

Happy New Year!

Is the wish of HULST & ADAMS to every one. We take great pleasure in thanking our friends and patrons for the liberal patronage they have extended to us during the past year, and it is with pleasure that we can say and have our statement verified, if you will visit our store and see for yourselves, that our trade has steadily increased month by month. December was the largest business month we ever had. We have tried hard to serve our customers in the best way possible by giving them the best goods and best service to be had, and at prices that defy competition. The steady increase in our business is very gratifying because it shows that the people appreciate our efforts.

Our motto for the New Year will be "Prompt and courteous service, nothing but the best goods." Wishing all a happy and prosperous New Year, we remain, —The check-signing mania of Frank E. Waring, who lately was in the toils here, was found to be due to mental derangement; so said the insanity commissioners of Douglas county, and Waring has been taken to the asylum at Lincoln. The youth's father had made good some $2,000 of forged checks.

—M. M. Kenfield of Ericson died suddenly of heart trouble Sunday evening of last week, shortly after retiring. The body reached St. Edward Tuesday and funeral services were held Wednesday. He was for years a resident of the vicinity of St. Edward, and numbers the entire community among his friends.
—Advances.
—C. C. Gray tells us that the five inches of snow fall during the recent storm, were equivalent to 23 inches of rain water. The lowest temperature was sixteen below zero, Monday morning; at noon of Monday, the thermometer marked seven degrees above zero. The lowest temperature in December last was sixteen below.
—F. D. Reed, editor of the Shelton Clipper, has this to say: Mr. Bryan told us when he was making his memorable campaign in 1896 that in case of McKinley's election property values would depreciate and that farm land could not be sold at any price. In spite of his prediction a Platte county farm was sold at sheriff's sale the other day for $55 per acre.
—The music department of the Woman's club held their regular meeting Tuesday evening with Mrs. George Gould in Ballwood. Mrs. Gould met the ladies and entertained them royally while in that village. The three Mr. Goulds gave several vocal trion which were greatly enjoyed. Supper was served at 6 o'clock and the party returned on the evening passenger.
—K. O. Kohler, who has many friends and acquaintances in middle Nebraska, writes a very interesting letter to THE JOURNAL, which we print elsewhere in this week's paper. As for ourselves, we are inclined to think that Nebraska, all things considered, is among the best sections of the United States. Tastes differ, however, and what pleases one, may not always suit another.
—Monday a piece of ore was received from Doc Barber who is looking after the Fullerton mining interests, which shows that the mine is now about to produce some very rich ore. The sample is an exceptionally rich one and shows a quantity of gold that will pay about $25,000 to the ton. Those who are interested in this mine are quite jubilant over the prospects.—Fullerton News.
