of this week. Liberal prizes are offered to those competing for honors in the races, etc. To the best band in attendance we notice a prize of $20 will be given, $10 to second best.

—The cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Sarah Augusta, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jacobson of Bradish, to Mr. Albert M. Olson, on June 26th. The ceremony will take place at the Evangelical Lutheran church in Platte county.—Albion News.

—Word has been received again from Gov. Savage that he will certainly be here July 4, to deliver the oration. Be sure to come and hear him. Bring all the family. The governor is one of the old-fashioned kind of men, and will give an old-fashioned talk, patriotic through and through.

—There were 500 tickets sold here Sunday for the excursion to Seward, the train running five cars. The occasion was the orphan's picnic and mission services of the German Lutheran church, the home being located in Fremont. Excursion trains were run from different parts of the state.

—Many women fail to digest their food, and so become pale, sallow, thin and weak, while the brightness, freshness and beauty of the skin and complexion depart. Remedy this by taking HERBINE after each meal to digest what you have eaten. Price 50 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.

—Bishop McCabe, one of the greatest lecturers of our country, will be in Columbus on July 26, at the opera house, giving his famous lecture "The Bright Side of Libby Prison." He appears in but three places in Nebraska, Omaha, Columbus and Grand Island. It will be a rare treat for Columbus.

—Bowling is a healthful amusement, an agreeable pastime. See the sport at Hagel's Bowling alley.

—You can buy blank farm leases at THE JOURNAL office, good form, two for 5 cents; five for 10 cents.

—Don't forget this is the week Dr. Newman the European Eye specialist is in town, on Eleventh street opposite Hulet & Adams' from the 25th to the 1st of each month. See his advertisement elsewhere.

—The Salem church five miles south of Newman Grove was struck by lightning last Wednesday morning and burned to the ground. The cost of the church was $5,000 with a $500 addition this spring.

—The Orpheus society had a picnic Sunday in the grove west of the Loup river bridge. A very large crowd was present in the afternoon and evening. The Orpheus orchestra furnished music for the dancing.

—Hon. S. F. Burch of Papillion, an uncle of Editor Howard, is here visiting his nephew and will probably make this his home. Mr. Burch was a resident of this community in the pioneer days, leaving here in 1855.

—This Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock Garrett Hulet of this city and Miss Mitchell of Clark's will be married at the home of the bride's mother in Clark. Several friends of the couple in this city will attend the wedding.

—The Cecilia club enjoyed their annual picnic Thursday afternoon in Stevens' grove. All former members were invited. Supper was taken out to the grounds, and the happy crowd returned on hay racks in the evening.

—Mrs. Lockhart, her son William E. and daughter, Miss Anna, left Wednesday last for their future home in Monongahela, Pa. The Lockhart family have lived near Columbus for many years and the community will miss them in many ways.

—Gilbert Anderson of Whitewater, Wisconsin, and Peter Anderson of Ft. Collins, Colorado, both directors of the First National bank and brothers of A. Anderson, returned home Sunday, after several days here on business and pleasure combined.

—The street fair authorities have set apart Wednesday, July 10, for Governor's Day at South Omaha. The effort will be to have present the governors of Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and possibly the two Dakotas, each to be accompanied by his military staff.

—You feel better at once after using HERBINE, you enjoy your food more, and you get more nourishment and invigorating force out of what you eat. Hence HERBINE makes you strong, vigorous and cheerful. Price 50 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.

—The Murdock & Watts grocery store on Thirteenth street has changed hands several times the past few months. Murdock bought out Mr. Watts' interest, then A. J. Motz of Central City purchased the place; a few weeks later H. E. Glatfelter of the same place bought it and Wednesday last Fred. C. Ratcliff, who has been a traveling salesman for a shoe company, bought the place. Mr. Ratcliff expects to remain and has taken charge of the business.

—The Naligh Advocate says: Prof. G. H. Whaley left Naligh for his home in Columbus Monday morning. He started Tuesday for Philadelphia where he will complete arrangements for taking charge of a branch office of a large publishing house, that will be established in Columbus this summer. Mr. Whaley leaves many warm friends in Naligh and leaves after two years of successful work in our schools with the best wishes of all that he may succeed in his new undertaking.

—Mr. Klug the new blacksmith, who recently moved here from Columbus and who with his family are occupying the Fred Kimball house, reports that two of his children are down with typhoid fever. It will be remembered that Mrs. Kimball died of the same disease in this same house about a year ago. Dr. Alger, the attending physician, was seen regarding the case and he says that he is of the opinion that the water is infected with the germ and this together that the building was not disinfected are the principal causes of the disease. Both children are getting along nicely.—Leigh World.

