It is said, how truthfully we know not, that there are thousands of villages and hundreds of small towns without a doctor within ten miles. Most people in respect to this, are from Missouri.

Arnold Gerber and Thomas Schlecht left Monday for Spokane, Washington, to make their home. They were accompanied by Henry Alder of Fairbury, who, some ten years ago, also lived near Dunbar.

Plant trees in abundance, more and more. Nebraska has acquired the habit of planting more trees than she cuts down. Keep it up until we have trees of our own, for all our own needs, and some to spare.

Joseph Mahaffey has gone to Fullerton to accept a position with the News-Journal of that place. His acquaintances here will always be glad to hear of his welfare. He has been with the Telegram here.

Albert Stenger purchased at the sale the other day, the quarter section northeast of the city known as the Barren farm, paying $5,200 for the same. One of the highest bids, made for speculative purposes was $5,800.

What has become of the old-fashioned boy who used to attend the public school, and after receiving a deserved thrashing by his teacher would invariably get the dose repeated with interest upon his arrival at home?

What will it profit a pretty young girl to get a new spring hat that makes her look like thirty cents or less? To avoid such a fate, she should get her "treatment" from Mrs. Jay, Thirtieth street. Opening Tuesday to Saturday.

Albert Stenger has recently made a wing addition to his dwelling-house at the farm east of the city. We believe it is safe to say, at least for this section of the country, that on the farm more improvements have been made than for a number of years.

Louis Schreiber, at his place on Olive street, has for sale the Haggood-Hamock Disco Gang, the best in the market. Among the guarantees on this implement are these: against wear or breakage for twelve months; to cut a furrow three inches wide, to eight inches deep, with one-third to one-half less draft, and to do better work than any other disc or mould-board plow on earth.

Mary had a little call the used to leave most dear; that she and her little boy.

Bowman a great, big animal that walked about the back yard and looked on eating more hay and corn fodder than Mary could afford to pay for; so Mary sold the fat stock.

The butcher paid her well.

And now she wears a new silk dress. That looks on her quite well.

Mayfield in St. Joe News.

Now is the time to fertilize your lawns and house plants. The best fertilizer is the ground bone, on sale at Duffy's feed store. Telephone 32.

Plant apple trees. Be sure you get good varieties, and from reliable nursery men. A number of Platte county farmers picked large, red apples last season from trees of their own planting but a few years ago.

Ideals, the new Nebraska magazine which is to be published in Albion, will make its first appearance about April 1st. The magazine will be on sale at Shaw's book-store. We shall be glad to speak a good future for the enterprising publisher.

We have seen bushels of walnuts gathered in Nebraska. To be sure the tree has not the marvellously quick growth that it has in some places, but it pays well for the planting and for the little room that it takes, here and there in a rich spot of ground.

Company K will elect non-commissioned officers on Thursday evening, this week. On Thursday evening of next week they will give a public prize drill for a gold medal. This will be an individual drill and the medal will be given to the best drilled soldier.

Mrs. Young has a slight attack of smallpox; her daughter, Miss Ruby, is reported as being more seriously afflicted, but not at all dangerous. The premises had been quarantined some days ago because of Mrs. Young's son Ray, who is recovering very nicely.

Dr. Geer was at Cedar Rapids Monday last week on a professional visit.

Buds on the fruit trees were not damaged by the recent cold spell.

S. S. Hadley's brother, Henry, died March 16, at his home in Chicago, of paralysis. He was 62 years old. Cedar Rapids Outlook.

Carl Hohen has declined the nomination for city treasurer on the democratic-populist ticket, and the committee have left the place vacant. Hon. J. M. Goudring declined to make the race for councilman from the Third ward, and Charles Stillman has been named by the committee.

William Becker has concluded to accept the nomination for city clerk, the republican committee have left their ticket vacant in that respect so that Mr. Becker's election is assured. The same is the case with the candidacy of Bert J. Galley for city treasurer, he having no opposition.

Benjamin Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Davis, who is now employed in Lincoln, was married last Thursday evening to Miss Florence Ethel Dutton of Plattsmouth. Ben. is worthy of a good helpmate and THE JOURNAL with the many friends of the groom, extend congratulations.

The best success we ever had planting fruit trees was when we got them from the nursery a cloudy afternoon and planted them the next day, following good instructions, to dig good-sized holes, putting the top soil, properly moistened, at the bottom among the roots, and placing the subsoil at the surface.

