—Earle S. Fessell has been commissioned by Gov. LaFollette of Wisconsin, as captain in the Third regiment infantry, W. N. G., and is commanding officer of E Company, Eau Claire.

—From Washington reports of original pensions issued to Nebraskans, we see that Abraham Tschudy, Columbus, who was a soldier in the War with Spain, has been granted a pension of $8.

—Supt. D. C. O'Connor of the Norfolk public schools, very well known to many JOURNAL readers, has just been re-elected to his present position for a term of three years, with a salary of $1,500 a year.

—Matt Allison will sell at his residence in this city, Wednesday, February 15, 2 o'clock, work horses, lumber wagons, buggies, household goods, his residence property, etc. E. H. Funk, auctioneer. See bills.

—In a business letter to this office, Augustus Lockner of Omaha writes that he was very sorry to hear of Comrade Sperry's death. He was a good, faithful friend. My regards to THE JOURNAL force and all inquiring friends.

—At his place four miles northwest of the city, beginning at 10 o'clock, this Wednesday, February 12, George H. Winslow will have a sale of horses, cattle, hogs, farm implements, etc. Terms moderate. Free lunch at noon.

—It occurs to us that someone circulated a petition some two years ago for a rural free delivery postal route, out from Platte Center in the Henry Clayburn, Thos. Mylet, Ed. Higgins neighborhood. Now would be a good time to finish the work then begun.

—John T. Morris of Creston has just moved his family to Fremont, they having taken possession of the Kelly place northwest of town. Mr. Morris is one of the solid business men of his town and Fremont makes a distinct gain in securing him as a resident.—Tribune.

—News from LaPorte, Indiana, says that the work of the Goude of the Bellwood, Nebraska, bank, has affected investors there to the amount of $75,000 to $100,000. At Michigan City, Indiana, the losses on the same account will equal if not exceed $20,000. One estate had $4,000 worth of stock in the Gould bank.

—The published interview with Governor Savage, in which he favors the issue of state bonds for the construction of canals for irrigation and for power has attracted universal attention. The good effects of such a canal are easily imaginable, but the idea of bonded indebtedness does not strike the public favorably.

—Woodville is soon to have a local telephone system.

—Blank farm leases for sale at THE JOURNAL office. 1f

—Dr. L. C. Voss, Homeopathic physician, Columbus, Neb.

—The letter to laugh than to be sighing. They are wise who resolve to be gay. So just see "A Merry Minister" Co. and forget your troubles. At North opera house Feb. 17.

—Envelopes with your return card printed on them, for 50 cents a single hundred; for larger quantities and different grades, call at THE JOURNAL office for prices.

—Hi Henry's minstrel entertainment Thursday evening was highly pleasing to the audience in general, and they will be greeted with enthusiasm whenever they appear again.

—The art department of the Woman's club will meet with Mrs. Geer at the home of M. Whitmorey Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Roll call, Art Notes; piano solo, Miss Whitmorey; Rags and Taps; Mrs. Geer; Laces and Embroideries, Mrs. H. P. Oehrlrich.

—Marriage licenses have been issued by Judge Ratterman to the following parties: Charles Magon and Miss Kate Halstead; D. F. Peterson and Miss Emma Becker; Albert T. Tesserdorf and Miss Liddie M. H. Herring; L. L. Albert and Miss Joan B. Powley.

—H. E. Babcock and J. D. Stires of this city are among the delegates named by Governor Savage to the Colorado-Wyoming-Nebraska Irrigation congress to be held in Sterling, Colorado, February 29 and 27, for the purpose of considering irrigation legislation.

—The Orpheus society have purchased the opera house and have begun repairs upon it. A new roof is to be put on; a new floor; plastering where needed, painting, etc. The expectation is to make it a complete establishment for the purposes for which it was erected.

—THE JOURNAL is in receipt of the Sporting Annual for 1922, Richard K. Fox, publisher, New York. As its name suggests, it is a complete record of events in athletics, bicycle contests, baseball, rowing, swimming, trotting, racing, etc., as well as in pugilists.

—Alvin Hanson and Miss Anna Anderson of Lindsay were united in Holy matrimony last Wednesday evening at the home of the groom's parents, Rev. Malmstrom officiating. The happy couple received a good many useful and handsome presents. They will rent the farm vacated by Axel Hanson.—Globe Leader.

—Gerhard Looske was in the city Wednesday on business and gave JOURNAL headquarters a very pleasant call. He thinks the increased prices of land are due to the stability and the increased amount of money in the country, and which finds in land a safer and better paying investment than in loans at five per cent.

—John Keller had his hand badly hurt in a wind mill gearing Tuesday afternoon. He had climbed on top of the mill to oil the mill and caught his hand in the gearing. Charles Osteron of Genoa was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail for being drunk, beating his wife and turning the family out in the snow Saturday night.—Fallerton News.

—Union Pacific flyer No. 3 stopped here Tuesday for another delegation of Clarke people who are going to make their future home in the west. J. L. Slomson and wife, Thos. Holclev and family and W. H. Conner and family left for Crofton, Washington, near Vancouver. There are still others preparing to go from here to the same locality in the near future.—Clarke Enterprise.

