THE BARTLEY PARDON.

To put it with exceeding mildness, republicans of Nebraska are grieved over the pardon of ex-State Treasurer J. S. Bartley by Gov. Savage.

Sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary for embezzlement, he had served six years, and now is unconditionally pardoned.

Once he was paroled, the pardon, thought by some to be for the purpose of giving Mr. Bartley opportunity to make collections from those to whom he had loaned money, and that $200,000 or $300,000 might be recovered to the state, of the money embezzled.

The republican state convention condemned this action of Gov. Savage so strongly that he immediately ordered the re-incarceration of Bartley.

Now comes an unconditional pardon, and, needless to say, most people are astounded.

The true inwardness of the matter may appear to view, later.

If Gov. Savage, on principle, was convinced of his duty when he paroled Bartley, he should have unflinchingly held to it, even against the action of the republican convention.

Newly-discovered facts are allowed to change judgment, but there seem to be none of these with Gov. Savage—at least so far as the public is as yet advised.

If anybody is guilty with Bartley and is now using money got of him that ought rightly to be in the state treasury, the public does not know who they are. Perhaps Bartley, being himself pardoned, may now turn state's evidence, and disclose where the money was placed, to the end that a large portion of it may be recovered by the state.

Whatever the event may be, THE JOURNAL sees no justification for Gov. Savage's action.

He is the supreme executive magistrate of the state, to whom, in certain cases, is entrusted the pardoning power, which he has exercised in this case, and he should have acted clearly in the state's interest.

A good many ugly questions are being asked by the people: Was the pardon asked by the people? Were the men who had the money of Bartley being keeping his family in luxury, and give them now used influence to get him pardoned?

THE JOURNAL does not believe that Gov. Savage is a corrupt man—rather he is generous-hearted and courageous, but he has magnified the personal plea and minified public considerations of his executive clemency, which are so palpable and so far-reaching as to almost appall those who think of the orderly life of the commonwealth of Nebraska.

What is Vitapathy?

Dr. Chas. I. White the vitapathy physician says many ask what is the meaning of vitapathy. For the readers of THE JOURNAL the doctor gives the definition, viz: Vitapathy is the most deadly enemy of disease.

Vitapathy cures when everything else fails.

Vitapathy is composed of the essence of life.

It is a boon to those who have lost hope. Vitapathy is a common-sense system of treatment for all human ailments. It is not claimed that vitapathy will cure you live always. So long as you have rich, pure blood, so long as the nervous and vital organs perform their proper functions, old age will creep on very slowly.

Unquestionably, God has given to man the power to cure every physical and mental ailment. It simply remains for man to acquaint himself with Nature's laws. Dr. White has demonstrated beyond doubt that vitapathy will cure disease. He does not claim to cure every patient, because many persons put off taking treatment until so late that it is impossible to effect a cure. You cannot cure Bright's disease after the kidneys are destroyed. You cannot cure consumption after the lungs have rotted out, but take these diseases in time, and vitapathy will positively cure them, as it will cure every other known disease.

The great trouble is that the majority of people put off taking treatment until it is too late. If you are a sufferer with disease, don't put it off any longer, but call and consult Dr. White at the Cletcher house free of charge.

Weak Human Nature.

"Talk about the frailties of human nature," said a well known insurance agent the other day. "No one else has so good an opportunity to discover them as an insurance man. An incident occurred a few days ago that showed me a side of a neighbor's character which I had never suspected to exist. A fire broke out in his home, and, do you know, that man went three blocks to a telephone to report it when there was a phone right in his house. 'I saw the fire soon after it started and rushed to give assistance. It was helping to pack things up that I discovered the phone and turned in the alarm. Now, it takes a strong stretch of the imagination to believe that the owner had forgotten there was a telephone in his house. That he should have acted as he did undermines one's faith in people in general. 'Think of it. There I was sweating and endangering my life to save his property, while he was anxious, evidently, to have it burn. Such conduct doesn't encourage one to exert himself for others.' 'By the way,' interrupted a listener, 'did any of your companies hold a policy on that house?' 'Now you are asking a leading question,' retorted the insurance man, with a guileless smile. 'What I am saying is that the actions of that man are a sad commentary on human nature.'—Kansas City Journal.

Legal Notices.

America is a tolerably free country when you think right down to the foundation of things, and not according. THE JOURNAL has had thirty years' experience in handling legal notices of all descriptions, and takes this occasion to say that it is thoroughly equipped for this sort of work.

We desire that you remember us when you have work of this sort to be done. When you do the paying, you have the right to place the work. Special attention given to mail orders. Call on or address, M. K. TURNER & CO., Journal Office, Columbus, Neb.

is acting governor, Governor Savage having gone to Louisiana.

A Big Cut in Price.

The Nebraska State Journal has reduced its price to subscribers outside of Lincoln and suburbs from $7.50 to $5.00 per year, including the big Sunday paper, or $4.00 per year without Sunday. The price of the Sunday issue will be $1.50 per year.

By this action it is presenting its state readers with thousands of dollars, but the result will be thousands of new subscribers, thus enlarging its usefulness and adding to its value as an advertising medium. Instead of any lessening in the effort to make it a first-class state paper, the Journal will be improved in every department, making it the best newspaper in the state capital, which has always been the center of things political and social of a state nature. The Journal's state telegraphic service excels that of all competitors which, with its complete associated press reports and special telegraph service from Washington, make it the paper for Nebraska people.

A. L. Birby's department is one of the most widely read in the west, and the fair and unprejudiced editorial treatment of all state matters has made the Journal thousands of warm friends.

This big reduction in price which now makes the six week day papers eight cents a week, will make the Journal the most widely read paper throughout Nebraska.

Used Against Her.

A certain small ball who had just certainly "landed" an old and wealthy nobleman sued an unpopular manager, alleging that he had not paid her sufficiently well for her engagement at his ball. She won the case and immediately demanded with flowery congratulations from her friends, all of whom were glad to see the manager go down.

Not content with her victory, however, the belle must needs crow over her beaten rival by packing up the choicest of her wardrobe and dispatching them to his house, with the intimation that he might make what use of them he thought proper.

She regretted this last concession the next morning. Taking her at her word, the manager packed the garments on a board outside the music hall, headed them "What Miss Flight's friends think of her engagement" and left the public to assume which engagement, the professional or the matrimonial, was meant.

Then followed such messages as "Good for you, old girl!" "Planned the old horror at last!" "Don't let him wriggle off the hook!" "Stick to him till you get the dibs!" "Congratulations on your splendid haul!"

Another action is pending—London Tit-Bits.

NOTICE OF REFERRED SALE.

NOTICE is hereby given that whereas in an action pending in the district court for Platte county, Nebraska, in which the County of Platte county, Nebraska, is plaintiff, and J. J. Murphy and J. J.