$45 California and return. Tickets on sale: April 21 to 27; May 27 to June 8; August 2 to 8; Liberal stopover arrangements and return limits. For additional information call the nearest agent, Burlington route or write for a California folder to J. Francis, general passenger agent, Burlington route, Omaha, Neb.

The bodies of the two women drowned at Schuyler Tuesday of last week, have not been recovered. Madison Fleck, the driver of the team going into Schuyler, is about 22 years old, and his father is engaged in the livery business at Schuyler. He has been arrested, charged with the crime. "Public sentiment," says the Schuyler Quill, "is quite strong against him, and it is said that he had been known on the day of the drowning, he might have been strung up."

A very peculiar mishap occurred to Dennis Hagan yesterday. He was attempting to come work in his barn and in stooping over a straw was thrust violently up his nose. The result was a severe hemorrhage which required several hours time and the skill of a physician to check. F. G. Gilmore, the originator of the Signal, now proprietor of the Argus at Campbell, Neb., lost his entire newspaper plant, also his residence and household goods, in last Sunday's fire. Platte Central Signal.

Mrs. John H. Lawson died at her home in this county March 13 at the age of 44 years, 9 months and 3 days. The funeral was held at the Friends' church, Rev. Pierce conducting the services, with interment in the Friends' cemetery beside her three children who had gone on before. She was a true, lovable Christian woman, an affectionate wife and kind mother, and in her death she leaves a husband, nine children and a step daughter to mourn her loss. The youngest child is a son born only a few hours before her death. Genes Leader.

One of the good features about Columbus is that, heretofore at least, the country has been ahead of the town. This city has been one of the business centers from which have radiated the forces that help strengthen a country, improve it, and make it fit for the homes of intelligent people. So is every good and normal business center, wherever located. It is always proper for a city to develop the natural resources from which it draws its trade, and right here, we judge, is one of the most fruitful of all our lines of endeavor—cultivate to the limit, territory adjacent. Make every acre productive, one way or another. Everything is fitted for some good use. We have schools in plenty, churches, hotels, newspapers; saloons and drug stores galore, but there is many a business that could find a place here with room and opportunity to grow. The outside world is beginning to see this, in fact always has felt in a way that Columbus would amount to something, some time, over since George Francis there called the attention of the country to this being the proper place for the nation's capital.

The debate at Albion last Wednesday evening between pupils of the Columbus high school, John Neumark, Bertha Chapin and Albert Brugger, and representatives of the Albion high school, Verne Liversay, Stanley Brown and Glen Cramer, on the theme: "Resolved, That the United States should establish a system of shipping subsidies," was decided in favor of the Columbus debaters, by a unanimous vote, we are told. The successful debaters contained the negative. The judges were Rev. R. Leaden, Boone; Prof. J. H. Burwell and S. J. Kennedy from St. Edward.

Saturday morning G. A. Schroeder starts for Kansas City, Mo., to be present at the Grand American Handicap from March 31 to April 5, 1909. We have before us the literature of the occasion, which is very lengthy. No gun larger than 12-gauge is allowed, and no gun heavier than 8 pounds. A sterling trophy of the value of $150 will be presented by the Interstate association to the winner of the Grand American Handicap. G. A. is one of the very best shots in this section of Uncle Sam's domain, has a very steady nerve, seemingly more firm and steady as the occasion demands perfect marksmanship.

C. W. Sherman who came here last Saturday from near Sibley, Iowa, is probably the oldest inhabitant Fullerton has ever had. The 10th of October he will round out one century though he looks no older than sixty-five, has a fine memory, gets around pretty well and can see to read the papers. Mr. Sherman attributes his longevity to the care he has taken of his health and the good habits he has always maintained. He has never used tobacco or liquor in any form and was for many years a sailor, so had plenty of fresh air and exercise. Mr. Sherman talks very entertainingly of the places he has visited in his travels and the differences in the mode of living now and ninety years ago. He and his wife will live here in town while his son Oscar and family will move into the Burley property. Fullerton Journal.

Attorney General Prout has ruled that census takers must gather statistics for the bureau of labor, notwithstanding no compensation is provided for the work. The law provides that each year the assessors, when making the assessment of property for taxation must enroll the name of every person over the age of twenty-one and gather figures as to agricultural and other products, manufactures and labor. In the schedules provided this year the population feature has been eliminated thus greatly reducing the work required. The attorney general has given a written opinion on the subject, holding that the gathering of these figures is a part of his regular work and that obedience may be compelled by writ of mandamus. Exchange.