—Peter Zybach, whose home was eight miles west of this city, died there Sunday night at 11 o'clock, after an illness of eight days, of lung trouble. He was born in Switzerland, had lived here since 1883, and was 67 years old at the time of his death. He leaves a son, Edward, and a daughter, Mrs. Law Hecker. Funeral services this Tuesday afternoon, 1 o'clock at the Reform church, Grault, Rev. Braun officiating.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hendryx of Monroe celebrated their golden wedding last Wednesday afternoon and evening. About eighty invitations were received by friends in this city and a large number were engaged for the day and the invited guests spent the hours in conversation and dancing. The happy couple were the recipients of many valuable gifts. The following named people, no far as we can learn, were present from here: Mr. and Mrs. Herrick, Hanson, Dickinson, Basche, Mooser, Hochacker, Babcock, Adams, Kramer; Madeline Sullivan, Evans, Chambers, Hobe, Ross, Spoto, Kanavan; Mesta; J. E. North, Homer Martyn, Otto Ross, Fred Post; Misses Alice Cowdery, Elsie Ross, Ada Barter.

—John G. Mahan writes to the Omaha Bee from O'Neill, opposing the land-leasing bill now before congress, protesting against the passage, unless amended in such a manner as to prevent a monopoly of the public domain. He says its passage would leave all the small cattlemen practically at the mercy of the large cattlemen and syndicates.

—Anton Nelson, who lately moved here with his family from Leigh, and who purchased the Hiers meat market, took charge of the business last Friday. Mr. Nelson with his wife and two children, and Miss Agda Nelson were visiting in Cheyenne during the holidays when they were all, but Mr. Nelson, taken with smallpox. They were quarantined and kept there until last Wednesday when they returned home.

—George Drenin took four days of his valuable time to circulate a petition for a rural delivery route, going out northwest from the Columbus post-office, and accommodating at least 105 families, as far north as Miller's in Blount township and as far east as Leakey's. Two weeks ago the petition with a map showing the location of the signers, was sent to postal headquarters at Washington, and a favorable answer is daily expected.

—At 11:30 Monday forenoon, Leah L. Albert and Miss Jean B. Powley of Toronto, Canada, were joined in marriage at the residence of R. W. Hobart, Rev. Loos of the Methodist church officiating. The judge is too well known to readers of THE JOURNAL to require introduction by us. The young lady is a descendant of the celebrated Bruce family of Scotland, a very bright lady, and the judge is to be congratulated. THE JOURNAL wishes the happy couple long life and happiness.

—The Ancient Order United Workmen is undoubtedly one of the very best of fraternal organizations. A special meeting of Columbia lodge is to be held tomorrow (Thursday) evening, at which Joseph J. Schickel, Grand Master Workman of the jurisdiction is to be present for instruction and incidental work. There is a lively contest for increased membership between the young state of Nebraska and the old state of New York, closing with the first day of March, and all of us, whether within or without the order, are interested in Nebraska winning out.

—The pyramids of Egypt are filled with mummies who have been preserved for thousands of years yet retain the form and features of their descendants of today, but the world is more enlightened now, with more conveniences and opportunities for enjoyment and progress. The mummy possibly enjoyed his life six thousand years ago but he is very dry for the present generation. The same may be said of every comely of ten years ago. It is very dry and mummy-like, the mummies of the past, and the ludicrous situations seen in "A Fool for Luck" the latest and best far comedy. Given by the famous "Merry Minister" company.

—Misses Margaret and Lillian Deegan of Red Lodge, Montana, came home to attend the funeral of their mother, Mrs. John Deegan, who was buried Sunday afternoon. Miss Margaret is a teacher in the public schools of that city. Other friends and relatives of the family who were here were: Mrs. Pat Deegan, Mrs. P. P. Biede, Miss Lizzie Deegan, W. H. Deegan, Ed. Fitzsimmons, Mrs. Sarah Bivert, all of Lindsay; Mrs. D. S. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. J. McPhillip, John McPhillip, Wm. Joseph, Mrs. John Griffin, Post-Hill; Mrs. F. J. Frost, Mrs. F. T. Klohe, Mrs. A. B. Gray, Mrs. E. D. Kelly, Mr. Joseph, Mrs. Edward, Mrs. Lena and Octavia Forgest, St. Edward.

—On Friday last there was a select gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Kelley, west of town. It was in honor of the seventieth birthday of Esquire Kelley, and was one of the jolliest gatherings we have attended in years. May he live to enjoy many happy returns of the day. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hendryx celebrated their golden wedding yesterday, they had their new house full of guests, parties from Grand Island, Schuyler, Columbus, Genoa, Ewing and Lincoln were present to do honor to the occasion. The bride and groom were at their best and a notably good time was enjoyed by all.—Moore Looking Glass.

