Burial this Tuesday morning, 10 o'clock, services at the Catholic church. The family have lived here nearly nineteen years, coming from Rosenstadt, Maschren, Austria. The family have the sincere sympathy of all in their bereavement.

—The Wood River Interests claims that a state exchange is advocating the organization of a society for the prevention of cruelty to vegetation. That's right; it should be done. Just think of digging the eyes out of the potatoes, pulling the ears from corn, eating the heads of cabbage, pulling the beards out of rye, threshing wheat, cutting the heart out of a tree, spilling the blood of a bear, tearing the skin off a peach, breaking the neck of a squash, squeezing the lettuce, quartering the apple, squeezing the lemon and many other outrages.

—At Brodfuehrer's jewelry parlor in this city Thursday last, by Rev. Wm. Papenhausen, George Scheidel, Jr., of Platte Center and Miss Dorothy Goshy were married. The Platte Center Signal says: "Miss Goshy is a sister of Fritz Goshy, who lives west of town. Miss Goshy arrived from Germany last week, but was not a stranger to Mr. Scheidel, he having known her before coming to America. The bride and groom drove home last evening, and about nine o'clock a crowd of the boys congregated at their home to give them an 'entertainment,' but were not allowed to continue long as George did 'the right thing' by them and they dispersed, wishing him and his all kinds of happiness and good luck."

—A "stitch in time saves nine," and a dose of BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP, at the beginning of a cold will save you many weary hours and even days of distressing and harassing cough. Price 25 and 50 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.

—Some newspapers who published a report to the effect that Chancellor Andrews of the Nebraska State University had, in a lecture at the University of Chicago, taught that under some circumstances lying is justifiable, are now asked by him to say that the report is not true, and that the very opposite is his opinion and his teaching.

—Material is being placed on the premises for the construction of a sidewalk north and east of the new brick store on Eleventh street, being completed for I. Gluck. That on the east side will be six feet wide and of vitrified brick.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Echols entertained a few friends last Tuesday evening for Rev. Yost of Schuyler who was on his way home from Wayne. The occasion partook somewhat as a farewell to Rev. Corey who started for his new work in Pennsylvania on Thursday. Rev. Powers, former pastor here, was also present, being on his way home to Lincoln from conference.

—The Robinson-Sonntag concert in the Congregational church last Wednesday evening was one of the best musical recitals ever given in the city. The usual formality was entirely missing and Mr. Robinson kept the audience in good humor by his conversational speeches between songs. Classical, popular and old familiar songs comprised the excellently-rendered program.

—The experiment stations here and there in the territory subjected to the long heated term of this season are calling attention to the fact of immaturity of much of the corn crop, and its consequent unfitness for seed another year. A good plan is to have at hand, in a separate box in the wagon, and into it throw the most perfect ears. Then put these where freezing and thawing cannot take place. It does not pay to plant poor seed.

—Our new sample line of carpets and linoleums are here. We show the latest patterns of all grades of carpets and our prices are the lowest of any house in the city. A handsome rug free with every carpet or linoleum, amounting to $15 or over. Before purchasing give us a call. No extra charge for sewing carpets. The Fair, Eleventh street.

—Prof. E. E. Blackman of Rock was in the city Monday between trains on his way home from Genoa, where he had been hunting for Indian relics. He secured many valuable pieces to be loaned to the State Historical society. Among them were: Mrs. F. L. Horton, beads and pipe; M. A. Elliott, box of relics from a grave; Mrs. Hannah Larson, large hint, fine piece of pottery, showing ornamentation, and a pipe; Mr. Wright, pipe, axe, etc.; and Mr. Joseph Coffin will send a collection valued at $500. Mr. Blackman is very enthusiastic over his "finds" in this locality.

—The teachers of the city, together with the school board, gave a reception Friday evening at the home of J. H. Galley, president of the board, for Prof. W. M. Kern, only the teachers, members of the school board and their wives being present. The High school orchestra furnished music, Prof. Garlick and Miss Ethel Galley rendering special selections. The evening was spent in playing games and the absence of the usual amount of dignity displayed demonstrated the fact that the profession of teaching keeps the heart young. Supper was served and the crowd dispersed at a late hour.

—J. C. Wilkens, the aged man who lives in the north part of the city, wandered away from home Saturday afternoon. He had started for Vogel's restaurant on an errand and seemed to be suffering from mental aberration, for he lost his way and wandered several miles east of town. The family searched for him until about 9 o'clock, when the fire bell was rung and called out volunteers to continue the search. About 200 men responded to the call. C. S. Easton was among the first and succeeded in tracing him to a corn field on the Lawrence farm, where Mr. Wilkens was found and persuaded to return home. He is 77 years old.