The county supervisors adopted the report of their committee, E. J. Ernst, C. J. Carrig and J. Goetz, who recommended the necessity and propriety of erecting the new building for use as county offices, "on the site now owned and occupied by the county, believing that the present site with all the improvements thereon is the most desirable and its retention as such would result in saving many thousands of dollars to the taxpayers of the county." The proposition, as formulated differs from this somewhat. We suppose that in due time the proposition will be submitted to the voters of Platte county. Since the foregoing was put into type, the proposition to vote bonds for the court house, $65,000, has been formulated. We have not space this week for comment.

Here is another so-called "benefit" association, which has gone to the wall. It seems strange people will invest money with these companies, of which they know nothing, when a home investment association with good standing can assure a good investment. Yet many in this community have done this: "A receiver for the Home Benefit association, a dissolution of the company and a restraining order to prevent the officers or the company from paying out its funds were asked in the circuit court of Kansas City, March 20, by a subscriber to the association. The petition alleged that the association's plan of operation is visionary and its motives dishonest. The association promises to furnish homes on the payment of $5.35 a month on each $1,000, and has hundreds of subscribers."

Born, to Mrs. Lot Bull, a boy and a girl, March 13. Lot will recover. Mrs. Freeman Shaw who lives in Hackberry precinct was taken very sick Monday evening and at this writing (Tuesday) is not expected to live. John Burgess, who lives about six miles west of town, met with a serious, if not fatal accident, while on the road home from Silver Creek last Saturday. He got out on the tongue to fix something about the harness, fell under the horses and was badly trampled. One kidney is very badly injured and he is not improving very much. Joseph Wood died at his home in Schuyler March 15, aged 94 years. When retiring he was in his usual health although feeble. He did not get up at his usual time Sunday morning, and one of the family, on going to his room, found that he had died during the night. There was every indication that he had given up life without a struggle. He had been a resident of Nebraska thirty years. Oconto Record.

For the information of those Platte county farmers and others who are desirous of being in communication with the outside world at a reasonable expense, we reproduce the following telegram to the Omaha Bee, under date of March 21 from Oconto, where similar conditions obtain: "The board of village trustees had a special meeting last night and granted a franchise to the Golden Rod Telephone company of Wahoo, giving it the right to put up poles and string wires in the streets and alleys of the village for the purpose of operating a telephone or telegraph exchange for fifteen years. The company is to furnish the village free of rental charge three telephones and to keep them in order, also to charge patrons not exceeding $1.50 a month for business houses, and but $1 a month for residences, besides a number of other courtesies and advantages extended to customers that they have not enjoyed heretofore. An employee of the telephone company is soliciting subscriptions and has already a large list."

GARDEN SEEDS.

To those who wish to select their spring seeds from fresh stocks, we extend a cordial invitation to inspect our complete line of garden, vegetable and flower seeds. We have them in bulk and packages and they are all fresh. We do not handle field seeds.

SEED POTATOES.

Know what kind of "spuds" the Early Ohio are? The best grower for this locality that has ever been tried. We are getting a carload of 'em from Minnesota, expect them soon, and we advise you to leave your order for seeds at once. No other variety of potato has ever given as good satisfaction to the farmer as this.

GROCERIES.

Every thing in the Grocery department is new and fresh. The Richelieu brand of canned goods is for sale exclusively by us and the name Richelieu has come to mean the highest and purest attainment in canned goods. Not an old thing on our shelves; not a shop-worn article offered for sale, and not a thing but the best obtainable is kept in stock.

C. A. SPEICE.

If the city council should declare that the U. P. stockyards are a nuisance in their present location, and then come the nuisance to be abated, that might settle this freight depot problem. The stockyards grounds would furnish a lovely site for a freight depot. Some people may think that this is an advertisement, paid for by the railroad company, but it isn't. It is simply a happy suggestion, fired at The Telegram by half a hundred good people in Columbus. And we heartily endorse the suggestion, and pass it up to our friends, the aldermen. The foregoing, which we clip from the last Telegram, is one of several suggestions that have been made at different times, as a solution of the problem; another is that the present freight depot be pulled out of Platte street (known as Nebraska avenue), and that the new Union Pacific depot be placed nearly a block west on the Union Pacific's own ground, and fronting east on (but not in) Olive street. This last, we understand, was the original design of the Union Pacific, and would be agreeable to more than "half a hundred good people" in the city. The right of way, we suppose, belongs to the railroad. The streets, we understand, belong to the city.

Vitapathy.
Dr. White, the well known and successful Magnetic Healer, has recently discovered and perfected a new home treatment, which he calls Vitapathy.