—"Uncle Dave" Anderson and Mrs. Anderson, who are now sojourning in Texas, write friends that they are enjoying the delightful balmy breezes of the south immensely. The Houston Chronicle of Monday contained this paragraph: "Mr. Dave Anderson with Andersons, Walter Forgest of South Omaha, Neb., are stopping over a few days in the city on their way to Mexico, Cuba and Florida. Mr. Anderson is a prominent citizen and business man of South Omaha, and until recently owned real estate interests at Harriburg and Alvin. He has spent several winters of late years in Houston and at his Alvin fruit and berry farm.—Thursday's Omaha World-Herald.

—Mrs. Anna E. Coultter, mother of Mrs. W. A. McAllister, died at the home of her daughter Monday evening at 9 o'clock, after an illness of about three years, principally heart trouble. Mrs. Coultter was born Dec. 28, 1829, in Jefferson county, now in West Virginia. She was educated in Mercersburg college, and Latin seminary, the latter a Moravian school, both in Pennsylvania. In her earlier days, she was associated with many of the prominent families, and had in her possession relics of the families of George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and Patrick Henry. Mrs. Coultter, whose maiden name was Cameron, was married Dec. 1852, to Thos. Coultter. In 1874 her husband died and in 1877 she moved from Stanton, Virginia, to Illinois, and from there to Nebraska, in 1881. Mrs. Coultter leaves one son, W. H. Coultter of Monetta, Mo., and one daughter, Mrs. W. A. McAllister of this city, with whom she has made her home for many years. She also has one sister, Mrs. Kingston, of Central City, and two brothers, one in Illinois, and one in Texas. The late Mrs. J. C. Swartz was also a sister. Mrs. Coultter had been a member of the Presbyterian church for about 50 years, and had at all times lived the christian life she had professed. In her many years' residence in this city, she had made a large circle of friends, and lived a most peaceful and happy life with her daughter. The funeral services will probably be held Thursday afternoon from the home, Rev. Becker of the Presbyterian church, officiating.

COMING SOON.

The famous "Merry Minister Co" will appear at North's opera house next Monday evening, presenting for the first time in our city that hilariously funny comedy "A Merry Minister." It is one of the best, brightest and cleanest farce comedies ever written. A farce with a plot, the usual "rot" found in the so-called farce comedies of today, but pure, wholesome fun. "Constantly they are at a jaw!" You will find everything in "A Merry Minister" consistent, with a laugh in every line, a sure cure for the blues. Opera house Monday, Feb. 17.

—John Dehan, an old resident of Omaha, has recently been in Oklahoma, and comes back with very decided opinions as to that country. "My advice to Nebraska," so he says in the Omaha Bee, "is, don't sell a Nebraska farm, thinking you can better your condition in Oklahoma." Among other incidents, he has the following: "I suffered more from the cold than there than I ever did in Nebraska. Last Saturday the temperature dropped in two hours from 40 above to zero. One of the stories told, illustrating the climate, is that a farmer from South Dakota bought a yoke of oxen and started for his ranch. On the way one ox was overcome by the heat and died. While the farmer was skinning him the weather changed and the other ox froze to death."

—Mrs. John Deegan died at the family residence this city, Wednesday, February 8, at 10 o'clock a. m., of heart trouble. She was born in Ireland, and at about ten years of age, came to this country in 1854, the family living near Burlington, Ill., moving from there to Durango, Wisconsin, in 1861. In 1871, she was married to John Deegan, and in 1875 they moved to Platte county. She leaves one brother, living in St. Joseph, Mo., her husband, three sons and three daughters. She had always enjoyed good health during the twenty-seven years of her residence on Shell creek near Platte Center. The sudden death came as a shock to Mrs. Deegan's friends, who sympathize with the husband and children in their sore affliction. Two daughters from Red Lodge, Montana, arrived Saturday. Funeral services were held Sunday at 1:30 at the Catholic church.

—James C. Lantrive, a former resident of this city and an employee of the Union Pacific a number of years, afterwards conducting the Meridian hotel in this city, and about four years ago moving to Genoa, died at a hospital in Omaha Wednesday last. The body was brought here Saturday for burial. Rev. D. J. Becker of the Presbyterian church conducting a brief service at the grave. Mr. Lantrive was about 42 years old and leaves a widow. Saturday's World-Herald of Omaha contained the following reference: Funeral services for James C. Lantrive were held at 7:30 this morning at the home of his brother, E. H. Lantrive, 2301 South Twenty-sixth street, the Rev. Perry A. Sharpe conducting the service. The remains were then taken to Columbus, the former home of Mr. Lantrive, for burial. Mr. Lantrive leaves a wife, an aged mother and many friends who grieve his death in the prime of an active and useful life.

ness in the city of York. The ordinance provides that the charge for business telephones is not to exceed $2 a month and for residences $1 a month. The representative of the Plattsmouth Independent Telephone company promised to build the exchange here by July 1 and that it will put in a switchboard to accommodate at least 400 subscribers. It is understood this independent company has arranged with the Farmer Telephone company of York county and other independent telephone companies by which subscribers can talk to several of the outside towns and a large number of the farmers who already have and are using 'phones. It is believed the Nebraska Telephone company will meet the rate charged by the independent lines and perhaps go lower."