—The annual Platte County Sunday-school convention was held in this city last Saturday and Sunday. There were very few delegates sent from over the county but good crowds attended at the sessions. R. H. Pollock of Lincoln addressed the audience Saturday afternoon and evening, and Sunday evening Rev. Lowrie of Lincoln delivered the address of the evening. Besides these the program consisted of home talent. Officers elected for the ensuing year were: A. G. Rolf, Palestine, president; H. J. Hudson, vice president; Mrs. C. C. Shickler, secretary; E. von Bergen, treasurer; Miss Bertha Zinske, primary work and C. W. Talbier, superintendent of normal work.

—Pierce Smith, youngest son of Pierce D. Smith, St. Edward, while breaking a colt Monday last week, was carried by him under a tree, Pierce's head striking against a solid branch of the tree throwing him violently to the ground, where he was found a few minutes after, unconscious. The Advance says: "Dr. Ireland was summoned at once. A brief examination was sufficient to show that the injuries were of a very dangerous nature and Mrs. Evans, Mary, Geer and Dr. Dave Martyn of Columbus, were called by telegraph and a special train brought them to St. Edward about eight o'clock that evening. The skull had received a linear fracture from temple to temple and was depressed, causing convulsions. An operation was performed about midnight by trephining. After the pressure was removed the patient rested quietly, and from reports Wednesday afternoon, the doctors in charge expressing strong hopes of the patient's recovery."

—In anæmia and most women's ailments the digestion is weak, the making of color, flesh and strength out of food, is imperfect so that the patient is weak, wan, nervous and dyspeptic. This condition can be corrected by taking a course of HERBINE. Price 50 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.

—Mrs. E. F. Merrill gave a party Friday afternoon at her home for her Sunday school class of the Baptist church. Twelve girls were present to enjoy a frolic. One of the interesting souvenirs of the occasion was a present brought all the way from Japan by Miss Anna Russell, a returned Baptist missionary. Each girl was given a little piece of wood about as large as a pin and told to float it on water. When the wood became wet the little piece formed itself into all sorts of shapes such as flowers, pigs and innumerable articles. Mrs. Merrill had been given the peculiar pieces by her friend, Miss Buzzell, who visited here last spring.

—C. P. R. Williams, deputy U. S. revenue collector, was in the city Friday, which is nothing very unusual with him, because business often calls him here; this time he had an altogether different appearance than the ordinary. He had evidently been exposed to something besides the ordinary dealings of Uncle Sam's collectors with the people who use a government license. His bronzed appearance was due to a late outing at lake Erickson in company of G. W. Brown of Cedar Rapids, a pair of nimble and disciples of Isaac Walton, who could enjoy test life about as well as the next pair, even though Nebraska breezes blow hard, and the sun darkens the faces while prospecting for food.

—Miss Mabel Getta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Getta, and Mr. David Boyd were married last Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. G. W. Corey officiating. The wedding march was played by Miss Clara Lathup of Osceola. After the ceremony the guests, who numbered about fifty, were treated to a bountiful supper. The happy couple began housekeeping at once in their new home in Highland park. The out of town guests to the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Drennan of New Sharon, Iowa; Mrs. Sarah Narver, Los Angeles, Cal.; G. O. Burns, Stuart, Neb.; Mrs. N. M. Johnson, Madison; Miss Clara Lathup, M. C. Burns, Clyde Burns, Lulu Burns, Mrs. J. F. Brown, Mrs. Dr. H. M. Mills, all of Osceola.

—We have learned from Engineer Harry Riley the cause of the frequent delay on the cannon ball which thunder in and out of here some four times every day. Harry says for instance last Wednesday his fireman had two extra hard boiled eggs in his lunch basket which loaded the train down too heavily and as a consequence he was an hour and a half late. This reminded us of a story Conductor Compton told us not long ago. He said they were awful late one day, and as he passed through the train taking tickets, a food mother had a boy old enough to hawk corn and presented a half fare ticket for him. He protested that the boy was too old for half fare rates, when she declared that her darling was entitled to half fare when she started. He rode. Another time he told how a woman insisted that her son should ride on half fare because he was a twin.—Fullerton Post.

—Charles T. Miner is carrying his left arm in a sling, having suffered a fracture of the radius a little below the elbow at the recent encampment near Omaha, when the horse under him, touched by a spur, jumped straight up into the air instead of dodging sideways, and landing Charles, head and shoulder, on the ground. He went three blocks after the horse and caught him, not knowing until after he got to the hospital that his arm was fractured. Charles thinks he would have kept his place on the horse, but the saddle was a hired one, and the girl defective. He was brigade bugler.—Mr. Miner has just received from a friend copies of English newspapers, the Herald and the Gazette, published at Yokohama, Japan, Aug. 24, 1901. They have somewhat the appearance of London newspapers of thirty years ago, except that the advertisements are far outmoded the news and the comments combined. Transportation companies make up a good portion of the advertising patronage. About the oddest thing in the way of an advertisement is dog feed for sale cheap—damaged rice.

—There are thousands of people, suffering untold torture from piles, because of the popular impression that they cannot be cured. TABLER'S BUCK-ET PILE OINTMENT will cure them and the patient will remain cured. Price 50 cents in bottles. Tubes, 75 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.