—The Fremont correspondent of the Omaha World-Herald, June 18, has the following: Mrs. Jennie T. North of this city and Fred H. Frahm of Lincoln were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother on East Third street in the presence of a few near relatives of the contracting parties. The home was tastefully decorated for the occasion. Rev. Buss performed the ceremony. The bride is well and favorably known in Fremont, where she has lived for some time. Mr. Frahm is a traveling salesman for Hargrave Bros. of Lincoln. Mr. and Mrs. Frahm will be at home after July 1, in Fremont.

—Monday night of last week, about 10 o'clock, the Creston roller mill, owned by J. Palmetier, burned down. The building and machinery were a loss, as well as two carloads of flour, a large amount of bran, feed, grain, etc. The loss is estimated at $10,000, about $3,000 insurance. The mill was one of the chief institutions of Creston, and the village will sadly feel the loss. Coming upon the other very serious losses by fire of a recent date, makes it all the more disastrous. There is talk that the fire started in a pile of rubbish on the second floor by spontaneous combustion. Some, however, intimating incendiary origin.

—Perry Loebhaugh is about as patient a man as you will find in a full day's travel, but he is not exploiting the quality—he wishes no notoriety; he is simply and only a drayman, and he wishes it understood that he is only an ordinary drayman at that. Friday last a woman wanted him to haul her trunk, etc., and also herself and poodle-dog. And so it was, but when they arrived at the place which had been designated, she was unwilling to leave her comfortable seat, and so it continued to be. The situation was very unusual, and somewhat alarming. The night was coming down, by slow curtain, but pretty sure, and Perry didn't relish the idea of seeing his 2-horse, good-sized dray turned into an improvised street hotel, without special license as a traveling house. He hailed night policeman Meahan, and the passenger was put off at the county jail.

—The barn of M. Cassin at his residence property, Fourteenth street, was burned to a wreck Sunday morning. The firemen were called about 5:30, but the flames had gained such headway as to make it impossible to save the place. It is thought the fire was started by tramps sleeping in the loft, as the flames first came from the hay in the mow. The barn was insured for $150.

—One day differs from another, and you cannot always tell just how or why it is. E. P. Swearingen and J. H. Hoadley had an experience Saturday that they are not likely to forget for a while. Mr. Swearingen had been away visiting over in Iowa, enjoying himself, seeing the sights and comparing this country against all out-dors, with a remainder over in favor of Nebraska. But Saturday was somewhat of an exceptional day, and the two men, for the most part, were not directors of their own fortune, but rather drifted with the tide. At least, after the bronchos were tied to the survey in the morning, the responsibility was mixed, to say the least. Mr. Swearingen says he believes he never had before such an uncontrollable desire to grab the lines and direct the devious way past team after team across the long Loup bridge and out of danger, and he doesn't know how it was done, but it was, and they pulled through alive. Mr. Hoadley suffered the fracture of his left arm, below the elbow, which Dr. Arnold put to rights, and a boy caught the runaway team near the Union Pacific railroad bridge. Of course the team were not hurt to speak of. It is something wonderful, however, the difference in a Nebraska landscape when you are behind an ordinary, well-behaved team, and one that is inclined to go its own gait. Stand up for Nebraska.

—R. G. Emmons, the Lincoln blood-bred man, was in the city today, having been engaged in tracing a number of fellows who disturbed a religious gathering in Stanton county, east of Madison, Sunday night, by throwing two dozen rotten eggs. The matter was referred to Chief of Police Conley and he recommended Mr. Emmons as being the man to catch the offenders. The Lincoln man set his dogs to work yesterday and, in spite of the fact that it had rained since the deed was committed, succeeded in locating four of the fellows concerned at distances of from four to seven miles from the place of meeting. The four pleaded guilty to the charge and were fined $24.50 each. Figured at $49 a dozen the eggs attained Klondike prices and were more or less ancient at that. It was an expensive experiment to those concerned. Mr. Emmons has Chief Conley's dog in training and says that he promises well as a trailer of men.—Norfolk News.

—Osteopathy, the Drugless Science. It is a means of curing diseases, without the use of drugs or the knife, by using the hands to remove any pressure on the nerves, arteries and veins, so that the circulation of the fluids and gases of the body will be restored to a normal condition. It is based on a knowledge of the anatomy, physiology and chemistry of the human body. Osteopathy cures all curable diseases. The suspensory treatment cures curvatures and all abnormalities of the spine, when all other methods fail. This device is something new, and we would be glad to have those who have spinal troubles call and investigate this new treatment. Consultation and examination free. (G. P. MEERS, D. O. NELLE H.
